SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:
Confirmation of Effective Date

The FAA published this direct final rule with a request for comments in the Federal Register on March 12, 2009 (74 FR 10676), Docket No. FAA–2009–0053; Airspace Docket No. 09–ASO–11. The FAA uses the direct final rulemaking procedure for a non-controversial rule where the FAA believes that there will be no adverse public comment. This direct final rule advised the public that no adverse comments were anticipated, and that unless a written adverse comment, or a written notice of intent to submit such an adverse comment, were received within the comment period, the regulation would become effective on May 7, 2009. No adverse comments were received, and thus this notice confirms that effective date.

Issued in College Park, Georgia, on September 2, 2009.

Entry of Certain Cement Products from Mexico Requiring a Commerce Department Import License

AGENCIES: Customs and Border Protection, Department of Homeland Security; Department of the Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This document amends title 19 of the Code of Federal Regulations (19 CFR) by removing regulations originally promulgated to provide special entry requirements for certain cement products from Mexico requiring a United States Department of Commerce import license and to include certain required entry documentation in the “List of Records Required for the Entry of Merchandise” set forth in the Appendix to Part 163 of title 19 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Since the underlying trade agreement that necessitated these regulations expired on March 31, 2009, they are no longer necessary and are obsolete.

DATES: The amendment is effective September 25, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:
Background

On March 6, 2006, the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR), the United States Department of Commerce (Commerce), and the Ministry of Economy of the United Mexican States (Secretaria de Economia) signed a bilateral Trade in Cement Agreement (Agreement) concerning the entry of certain cement products from Mexico into the United States. The Agreement required the creation of an Export Licensing Program by Mexico and an Import Licensing Program by Commerce to enforce certain quantitative restrictions contained in the Agreement. The Agreement included a provision for its termination on March 31, 2009. A copy of the Agreement is available on the Commerce Web site: http://www.ita.doc.gov/download/mexico-cement/cement-final-agreement.pdf.

To implement the Agreement, the International Trade Administration of the Department of Commerce (ITA) published a final rule in the Federal Register (72 FR 10006) on March 6, 2007, prescribing the cement licensing and import monitoring program regulations promulgated at 19 CFR 361.101–361.105.

On March 6, 2007, Customs and Border Protection (CBP) published a corollary final rule in the Federal Register (72 FR 10004) that promulgated special requirements for the entry into the U.S. of certain cement products from Mexico requiring a U.S. Department of Commerce import license, at new 19 CFR 12.155. The “List of Records Required for the Entry of Merchandise” set forth in the Appendix to Part 163 was also amended by that document to reflect the entry document requirements mandated by the Agreement.

As the Agreement expired on March 31, 2009, §12.155 and the references to Mexican Cement export and import licenses in the Appendix to Part 163 are now unnecessary and obsolete, and, accordingly they are removed from the regulations.

Inapplicability of Prior Public Notice and Comment Procedures and Delayed Effective Date

Because this amendment merely removes obsolete regulations from title 19 of the CFR, CBP has determined, pursuant to the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(B), that prior public notice and comment procedures on this regulation are unnecessary and contrary to public interest. For the same reason, pursuant to the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3), there is good cause for dispensing with a delayed effective date.

The Regulatory Flexibility Act

This document is not subject to the notice and public procedure requirements of 5 U.S.C. 553, and thus is not subject to the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.).

Executive Order 12866

These amendments do not meet the criteria for a “significant regulatory action” as specified in Executive Order 12866.

Increase in Certain Personal Duty Exemptions Extended to Returning U.S. Residents

AGENCIES: Customs and Border Protection, Department of Homeland Security; Department of the Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This document amends title 19 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) by making technical corrections to those regulatory provisions within part 148 that set forth personal duty exemption amounts authorized by the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). These technical corrections are necessary to conform title 19 of the CFR to amendments to the HTSUS effected by section 381 of the Trade Act of 2002 and section 2004(d)(8)(A) and (B) of the Miscellaneous Trade and Technical Corrections Act of 2004 (Pub. L. 108–429, 118 Stat. 2598), which increased personal duty exemption amounts.

DATES: The final rule is effective on September 25, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

I. Personal Duty Exemptions

Generally, when an individual imports merchandise into the United States, the person must pay duty to Customs and Border Protection (CBP) on the goods. The amount of duty payable is determined by the merchandise’s classification within the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS).

Under prescribed circumstances, the government permits an exemption from the payment of duty on certain articles imported by or for the account of any person arriving in the United States who is a returning resident of the United States, including American citizens who are residents of American Samoa, Guam, or the U.S. Virgin Islands. Subheadings 9804.00.65, 9804.00.70 and 9804.00.72, HTSUS, with certain limitations and conditions, extend such duty exemptions to articles for personal or household use, whether or not the articles accompany the returning resident, from $1,200 to $1,600 in the case of a direct or indirect arrival from American Samoa, Guam, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, not more than $800 (increased from $400) of which must have been acquired elsewhere than in such locations (including the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, as explained above). The 2004 amendment to subheading 9804.00.70, HTSUS, removed the restriction that “up to $600” may have been acquired in one or more beneficiary countries.

II. Statutory Amendments

The Trade Act of 2002 (Pub. L. 107–210, 116 Stat. 933, 19 U.S.C. 3801) and the Miscellaneous Trade and Technical Corrections Act of 2004 (Pub. L. 108–429, 118 Stat. 2598) amended subheadings 9804.00.65, 9804.00.70, and 9804.00.72 of the HTSUS, in pertinent part, regarding the amounts of the duty exemptions, as well as the scope of those provisions. The amendments are as follows:

- Section 2004(d)(8)(A) of the Miscellaneous Trade and Technical Corrections Act of 2004 (Pub. L. 108–429, 118 Stat. 2598) amended subheading 9804.00.70, HTSUS, by increasing the duty exemption accorded to articles for personal or household use, whether or not the articles accompany the returning resident, from $1,200 to $1,600 in the case of a direct or indirect arrival from American Samoa, Guam, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, not more than $800 (increased from $400) of which must have been acquired elsewhere than in such locations (including the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, as explained above).

III. Technical Corrections to the Regulations

Within part 148 of title 19 of the Code of Federal Regulations (19 CFR), several regulations pertain directly to or reference the duty exemptions set forth in the amended HTSUS subheadings. Technical corrections are necessary to the following regulations to conform them to the increased personal duty exemption amounts set forth in the current HTSUS: §§ 148.12: 148.17; 148.31; 148.32; 148.33; 148.34; 148.35; 148.36: 148.37; 148.38; 148.51; and 148.113.

Sections 148.12(b)(1)(i)(B) and 148.33(a)(2) and (d)(3)(ii) are also amended by removing the reference to “§ 10.191(b)(1) of this chapter” as the source for the definition of “beneficiary country” for purposes of these provisions, and replacing it with a reference to “U.S. Note 4 to Chapter 98 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States.” This change is necessary because the definition set forth in 19 CFR 10.191(b)(1) is limited to those countries designated as beneficiary countries in accordance
