The certification was amended on July 22, 2008 to show that NothelferGilman, Incorporated is currently known as ThyssenKrupp Drauz Nothelfer NA and to include on-site leased workers. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 30, 2008 (73 FR 44282).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of assembly and welding systems.

Mr. Paul D'Angelo provided business development services directly for the production of assembly and welding systems at the Janesville, Wisconsin location of the subject firm. The Department has determined that Mr. Paul D'Angelo was sufficiently under the control of the Janesville, Wisconsin location to be covered under this certification.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include an employee in support of the firm's Janesville, Wisconsin facility located in Auburn Hills, Michigan.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of NothelferGilman, Inc., formerly known as Gilman Engineering and Manufacturing Company, Janesville, Wisconsin who were adversely affect by increased imports of assembly and welding systems.
