In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on May 16, 2008, applicable to workers of Megtec Systems, Inc., a subsidiary of Sequa Corporation, DePere, Wisconsin. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 29, 2008 (73 FR 30977).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm.

New information shows that a worker separation has occurred involving an employee (Mr. Eugene Barry Lewis) working out of Fayetteville, Georgia, in support of and under the control of Megtec Systems, Inc., a subsidiary of Sequa Corporation, in DePere, Wisconsin.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include an employee in support of the DePere, Wisconsin location of the subject firm working out of Fayetteville, Georgia.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Megtec Systems, Inc., a subsidiary of Sequa Corporation, DePere, Wisconsin who were adversely affected by increased imports of air flotation drying, pollution control and paper handling equipment.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-62,833 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Megtec Systems, Inc., a subsidiary of Sequa Corporation, DePere, Wisconsin (TA-W-62,833), including an employee in support of Megtec Systems, Inc., a subsidiary of Sequa Corporation, DePere, Wisconsin, working out of Fayetteville, Georgia (TA-W-62,833A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 11, 2007, through May 16, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Trimtex Co., Inc., Williamsport, PA; Novtex Division of Trimtex Co., Inc., Adams, MA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on April 24, 2008, applicable to workers of Trimtex Co., Inc., Williamsport, Pennsylvania. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 13, 2008 (73 FR 27560).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of decorative trimmings.

New findings show that worker separations occurred at the Novtex Division of Trimtex Co., Inc., Adams, Massachusetts. Workers at the Adams, Massachusetts facility provide sales, inventory control, product development, design and sourcing and various other activities supporting the production of decorative trimmings that is produced at the Williamsport, Pennsylvania location of the subject firm.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover workers at Novtex Division of Trimtex Co., Inc., Adams, Massachusetts.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Trimtex Co., Inc. who were adversely affected by a shift in production of decorative trimmings to Mexico and China.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,085 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Trimtex Co., Inc., Williamsport, Pennsylvania (TA-W-63,085), and Novtex Division of Trimtex Co., Inc., Adams, Massachusetts (TA-W-63,085A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 24, 2007, through April 24, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Amphenol-TCS a Subsidiary of Amphenol Corporation Including On-Site Temporary Workers From Microtech and Triton Staffing Nashua, NH; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on May 12, 2008, applicable to workers of Amphenol-TCS, a subsidiary of Amphenol Corporation, Nashua, New Hampshire. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 29, 2008 (73 FR 30977).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of electronic connectors and backplane assemblies. The workers are separately identifiable by articles produced.

New information shows that temporary workers from Microtech and Triton Staffing were employed on-site at the Nashua, New Hampshire location of Amphenol-TCS, a subsidiary of Amphenol Corporation. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of the subject firm to be considered temporary workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include temporary workers from Microtech and Triton Staffing working on-site at the Cleveland, Ohio location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at Amphenol-TCS, a subsidiary of Amphenol Corporation who were adversely affected by a shift in production of backplane assemblies to Mexico.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-63,155 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Amphenol-TCS, a subsidiary of Amphenol Corporation, including on-site temporary workers from Microtech and Triton Staffing, engaged in the production of backplane assemblies, Nashua, New Hampshire, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after March 11, 2007, through May 12, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) number and alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA) by (TA-W) number issued during the period of June 16 through June 20, 2008.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Section (a)(2)(A) all of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. The sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely; and

C. Increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

II. Section (a)(2)(B) both of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. There has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to a foreign country of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by such firm or subdivision; and

C. One of the following must be satisfied:

1. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles is a party to a free trade agreement with the United States;

2. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles to a beneficiary country under the Andean Trade Preference Act, African Growth and Opportunity Act, or the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act; or

3. There has been or is likely to be an increase in imports of articles that are like or directly competitive with articles which are or were produced by such firm or subdivision.

Also, in order for an affirmative determination to be made for secondarily affected workers of a firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(b) of the Act must be met.

(1) Significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) The workers' firm (or subdivision) is a supplier or downstream producer to a firm (or subdivision) that employed a group of workers who received a certification of eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance benefits and such supply or production is related to the article that was the basis for such certification; and

(3) Either—

(A) The workers' firm is a supplier and the component parts it supplied for the firm (or subdivision) described in paragraph (2) accounted for at least 20 percent of the production or sales of the workers' firm; or

(B) A loss or business by the workers' firm with the firm (or subdivision) described in paragraph (2) contributed importantly to the workers' separation or threat of separation.

In order for the Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA) for older workers, the group eligibility requirements of Section 246(a)(3)(A)(ii) of the Trade Act must be met.

1. Whether a significant number of workers in the workers' firm are 50 years of age or older.

2. Whether the workers in the workers' firm possess skills that are not easily transferable.

3. The competitive conditions within the workers' industry (i.e., conditions within the industry are adverse).
