SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 500-1]

In the Matter of Sunrise Solar Corporation; Order of Suspension of Trading

June 5, 2009.

It appears to the Securities and Exchange Commission that there is a lack of current and accurate information concerning the securities of Sunrise Solar Corporation ("Sunrise") because of questions regarding the accuracy of statements by Sunrise Solar Corporation in press releases to investors concerning, among other things, the company's business prospects and agreements.

The Commission is of the opinion that the public interest and the protection of investors require a suspension of trading in the securities of Sunrise Solar Corporation.

Therefore, it is ordered, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that trading in the securities of the above-listed company is suspended for the period from 9:30 a.m. EDT June 5, 2009 through 11:59 p.m. EDT, on June 18, 2009.

By the Commission.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In accordance with the requirements of the Federal Advisory Committee Act, 5 U.S.C.—App.1, the Commission is publishing this notice that the Chairman of the Commission, with the concurrence of the other Commissioners, intends to establish the Committee. The Committee's objective is to provide the Commission with the views of a broad spectrum of investors on their priorities concerning the Commission's regulatory agenda.

To achieve the Committee's goals, between 14 and 18 members will be appointed who can represent effectively the varied interests affected by the range of issues to be considered. The Committee's membership may include investors or investor representatives from a broad spectrum of institutions, such as mutual funds, foundations, and pension funds; investors representing different geographical regions; investors of different sizes and investment strategies; and individual investors. The Committee's membership will be fairly balanced in terms of points of view represented and the functions to be performed.

The Committee may be established 15 days after publication of this notice by filing a charter for the Committee with the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs of the United States Senate and the Committee on Financial Services of the United States House of Representatives. A copy of the charter as so filed also will be filed with the Chairman of the Commission, furnished to the Library of Congress, placed in the Public Reference Room at the Commission's headquarters and posted on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. The Committee's objective is to provide the Commission with the views of a broad spectrum of investors on their priorities concerning the Commission's regulatory agenda, including:

- (1) Advising the Commission regarding matters of concern to investors in the securities markets;
- (2) providing the Commission with investors' perspectives on current, non-enforcement, regulatory issues; and
- (3) serving as a source of information and recommendations to the Commission regarding the Commission's regulatory programs from the point of view of investors.

The Committee will operate for two years from the date it is established unless, before the expiration of that time period, its charter is re-established or renewed in accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act or unless the Commission determines that the Committee's continuance is no longer in the public interest.

The Committee will meet at such intervals as are necessary to carry out its functions. The charter will provide that meetings of the full Committee are expected to occur no more frequently than four times per year. Meetings of subgroups or subcommittees of the full Committee may occur more frequently.

The charter will provide that the duties of the Committee are to be solely advisory. The Commission alone will make any determinations of action to be taken and policy to be expressed with respect to matters within the Commission's authority as to which the Committee provides advice or makes recommendations.
