Regina Behar Enterprises, Inc.,
Including On-Site Leased Workers
From Alphastaff, Miami Lakes, FL;
Amended Certification Regarding
Eligibility To Apply for Worker
Adjustment Assistance and Alternative
Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on October 21, 2008, applicable to workers of Regina Behar Enterprises, Inc., Miami Lakes, Florida. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 10, 2008 (73 FR 66676).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of men's and women's custom shirts.

New information shows that workers leased from Alphastaff were employed on-site at the Miami Lakes, Florida location of Regina Behar Enterprises, Inc. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of Regina Behar Enterprises, Inc. to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Alphastaff working on-site at the Miami Lakes, Florida location of the subject firm.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers employed at Regina Behar Enterprises, Inc., Miami Lakes, Florida who were adversely affected by increased imports of men's and women's custom shirts.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-64,034 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Regina Behar Enterprises, Inc., including on-site leased workers from Alphastaff, Miami Lakes, Florida, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 8, 2007, through October 21, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 19th day of November 2008.

Casey Tool & Machine Co. Inc., 1550
Douglas Drive and 815 Reasor Road,
Including On-Site Leased Workers
From Weststaff, Charleston, IL;
Amended Certification Regarding
Eligibility To Apply for Worker
Adjustment Assistance and Alternative
Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on October 22, 2008, applicable to workers of Casey Tool & Machine Co. Inc., Charleston, Illinois. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 10, 2008 (73 FR 66676).

At the request of a petitioner, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers of the firm are engaged in the production of residential and commercial lighting.

The Department is amending the certification to clarify that the firm operates at two locations in Charleston, Illinois and utilizes leasing agency staff. The workers at 1550 Douglas Drive provide purchasing and IT support, while workers at 815 Reasor Road are engaged in activities related to the production of commercial lighting. Furthermore, the worker group at Casey Tool & Machine Co. Inc., 815 Reasor Road, Charleston, Illinois, includes on-site leased workers from Weststaff.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-64,151A is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Casey Machine & Tool Co. Inc., 1550 Douglas Drive and 815 Reasor Road, including on-site leased workers from Weststaff, Charleston, Illinois, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 30, 2007 through October 22, 2010, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, and are also eligible to apply for alternative trade adjustment assistance under Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed in Washington, DC, this 20th day of November 2008.

Guardian Automotive, a Subsidiary of Guardian Industries Corporation,
Including On-Site Leased Workers
From Kelly Services and Manpower
Services, LaGrange, GA; Amended
Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment
Assistance and Negative
Determination Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), and Section 246 of the Trade Act of 1974 (26 U.S.C. 2813), as amended, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and a Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Alternative Trade Adjustment Assistance on March 26, 2007, applicable to workers of Guardian Automotive, a subsidiary of Guardian Industries Corporation, including on-site leased workers from Kelly Services, LaGrange, Georgia. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 10, 2007 (72 FR 17936).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of automotive trim.

New information shows that in August 2008, the subject firm switched its on-site leased worker contract from Kelly Services to Manpower Services. The Department has determined that workers leased from Manpower Services were sufficiently under the control of Guardian Automotive, a subsidiary of Guardian Industries Corporation to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Manpower Services working on-site at the LaGrange, Georgia location of the subject firm.
