This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect, most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510.

The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each week.

Federal Aviation Administration

14 CFR Part 39

[Docket No. FAA-2009-0294; Directorate Identifier 2009-NE-08-AD; Amendment 39-16057; AD 2009-22-06]

Airworthiness Directives; International Aero Engines AG (IAE) V2500-A1, V2527E-A5, V2530-A5, and V2528-D5 Turbofan Engines

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The FAA is adopting a new airworthiness directive (AD) for International Aero Engines AG (IAE) V2500-A1, V2527E-A5, V2530-A5, and V2528-D5 turbofan engines. This AD requires reducing the published life limit of certain high-pressure compressor (HPC) stage 9-12 disc assemblies. This AD also removes from service those HPC stage 9-12 disc assemblies using a drawdown schedule. This AD results from IAE updating the low-cycle-fatigue (LCF) life analysis for certain HPC stage 9-12 disc assemblies. We are issuing this AD to prevent an uncontained failure of the HPC stage 9-12 disc assembly, resulting in an in-flight engine shutdown and possible damage to the airplane.

DATES: This AD becomes effective November 30, 2009.

The Docket Operations office is located at Docket Management Facility, U.S. Department of Transportation, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE., West Building

Ground Floor, Room W12-140, Washington, DC 20590-0001.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Kevin Dickert, Aerospace Engineer, Engine Certification Office, FAA, Engine & Propeller Directorate, 12 New England Executive Park, Burlington, MA 01803; e-mail: kevin.dickert@faa.gov; telephone (781) 238-7117; fax (781) 238-7199.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The FAA proposed to amend 14 CFR part 39 with a proposed AD. The proposed AD applies to IAE V2500-A1, V2527E-A5, V2530-A5, and V2528-D5 turbofan engines. We published the proposed AD in the Federal Register on June 29, 2009 (74 FR 30981). That action proposed to require reducing the published life limit of certain HPC stage 9-12 disc assemblies. That action also proposed to remove from service those HPC stage 9-12 disc assemblies using a drawdown schedule.

Examining the AD Docket

You may examine the AD docket on the Internet at <http://www.regulations.gov>; or in person at the Docket Operations office between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. The AD docket contains this AD, the regulatory evaluation, any comments received, and other information. The street address for the Docket Operations office (telephone (800) 647-5527) is provided in the ADDRESSES section. Comments will be available in the AD docket shortly after receipt.

Comments

We provided the public the opportunity to participate in the development of this AD. We received no comments on the proposal or on the determination of the cost to the public.

Conclusion

We have carefully reviewed the available data and determined that air safety and the public interest require adopting the AD as proposed.

Costs of Compliance

We estimate that this AD will affect 18 engines installed on airplanes of U.S. registry. We also estimate that it will take about 200 work-hours per engine to perform the actions, and that the average labor rate is $80 per work-hour. The prorated cost due to a life reduction for a HPC stage 9-12 disc assembly installed in a V2500-A1 engine, is about $5,600 per engine, and for one installed in a V2527E-A5, V2530-A5, or V2528-D5 engine, is about $29,700 per engine. Based on these figures, we estimate the cost of the AD on U.S. operators to be $485,200.

Authority for This Rulemaking

Title 49 of the United States Code specifies the FAA's authority to issue rules on aviation safety. Subtitle I, Section 106, describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the Agency's authority.

We are issuing this rulemaking under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart III, Section 44701, "General requirements." Under that section, Congress charges the FAA with promoting safe flight of civil aircraft in air commerce by prescribing regulations for practices, methods, and procedures the Administrator finds necessary for safety in air commerce. This regulation is within the scope of that authority because it addresses an unsafe condition that is likely to exist or develop on products identified in this rulemaking action.

Regulatory Findings

We have determined that this AD will not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132. This AD will not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify that this AD:

- (1) Is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866;
- (2) Is not a "significant rule" under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034, February 26, 1979); and
- (3) Will not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

We prepared a summary of the costs to comply with this AD and placed it in the AD Docket. You may get a copy of this summary at the address listed under ADDRESSES.

Air transportation, Aircraft, Aviation safety, Safety.

Adoption of the Amendment

■ Accordingly, under the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the Federal Aviation Administration amends 14 CFR part 39 as follows:

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

■ 1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 106(g), 40113, 44701.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

■ 2. The FAA amends § 39.13 by adding the following new airworthiness directive:

2009-22-06 International Aero Engines AG: Amendment 39-16057. Docket No. FAA-2009-0294; Directorate Identifier 2009-NE-08-AD.

Effective Date

(a) This airworthiness directive (AD) becomes effective November 30, 2009.

Affected ADs

(b) None.

Applicability

(c) This AD applies to International Aero Engines AG (IAE) V2500-A1, V2527E-A5, V2530-A5, and V2528-D5 turbofan engines. These engines are installed on, but not limited to, Airbus A320 and A321 series, and McDonnell Douglas Corporation MD-90 airplanes.

Unsafe Condition

(d) This AD results from IAE updating the low-cycle-fatigue (LCF) life analysis for certain high-pressure compressor (HPC) stage 9-12 disc assemblies. We are issuing this AD to prevent an uncontained failure of the HPC stage 9-12 disc assembly, resulting in an in-flight engine shutdown and possible damage to the airplane.

Compliance

(e) You are responsible for having the actions required by this AD performed within the compliance times specified unless the actions have already been done.

Definition

(i) For the purpose of this AD, an "engine shop visit" is the induction of an engine into the shop for maintenance involving the separation of pairs of major mating engine flanges except that the separation of engine flanges solely for the purposes of transportation without subsequent engine maintenance does not constitute an engine shop visit.

Alternative Methods of Compliance

(j) The Manager, Engine Certification Office, has the authority to approve alternative methods of compliance for this AD if requested using the procedures found in 14 CFR 39.19.

RIN 2120-AA66

Amendment of Federal Airways V-163 and V-358 in the Lampasas, TX, Area

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This action amends the legal descriptions of two Federal airways that have "Lampasas, TX, very high frequency omnidirectional range/tactical air navigation (VORTAC)" included as part of their route structure. Currently, the Lampasas VORTAC and the Lampasas Airport share the same location name and identifier (LZZ). To eliminate confusion and potential flight safety issues, the "Lampasas VORTAC" (LZZ) will be renamed the "Gooch Springs VORTAC" (AGJ). All airways with Lampasas [VORTAC] included in their legal descriptions will be amended, concurrent with the effective date of this final rule, to reflect the name change.

DATES: Effective Date: 0901 UTC, December 17, 2009. The Director of the Federal Register approves this incorporation by reference action under 1 CFR part 51, subject to the annual revision of FAA Order 7400.9 and publication of conforming amendments.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Colby Abbott, Airspace and Rules Group, Office of System Operations Airspace and AIM, Federal Aviation Administration, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20591; telephone: (202) 267-8783.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Rule

This action amends Title 14 Code of Federal Regulations (14 CFR) part 71 by amending the legal descriptions of two Federal airways, V-163 and V-358, that have Lampasas, TX, [VORTAC] included as part of their route structure. Currently, the Lampasas, TX, VORTAC and the Lampasas Airport, Lampasas, TX, share the same name and location identifier (LZZ), but are not co-located. To eliminate the possibility of confusion, and a potential flight safety issue, the Lampasas, TX, VORTAC will be renamed the Gooch Springs, TX, VORTAC (AGJ). All airways with Lampasas, TX, [VORTAC] included in their legal descriptions will be amended to reflect the name change. The name change of the VORTAC will coincide with the effective date of this rulemaking action.

Since this action merely involves editorial changes in the legal description of two Federal airways, and does not involve a change in the dimensions or operating requirements of that airspace, notice and public comment under 5 U.S.C. 553(b) are unnecessary.

The FAA has determined that this regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. Therefore, this regulation: (1) Is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a "significant rule" under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a Regulatory Evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that will only affect air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this rule, when promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

The FAA's authority to issue rules regarding aviation safety is found in Title 49 of the United States Code. Subtitle I, Section 106 describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the agency's authority.

This rulemaking is promulgated under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart I, Section 40103. Under that section, the FAA is charged with prescribing regulations to assign the use of the airspace necessary to ensure the safety of aircraft and the efficient use of airspace. This regulation is within the scope of that authority as it revises the legal descriptions of Federal airways in the vicinity of Lampasas, TX.

Domestic VOR Federal airways are published in paragraph 6010(a) of FAA Order 7400.9T, signed August 27, 2009, and effective September 15, 2009, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1. The domestic Federal VOR airways listed in this document will be published subsequently in the Order.

Environmental Review

There are no changes to the lateral limits. Therefore, the FAA has determined that this action is not subject to environmental assessments and procedures in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1E, Policies and Procedures for Considering Environmental Impacts, and the National Environmental Policy Act.

[Docket No. FAA-2009-0318; Airspace Docket No. 09-AAL-8]

Establishment of Class E Airspace; Noorvik, AK

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This action establishes Class E airspace at Noorvik, AK to provide adequate controlled airspace to contain aircraft executing Standard Instrument Approach Procedures (SIAPs). Two SIAPs are being developed for the Robert (Bob) Curtis Memorial Airport at Noorvik, AK. Additionally, one textual Obstacle Departure Procedure (ODP) is being developed. This action establishes Class E airspace upward from 700 feet (ft.) above the surface at Robert (Bob) Curtis Memorial Airport, Noorvik, AK.

DATES: Effective Date: 0901 UTC, December 17, 2009. The Director of the Federal Register approves this incorporation by reference action under title 1, Code of Federal Regulations, part 51, subject to the annual revision of FAA Order 7400.9 and publication of conforming amendments.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

History

On Wednesday, August 12, 2009, the FAA published a notice of proposed rulemaking in the Federal Register to establish Class E airspace at Noorvik, AK (74 FR 40535). Subsequent to publication, the FAA noted that the title erroneously referred to this action as a revision. The remainder of the document was clear, that this was a proposal to establish controlled airspace at Noorvik, AK. With the exception of editorial changes, and the changes described above, this rule is the same as that proposed in the NPRM. Interested parties were invited to participate in this rulemaking proceeding by submitting written comments on the proposal to the FAA. No comments were received. The rule is adopted as proposed.

