

Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on February 27, 2008, applicable to workers of Visteon Systems LLC, Bedford Plant, a subsidiary of Visteon Corporation, including on-site leased workers from Securitas, Bedford, Indiana. The notice was published in the Federal Register on March 11, 2008 (73 FR 13017). The certification was amended on June 20, 2008 to include leased workers from Bedford Logistics, Inc. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 27, 2008 (73 FR 36574).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of automotive components (i.e., fuel delivery modules, wiper reservoirs and canister vent valves).

New information shows that leased workers from Ciber, Inc. were employed on-site at the Bedford, Indiana facility of Visteon Systems LLC, Bedford Plant.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include leased workers from Ciber, Inc. working on-site at the Bedford, Indiana location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at Visteon Systems LLC, Bedford Plant, a subsidiary of Visteon Corporation who were adversely affected by increased imports of Automotive components (i.e., fuel delivery modules, wiper reservoirs, and canister vent valves).

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-62,626 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Visteon Systems LLC, Bedford Plant, a subsidiary of Visteon Corporation, including on-site leased workers from Securitas and Ciber, Inc. and including leased workers from Bedford Logistics in support of Visteon Systems LLC, Bedford Plant, a subsidiary of Visteon Corporation, Bedford, Indiana, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 21, 2008, through February 27, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 17th day of July 2008.

Elliott S. Kushner,

Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Eaton Aviation Corporation, Aviation and Aerospace Components, Including On-Site Leased Workers From Aorist Enterprises, Inc., Aurora, CO; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on May 1, 2007, applicable to workers of Eaton Aviation Corporation, Aviation and Aerospace Components, Aurora, Colorado. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 17, 2007 (72 FR 27854).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of aviation and aerospace parts and components.

New information shows that leased workers from Aorist Enterprises, Inc. were employed on-site at the Aurora, Colorado location of Eaton Aviation Corporation, Aviation and Aerospace Components. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of the subject firm to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include leased workers from Aorist Enterprises, Inc. working on-site at the Aurora, Colorado location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at Eaton Aviation Corporation, Aviation and Aerospace Components who were adversely affected by a shift in production of aviation and aerospace parts and components to Mexico.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-60,965 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers producing aviation and aerospace parts and components at Eaton Aviation Corporation, Aurora, Colorado, or engaged in the support of such production including on-site leased workers of Aorist Enterprises, Inc. (TA-W-60,965), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 13, 2006, through May 1, 2009, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 15th day of July 2008.

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) number and alternative trade adjustment assistance (ATAA) by (TA-W) number issued during the period of July 7 through July 11, 2008.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Section (a)(2)(A) all of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. The sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely; and

C. Increased imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have contributed importantly to such workers' separation or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

II. Section (a)(2)(B) both of the following must be satisfied:

A. A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision of the firm, have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

B. There has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to a foreign country of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by such firm or subdivision; and

C. One of the following must be satisfied:

1. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles is a party to a free trade agreement with the United States;

2. The country to which the workers' firm has shifted production of the articles to a beneficiary country under the Andean Trade Preference Act, African Growth and Opportunity Act, or the Caribbean Basin Economic Recovery Act; or

3. There has been or is likely to be an increase in imports of articles that are like or directly competitive with articles which are or were produced by such firm or subdivision.

Also, in order for an affirmative determination to be made for secondarily affected workers of a firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of section 222(b) of the Act must be met.

(1) Significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm or an appropriate subdivision of the firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) The workers' firm (or subdivision) is a supplier or downstream producer to a firm (or subdivision) that employed a group of workers who received a certification of eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance benefits and such supply or production is related to the article that was the basis for such certification; and

(3) Either—

(A) The workers' firm is a supplier and the component parts it supplied for the firm (or subdivision) described in paragraph (2) accounted for at least 20 percent of the production or sales of the workers' firm; or

(B) A loss or business by the workers' firm with the firm (or subdivision) described in paragraph (2) contributed importantly to the workers' separation or threat of separation.

In order for the Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance to issue a certification of eligibility to apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance (ATAA) for older workers, the group eligibility requirements of section 246(a)(3)(A)(ii) of the Trade Act must be met.

1. Whether a significant number of workers in the workers' firm are 50 years of age or older.

2. Whether the workers in the workers' firm possess skills that are not easily transferable.

3. The competitive conditions within the workers' industry (i.e., conditions within the industry are adverse).
