

Securities Products and Structured Products than would be the case for issuers of operating company equity securities, and (ii) issuers of Derivative Securities Products and Structured Products are much more likely than issuers of operating company securities to effectuate reverse stock splits (one of the most common events giving rise to a technical original listing) in multiple classes of securities at the same time.⁵

The filing also removes from the NYSE Arca Schedule of Fees and Charges a reference to a fee waiver that was applicable only in 2007 and is therefore no longer relevant. Issuers are subject to Annual Fees in the year of listing, pro-rated based on days listed that calendar year. However, for those issuers dually listed on the Exchange and another securities exchange on January 1, 2007 who gave notice by June 30, 2007 to the Exchange of their intention to voluntarily withdraw from listing on the Exchange (and in fact withdraw during 2007), the 2007 annual listing fees were waived (and not subject to prorating). This filing removes text from Footnote 8 to the NYSE Arca Schedule of Fees and Charges which described this waiver, as that text is of no further relevance.

The NYSE Arca Schedule of Fees and Charges can be found on the Exchange's Web site at http://www.nyse.com/pdfs/NYSEArca_Listing_Fees.pdf.

2. Statutory Basis

The bases under the Exchange Act for this proposed rule change are: (i) The requirement under Section 6(b)(4)⁶ that an exchange have rules that provide for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among its members and issuers and other persons using its facilities, and (ii) the requirement under Section 6(b)(5)⁷ of the Exchange Act that an exchange have rules that are designed to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and are not designed to permit unfair discrimination between issuers. The Exchange believes that the proposed technical original listing fee specific to Derivative Securities Products and Structured Products constitutes an equitable allocation of fees, as it will be applied consistently to all listed securities in those classes and is set at a level that is consistent with the Exchange's overall approach to pricing for Derivative Securities Products and Structured Products.

⁵ The Exchange notes that it has listed a significant number of Derivative Securities Products and Structured Products that are leveraged, i.e., whose value changes based on a positive or negative multiple of the performance of an index. The leveraged nature of these products makes it much more likely that they will have an unusually low trading price, which frequently leads an issuer to effectuate a reverse stock split to reprice the security at a more typical trading price. The Exchange has not had this experience yet with leveraged products, but notes that leveraged products have been listed for the first time over the last two years.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Exchange Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

Written comments on the proposed rule change were neither solicited nor received.