The Class E airspace areas designated as 700/1,200 ft. transition areas are published in paragraph 6005 of FAA Order 7400.9T, Airspace Designations and Reporting Points, signed August 27, 2009, and effective September 15, 2009, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1. The Class E airspace designations listed in this document will be published subsequently in the Order.

The Rule

This amendment to 14 CFR part 71 establishes Class E airspace at the Robert (Bob) Curtis Memorial Airport, AK. This Class E airspace is established to accommodate aircraft executing new instrument procedures, and will be depicted on aeronautical charts for pilot reference. The intended effect of this rule is to provide adequate controlled airspace for Instrument Flight Rules (IFR) operations at the Robert (Bob) Curtis Memorial Airport, Noorvik, AK.

The FAA has determined that this regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. It, therefore—(1) is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a “significant rule” under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Because this is a routine matter that will only affect air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

The FAA’s authority to issue rules regarding aviation safety is found in Title 49 of the United States Code. Subtitle 1, Section 106 describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the agency’s authority.

This rulemaking is promulgated under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart 1, Section 40103, Sovereignty and use of airspace. Under that section, the FAA is charged with prescribing regulations to ensure the safe and efficient use of the navigable airspace. This regulation is within the scope of that authority because it creates Class E airspace sufficient in size to contain aircraft executing instrument procedures for the Robert (Bob) Curtis Memorial Airport and represents the FAA’s continuing effort to safely and efficiently use the navigable airspace.

Changes in Requirements for Signature of Documents, Recognition of Representatives, and Establishing and Changing the Correspondence Address in Trademark Cases AGENCY: United States Patent and Trademark Office, Commerce.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The United States Patent and Trademark Office (“Office”) is revising the Trademark Rules of Practice to set forth the requirements for signature of documents filed in the Office, recognition of representatives, and establishing and changing the correspondence address in trademark cases.

DATES: This rule is effective December 28, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: As noted above, the Office is revising the Trademark Rules of Practice (37 CFR Part 2) to set forth the requirements for signature of documents filed in the Office, recognition of representatives, and establishing and changing the correspondence address in trademark cases. The purpose of the rule is to codify and clarify current practice. Practice before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (“TTAB”) is largely unaffected by the rule.

References below to “the Act” or “the Trademark Act” refer to the Trademark Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. 1051 et seq., as amended. References to “TMEP” or “Trademark Manual of Examining Procedure” refer to the 5th edition, September 2007. References to the “TBMP” or “Trademark Trial and Appeal Board Manual of Procedure” refer to the 2nd edition, Rev. 1, March 12, 2004. References to a “party to a proceeding” refer to a party to a proceeding before the TTAB, e.g., an opposer, cancellation petitioner, or party to an interference or concurrent use proceeding.

On August 14, 2008, the Office published a final rule that, inter alia, removed §§ 10.14 and 10.18 of this chapter and replaced them with new §§ 11.14 and 11.18; added a definition of “attorney” to § 11.1 of this chapter; added § 11.14(f), setting forth the requirements and establishing a fee for filing a request for reciprocal recognition under § 11.14(c) of this chapter; and changed cross-references in several of the rules in parts 2 and 7 of this chapter, effective September 15, 2008.

See Changes to Representation of Others Before the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 73 FR 47650 (Aug. 14, 2008).

The cross-references in this notice have been changed accordingly.

The Office has recently published another final rule, Miscellaneous Changes to Trademark Rules of Practice, RIN 0651-AB89, 73 FR 67759 (November 17, 2008). The changes made therein are reflected in §§ 2.62, 2.74, 2.87, 2.146(c), 2.153, 2.163, 2.167, 2.171(b)(1), and 2.184 below.

Overview of Office Practice

Persons Authorized To Represent Others

Under 37 CFR 11.14 of this chapter, only the following individuals may represent an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding before the Office in a trademark case:

- An attorney as defined in § 11.1 of this chapter, i.e., an attorney who is a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of a state in the United States;
- A Canadian patent agent who is registered and in good standing as a patent agent under § 11.6(c) for the limited purpose of representing parties located in Canada;
- A Canadian attorney or agent who has been granted recognition by the Director of the Office of Enrollment and Discipline of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“OED Director”) to represent parties located in Canada, pursuant to § 11.14(f) of this chapter; or
- An individual who is not an attorney but was recognized to practice before the Office in trademark cases under this chapter prior to January 1, 1957.

See Trademark Manual of Examining Procedure (“TMEP”) sections 602 and 602.06 et seq.

An individual who does not meet the requirements of § 11.14 of this chapter cannot: Prepare documents to be filed in the Office; sign amendments, responses to Office actions, petitions to the Director under § 2.146, letters of express abandonment, or notices of change of correspondence address for applications or registrations; authorize issuance of examiner’s amendments and priority actions; or otherwise represent an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding in the Office. 5 U.S.C. 500(d); 37 CFR 11.14(e); TMEP sections 602.03 and 605.02.

Recognition of Representative

To be recognized as a representative, a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter (“qualified practitioner”) may:

- File a power of attorney signed by the applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding in a trademark case, or by someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, registrant, or party (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership);
- Sign a document on behalf of an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding who is not already represented by a qualified practitioner from a different firm; or
- Appear in person on behalf of an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding who is not already represented by a qualified practitioner from a different firm.

37 CFR 2.17(c); TMEP sections 602.01 and 602.07.

Once the Office has recognized a qualified practitioner as the representative of an applicant or registrant, the Office will communicate and conduct business only with that practitioner, or with another qualified practitioner from the same firm. The Office will not conduct business directly with the applicant or registrant, or with another qualified practitioner from a different firm, unless the applicant or registrant files a new power of attorney or revocation of the previous power. TMEP sections 601.02, 602.07, and 603.02(a). A motion to withdraw is generally required when a qualified practitioner recognized by the TTAB will no longer be representing a party to a proceeding. Trademark Trial and Appeal Board Manual of Procedure (“TBMP”) section 513.

For purposes of recognition as a representative, the Office considers a power of attorney to end when the mark is registered, when ownership changes, or when the application is abandoned. TMEP section 602.01. An appointment of domestic representative, however, remains in effect unless specifically revoked or supplanted by appointment of a new domestic representative.

After a change in ownership has been recorded, if a new qualified practitioner appears on behalf of the new owner, the Office will communicate and conduct business with that practitioner even absent a new power of attorney or revocation of the previous power. If the previously recognized practitioner appears on behalf of the new owner (which might occur when the new owner is a related company), the Office will continue to conduct business and correspond with that practitioner.

Establishing the Correspondence Address for Application or Registration

Upon receipt of a new application, the Office enters the correspondence address in accordance with the following guidelines:

- If the application is transmitted by a qualified practitioner, or includes a power of attorney designating a qualified practitioner, the Office will send correspondence to the practitioner;
- If an application is not being prosecuted by a qualified practitioner, but the applicant designates in writing a correspondence address other than its own address, the Office will send correspondence to that address if appropriate;
- If an application is not being prosecuted by a qualified practitioner and the applicant has not designated a correspondence address, but a domestic representative has been appointed, the Office will send correspondence to the domestic representative if appropriate; or
- If the application is not being prosecuted by a qualified practitioner, no domestic representative has been appointed, and the applicant has not designated a different address for correspondence, the Office will send correspondence directly to the applicant at its address of record.

37 CFR 2.18; TMEP section 603.01.

The Office reestablishes the correspondence address in accordance with these guidelines upon the examination of an affidavit under section 8, 12(c), 15, or 71 of the Trademark Act, renewal application under section 9 of the Act, or request for amendment or correction of a registration under section 7 of the Act. TMEP section 603.02(c). Due to the length of time that may elapse between registration and filings under sections 7, 8, 9, 12(c), 15, and 71 of the Act (which could be 10 years or more), the Office will recognize a qualified practitioner who transmits such a filing even absent a new power of attorney or revocation of a previous power.

Changing the Correspondence Address in an Application or Registration

Once the correspondence address is established as discussed above, the Office will generally send correspondence to that address until a written request to change the address is submitted, signed by the practitioner whom the Office has recognized, or by the applicant or registrant or someone with legal authority to bind the applicant or registrant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership) if the applicant or registrant is not represented by a qualified practitioner. 37 CFR 2.18(b); TMEP sections 601.02, 602.07, and 603.02(a).

Once the Office recognizes a qualified practitioner as the representative of an applicant or registrant, only that practitioner or another qualified practitioner from the same firm may sign a request to change the address, unless the applicant or registrant files a new power of attorney or revocation of the previous power, or the recognized practitioner files a request to withdraw. TMEP sections 603.02(a) and 605.02.

If a qualified practitioner transmits documents on behalf of an applicant or registrant who is not already represented by another qualified practitioner from a different firm, the Office will construe this as including a request to change the correspondence address to that of the practitioner. TMEP section 603.02(a).

Documents Must Be Properly Signed

Because an individual who is not authorized under § 11.14 may not represent an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding before the Office, the Office will not act on documents that are not properly signed. TMEP sections 602.03 and 605.02. When it is unclear whether a proper person has signed a response to an Office action, the Office will notify the applicant or registrant that the response is incomplete. See TMEP sections 605.05(a) and 712.03 regarding notices of incomplete response. When it is unclear whether a proper person has signed a document other than a response to an Office action, the Office will notify the applicant or registrant that no action will be taken on the document unless the applicant or registrant either establishes the signatory's authority or submits a properly signed document. See TMEP section 605.05.

