SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-60035; File No. SR-FINRA-2009-034]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc.; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change To Extend FINRA's Authority Under the Cease and Desist Pilot Program

June 3, 2009.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")<sup>1</sup> and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,<sup>2</sup> notice is hereby given that on May 18, 2009, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC" or "Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by FINRA. FINRA has designated the proposed rule change as constituting a "non-controversial" rule change under paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 under the Act,<sup>3</sup> which renders the proposal effective upon receipt of this filing by the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

FINRA is proposing to extend FINRA's authority under its cease and desist pilot program, as further detailed herein, and to make certain technical amendments. The proposed rule change does not propose any substantive changes to the existing cease and desist authority pilot program.

The text of the proposed rule change is available on FINRA's Web site at <http://www.finra.org>, at the principal office of FINRA and at the Commission's Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, FINRA included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. FINRA has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

In May 2003, the Commission approved, on a two-year pilot basis, a rule change that gave FINRA authority to issue temporary cease and desist orders ("TCDOs")<sup>4</sup> and made explicit FINRA's ability to impose permanent cease and desist orders as a remedy in disciplinary cases.<sup>5</sup> The pilot program also gave FINRA authority to enforce cease and desist orders. In June 2005 and June 2007, the SEC approved [sic] two-year extensions of the pilot program.<sup>6</sup> The current two-year pilot expires on June 23, 2009.<sup>7</sup>

In a companion rule filing filed with the SEC on May 18, 2009,<sup>8</sup> FINRA is proposing to make the pilot program permanent without any substantive changes to the terms of the existing program. In the current rule filing, FINRA seeks to extend the pilot until the SEC approves or disapproves the proposal to make the pilot permanent so that the cease and desist authority does not lapse while the proposal is pending at the SEC. The proposed action would enable FINRA to continue to issue TCDOs and impose permanent cease and desist orders as a remedy in <sup>4</sup> A TCDO is a preliminary order issued in connection with an underlying disciplinary proceeding that has been initiated or will be initiated immediately.

<sup>5</sup> See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 47925 (May 23, 2003), 68 FR 33548 (June 4, 2003) (Order Approving File No. SR-NASD-98-80).

disciplinary cases. The proposed action also would give FINRA authority to continue to initiate expedited proceedings when respondents violate temporary or permanent cease and desist orders.

When it first sought cease and desist authority, FINRA stated that it would use the authority sparingly. That has been the case. Since the pilot program was first approved in 2003, FINRA has issued only one TCDO and one permanent cease and desist order (both in the same case, which is described below). If the pilot is extended, the cease and desist rules would continue to be used judiciously. There are times, however, when their use is crucial.

In the one case initiated under the pilot program, FINRA's Department of Enforcement ("Enforcement") alleged that the member in question was engaged in widespread fraud that included, among other things, making material misrepresentations and omissions in connection with the private offering of its own stock, effecting unauthorized transactions and using customer funds improperly.<sup>9</sup> Enforcement showed that not only was the member attempting to continue the fraudulent offering, it also was funneling money and assets to a non-member affiliate. Enforcement alleged, and a hearing panel found, that a TCDO was necessary because the member's continuation of the misconduct was likely to result in further dissipation or conversion of assets and other significant harm to investors before the completion of the underlying disciplinary proceeding. After the hearing panel issued a permanent cease and desist order following a full disciplinary hearing, the parties settled the case, resulting in the expulsion of the member, the bar of its owner and the imposition of almost $12 million in fines and restitution.

The proposed temporary extension of the pilot program will provide FINRA with a mechanism to continue to take appropriate remedial action against a member or an associated person that has engaged (or is engaging) in violative conduct that could cause continuing harm to the investing public if not addressed expeditiously while the SEC is considering FINRA's proposal to permanently adopt the pilot program. It must be emphasized, however, that the cease and desist provisions contain numerous procedural protections for respondents to ensure that the proceedings are fair.

The proposed rule change also would make certain technical amendments to the rule text, namely to correct punctuation in FINRA Rule 9556 and update FINRA Rule 9810 to reflect a change in FINRA style convention when referencing the federal securities laws.

FINRA has filed the proposed rule change to extend FINRA's authority under its cease and desist pilot program for immediate effectiveness. The implementation date will be June 23, 2009. The pilot program will remain in effect until the SEC approves FINRA's proposed rule change to make the pilot permanent<sup>10</sup> and such rule change becomes effective or the SEC disapproves such proposed rule change.

2. Statutory Basis

The proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act,<sup>11</sup> which requires, among other things, that FINRA's rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. The proposed rule change also is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(7) of the Act,<sup>12</sup> which provides that FINRA members, or persons associated with its members, must be appropriately disciplined for violations of any provisions of the Act or FINRA's rules. Extending the pilot program is consistent with FINRA's obligations under the Act because cease and desist orders are designed to stop violative conduct that is likely to cause dissipation or conversion of assets or other significant harm to investors.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

FINRA does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act<sup>13</sup> and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.<sup>14</sup>

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
