AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Privacy Act of 1974, System of Records

AGENCY: United States Agency for International Development.

ACTION: Notice of new system of records.

SUMMARY: The United States Agency for International Development (USAID) is issuing public notice of its intent to establish a new system of records maintained in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), as amended, entitled "USAID-028, Personnel Locator Systems." This action is necessary to meet the requirements of the Privacy Act to publish in the Federal Register notice of the existence and character of record systems maintained by the agency (5 U.S.C. 522a(e)(4)).

DATES: Public comments must be received on or before October 10, 2008. Unless comments are received that would require a revision, this update to the system of records will become effective on October 20, 2008.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments:

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: For general questions please contact, Rhonda Turnbow, Deputy Chief Privacy Officer (202) 712-0106.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Personnel Locator System is being established as an Agency-wide system of record to cover all USAID locator systems. USAID Offices, Bureaus, Missions, or Teams, that desire to collect, maintain or store personnel data under the scope of this system of record will be required to undergo a compliance review and register their system with the USAID Privacy Office.

The system is being established to collect and maintain USAID organizational information, emergency contact information and professional biographical information. The Personnel Locator System will enable USAID to quickly access information required to reach individuals in the event of an urgent situation, conduct continuity of operations planning exercises, and identify individuals with specialized areas of expertise to facilitate professional contacts.

Dated: August 21, 2008.

W. Philip Gordon, Jr.,
Acting Chief Privacy Officer.