Unauthorized Practice

When the Office learns that a person who is not qualified under § 11.14 is acting as the representative of an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding, the Office will notify the affected applicant, registrant, or party that the individual is not entitled to practice before the Office in trademark matters and therefore may not represent the applicant, registrant, or party; that any power of attorney is void ab initio; that the individual may not sign responses to Office actions; and that all correspondence will be sent to the domestic representative if appropriate or, alternatively, to the applicant, registrant, or party at its address of record. If the Office receives a response signed by such an unqualified person, the response will be treated as incomplete. This same practice is followed when the Office learns that a practitioner has been suspended or excluded from practice before the Office.

Rule Changes

Terminology

Comment: One commenter asserts that the terms “registrant,” “owner,” “owner of a mark” and “owner of the registration” are used interchangeably throughout the rules, and requests clarification.

Response: These terms are not interchangeable. “Registrant” is broader than “owner,” as it embraces the legal representatives, predecessors, successors and assigns of the current owner, pursuant to section 45 of the Trademark Act.

In rules that govern the representation of others and the establishment of the correspondence address, the Office has used the broader term “registrant,” to encompass all parties who could be represented or receive correspondence in connection with an application, registration, or proceeding in the Office. In rules that govern the proper party to sign and file affidavits under sections 8 and 15 of the Act, and requests for correction, amendment or surrender under section 7 of the Act, the more specific term “owner” is used. In § 2.184, which governs renewal applications, the term “registrant” is used for consistency with section 9 of the Act. Section 9, as amended by the Trademark Law Treaty Implementation Act, does not require that a renewal application be filed in the name of the owner of the registration. Therefore, if a renewal applicant is not the owner of record, the Office does not require that the renewal applicant show continuity of title from the original registrant before granting renewal. See TMEP section 1606.06.

Discussion of Specific Rules

A proposed rule was published in the Federal Register on June 12, 2008, at 73 FR 33345, and in the Official Gazette on July 8, 2008. The Office received comments from one law firm and one organization. These comments are posted on the Office's Web site at http://www.uspto.gov/web/offices/pac/dapp/opla/comments/tm_comments2008aug20a/index.htm, and are addressed below.

Where appropriate, the Office has reworded and/or reorganized the rules for clarity, and added headings to facilitate navigation through the rules.

Section 2.17(a) is redesignated as § 2.17(b)(2).

Section 2.17(b) is redesignated as § 2.17(f).

Section 2.17(c) is redesignated as § 2.17(b), and revised to provide that the Office will recognize a qualified practitioner who signs a document or appears in person in a trademark case only if the applicant or registrant is not already represented by a qualified practitioner from a different firm. This is consistent with TMEP sections 602.01 and 602.07.

Section 2.17(c) sets forth the requirements for powers of attorney. A power must: (1) Designate by name at least one practitioner qualified to practice under 37 CFR § 11.14; and (2) be signed by the individual applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding pending before the Office, or by someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, registrant, or party (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership). Once an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding has designated a qualified practitioner(s), that practitioner may sign an associate power of attorney appointing another qualified practitioner(s) as an additional person(s) authorized to represent the applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding. This is consistent with TMEP sections 602.01 and 602.01(b).

Section 2.17(c)(2) provides further that if the applicant, registrant, or party revokes an original power of attorney, the revocation discharges any associate power signed by the practitioner whose power has been revoked; and that if the practitioner who signed an associate power withdraws, the withdrawal discharges any associate power signed by the withdrawing practitioner upon acceptance of the request for withdrawal by the Office.

Comment: One comment noted that the proposed rule did not address unrepresented joint applicants.

Response: Section 2.17(c)(2) now states that in the case of joint applicants or joint registrants, all must sign the power of attorney. This is consistent with § 2.193(e)(3).

Section 2.17(d) is amended to provide that the owner of an application or registration may appoint an attorney through the Trademark Electronic Application System ("TEAS") for up to twenty applications or registrations per TEAS form that have the identical owner and attorney. This is consistent with TMEP section 602.01(a).

Section 2.17(e) sets forth the circumstances under which a Canadian attorney or agent may represent parties located in Canada. A Canadian patent agent who is registered with the Office and in good standing as a patent agent under § 11.6(c) may represent parties located in Canada before the Office in trademark matters. A Canadian attorney or agent who is registered or in good standing with the Canadian Intellectual Property Office, but not registered as a patent agent under § 11.6(c), may represent parties located in Canada if he or she has been authorized to do so by the OED Director. Before undertaking to represent an applicant, registrant, or party before the Office, and before filing a paper with the Office, a Canadian attorney or agent who is not registered with the Office and in good standing as a patent agent under § 11.6(c) must file an application for and be granted reciprocal recognition to practice before the Office in trademark cases, pursuant to § 11.14(f) of this chapter. The application for reciprocal recognition must include the fee required by § 1.21(a)(1)(i) of this chapter, and proof that the attorney or agent satisfies the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 32 and 37 CFR 11.14(c). See notice at 73 FR 47650 (Aug. 14, 2008). The OED Director must grant the request for reciprocal recognition before representation is undertaken and before the Canadian attorney or agent files an application or other document in the Office.

Once recognized by OED, the Canadian attorney or agent may only represent parties who are located in Canada. He or she cannot represent Canadian nationals who are not located in Canada. Thus, for example, a Canadian attorney or agent may not represent a Canadian national who resides in California and has access to a mailing address in Canada.

Section 2.17(g)(1) is added to provide that the Office considers a power of attorney to end with respect to a pending application when the mark is registered, when ownership changes, or when the application is abandoned. This is consistent with TMEP section 602.01.

Section 2.17(g)(2) provides that the Office considers a power of attorney filed after registration to end when the registration is cancelled or expired, or when ownership changes. If the power was filed in connection with an affidavit under section 8, 12(c), 15 or 71 of the Trademark Act, renewal application under section 9 of the Act, or request for amendment or correction under section 7 of the Act, the power is deemed to end upon acceptance or final rejection of the filing.

Section 2.18 is reorganized to clarify the procedures for establishing and changing a correspondence address.

Section 2.18(a)(2) provides that if a qualified practitioner transmits a document(s) on behalf of an applicant or registrant, the Office will send correspondence to the practitioner transmitting the document(s) only if the applicant or registrant is not already represented by another qualified practitioner from a different firm. This is consistent with TMEP sections 602.07, 603.01, and 603.02(a).

Section 2.18(a)(6) provides that the Office will send correspondence to only one address in an ex parte matter. This is consistent with current § 2.18(b).

Comment: If correspondence is being sent electronically, there would appear to be no reason why the Office cannot send correspondence to more than one e-mail address. The TTAB sends correspondence to more than one e-mail address, as requested by the parties who file papers with the TTAB.

Response: The Office has revised § 2.18(a)(6) to indicate that it applies only to ex parte matters. Sending e-mail correspondence to more than one address in an ex parte matter would create confusion. It is important that the Office, as well as any interested third parties, have one specific address to which correspondence concerning an application or registration can be sent. It is also important that an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding know where to look for official correspondence and who is responsible for handling incoming communications.

Section 2.18(a)(7) provides that once the Office has recognized a qualified practitioner as the representative of an applicant or registrant, the Office will communicate and conduct business only with that practitioner, or with another qualified practitioner from the same firm. The Office will not conduct business directly with the applicant or registrant, or with another qualified practitioner from a different firm, unless the applicant or registrant files a revocation of the power of attorney under § 2.19(a) and/or a new power of attorney that meets the requirements of § 2.17(c). The rule provides further that a written request to change the correspondence address does not revoke a power of attorney. This is consistent with TMEP sections 601.02, 602.07, and 603.02(a).

Comment: One comment suggests that the Office emphasize that where practitioners change law firms, the filing of a change of correspondence address does not revoke any prior powers of attorney or associate power of attorney. The commenter recommends that the rule "provide for practitioners to file a revocation/power of attorney when changing firms to ensure practitioners from the previous firm will not still be authorized to represent the client." Further, since the choice of counsel is determined by the applicant, the commenter recommends "that the rule [provide] for approval by the applicant of the change in the power of attorney." The commenter notes that the revocation will automatically update the correspondence address. Further, this places the burden on the practitioner.

Response: Sections 2.18(a)(7) and 2.19(a)(3) explicitly provide that a request to change the correspondence address does not revoke a power of attorney. When more than one qualified practitioner is of record and one of them changes firms, there is no need to obtain a new power of attorney or revocation of the previous power, signed by the client, in every case. If there is ongoing representation by co-counsel at the original firm, the departing attorney should file a request or, if applicable, motion with the TTAB, to withdraw, pursuant to § 2.19(b). When more than one qualified practitioner is of record and one or more of them changes firms, the burden is already on the practitioners to determine who is responsible for handling pending matters, obtain any necessary powers of attorney or revocations from the client, and file the necessary documents in the Office. Rules 2.17(c)(2), 2.18(a)(7) and 2.19(a) require a new power of attorney or revocation of the previous power, signed by the client, in order to effect a change in representation, or to send correspondence to a different firm. When a power is revoked or a practitioner withdraws, this discharges any associate power signed by the practitioner who withdraws or whose power has been revoked.

Comment: One commenter suggests that a revocation or new power of attorney should be required only when a power of attorney is of record for the previously recognized practitioner, and not where the previous practitioner was recognized by appearing in person or filing a paper on behalf of the party that he or she represents. "We urge the PTO not to adopt a requirement that an applicant/registrant must file a revocation of power of attorney in instances when it has not granted a power of attorney in the first place."

Response: Section 2.17 has long provided three ways in which a practitioner can be recognized as a representative. There is no logical basis for treating the termination of such recognition differently based on the manner in which the representative was recognized.

Comment: One comment notes that, until recently, the Office would accept a simple "change of address of correspondence" instruction from a qualified practitioner as sufficient to change the address to which it directed correspondence. It is unclear why this procedure was abandoned. The commenter urges the Office to permit either the applicant/registrant or the new qualified practitioner to sign and file a request for "Change of Address for Correspondence," instead of a new power of attorney or revocation of the previous power.

