Section 9421.5(a)(1) requires that applicants (individuals and facilities) for EAC's Federal financial assistance must provide a written assurance that they will comply with the requirements of Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. This assurance must be signed by the applicant and § 9421.5(a)(2) requires the assurance to be submitted to the Commission upon the award of Federal financial assistance. Similarly, § 9421.5(c) requires every application by a State or State agency to contain or be accompanied by a statement that the program will be conducted in compliance with all requirements of 11 CFR part 9421.

11 CFR 9421.5(a)(2)—Written notice to subrecipients. This section requires that the recipient provide each of its subrecipients with written notice of the subrecipient's obligations under this part whenever a recipient passes Federal financial assistance received from EAC to subrecipients.

11 CFR 9421.5(b)—Self-evaluation. This section provides that EAC may require a recipient employing 15 or more employees to complete a written self-evaluation of any race, color, or national origin distinction imposed in its program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance from EAC so that EAC may assess the recipient's compliance with the Act. This self-evaluation will be completed in a manner specified by EAC and will be made available on request to the Commission and the public. The purpose of the self-assessment is to indicate to the recipient any violation of the Act or of part 9421, and if a violation is identified the recipient is required to take corrective action to remedy the violation.

11 CFR 9421.5(b)—Recordkeeping. This section requires that the recipient must retain the self-evaluation for a period of three years following its completion.

11 CFR 9421.6—Discrimination complaints. This section provides that any individual who believes that he or she has been subjected to discrimination prohibited by part 9421 or who believes that a denial of his or her services results in discrimination prohibited by part 9421 may file a written complaint of discrimination with the Diversity

Officer of EAC. Filing a complaint is strictly voluntary.

11 CFR 9421.6(b)(3), (4), and (5)—Agency support for the complaint process. These sections require the EAC to disseminate information regarding the obligations of recipients, and to notify the complainant and the recipient of their rights under the complaint process, including the right to have a representative at all stages of the complaint process; and of their right to contact the Commission for information and assistance regarding the complaint resolution process.

11 CFR 9421.6(e) and (f)—Complaint investigation and resolution. These sections provide that the Diversity Officer will notify the complainant and respondent of the receipt of a complaint; will examine the complaint for completeness and notify the complainant if additional information is needed; and will notify the complainant of the results of the investigation.

11 CFR 9421.6(g)—Appeals. This section requires a complainant to file a written appeal within 90 days of receipt from EAC of a letter that notifies the complainant of the results of the investigation of his or her complaint. This action is voluntary.

11 CFR 9421.7(b)—Recordkeeping. This section requires that each recipient of EAC's Federal financial assistance is required to keep records in a manner and containing information the Commission determines is necessary, make information available to the Commission upon request, and permit reasonable access by the Commission to the books, records, accounts, and other recipient facilities and sources of information. This information may be used by EAC to respond to Congressional inquiries, to assess the effectiveness of the regulations in 11 CFR part 9421, and as input into compliance reviews.

11 CFR 9421.7(c)—Information on protections against discrimination. This section requires each recipient to make available to participants, beneficiaries, and other interested persons information about the provisions of part 9421 and its applicability to the program for which the recipient receives Federal financial assistance.

11 CFR 9421.7(d)—Mediation. The section requires the Agency to refer complaints to the Federal Conciliation and Mediation Service (FCMS) prior to disposition by the EAC Diversity Officer and requires the complainant and the recipient to participate in at least one meeting with a mediator during the mediation process. If an agreement is reached, the complainant and the recipient must sign a written statement of that agreement which will be prepared by the mediator. Third-party respondents include the complainant and the mediator.

11 CFR 9421.8(a)—Investigation and settlement of complaints. This section requires EAC to investigate complaints that are unresolved after mediation or are reopened because of an alleged violation of a mediation agreement. EAC will establish facts through such methods as discussion with the complainant and recipient and the review of documents in the possession of either party. Settlements shall be in writing and signed by the parties and by an authorized EAC official.

11 CFR 9421.8(c)(2)(iii)—Redisbursement of grant funds to an alternate recipient. This section provides that EAC may reimburse discretionary grant funds withheld or terminated under this part directly to an alternate recipient. EAC shall require the alternate recipient to demonstrate the ability to comply with the regulations and the ability to achieve the goals of the Federal statute authorizing the program or activity.
