

is appropriate because the purposes they serve are addressed by proposed FINRA Rules 2262 and 2269, other FINRA rules or Commission Rules. The Commission believes that transferring NASD Rule 3340 into the Consolidated FINRA Rulebook as FINRA Rule 5260 will ensure that members are aware that the trading and quoting conduct prohibited by this rule when a trading halt is in effect will continue to be prohibited under the new FINRA rules. The proposed rule change makes non-material changes to NASD rules that have been useful in protecting investors.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,<sup>7</sup> that the proposed rule change, as modified by Amendment No. 1 (SR-FINRA-2009-044) be, and hereby is, approved.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.<sup>8</sup>

Deputy Secretary.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: We are soliciting public comments to permit the Department to:

- Evaluate whether the proposed information collection is necessary to properly perform our functions;
- Evaluate the accuracy of our estimate of the burden of the proposed collection; including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;
- Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected;
- Minimize the reporting burden on those who are to respond.

Abstract of proposed collection: The Application Under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (DS-3013 and DS 3013-s) is used by parents or legal guardians who are asking the State Department's assistance in seeking the return of, or access to, a child or children alleged to be wrongfully removed from, or retained outside of, the child's habitual residence and currently located in another country that is also party to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. The application requests information regarding the identities of the applicant, the child or children, and the person alleged to have wrongfully removed or retained the child or children. In addition, the application requires that the applicant provide the circumstances of the alleged wrongful removal or retention, and the legal justification for the request for return or access. The State Department, as the U.S. Central Authority, uses this information to establish, if possible, the applicants' claims under the Convention; to advise applicants about available remedies under the Convention; and to provide the information necessary to the foreign Central Authority in its efforts to locate the child or children, and to facilitate return of or access to the child or children pursuant to the Convention.

Methodology: The completed form DS-3013 and DS 3013-s may be filled out electronically or manually and then submitted to the Office of Children's Issues by e-mail, mail, or fax.

Dated: August 4, 2009.

Mary Ellen Hickey,

Managing Director, Bureau of Consular Affairs, Department of State.