Response: When a qualified practitioner represents an applicant or registrant, a new practitioner from a different firm could never properly authorize a change of correspondence address. Prior to 2006, the Office would accept a change of correspondence address signed by an applicant or registrant who was represented by a qualified practitioner, even if no new power of attorney or revocation of the previous power was filed. However, to ensure that the record is clear as to who is authorized to represent applicants and registrants, and to prevent unauthorized parties from taking actions in connection with applications and registrations, the better practice is to require a new power of attorney or revocation of the previous power to change the address to which official correspondence is sent. Since the Madrid Protocol was implemented in 2003, an increasing number of persons who are not qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter (e.g., foreign attorneys) have attempted to represent applicants and registrants. There have also been several cases in which adverse or unauthorized parties have attempted to divert correspondence and/or take inappropriate actions such as express abandonments of applications. Therefore, the Office seeks to ensure that a proper party signs all communications and that the record is clear as to who is authorized to conduct business.

Section 2.18(b)(1) provides that when a physical or e-mail correspondence address changes, the applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding must file a written request to change the correspondence address. The request should be promptly filed. This is consistent with TMEP section 603.03.

New § 2.18(b)(2) provides that a request to change the correspondence address must be made in writing, signed by the applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, registrant, or party (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a qualified practitioner, in accordance with § 2.193(e)(9). This is consistent with current § 2.18(b) and TMEP sections 603.02 and 603.02(a).

Section 2.18(b)(3) provides that if an applicant or registrant files a new power of attorney that meets the requirements of § 2.17(c), the Office will change the correspondence address to that of the practitioner named in the power.

Section 2.18(b)(4) provides that if a qualified practitioner transmits a document(s) on behalf of an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding who is not already represented by another qualified practitioner, the Office will construe this as including a request to change the correspondence address to that of the practitioner, and will send correspondence to the practitioner. This is consistent with TMEP section 603.02(a).

Comment: One commenter understands the rule to mean that the correspondence address of a practitioner filing a document will only be recognized if the Office has not otherwise recognized a qualified practitioner at the time the document is filed.

Response: That is correct.

Comment: In some instances, applicants/registrants request outside counsel to prepare and file responses to Office actions but do not wish the address for correspondence to be changed to that of counsel. There is no reason for the Office to "construe" such a filing as a request for a change of address for correspondence. If that change is desired, it is simple enough for the applicant/registrant or qualified practitioner to include specific instructions in this regard in the filing. Thus, we urge the Office not to adopt a rule that would establish a default procedure by which the filing of such a response would be "construed" as including a request for change of correspondence.

Response: The Office's practice of corresponding with the attorney of record is consistent with current § 2.18(a), which has been in effect for many years and has worked well. The Office sees no reason to change the practice. If the Office ever did want to change this practice, it would issue another proposed rule, in order to provide notice and solicit comment from practitioners who may have come to rely on existing practice. If an applicant or registrant does not want the correspondence address to be changed to the address of the outside counsel who transmits a response to an Office action, counsel should include clear instructions stating the address to which correspondence should be sent in the response.

Section 2.18(c)(1) is added to provide that even if there is no new power of attorney or written request to change the correspondence address, the Office will change the correspondence address upon the examination of an affidavit under section 8, 12(c), 15 or 71 of the Trademark Act, a renewal application under section 9 of the Act, or a request for amendment or correction under section 7 of the Act. This is consistent with TMEP section 603.02(c). Due to the length of time that may elapse between filings under sections 7, 8, 9, 12(c), 15, and 71 of the Act (which could be ten years or more), the Office automatically enters a new correspondence address upon examination of each filing.

Section 2.18(c)(2) is added to provide that once the Office establishes a correspondence address upon examination of an affidavit, a renewal application or a section 7 request, a written request to change the address in accordance with § 2.18(b)(2) is required to change the address during the pendency of that filing.

Example 1: Attorney A transmits an affidavit of use under section 8, and the examiner issues an Office action in connection with the affidavit. If another attorney from a different firm (Attorney B) wants to respond to the Office action, Attorney B must file a new power of attorney and/or revocation of the previous power, signed by the owner of the registration or someone with legal authority to bind the owner, before the Office will act on the response and correspond with Attorney B.

Example 2: Attorney A transmits an affidavit of use under section 8, and the Office accepts the affidavit. If Attorney B later files a request for amendment under section 7, the Office will recognize and correspond with Attorney B regardless of whether a new power of attorney or revocation of the previous power is filed.

Example 3: Attorney A transmits an affidavit of use under section 8, and the examiner issues an Office action in connection with the affidavit. If Attorney B wants to file a request for amendment under section 7 before the Office accepts or issues a final rejection of the section 8 affidavit, Attorney B must file a new power of attorney and/or revocation of the previous power, signed by the owner of the registration or someone with legal authority to bind the owner, before the Office will act on the section 7 request and correspond with Attorney B.

Section 2.19(a) is revised to clarify the requirements for revocation of a power of attorney. New § 2.19(a)(1) provides that a request to revoke a power of attorney must be signed by the applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding, or by someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, registrant, or party (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership). This is consistent with TMEP section 602.04.

Comment: The proposed rule does not address the situation of unrepresented joint applicants.

Response: Section 2.19(a)(1) now states that in the case of joint applicants or joint registrants, all must sign the revocation. This is consistent with § 2.193(e)(3).

Section 2.19(a)(3) states that a request to change the correspondence address does not revoke a power of attorney. This is consistent with § 2.18(a)(7), discussed above.

Section 2.19(a)(4) states that a new power of attorney that meets the requirements of § 2.17(c) will be treated as a revocation of the previous power.

The provision in the current § 2.19(a) that the Office will notify the affected person of the revocation of his or her authorization is removed.

Section 2.19(b) is revised to set forth the requirements for filing a request to withdraw as attorney. This is consistent with TMEP section 602.05. The withdrawing practitioner should file the request soon after notifying the client of his/her intent to withdraw, and must include the application serial number, registration number, or proceeding number; a statement of the reason(s) for the request to withdraw; and either (1) a statement that the practitioner has given due notice to the client that the practitioner is withdrawing from employment and will be filing the necessary documents with the Office; that the client was given notice of the withdrawal at least two months before the expiration of the response period, if applicable; that the practitioner has delivered to the client all documents and property in the practitioner's file concerning the application or registration to which the client is entitled; and that the practitioner has notified the client of any responses that may be due, and of the deadline for response; or (2) if there is more than one qualified practitioner of record, a statement that representation by co-counsel is ongoing.

Section 2.22(a)(11) is amended to change a cross-reference.

Section 2.24 is redesignated as § 2.24(a), and amended to provide that if an applicant is not domiciled in the United States, the applicant may designate a domestic representative (i.e., a person residing in the United States on whom notices or process may be served in proceedings affecting the mark) by either: (1) Setting forth the name and address of the domestic representative in the initial application; or (2) filing a separate designation setting forth the name and address of the domestic representative, signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a qualified practitioner.

Where the initial application sets forth the designation of domestic representative, the designation may be signed by a person authorized to sign the application on behalf of applicant, pursuant to new § 2.193(e)(1). The Office does not question the authority of the signatory, unless the record presents an inconsistency as to the signatory's authority to sign. TMEP section 804.04.

Section 2.24(b) is added to provide that a request to change or revoke a designation of domestic representative must be signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, or a qualified practitioner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership).

Section 2.33(a) is amended to remove the definition of "person properly authorized to sign" a verification on behalf of applicant, and replace it with a cross-reference to § 2.193(e)(1). The substance of this definition is unchanged.

Section 2.33(d), which provided for signature of verifications in applications filed through TEAS, is removed as unnecessary. Section 2.193(c) sets forth the procedure for signing a TEAS document. This procedure is unchanged.

Section 2.62(b) is amended to add a cross-reference to § 2.193(e)(2).

Section 2.64(b) is amended to add a requirement that a request for reconsideration of a final action be signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a qualified practitioner, in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193(e)(2). This is consistent with current practice.

Section 2.68 is amended to add a requirement that a request for express abandonment of an application be signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant

(e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a qualified practitioner, in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193(e)(2). This is consistent with TMEP section 718.01.

Sections 2.74(b), 2.76(b)(1), 2.87(f), 2.88(b)(1), 2.89(a)(3), 2.89(b)(3), 2.101(b), 2.102(a), 2.111(b), 2.119(d), and 2.146(c) are amended to add cross-references to § 2.193.

Section 2.153 is amended to require that an affidavit or declaration claiming the benefits of the Act of 1946, pursuant to section 12(c) of the Act, be filed by the current owner and signed by the owner or by a person properly authorized to sign on behalf of the owner. This is consistent with TMEP section 1603.

Section 2.161(b) is amended to remove the definition of "person properly authorized to sign" an affidavit or declaration of use or excusable nonuse under section 8 of the Trademark Act ("section 8 affidavit") and replace it with a cross-reference to § 2.193(e)(1). The substance of this definition is unchanged.

Section 2.163(b), 2.167(a), and 2.171(b) are amended to add cross-references to § 2.193.

Section 2.172 is amended to add a provision that a request for surrender of a registration be filed in the name of the owner of the registration, and signed by the owner, a person with legal authority to bind the owner, or a qualified practitioner. This is consistent with current practice.

Section 2.184(b)(2) is amended to add a cross-reference to § 2.193(e)(2).

Section 2.193(a) is redesignated as § 2.193(g).

Section 2.193(b) is redesignated as § 2.193(h).

Current § 2.193(c)(1) is revised and separated into §§ 2.193(a), (b) and (c).

Section 2.193(a) provides that each piece of correspondence that requires a signature must bear: (1) A handwritten signature personally signed in permanent ink by the person named as the signatory, or a true copy thereof; or (2) an electronic signature that meets the requirements of paragraph (c). The rule makes clear that a handwritten signature must be personally signed by the person named as the signatory, and that an electronic signature must be personally entered by the person named as the signatory.

