SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Title of Collection: Implementation Evaluation of the ADVANCE Program.

OMB Control No.: 3145–NEW.
Expiration Date of Approval: Not applicable.

Abstract

The ADVANCE Program was established by the National Science Foundation in 2001 to address the underrepresentation and inadequate advancement of women on STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) faculties at postsecondary institutions. The evaluation being conducted by the Urban Institute focuses on the implementation of ADVANCE projects at institutions throughout the nation. The three major funding components—institutional transformation, leadership, and partnership awards—as well as all cohorts funded that completed their funding cycles will be included. The study will rely on a thorough review of project documents, telephone interviews with all grantees, and detailed case studies at selected sites. The goal of the evaluation will be to identify models of implementation and, depending on outcomes by model, conduct case studies at selected institutions to understand how ADVANCE models operate and may be effective in differing settings.

Respondents: Faculty and staff at institutions of higher education awarded an ADVANCE grant from NSF.

Estimated Number of Annual Respondents: 200 (total).

Burden on the Public: 200 hours.

Suzanne H. Plimpton,
Reports Clearance Officer, National Science Foundation.

ACTION: Announcement of issuance for public comment, availability.

SUMMARY: The Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) has issued for public comment a document entitled: NUREG/CR–XX, “Criteria for Development of Evacuation Time Estimate Studies.” The Evacuation Time Estimate (ETE) is a calculation of the time to evacuate the plume exposure pathway emergency planning zone (EPZ), an area with a radius of about 10 miles around a nuclear power plant (NPP). The ETE is primarily used to inform protective action decisions during NPP radiological emergencies and may be used to assist in the development of traffic management plans to support an evacuation. This document is an acceptable template for use by NPP licensees to meet NRC requirements for the development of ETE studies. It also provides guidance for the update and review of ETEs. The format and criteria provided in this document will support consistent application of ETE methodology and will facilitate consistent NRC review of ETE studies.

DATES: Comments must be filed no later than 75 days from the date of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Comments received after this date will be considered, if it is practical to do so, but the NRC staff is able to ensure consideration only for comments received on or before this date.

ADDRESSES: NUREG/CR–XX. “Criteria for Development of Evacuation Time Estimate Studies,” is available for inspection and copying for a fee at the NRC Public Document Room, Public File Area O1–F21, 11555 Rockville Pike, Rockville, Maryland. Publicly available documents created or received at the NRC after November 1, 1999, are available electronically at the NRC’s Electronic Reading Room at http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm.html. From this site, the public can gain entry into the NRC’s Agencywide Document Access and Management System (ADAMS), which provides text and image files of NRC’s public documents. The ADAMS Accession number for this NUREG/CR is: ML090560622. If you do not have access to ADAMS or if there are problems in accessing the documents located in ADAMS, contact the NRC Public Document Room (PDR) Reference staff at 1–800–397–4209, 301–415–4737 or by e-mail to pdr.resource@nrc.gov.

Comments will be made available to the public in their entirety; personal information, such as your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, etc., will not be removed from your submission. You may submit comments by any one of the following methods: Federal e-Rulemaking Portal: Go to http://www.regulations.gov; search on Docket ID: NRC–2008–0122. Address questions about NRC dockets to Carol Gallagher 301–492–3668; e-mail carol.gallagher@nrc.gov. Mail comments to: Michael T. Lesar, Chief, Rulemaking and Directives Branch, Office of Administration, Mail Stop: TWB–05–B01M, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555–0001, and cite the publication date and page number of this Federal Register notice.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Frank J. (Jeff) Laughlin, Division of Preparedness and Response, Office of Nuclear Security and Incident Response, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555–0001. Telephone: 301–415–1113, or e-mail at jeff.laughlin@nrc.gov.

NRC is issuing guidance for the development of ETEs that requires licensees to analyze several scenarios that include different directions and distances within the EPZ, across time of day, day of week, adverse and normal weather conditions, and peak population special events. NRC is seeking comment from offsite response organizations as to the type of scenarios to be developed and the adequacy of support for offsite protective action decision-making and evacuation planning efforts.

Dated at Rockville, Maryland, this 6th day of May 2009.

For the Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

Christopher G. Miller,
Deputy Director for Emergency Preparedness, Division of Preparedness and Response, Office of Nuclear Security and Incident Response.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[NUREG–2008–0122]

Draft Regulatory Guide: Issuance, Availability

AGENCY: Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Steven F. LaVie, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555–0001, telephone: (301) 415–1081 or e-mail to Steven.Lavie@nrc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: I. Introduction

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) is issuing for public comment a draft regulatory guide in the agency’s “Regulatory Guide” series. This series was developed to describe and make available to the public such information as methods that are acceptable to the NRC staff for implementing specific parts of the NRC’s regulations, techniques that the staff uses in evaluating specific problems or postulated accidents, and data that the staff needs in its review of applications for permits and licenses. The draft regulatory guide (DG), titled, “Guidance on Making Changes to Emergency Response Plans for Nuclear Power Reactors,” is temporarily identified by its task number, DG–1237, which should be mentioned in all related correspondence. This is a new guide.

The NRC staff’s objectives for Title 10, section 50.54(q), of the Code of Federal Regulations (10 CFR 50.54(q)) are to ensure that licensees (1) Follow and maintain the effectiveness of their approved emergency plans, (2) evaluate proposed changes to these plans for their impact on the effectiveness of the plans, and (3) obtain prior NRC approval for changes that would reduce the effectiveness of the plans. These actions are essential if these plans are to continue to provide reasonable assurance that adequate protective measures can and will be taken in the event of a radiological emergency. The NRC is proposing changes to 10 CFR 50.54(q) based on lessons learned from operating experience and at the direction of the Commission. The purpose of this draft guide is to provide guidance on the implementation of proposed revision of 10 CFR 50.54(q) with respect to making changes to emergency response plans. The
