American Indian Population and Labor Force Report

AGENCY: Bureau of Indian Affairs, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of proposed renewal of a current information collection; comment request.

SUMMARY: The Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs (AS–IA) is seeking comments on the American Indian Population and Labor Force Report as we prepare to reinstate the collection as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The Indian Employment, Training and Related Services Demonstration Act (Act) of 1992 requires the Secretary to develop, maintain and publish, not less than biennially, a report on the population by tribe and sex and availability for work.

DATES: Submit comments on or before November 17, 2008.

ADDRESSES: Your comments and suggestions on the requirements should be made directly to Lynn Forcia, Division Chief, Division of Workforce Development, Office of Indian Energy and Economic Development, Office of the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior, 1951 Constitution Avenue, Mail Stop 20–SIB, Washington, DC 20245; Telephone (202) 219–0740, Facsimile (202) 208–4564, E-mail Lynn.Forcia@BIA.GOV.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: You may request further information or obtain copies of the proposed information collection request from Lynn Forcia, as identified in the ADDRESSES section.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The collection of this information is mandated by Congress by Public Law 102–477 Indian Employment, Training and Related Services Demonstration Act (Act) of 1992, Section 17a. The Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs (AS–IA) is submitting the information collection for reinstatement. The information is used by interested parties such as tribal governments for the purpose of designing, planning and developing programs, for American Indians. This information is used to predict and identify the level of need for American Indians and Alaska Natives as well as the availability of tribal members and resources of the tribal government. It will take tribal representatives an estimated eight hours to complete the survey.

The Office of Indian Energy and Economic Development consulted with 5 of the 562 federally recognized tribal entities, ranging in membership less than 5,000 members to more than 250,000 members. The estimated time it took each tribe to respond to the biennial report was between one hour and four days, depending on the resources of the tribal government. It will take tribal representatives an estimated eight hours to complete the survey.

Number of Respondents: 562.

Estimated Time per Response: 8 hours.

Frequency of Responses: Biennially.

Total Annual Burden to Respondents: 5,000 hours biennially.

Total Annual Cost to Respondents: N/A.