Comment: One comment "disagree[s] with the proposed change and definition of electronic signatures," and asserts that "[s]ince the attorneys assume liability and responsibility for the signing forms, it is common legal practice for attorneys to authorize others to sign on their behalf." To assist with this proposed change, the commenter requests that the forms be “portable for signature to allow for easier compliance with this rule.”

Response: The requirement that attorneys personally sign documents that they file in the Office is not a change, having previously been required by § 10.18(a) of this chapter. See Boyd's Collection Ltd. v. Herrington & Co., 65 USPQ2d 2017, 2018, n.4 (TTAB 2003). Section 10.18(a) was recently replaced by § 11.18(a), which requires that “each piece of correspondence filed by a practitioner in the Office must bear a signature, personally signed by such practitioner.” See notice at 73 FR 47650 (Aug. 14, 2008).

Two methods are already in place that can be used to obtain signatures from clients or reviewers before filing a TEAS document:

- The document can be completed on-line and e-mailed to the signatory for electronic signature from within TEAS. The signatory signs the document and it is automatically returned via TEAS to the party who requested the signature; or
- The document can be filled out on-line, printed in text form, and mailed or faxed to the signatory. The signatory signs the printed document in the traditional pen-and-ink manner. The signature portion, along with a declaration if required, is scanned to create a .jpg or .pdf image file that is attached to the TEAS filing.

Section 2.193(a)(2) provides that the Office will accept a signature that meets the requirements of paragraph (c) on all correspondence, whether filed on paper, by facsimile transmission, or through TEAS or the Electronic System for Trademark Trials and Appeals (“ESTTA”). This is consistent with TMEP section 804.05.

Section 2.193(c) sets forth the requirements for signing a document electronically, previously set forth in § 2.193(c)(1)(iii). The substance is unchanged.

Section 2.193(c)(2) is redesignated as § 2.193(f).

Section 2.193(d) requires that the name of the person who signs a document in connection with a trademark application, registration, or proceeding before the TTAB be set forth in printed or typed form immediately below or adjacent to the signature, or identified elsewhere in the filing (e.g., in a cover letter or other document that accompanies the filing).

Section 2.193(d) is redesignated as § 2.193(i).

Section 2.193(e) sets forth the proper person(s) to sign various types of documents that are commonly filed in connection with trademark applications and registrations.

Section 2.193(e)(1) sets forth the definition of a person who is properly authorized to sign a verification in support of an application for registration, amendment to an application, allegation of use under § 2.76 or § 2.88, request for extension of time to file a statement of use under § 2.89, or an affidavit under section 8, 12(c), 15, or 71 of the Trademark Act. This is consistent with current §§ 2.33(a) and 2.161(b).

Section 2.193(e)(2) provides that responses to Office actions, amendments to applications, requests for reconsideration of final actions, requests for express abandonment, requests to divide, and notices of change of correspondence address in an application or registration must be signed by the owner of the application or registration, someone with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a qualified practitioner. This is consistent with §§ 2.62(b), 2.64(b), 2.68(a), 2.74(b), 2.87(f), and 2.184(b)(2).

Section 2.193(e)(2)(i) provides that if the owner is represented by a qualified practitioner, the practitioner must sign, except where the owner is required to sign the correspondence. This is consistent with current § 11.18(a). This applies to both in-house and outside counsel.

Section 2.193(e)(2)(ii) provides that if the owner is not represented by a qualified practitioner, the individual owner or someone with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership) must sign. In the case of joint owners who are not represented by a qualified practitioner, all must sign. This is consistent with TMEP sections 605.02, 712.01 and 712.01(a)(i).

Comment: One commenter notes that the requirement for signature by all joint owners creates an additional burden if the document is being composed and sent through TEAS or ESTTA, or if examiner's amendments need to be cleared with each applicant. However, the commenter understands that the percentage of unrepresented joint owners is small and that the Office intends to avoid the situation where one unrepresented joint owner speaks for the other(s) without authorization.

Response: Since one joint owner does not have authority to bind another, the Office believes that all must sign.

Section 2.193(e)(3) provides that powers of attorney and revocations of powers of attorney must be signed by the individual applicant or registrant or someone with legal authority to bind the applicant or registrant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership); that in the case of joint applicants or joint registrants, all must sign; that once the applicant or registrant has designated a qualified practitioner(s), the named practitioner may sign an associate power of attorney appointing another qualified practitioner(s) as an additional person(s) authorized to prosecute the application or registration; that if the applicant or registrant revokes the original power of attorney, the revocation also discharges any associate power signed by the practitioner whose power has been revoked; and that if the practitioner who signed an associate power withdraws, the withdrawal discharges any associate power signed by the withdrawing practitioner upon acceptance of the request for withdrawal by the Office. This is consistent with §§ 2.17(c) and 2.19(a), discussed above.

Comment: Under current practice, when an attorney files an application, the on-line power of attorney form can be signed by the filing attorney. The proposed rule would require a change in the on-line form. If the proposed rule is not intended to apply in the initial filing stage, but only to subsequent designations, this distinction should be made clear in the proposed rule.

Response: It is not now and never has been acceptable for an attorney to sign a power appointing himself or herself as the attorney of record, even with the initial application. However, if the initial application is accompanied by an improper power of attorney (e.g., a power signed by the designated attorney), the Office generally does not require a properly signed power, because the filing of a power of attorney is not mandatory in a trademark case under current § 2.17(c) (new § 2.17(b)(1)). The Office will disregard the improperly signed power and recognize the attorney who submitted the application based on the attorney's signature and appearance on behalf of the applicant. See TMEP section 602.01. When an applicant is already represented by a qualified practitioner, and a new practitioner from a different firm takes over, the Office requires a properly signed power of attorney or revocation of the previous power before recognizing the new attorney.

Section 2.193(e)(4) provides that a petition to revive under § 2.66 must be signed by someone with firsthand knowledge of the facts regarding unintentional delay. This is consistent with current §§ 2.66(b)(2) and (c)(2).

Section 2.193(e)(5) provides that a petition to the Director under § 2.146 must be signed by the petitioner, someone with legal authority to bind the petitioner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a qualified practitioner, in accordance with the following guidelines:

- If the petitioner is represented by a qualified practitioner, the practitioner must sign; or
- If the petitioner is not represented by a qualified practitioner, the individual petitioner or someone with legal authority to bind the petitioner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership) must sign.

Section 2.193(e)(6) provides that a request for correction, amendment, or surrender of a registration must be signed by the owner of the registration, someone with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a qualified practitioner; and that in the case of joint owners who are not represented by a qualified practitioner, all must sign.

Section 2.193(e)(7) provides that a renewal application must be signed by the registrant or the registrant's representative. This is consistent with § 2.183(a).

Section 2.193(e)(8) provides that a designation or revocation of a domestic representative must be signed by applicant or registrant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant or registrant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a qualified practitioner.

Section 2.193(e)(9) provides that a notice of change of correspondence address in an application or registration must be signed by the applicant or registrant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant or registrant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a qualified practitioner, in accordance with the following guidelines:

- If the applicant or registrant is represented by a qualified practitioner, the practitioner must sign; or
- If the applicant or registrant is not represented by a qualified practitioner, the individual applicant or registrant or someone with legal authority to bind the applicant or registrant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership) must sign.

Section 2.193(e)(10) provides that the person transmitting paper documents to the Office may sign a cover letter or transmittal letter, and that the Office neither requires cover letters nor questions the authority of a person who signs a communication that merely transmits documents. This is consistent with TMEP section 605.03.

Comment: One commenter notes that when TTAB documents are filed through ESTTA, the electronic filing cover sheet must be signed by a person with authority. If not properly signed, the filing may be rejected if the attached documents are signed by an unauthorized person.

Response: The Office has revised § 2.193(e)(10) to indicate that it applies only to paper documents. For documents filed through TEAS, no cover letter or transmittal letter is generated. In ESTTA, the system generates a filing form that either stands alone and serves as the paper being filed, or is integrated with one or more attachments into a single, combined filing. As the commenter has correctly noted, the Board views the ESTTA filing form and any attachments thereto as comprising a single document, and the signer of the ESTTA form is responsible for the content of the attachments. See PPG Industries, Inc. v. Guardian Industries Corp., 73 USPQ2d 1926 (TTAB 2005) regarding signature of ESTTA documents.

Section 11.18(a) is amended to add cross-references to §§ 1.4(d)(2) and 2.193(a).

Rulemaking Requirements

Executive Order 12866: This rule has been determined not to be significant for purposes of Executive Order 12866.

Administrative Procedure Act: This rule merely involves rules of agency practice and procedure within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A). Therefore, this rule may be adopted without prior notice and opportunity for public comment under 5 U.S.C. 553(b) and (c), or thirty-day advance publication under 5 U.S.C. 553(d). However, the Office has chosen to seek public comment before implementing the rule.

Regulatory Flexibility Act: The Deputy General Counsel for General Law of the United States Patent and Trademark Office hereby certifies to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration that this final rule, Changes in Requirements for Signature of Documents, Recognition of Representatives, and Establishing and Changing the Correspondence Address in Trademark Cases (RIN 0651-AC26), will not have a significant impact on a substantial number of small entities (Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 605(b)).

As prior notice and an opportunity for public comment are not required pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553 (or any other law), neither a regulatory flexibility analysis nor a certification under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) is required. See 5 U.S.C. 603.

The rules clarify certain requirements for signature of documents filed in the Office, recognition of representatives, and establishing and changing the correspondence address in trademark cases. In large part, the rule changes merely codify existing practice. Although the rules may affect trademark applicants or registrants, because they codify the existing practice of the Office, the changes set forth in this notice will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

Unfunded Mandates: The Unfunded Mandates Reform Act requires, at 2 U.S.C. 1532, that agencies prepare an assessment of anticipated costs and benefits before issuing any rule that may result in expenditure by State, local, and tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million or more (adjusted annually for inflation) in any given year. This rule will have no such effect on State, local, and tribal governments or the private sector.

