Removing References to Filing Locations and Obsolete References to Legacy Immigration and Naturalization Service; Adding a Provision To Facilitate the Expansion of the Use of Approved Electronic Equivalents of Paper Forms

AGENCY: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, DHS.

ACTION: Interim rule with request for comments.

SUMMARY: This rule amends Department of Homeland Security (DHS) regulations by eliminating certain references to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) organizational structure and removing all references in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) to INS and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) Offices. This rule also removes all references in the CFR to filing locations, so that USCIS may provide such information on petition and application forms and through any other means. In addition, this rule adds a definition of the term "form" to the CFR, which will facilitate the expansion of the use of approved electronic equivalents of USCIS paper forms; this will support USCIS' transition from a paper-based filing and processing environment to an electronic one.

Overall, the rule is intended to eliminate confusion and certain obsolete references to the INS organizational structure from USCIS regulations, help the public determine where to file forms with USCIS, create a more efficient and streamlined process for future changes to filing instructions, and allow the component to better manage its workload through, among other things, affording greater flexibility to accept and process applications and petitions in an electronic environment.

II. Background

A. What effect does this rule have?

This interim rule eliminates certain references to the organizational structure of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), which was abolished on March 1, 2003, pursuant to the Homeland Security Act of 2002, Public Law 107-609 (November 22, 2002), 116 Stat. 2135. The Secretary of Homeland Security has approved the organizational structure of each new component pursuant to 8 CFR 2.1, which provides that the Secretary may delegate authority and functions by regulation, directive, memorandum, or other means as deemed appropriate. Eliminating references to the organizational structure of INS is necessary, because U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is modifying aspects of the command and control structure that was temporarily retained from the INS field management structure. These changes to the regulations will not affect the locations of USCIS local offices or other sites.

This interim rule also removes from the regulations all instructions regarding the filing locations for petitions and applications. These regulatory provisions are unnecessary and restrict USCIS' ability to vary petition and application filing locations as necessary to address fluctuations in the volume of applications, shifting workload needs, and benefits processing modifications. Removing these regulatory provisions will allow USCIS to better utilize its resources and serve its customers. Filing locations and procedures will still be available on USCIS forms and the USCIS Web site. Customers may also call the USCIS '800-number' customer service line for information on where to submit their documents, or simply call the agency listing in the government resources pages of their local telephone directory. This change does not affect any evidentiary requirement or substantive eligibility requirement for a particular benefit.

This interim rule removes current geographic jurisdictional service boundaries. This change will allow USCIS the flexibility to manage workloads and facilitate interaction with, and services to, the public. For those few applications and petitions that are currently filed at USCIS local offices, customers will be able to file these specific forms at the office closest to them. Regarding services that require an alien to make an appearance at a USCIS office, by removing the geographic parameters on the office with jurisdiction for adjudicating specific immigration or naturalization benefits, USCIS will have the flexibility to offer interviews and other services at different offices in the area based on the ability to schedule appointments most effectively. See 8 CFR 103.2(b)(9).

The rule adds a definition of the term "Form" to 8 CFR part 1. USCIS has added this definition to clarify that references to the term "form" and to form numbers throughout USCIS regulations are now intended to encompass both the traditional paper form and all approved electronic equivalents used for on-line filing with USCIS or other similar purposes.

Finally, the rule amends 8 CFR 100.4 to remove all references to INS and USCIS Offices. However, this rule does not alter the regulations in paragraphs (c)(2) for ports of entry for aliens arriving by vessel or by land transportation or (c)(3) for the method of identifying ports-of-entry for aliens arriving by aircraft. The designation of ports of entry is within the authority of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and generally governed by 19 CFR 101.3. Maintenance of the current erroneous references to District Offices in 8 CFR 101.3 will have no legal effect on the distribution of workload or acceptance applications by USCIS. CBP has indicated that they may amend how 8 CFR part 100 references ports of entry, and classes of ports of entry, and will remove references to the INS district in which they are located in a future rulemaking.

B. Why is USCIS issuing this rule?

This rule is necessary to remove references to USCIS office locations and geographical jurisdictions from the Code of Federal Regulations. USCIS will provide information regarding the proper locations on the filing instructions on the respective USCIS forms. As USCIS workload has increased and as USCIS has managed that workload to eliminate processing backlogs of petitions and applications for immigration benefits, it has become clear that the agency on occasion needs to redistribute work within its adjudicative resources. Changing the applicable regulations each time a workload redistribution occurs is a lengthy process and an inefficient management tool. The ability to make changes to filing instructions to reflect a redistribution of workload will enable USCIS to efficiently reallocate its adjudications resources. Thus, this interim rule is intended to enhance USCIS' ability to provide updated, clear information, and to increase its administrative flexibility to adapt to changing situations. Information about the agency's organizational structure, where to file an application or petition, and where and how individuals can seek services or assistance from USCIS will continue to be widely available.

This rule is also necessary to assist the agency in transforming its business environment from a paper-based petition and application process to an electronic environment. This major change effort is referred to as the USCIS Transformation Initiative. This regulation is the first in a series to be published to implement this initiative. As the USCIS Transformation Initiative progresses, USCIS expects that electronic versions of forms and digital images of supporting documents will largely replace paper forms and documents for filing, adjudication, and records retention purposes.

III. Regulatory Requirements

A. Administrative Procedure Act

This interim rule will not change the eligibility rules governing any immigration benefit. It will not confer rights or obligations upon any party.

USCIS expects that this rule will further the public's interest in receiving clear instruction on where and in what format to file applications and petitions for immigration benefits. Accordingly, USCIS has determined that the public notice and comment requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), 5 U.S.C. 553(b), do not apply because the rule is procedural in nature and does not alter the substantive rights of the affected parties. Therefore, this rule satisfies the exemption from notice and comment rulemaking in 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A). USCIS nevertheless invites comments on this rule and will consider all timely comments in the preparation of a final rule.

B. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA) (5 U.S.C. 603(b)), as amended by the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement and Fairness Act of 1996 (SBREFA), requires an agency to prepare and make available to the public a regulatory flexibility analysis that describes the effect of a proposed rule on small entities (i.e., small businesses, small organizations, and small governmental jurisdictions) when the agency is required "to publish a general notice of proposed rulemaking for any proposed rule." Because this rule is being issued as an interim rule, on the grounds set forth above, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required under the RFA.

C. Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995

This rule will not result in the expenditure by State, local and Tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more in any one year, and will not significantly or uniquely affect small governments. Therefore, no actions were deemed necessary under the provisions of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995.

D. Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996

This rule is not a major rule as defined by section 804 of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996. It will not result in an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more; a major increase in costs or prices; or significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or on the ability of United States-based companies to compete with foreign-based companies in domestic and export markets.

E. Executive Order 12866

This proposed rule is not a “significant regulatory action” under section 3(f) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, and does not require an assessment of potential costs and benefits under section 6(a)(3) of that Order. The Office of Management and Budget has not reviewed it under that Order.

F. Executive Order 13132

This rule will not have substantial direct effects on the States, on the relationship between the National Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. Therefore, in accordance with section 6 of Executive Order 13132, it is determined that this rule does not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a federalism summary impact statement.

G. Executive Order 12988 Civil Justice Reform

This rule meets the applicable standards set forth in sections 3(a) and 3(b)(2) of Executive Order 12988.

H. Paperwork Reduction Act

Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, Public Law 104–13, all Departments are required to submit to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), for review and approval, any reporting and recordkeeping requirements inherent in a rule. This rule does not impose any new reporting or recordkeeping requirements under the Paperwork Reduction Act.
