

Pursuant to Rule 214(a)(3) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, any person may seek to intervene and become a party in a proceeding by filing a motion to intervene that complies with the content requirements of Rule 214(b).¹ However, a motion to intervene in the ILP at the pre-application stage is not appropriate. Because PG&E and the District have not yet filed license applications, there are no proceedings in which to intervene and the motions to intervene in Project Nos. 2310-173 and 2266-096 are dismissed as premature. Should PG&E and the District file actual license applications, the Commission will then provide an opportunity for intervention.²

This notice constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing of this notice may be filed within 30 days, pursuant to Rule 713 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.³

Secretary.

Alaskan Northwest Natural Gas Transportation Company; Notice of Effectiveness of Surrender of Certificate and Termination of Proceeding

February 6, 2009.

On December 15, 2008, as supplemented on January 23, 2009, Alaskan Northwest Natural Gas Transportation Company (ANNGTC)¹ submitted a notice that it was surrendering the conditional certificate that the Commission issued to ANNGTC in Docket Nos. CP78-123 and CP80-435, authorizing the construction of the Alaskan pipeline segment of the Alaska Natural Gas Transportation System (ANGTS) and the Alaska Gas

Conditioning Facility.² ANNGTC's partners have concluded that ANNGTC is no longer a viable entity and that ANNGTC cannot feasibly pursue the ANGTS pipeline project conditionally authorized in Docket Nos. CP78-123 and CP80-435.

Because ANNGTC never perfected its conditional certificate and never constructed any facilities or provided any services under the Natural Gas Act (NGA), there are no facilities or services subject to the abandonment provisions of NGA section 7(b), and no abandonment authorization or other Commission action is required. Accordingly, ANNGTC's surrender of the certificate issued in Docket Nos. CP78-123 and CP80-435 is accepted by the Commission and this proceeding is terminated.