Executive Order 13132: This rule does not contain policies with federalism implications sufficient to warrant preparation of a Federalism Assessment under Executive Order 13132 (Aug. 4, 1999).

Paperwork Reduction Act: This rule involves information collection requirements which are subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget ("OMB") under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.). The collection of information in this rule have been reviewed and previously approved by the OMB under OMB control numbers: 0651-0054, 0651-0027, and 0651-0040.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office is not resubmitting an information collection package to OMB for its review and approval because the changes in this rule will not affect the information collection requirements associated with the information collections under OMB control numbers 0651-0054, 0651-0027, and 0651-0040. The changes in this notice are limited to amending the rules of practice to codify current practice with respect to the proper party to sign various documents and current procedures for appointment, revocation, or withdrawal of attorneys and domestic representatives.

Interested persons are requested to send comments regarding these information collections, including suggestions for reduction of this burden, to: (1) The Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, New Executive Office Building, Room 10202, 725 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20503, Attention: Desk Officer for the Patent and Trademark Office; and (2) Commissioner for Trademarks, P.O. Box 1451, Alexandria, VA 22313-1451 (Attn: Mary Hannon).

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person is required to respond to nor shall a person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB control number.

37 CFR Part 11

Administrative practice and procedure, Lawyers.

■ For the reasons given in the preamble and under the authority contained in 5 U.S.C. 500, 15 U.S.C. 1123 and 35 U.S.C. 2 and 32, the Office is amending parts 2 and 11 of title 37 as follows:

PART 2—RULES OF PRACTICE IN TRADEMARK CASES

■ 1. The authority citation for 37 CFR Part 2 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 15 U.S.C. 1123, 35 U.S.C. 2, unless otherwise noted.

■ 2. Revise § 2.17 to read as follows:

§ 2.17 Recognition for representation.

(a) Authority to practice in trademark cases. Only an individual qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter may represent an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding before the Office in a trademark case.

(b)(1) Recognition of practitioner as representative. To be recognized as a representative in a trademark case, a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter may:

(i) File a power of attorney that meets the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section;

(ii) Sign a document on behalf of an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding who is not already represented by a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter from a different firm; or

(iii) Appear in person on behalf of an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding who is not already represented by a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter from a different firm.

(2) Signature as certificate of authorization to represent. When a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter appears in person or signs a document pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section, his or her personal appearance or signature shall constitute a representation to the Office that he or she is authorized to represent the person or entity on whose behalf he or she acts. The Office may require further proof of authority to act in a representative capacity.

(c) Requirements for power of attorney. A power of attorney must:

(1) Designate by name at least one practitioner meeting the requirements of § 11.14 of this chapter; and

(2) Be signed by the individual applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding pending before the Office, or by someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, registrant, or party (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership). In the case of joint applicants or joint registrants, all must sign. Once the applicant, registrant, or party has designated a practitioner(s) qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, that practitioner may sign an associate power of attorney appointing another qualified practitioner(s) as an additional person(s) authorized to represent the applicant, registrant, or party. If the applicant, registrant, or party revokes the original power of attorney (§ 2.19(a)), the revocation discharges any associate power signed by the practitioner whose power has been revoked. If the practitioner who signed an associate power withdraws (§ 2.19(b)), the withdrawal discharges any associate power signed by the withdrawing practitioner upon acceptance of the request for withdrawal by the Office.

(d) Power of attorney relating to multiple applications or registrations.

(1) The owner of an application or registration may appoint a practitioner(s) qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter for up to twenty applications or registrations that have the identical owner name and attorney through TEAS.

(2) The owner of an application or registration may file a power of attorney that relates to more than one trademark application or registration, or to all existing and future applications and registrations of that owner, on paper. A person relying on such a power of attorney must:

(i) Include a copy of the previously filed power of attorney; or

(ii) Refer to the power of attorney, specifying the filing date of the previously filed power of attorney; the application serial number (if known), registration number, or inter partes proceeding number for which the original power of attorney was filed; and the name of the person who signed the power of attorney; or, if the application serial number is not known, submit a copy of the application or a copy of the mark, and specify the filing date.

(e) Canadian attorneys and agents. (1) A Canadian patent agent who is registered and in good standing as a patent agent under § 11.6(c) may represent parties located in Canada before the Office in trademark matters.

(2) A Canadian attorney or agent who is registered or in good standing with the Canadian Intellectual Property Office, but not registered as a patent agent under § 11.6(c), may represent parties located in Canada if he or she has been authorized to do so by the Director of the Office of Enrollment and Discipline, pursuant to § 11.14(f) of this chapter.

(f) Non-lawyers. A non-lawyer may not act as a representative except in the limited circumstances set forth in § 11.14(b) of this chapter. Before any non-lawyer who meets the requirements of § 11.14(b) of this chapter may take action of any kind with respect to an application, registration or proceeding, a written authorization must be filed, signed by the applicant, registrant, or party to the proceeding, or by someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, registrant, or party (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership).

(g) Duration of power of attorney. (1) For purposes of recognition as a representative, the Office considers a power of attorney filed while an application is pending to end when the mark registers, when ownership changes, or when the application is abandoned.

(2) The Office considers a power of attorney filed after registration to end when the mark is cancelled or expired, or when ownership changes. If the power was filed in connection with an affidavit under section 8, 12(c), 15 or 71 of the Trademark Act, renewal application under section 9 of the Act, or request for amendment or correction under section 7 of the Act, the power is deemed to end upon acceptance or final rejection of the filing.

■ 3. Revise § 2.18 to read as follows:

§ 2.18 Correspondence, with whom held.

(a) Establishing the correspondence address. (1) If a written power of attorney that meets the requirements of § 2.17 is filed, the Office will send correspondence to the practitioner designated in the power.

(2) If a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter transmits a document(s) on behalf of an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding who is not already represented by another qualified practitioner from a different firm, the Office will send correspondence to the practitioner transmitting the documents.

(3) If an application, registration or proceeding is not being prosecuted by a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter and the applicant, registrant, or party to the proceeding designates a correspondence address in writing, the Office will send correspondence to the designated address if appropriate.

(4) If an application, registration or proceeding is not being prosecuted by a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter and the applicant, registrant, or party to the proceeding has not designated a correspondence address in writing, but a domestic representative has been appointed, the Office will send correspondence to the domestic representative if appropriate.

(5) If the application, registration or proceeding is not being prosecuted by a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter, the applicant, registrant, or party to the proceeding has not designated a correspondence address, and no domestic representative has been appointed, the Office will send correspondence directly to the applicant, registrant, or party to the proceeding.

(6) The Office will send correspondence to only one address in an ex parte matter.

(7) Once the Office has recognized a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter as the representative of an applicant or registrant, the Office will communicate and conduct business only with that practitioner, or with another qualified practitioner from the same firm. The Office will not conduct business directly with the applicant or registrant, or with another practitioner from a different firm, unless the applicant or registrant files a revocation of the power of attorney under § 2.19(a), and/or a new power of attorney that meets the requirements of § 2.17(c). A written request to change the correspondence address does not revoke a power of attorney.

(b) Changing the correspondence address. (1) If a physical or e-mail correspondence address changes, the applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding must file a written request to change the correspondence address. The request should be promptly filed.

(2) A request to change the correspondence address must be made in writing, signed by the applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, registrant, or party (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with § 2.193(e)(9).

(3) If an applicant or registrant files a new power of attorney that meets the requirements of § 2.17(c), the Office will change the correspondence address to that of the practitioner named in the power.

(4) If a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter transmits a document(s) on behalf of an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding who is not already represented by another qualified practitioner, the Office will construe this as including a request to change the correspondence address to that of the practitioner, and will send correspondence to the practitioner.

(c) Post registration filings under sections 7, 8, 9, 12(c), 15, and 71. (1) Even if there is no new power of attorney or written request to change the correspondence address, the Office will change the correspondence address upon the examination of an affidavit under section 8, 12(c), 15 or 71 of the Trademark Act, renewal application under section 9 of the Act, or request for amendment or correction under section 7 of the Act. If a practitioner qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter transmits the affidavit, renewal application, or section 7 request, the Office will send correspondence to the practitioner. If the owner of the registration is not represented by a qualified practitioner, the Office will send correspondence directly to the owner, or to the domestic representative if appropriate, in accordance with paragraph (a).

(2) Once the Office establishes a correspondence address upon examination of an affidavit, renewal application, or section 7 request, a written request to change the address in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (b)(2) of this section is required to change the address during the pendency of that filing.

■ 4. Revise § 2.19 to read as follows:

§ 2.19 Revocation or withdrawal of attorney.

(a) Revocation. (1) Authority to represent an applicant, registrant or party to a proceeding before the Office may be revoked at any stage in the proceedings of a trademark case, upon written notification signed by the applicant, registrant, or party to the proceeding, or by someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, registrant, or party (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership). In the case of joint applicants or joint registrants, all must sign.

(2) When a power of attorney is revoked, the Office will communicate directly with the applicant, registrant, or party to the proceeding, or with the new attorney or domestic representative if appropriate.

(3) A request to change the correspondence address does not revoke a power of attorney.

(4) A new power of attorney that meets the requirements of § 2.17(c) will be treated as a revocation of the previous power.

(b) Withdrawal of attorney. If the requirements of § 10.40 of this chapter are met, a practitioner authorized to represent an applicant, registrant, or party to a proceeding in a trademark case may withdraw upon application to and approval by the Director or, when applicable, upon motion granted by the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board. The practitioner should file the request to withdraw soon after the practitioner notifies the client of his/her intent to withdraw. The request must include the following:

(1) The application serial number, registration number, or proceeding number;

(2) A statement of the reason(s) for the request to withdraw; and

(3) Either

(i) A statement that the practitioner has given notice to the client that the practitioner is withdrawing from employment and will be filing the necessary documents with the Office; that the client was given notice of the withdrawal at least two months before the expiration of the response period, if applicable; that the practitioner has delivered to the client all documents and property in the practitioner's file concerning the application, registration or proceeding to which the client is entitled; and that the practitioner has notified the client of any responses that may be due, and of the deadline for response; or

(ii) If more than one qualified practitioner is of record, a statement that representation by co-counsel is ongoing.

