or at the mailing address above. Persons requiring a sign language interpreter or other special accommodations should notify Mrs. Thomas-Sharp by September 17, 2008.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The NACMCF was established in 1988, in response to a recommendation of the National Academy of Sciences for an interagency approach to microbiological criteria for foods, and in response to a recommendation of the U.S. House of Representatives Committee on Appropriations, as expressed in the Rural Development, Agriculture, and Related Agencies Appropriation Bill for fiscal year 1988. The charter for the NACMCF is available for viewing on the FSIS Internet Web page at http://www.fsis.usda.gov/About/NACMCF_Charter/.

The NACMCF provides scientific advice and recommendations to the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of Health and Human Services on public health issues relative to the safety and wholesomeness of the U.S. food supply, including development of microbiological criteria and review and evaluation of epidemiological and risk assessment data and methodologies for assessing microbiological hazards in foods. The Committee also provides scientific advice and recommendations to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Departments of Commerce and Defense.

Dr. H. Scott Hurd, Deputy Under Secretary for Food Safety, U.S. Department of Agriculture, is the Committee Chair; Dr. Stephen Sundlof, Director of the Food and Drug Administration's Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition (CFSAN), is the Vice-Chair; and Gerri Ransom, FSIS, is the Executive Secretary.

- At the subcommittee meetings the week of September 22-25, 2008 the groups will discuss:

- Parameters for inoculated-pack challenge study protocols, and
- Determination of the most appropriate technologies for the FSIS to adopt in performing routine and baseline microbiological analyses.

Documents Reviewed by NACMCF

FSIS intends to make available to the public all materials that are reviewed and considered by NACMCF regarding its deliberations. Generally, these materials will be made available as soon as possible after the full Committee meeting. Further, FSIS intends to make these materials available in electronic format on the FSIS Web page, as well as in hard copy format in the FSIS Docket Room. Often, an attempt is made to make the materials available at the start of the full Committee meeting when sufficient time is allowed in advance to do so.

Disclaimer: NACMCF documents and comments posted on the FSIS Web site are electronic conversions from a variety of source formats. In some cases, document conversion may result in character translation or formatting errors. The original document is the official, legal copy.

In order to meet the electronic and information technology accessibility standards in Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act, NACMCF may add alternate text descriptors for non-text elements (graphs, charts, tables, multimedia, etc.). These modifications only affect the online copies of the documents.

Copyrighted documents will not be posted on the FSIS Web site, but will be available for inspection in the FSIS Docket Room.

Additional Public Notification

Public awareness of all segments of rulemaking and policy development is important. Consequently, in an effort to ensure that minorities, women, and persons with disabilities are aware of this notice, FSIS will announce it online through the FSIS Web page located at http://www.fsis.usda.gov/regulations/2008_Notices_Index/. FSIS will also make copies of this Federal Register publication available through the FSIS Constituent Update, which is used to provide information regarding FSIS policies, procedures, regulations, Federal Register notices, FSIS public meetings, and other types of information that could affect or would be of interest to constituents and stakeholders. The Update is communicated via Listserv, a free electronic mail subscription service for industry, trade groups, consumer interest groups, health professionals, and other individuals who have asked to be included. The Update is also available on the FSIS Web page. Through the Listserv and Web page, FSIS is able to provide information to a much broader and more diverse audience. In addition, FSIS offers an e-mail subscription service which provides automatic and customized access to selected food safety news and information. This service is available at http://www.fsis.usda.gov/news_and_events/email_subscription/. Options range from recalls to export information to regulations, directives and notices. Customers can add or delete subscriptions themselves, and they have the option to password protect their accounts.

COMMITTEE FOR PURCHASE FROM PEOPLE WHO ARE BLIND OR SEVERELY DISABLED

Procurement List; Additions

AGENCY: Committee for Purchase From People Who Are Blind or Severely Disabled.

ACTION: Additions to the Procurement List.

SUMMARY: This action adds to the Procurement List products and services to be furnished by nonprofit agencies employing persons who are blind or have other severe disabilities.

DATES: Effective Date: September 21, 2008.

ADDRESSES: Committee for Purchase From People Who Are Blind or Severely Disabled, Jefferson Plaza 2, Suite 10800, 1421 Jefferson Davis Highway, Arlington, Virginia 22202-3259.

Additions

On June 20 and June 27, 2008, the Committee for Purchase From People Who Are Blind or Severely Disabled published notice (73 FR35118; 35119; 36492) of proposed additions to the Procurement List.

The following comments pertain to Bulletin Rails; Bulletin Board; and Marker Board, Wall Mounted:

Comments were received from a contractor that provides some of the same commodities and is an authorized distributor of AbilityOne products. The contractor stated that adding the proposed products to the Procurement List will have a significantly adverse effect on her company. However, the contractor did not demonstrate that her firm holds a contract specifically for the proposed products versus holding a multiple award contract for a broad category of products such as office supplies. The Committee determined that its action will not have a severe adverse impact on this contractor, as the company continues to be able to do business with the government and may sell the AbilityOne products in lieu of commercial equivalents to its federal customers.

Comments were received from a manufacturer's representative group, stating that the addition of the proposed products to the Procurement List will have significant impact on her business and a substantial number of small entities who can no longer sell commercial equivalent products to federal customers. The commenter stated that companies are struggling to survive in the current economy without having to compete with AbilityOne. The commenter questioned whether the products would in fact be produced with 75% direct labor from people who are blind and whether the products would be compliant with the Trade Agreements Act (TAA).

The commenter did not support the claim that there was significant impact on her business with specific contract or financial information. As stated above, large and small office supply dealers will continue to be able to do business with the government if they become authorized to sell the AbilityOne manufactured products in the place of commercial equivalents. In addition, the AbilityOne Program pertains to federal purchasing, which is a small share of the U.S. market for office supplies. The nonprofit agency designated to manufacture the proposed products is in full compliance with Committee regulations for direct labor by people who are blind, and proposes to manufacture the subject items with 81% direct labor provided by people who are blind, creating over 10 new jobs annually for these individuals. The production will include several cutting functions, assembling, attaching/ including hardware and packaging the products, constituting a substantial transformation. The resulting products, once added to the Procurement List, will be compliant with the TAA.

The following comment pertains to Stapler, Spring Power:

A comment was received from an AbilityOne nonprofit agency employing persons with severe disabilities that currently supplies staplers under the AbilityOne Program to Federal customers. In its comment, the nonprofit stated that the addition of the spring powered staplers would have a significant negative impact on its current line of staplers and indicated that the spring powered staplers should be awarded to them as a product line extension.

The Javits-Wagner-O'Day (JWOD) Act establishes a clear priority for products produced and offered for sale by qualified nonprofit agencies for the
