

Expansion of Global Entry to Certain Citizens of the Netherlands

The United States has entered into an arrangement with the Netherlands concerning Global Entry. Pursuant to this arrangement, CBP is expanding eligibility for the Global Entry pilot. Specifically, citizens of the Netherlands who participate in Privium, an expedited travel program in the Netherlands, will now be able to apply for participation in the Global Entry pilot. In order to participate, these citizens of the Netherlands will be required to complete the on-line application, pay the non-refundable $100 per person applicant processing fee, and satisfy all the requirements of the Global Entry pilot. Based on the terms of the arrangement reached with the Government of the Netherlands, these citizens will be permitted to participate in the Global Entry pilot only upon successful completion of a thorough risk assessment by both U.S. Customs and Border Protection and the Government of the Netherlands.

No person who is inadmissible to the United States under U.S. immigration law is eligible to participate in the Global Entry pilot. Applications from such individuals will automatically be rejected. Applications for the Global Entry pilot may also be rejected if the applicant has ever been convicted of a criminal offense, or the individual has ever been found in violation of the customs or immigration laws of the United States, or of any criminal law. Additionally, no applicant will be accepted for participation in the Global Entry pilot if CBP determines that the individual presents a potential risk for terrorism, criminality or smuggling, or if CBP cannot sufficiently determine that the applicant meets all the program eligibility criteria. CBP will be accepting applications from eligible citizens of the Netherlands beginning April 23, 2009. Additional information on eligibility will be announced at <http://www.globalentry.gov>.

The Netherlands is also a participant in the Visa Waiver Program (VWP). The VWP enables citizens and nationals from participating countries to travel to and enter the United States for business or pleasure purposes for up to 90 days without obtaining a visa.¹ VWP travelers are now required to obtain a travel authorization via ESTA (Electronic System for Travel Authorization) prior to traveling to the United States under the VWP. ESTA is accessible online at <https://esta.cbp.dhs.gov>. The ESTA requirements will continue to be applicable to Global Entry applicants who are VWP travelers. Global Entry applicants from the Netherlands who wish to travel to the United States under the VWP who have not already received a travel authorization via ESTA will be able to do so as part of the Global Entry application and enrollment process. During the Global Entry enrollment and interview phase the applicant will be asked whether he or she is in possession of an ESTA authorization number. If not in possession of an ESTA authorization number, the applicant will be asked questions from which it can be determined whether the applicant is VWP-eligible, and a determination regarding ESTA authorization will be made.

All other aspects of the program as described in the April 11, 2008 notice are still in effect.

U.S. Citizen Participation in Privium

Pursuant to the reciprocal arrangement with the Government of the Netherlands, U.S. citizens who participate in the Global Entry pilot will have the option to also apply for participation in Privium. Privium is an automated border passage system in the Netherlands that provides expedited entry and exit at Amsterdam Airport Schiphol. It uses iris scans to provide quick and secure biometric confirmation of a traveler's identity. Enrollment includes an eligibility assessment by the Dutch border police. Upon a positive determination of eligibility, pictures of each iris are taken and stored on a personalized smart card. Upon entry and exit, Privium members place their Privium smart card into a reader and a passport validity check is performed with the Dutch authorities and valid membership is verified. The individual's iris information is then compared against the iris information stored on the card. This border passage process takes approximately twelve seconds.

Additional fees and information sharing beyond CBP's Global Entry requirements are needed for U.S. citizens who wish to participate in Privium through Global Entry. If approved, U.S. citizens would be able to take advantage of expedited travel into, and out of, the Netherlands at Amsterdam Airport Schiphol. More information about how to apply for Privium membership is available at <http://www.globalentry.gov>.