■ 5. Revise § 2.22(a)(11) to read as follows:

§ 2.22 Filing requirements for a TEAS Plus application.

(a) * * *

(11) A verified statement that meets the requirements of § 2.33, dated and signed by a person properly authorized to sign on behalf of the owner pursuant to § 2.193(e)(1);

* * * * *

■ 6. Revise § 2.24 to read as follows:

§ 2.24 Designation and revocation of domestic representative by foreign applicant.

(a)(1) If an applicant is not domiciled in the United States, the applicant may designate a domestic representative (i.e., a person residing in the United States on whom notices or process in proceedings affecting the mark may be served) by either:

(i) Setting forth the name and address of the domestic representative in the initial application; or

(ii) Filing a separate designation setting forth the name and address of the domestic representative, signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter.

(2) If the applicant does not file a document designating the name and address of a person residing in the United States on whom notices or process in proceedings affecting the mark may be served, or if the last person designated cannot be found at the address given in the designation, then notices or process in proceedings affecting the mark may be served on the Director.

(3) The mere designation of a domestic representative does not authorize the person designated to represent the applicant unless qualified under § 11.14 of this chapter.

(b) A request to change or revoke a designation of domestic representative must be signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter.

■ 7. Amend § 2.33 by revising paragraph (a) to read as follows, and removing and reserving paragraph (d):

§ 2.33 Verified statement.

(a) The application must include a statement that is signed in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193 and verified (sworn to) or supported by a declaration under § 2.20 by a person properly authorized to sign on behalf of the applicant under § 2.193(e)(1).

* * * * *

■ 8. Revise § 2.62(b) to read as follows:

§ 2.62 Procedure for filing response.

* * * * *

(b) Signature. The response must be signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193(e)(2).

■ 9. Revise § 2.64(b) to read as follows:

§ 2.64 Final action.

* * * * *

(b) During the period between a final action and expiration of the time for filing an appeal, the applicant may request the examiner to reconsider the final action. The request must be signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14, in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193(e)(2). The filing of a request for reconsideration will not extend the time for filing an appeal or petitioning the Director, but normally the examiner will reply to a request for reconsideration before the end of the six-month period if the request is filed within three months after the date of the final action. The Office will enter amendments accompanying requests for reconsideration after final action if the amendments comply with the rules of practice in trademark cases and the Act.

* * * * *

■ 10. Revise § 2.68 to read as follows:

§ 2.68 Express abandonment (withdrawal) of application.

(a) Written document required. An applicant may expressly abandon an application by filing a written request for abandonment or withdrawal of the application, signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193(e)(2).

(b) Rights in the mark not affected. Except as provided in § 2.135, the fact that an application has been expressly abandoned shall not, in any proceeding in the Office, affect any rights that the applicant may have in the mark in the abandoned application.

■ 11. Revise § 2.74(b) to read as follows:

§ 2.74 Form and signature of amendment.

* * * * *

(b) Signature. A request for amendment of an application must be signed by the applicant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193(e)(2). If the amendment requires verification, the verification must be sworn to or supported by a declaration under § 2.20 by a person properly authorized to sign on behalf of the applicant under § 2.193(e)(1).

■ 12. Revise § 2.76(b)(1) introductory text to read as follows:

If the verification is unsigned or signed by the wrong party, the applicant must submit a substitute verification within six months of the date of issuance of the notice of allowance.

The opposer must include with the opposition proof of service pursuant to § 2.119 at the correspondence address of record in the Office. If any service copy of the opposition is returned to the opposer as undeliverable, the opposer must notify the Board within ten days of receipt of the returned copy. The opposition need not be verified, but must be signed by the opposer or the opposer's attorney, as specified in § 11.1 of this chapter, or other authorized representative, as specified in § 11.14(b) of this chapter. Electronic signatures pursuant to § 2.193(c) are required for oppositions filed through ESTTA under paragraphs (b)(1) or (2) of this section.

■ 17. Revise § 2.102(a) introductory text to read as follows:

§ 2.102 Extension of time for filing an opposition.

(a) Any person who believes that he, she or it would be damaged by the registration of a mark on the Principal Register may file in the Office a written request, addressed to the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board, to extend the time for filing an opposition. The written request need not be verified, but must be signed by the potential opposer or by the potential opposer's attorney, as specified in § 11.1 of this chapter, or authorized representative, as specified in § 11.14(b) of this chapter. Electronic signatures pursuant to § 2.193(c) are required for electronically filed extension requests.

If any service copy of the petition for cancellation is returned to the petitioner as undeliverable, the petitioner must notify the Board within ten days of receipt of the returned copy. The petition for cancellation need not be verified, but must be signed by the petitioner or the petitioner's attorney, as specified in § 11.1 of this chapter, or other authorized representative, as specified in § 11.14(b) of this chapter. Electronic signatures pursuant to § 2.193(c) are required for petitions submitted electronically via ESTTA. The petition for cancellation may be filed at any time in the case of registrations on the Supplemental Register or under the Act of 1920, or registrations under the Act of 1881 or the Act of 1905 which have not been published under section 12(c) of the Act, or on any ground specified in section 14(3) or (5) of the Act. In all other cases, the petition for cancellation and the required fee must be filed within five years from the date of registration of the mark under the Act or from the date of publication under section 12(c) of the Act.

■ 19. Revise § 2.119(d) to read as follows:

§ 2.119 Service and signing of papers.

* * * * *

(d) If a party to an inter partes proceeding is not domiciled in the United States and is not represented by an attorney or other authorized representative located in the United States, the party may designate by document filed in the United States Patent and Trademark Office the name and address of a person residing in the United States on whom may be served notices or process in the proceeding. If the party has appointed a domestic representative, official communications of the United States Patent and Trademark Office will be addressed to the domestic representative unless the proceeding is being prosecuted by an attorney at law or other qualified person duly authorized under § 11.14(c) of this subchapter. If the party has not appointed a domestic representative and the proceeding is not being prosecuted by an attorney at law or other qualified person, the Office will send correspondence directly to the party, unless the party designates in writing another address to which correspondence is to be sent. The mere designation of a domestic representative does not authorize the person designated to prosecute the proceeding unless qualified under § 11.14(a), or qualified under § 11.14(b) and authorized under § 2.17(f).

* * * * *

■ 20. Revise § 2.146(c) to read as follows:

§ 2.146 Petitions to the Director.

* * * * *

(c) Every petition to the Director shall include a statement of the facts relevant to the petition, the points to be reviewed, the action or relief requested, and the fee required by § 2.6. Any brief in support of the petition shall be embodied in or accompany the petition. The petition must be signed by the petitioner, someone with legal authority to bind the petitioner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193(e)(5). When facts are to be proved on petition, the petitioner must submit proof in the form of affidavits or declarations in accordance with § 2.20, signed by someone with firsthand knowledge of the facts to be proved, and any exhibits.

* * * * *

■ 21. Revise § 2.153 to read as follows:

§ 2.153 Publication requirements.

The owner of a mark registered under the provisions of the Trademark Act of 1881 or 1905 may at any time prior to the expiration of the period for which the registration was issued or renewed, upon the payment of the prescribed fee, file an affidavit or declaration in accordance with § 2.20 setting forth those goods or services in the registration on or in connection with which said mark is in use in commerce, and stating that the owner claims the benefits of the Act of 1946. The affidavit or declaration must be signed by a person properly authorized to sign on behalf of the owner under § 2.193(e)(1).

■ 22. Revise § 2.161(b) to read as follows:

§ 2.161 Requirements for a complete affidavit or declaration of continued use or excusable nonuse.

* * * * *

(b) Include a statement that is signed and verified (sworn to) or supported by a declaration under § 2.20 by a person properly authorized to sign on behalf of the owner under § 2.193(e)(1), attesting to the use or excusable nonuse of the mark within the period set forth in section 8 of the Act. The verified statement must be executed on or after the beginning of the filing period specified in § 2.160(a).

* * * * *

■ 23. Revise § 2.163(b) to read as follows:

§ 2.163 Acknowledgment of receipt of affidavit or declaration, and response to Office action.

* * * * *

(b) A response to the refusal must be filed within six months of the date of issuance of the Office action, or before the end of the filing period set forth in section 8(a) or section 8(b) of the Act, whichever is later. The response must be signed by the owner, someone with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193(e)(2).

* * * * *

■ 24. Revise § 2.167(a) to read as follows:

§ 2.167 Affidavit or declaration under Section 15.

* * * * *

(a) Be verified (sworn to) or supported by a declaration under § 2.20, signed by the owner of the registration or a person properly authorized to sign on behalf of the owner under § 2.193(e)(1);

* * * * *

■ 25. Revise § 2.171(b)(1) to read as follows:

§ 2.171 New certificate on change of ownership.

* * * * *

(1) In a registration resulting from an application based on section 1 or section 44 of the Act, if ownership of a registration has changed with respect to some but not all of the goods and/or services, the owner(s) may file a request that the registration be divided into two or more separate registrations. The assignment or other document changing title must be recorded in the Office. The request to divide must include the fee required by § 2.6(a)(8) for each new registration created by the division, and be signed by the owner of the registration, someone with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with § 2.193(e)(2) of this chapter.

* * * * *

■ 26. Revise § 2.172 to read as follows:

§ 2.172 Surrender for cancellation.

Upon application by the owner, the Director may permit any registration to be surrendered for cancellation. The application for surrender must be signed by the owner of the registration, someone with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter. When a registration has more than one class, one or more entire class(es) but fewer than the total number of classes may be surrendered. Deletion of fewer than all the goods or services in a single class constitutes amendment of the registration as to that class (see § 2.173), not surrender.

