Regulatory Flexibility Act

We certify that this final rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because they affect only individuals. Thus, a regulatory flexibility analysis as provided in the Regulatory Flexibility Act, as amended, is not required.

Paperwork Reduction Act

These proposed rules do not pose any public reporting requirements and are, therefore, not subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act.

report entitled, “Governmentwide Purchase Cards: Actions Needed to Strengthen Internal Controls to Reduce Fraudulent, Improper, and Abusive Purchases.” The report recommended that GSA instruct agencies to remind Government travelers that they must reduce the M&IE claimed on their travel vouchers by the specified amount that GSA allocates when travelers receive Government-paid-for meals at conferences or other events, including continental breakfasts.

While GSA emphasizes prudent management of travel funds, it also recognizes that there are times when a traveler cannot consume a Government-furnished meal due to reasons that either transcend personal choice (such as medical requirements or religious beliefs) and the traveler is unable to make alternative meal arrangements with the conference or event coordinators or due to the conduct of official business. The requirement to deduct the appropriate amount from the travel voucher may not reasonably apply to travelers in such circumstances.

Accordingly, this final rule amends the FTR by:

1. Section 300–3.1—Adding a definition for “Furnished meal.”
2. Section 301–2.5—Adding paragraph (p) requiring specific authorization for an employee to claim the full applicable M&IE allowance due to medical requirements or religious beliefs, despite the fact that meals are furnished to the employee through registration fees or otherwise paid for by the Government.

3. Section 301–11.18—Incorporating the terms “continental breakfast” and “furnished meal” where appropriate, and clarifying under what circumstances agencies may permit employees to claim the full M&IE allowance even though meals are furnished by the Government.

4. Section 301–70.200—Adding paragraph (b) requiring agencies to designate who will determine, and in what instances, an employee may be able to claim the full M&IE allowance even though meals are furnished to the employee by the Government.

B. Executive Order 12866

This is not a significant regulatory action and, therefore, was not subject to review under Section 6(b) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. This final rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 504.

C. Regulatory Flexibility Act

This final rule is not required to be published in the Federal Register for notice and comment, therefore the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., does not apply.

D. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because the changes to the FTR do not impose recordkeeping or information collection requirements, or the collection of information from offerors, contractors, or members of the public that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.

E. Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

This final rule is also exempt from congressional review prescribed under 5 U.S.C. 801 since it relates solely to agency management and personnel.

(p) Due to an employee’s medical requirements or religious beliefs, payment of the full M&IE allowance even though meals are furnished by the Government either directly or through a registration fee or other payment for a conference or other event, in accordance with §301–11.18(b).

6. Revise §301–11.18 to read as follows:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

The GSA’s Office of Governmentwide Policy (OGP) has discovered inconsistency among agencies regarding the calculation of the M&IE rate when an employee’s travel is for more than 12 hours but less than 24 hours, and spans two calendar days.

This final rule clarifies that travelers are to be reimbursed 75 percent of the applicable M&IE rate for both calendar days of travel.

B. Executive Order 12866

This is not a significant regulatory action, and therefore, was not subject to review under Section 6(b) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. This final rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804.

C. Regulatory Flexibility Act

This final rule is not required to be published in the Federal Register for notice and comment, therefore the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., does not apply.

D. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because the final changes to the FTR do not impose recordkeeping or information collection requirements, or the collection of information from offerors, contractors, or members of the public that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.

E. Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

This final rule is also exempt from congressional review prescribed under 5 U.S.C. 801 since it relates to agency management and personnel.
