SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On December 29, 2008, CCC published an interim rule titled “Farm Program Payment Limitation and Payment Eligibility for 2009 and Subsequent Crop, Program, or Fiscal Years” in the Federal Register (73 FR 79267–79284). CCC revised regulations as required by the 2008 Farm Bill (Pub. L. 110–246) to make changes in payment eligibility, payment attribution, maximum income limits, and maximum dollar benefit amounts for participants in CCC-funded programs. The interim rule amended the regulations to ensure that program payments and benefits are issued only to those persons and entities that meet all eligibility requirements, that a program participant does not receive any program payment above the maximum allowable benefit amount, and that applicable payments are not made to anyone whose average adjusted gross income exceeds the maximum dollar amounts established by the 2008 Farm Bill. The interim rule applies to 2009 and subsequent crop, program, or fiscal year benefits for programs subject to the provisions in our regulations.

This reopening and extension of comment period is to give the public more time to provide input and to make recommendations on the interim rule. With this extension, the public may continue to submit comments until April 6, 2009 for this rule spanning the 2009 through 2012 crop years. Crop year 2009 is already in effect and no further comments in regards to crop year 2009 will be accepted after the original January 28, 2009 deadline.

Signed in Washington, DC, on January 28, 2009.

Dennis J. Taitano,

Acting Executive Vice President, Commodity Credit Corporation.