■ 27. Revise § 2.184(b)(2) to read as follows:

§ 2.184 Refusal of renewal.

* * * * *

(b) * * *

(2) The response must be signed by the registrant, someone with legal authority to bind the registrant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner who meets the requirements of § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with the requirements of § 2.193(e)(2).

* * * * *

■ 28. Revise § 2.193 to read as follows:

§ 2.193 Trademark correspondence and signature requirements.

(a) Signature required. Each piece of correspondence that requires a signature must bear:

(1) A handwritten signature personally signed in permanent ink by the person named as the signatory, or a true copy thereof; or

(2) An electronic signature that meets the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section, personally entered by the person named as the signatory. The Office will accept an electronic signature that meets the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section on correspondence filed on paper, by facsimile transmission (§ 2.195(c)), or through TEAS or ESTTA.

(b) Copy of original signature. If a copy, such as a photocopy or facsimile copy of an original signature is filed, the filer should retain the original as evidence of authenticity. If a question of authenticity arises, the Office may require submission of the original.

(c) Requirements for electronic signature. A person signing a document electronically must:

(1) Personally enter any combination of letters, numbers, spaces and/or punctuation marks that he or she has adopted as a signature, placed between two forward slash (“/”) symbols in the signature block on the electronic submission; or

(2) Sign the verified statement using some other form of electronic signature specified by the Director.

(d) Signatory must be identified. The name of the person who signs a document in connection with a trademark application, registration, or proceeding before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board must be set forth in printed or typed form immediately below or adjacent to the signature, or identified elsewhere in the filing (e.g., in a cover letter or other document that accompanies the filing).

(e) Proper person to sign. Documents filed in connection with a trademark application or registration must be signed by a proper person. Unless otherwise specified by law, the following requirements apply:

(1) Verification of facts. A verification in support of an application for registration, amendment to an application for registration, allegation of use under § 2.76 or § 2.88, request for extension of time to file a statement of use under § 2.89, or an affidavit under section 8, 12(c), 15, or 71 of the Trademark Act must be sworn to or supported by a declaration under § 2.20, signed by the owner or a person properly authorized to sign on behalf of the owner. A person who is properly authorized to verify facts on behalf of an owner is:

(i) A person with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership);

(ii) A person with firsthand knowledge of the facts and actual or implied authority to act on behalf of the owner; or

(iii) An attorney as defined in § 11.1 of this chapter who has an actual written or verbal power of attorney or an implied power of attorney from the owner.

(2) Responses, amendments to applications, requests for express abandonment, requests for reconsideration of final actions, and requests to divide. Responses to Office actions, amendments to applications, requests for express abandonment, requests for reconsideration of final actions, and requests to divide must be signed by the owner of the application or registration, someone with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with the following guidelines:

(i) If the owner is represented by a practitioner qualified to practice before the Office under § 11.14 of this chapter, the practitioner must sign, except where the owner is required to sign the correspondence; or

(ii) If the owner is not represented by a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, the individual owner or someone with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership) must sign. In the case of joint owners who are not represented by a qualified practitioner, all must sign.

(3) Powers of attorney and revocations of powers of attorney. Powers of attorney and revocations of powers of attorney must be signed by the individual applicant, registrant or party to a proceeding pending before the Office, or by someone with legal authority to bind the applicant, registrant, or party (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership). In the case of joint applicants, registrants, or parties, all must sign. Once the applicant, registrant or party has designated a qualified practitioner(s), the named practitioner may sign an associate power of attorney appointing another qualified practitioner(s) as an additional person(s) authorized to prosecute the application or registration. If the applicant, registrant, or party revokes the original power of attorney, the revocation discharges any associate power signed by the practitioner whose power has been revoked. If the practitioner who signed an associate power withdraws, the withdrawal discharges any associate power signed by the withdrawing practitioner upon acceptance of the request for withdrawal by the Office.

(4) Petitions to revive under § 2.66. A petition to revive under § 2.66 must be signed by someone with firsthand knowledge of the facts regarding unintentional delay.

(5) Petitions to Director under § 2.146. A petition to the Director under § 2.146 must be signed by the petitioner, someone with legal authority to bind the petitioner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with the following guidelines:

(i) If the petitioner is represented by a practitioner qualified to practice before the Office under § 11.14 of this chapter, the practitioner must sign; or

(ii) If the petitioner is not represented by a practitioner authorized to practice before the Office under § 11.14 of this chapter, the individual petitioner or someone with legal authority to bind the petitioner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership) must sign. In the case of joint petitioners, all must sign.

(6) Requests for correction, amendment or surrender of registrations. A request for correction, amendment or surrender of a registration must be signed by the owner of the registration, someone with legal authority to bind the owner (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice before the Office under § 11.14 of this chapter. In the case of joint owners who are not represented by a qualified practitioner, all must sign.

(7) Renewal applications. A renewal application must be signed by the registrant or the registrant's representative.

(8) Designations and revocations of domestic representative. A designation or revocation of a domestic representative must be signed by the applicant or registrant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant or registrant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter. In the case of joint applicants or registrants, all must sign.

(9) Requests to change correspondence address in an application or registration. A notice of change of correspondence address in an application or registration must be signed by the applicant or registrant, someone with legal authority to bind the applicant or registrant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership), or a practitioner qualified to practice under § 11.14 of this chapter, in accordance with the following guidelines:

(i) If the applicant or registrant is represented by a practitioner qualified to practice before the Office under § 11.14 of this chapter, the practitioner must sign; or

(ii) If the applicant or registrant is not represented by a practitioner qualified to practice before the Office under § 11.14, the individual applicant or registrant or someone with legal authority to bind the applicant or registrant (e.g., a corporate officer or general partner of a partnership) must sign. In the case of joint applicants or joint registrants, all must sign.

(10) Cover letters. A person transmitting paper documents to the Office may sign a cover letter or transmittal letter. The Office neither requires cover letters nor questions the authority of a person who signs a communication that merely transmits paper documents.

(f) Signature as certification. The presentation to the Office (whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating) of any document by any person, whether a practitioner or non-practitioner, constitutes a certification under § 11.18(b) of this chapter. Violations of § 11.18(b) of this chapter may jeopardize the validity of the application or registration, and may result in the imposition of sanctions under § 11.18(c) of this chapter. Any practitioner violating § 11.18(b) of this chapter may also be subject to disciplinary action. See §§ 10.23(c)(15) and 11.18(d) of this chapter.

(g) Separate copies for separate files. (1) Since each file must be complete in itself, a separate copy of every document to be filed in connection with a trademark application, registration, or inter partes proceeding must be furnished for each file to which the document pertains, even though the contents of the documents filed in multiple files may be identical.

(2) Parties should not file duplicate copies of correspondence in a single application, registration, or proceeding file, unless the Office requires the filing of duplicate copies. The Office may dispose of duplicate copies of correspondence.

(h) Separate documents for separate branches of the Office. Since different branches or sections of the Office may consider different matters, each distinct subject, inquiry or order must be contained in a separate document to avoid confusion and delay in answering correspondence.

(i) Certified documents required by statute. When a statute requires that a document be certified, a copy or facsimile transmission of the certification is not acceptable.

Federal Travel Regulation (FTR); Updated Meal Cost Table for Furnished Meal(s) Adjustments

AGENCY: Office of Governmentwide Policy, General Services Administration (GSA).

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: 5 U.S.C. 5702 authorizes the General Services Administration (GSA) to establish per diem allowances within the continental United States (CONUS) for the reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses of official travel. After a recent comprehensive meals and incidental expenses (M&IE) study, GSA is amending the Federal Travel Regulation in regards to the allocated meal costs. The new costs are broken out in the table § 301-11.18 by continental breakfast/breakfast, lunch, and dinner for the use of travelers who have had a meal(s) furnished by the Government or included in the registration fee, and who then must deduct the meal(s) before submitting the voucher for reimbursement. GSA is also updating the incidental expense rate.

DATES: Effective Date: October 26, 2009.

Applicability Date: This final rule is applicable for official travel performed on and after October 1, 2009.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: The Regulatory Secretariat (MVR), Room 4041, GS Building, Washington, DC 20405, (202) 501-4755, for information pertaining to status or publication schedules. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

GSA periodically reviews the M&IE allowances throughout the continental United States (CONUS) to ensure the rates reflect the prices charged at local eating establishments. The GSA's Office of Governmentwide Policy (OGP) has recently completed a comprehensive M&IE study. This final rule amends the Federal Travel Regulation in regards to the allocated meal costs which must be adjusted when a meal(s) is furnished by the Government or is included in the registration fee, along with amending the incidental expense rate.

B. Executive Order 12866

This is not a significant regulatory action, and therefore, was not subject to review under Section 6(b) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. This final rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804.

C. Regulatory Flexibility Act

This final rule is not required to be published in the Federal Register for notice and comment, therefore the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., does not apply.

D. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because the final changes to the FTR do not impose recordkeeping or information collection requirements, or the collection of information from offerors, contractors, or members of the public that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. 3501, et seq.

E. Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

This final rule is also exempt from congressional review prescribed under 5 U.S.C. 801 since it relates to agency management and personnel.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION47 CFR Part 64*[CG Docket No. 03–123; DA 08–2808]*Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech-to-Speech Services for Individuals With Hearing and Speech Disabilities

AGENCY: Federal Communications Commission.

ACTION: Final rule; extension of waiver.

SUMMARY: In this document, the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) extends for an additional year waivers of certain Telecommunications Relay Services (TRS) mandatory minimum standards for Video Relay Service (VRS) and Internet Protocol Relay (IP Relay). The waived TRS mandatory minimum standards are: One-line voice carry over (VCO); VCO-to-teletypewriter (TTY); VCO-to-VCO; one-line hearing carry over (HCO); HCO-to-TTY; HCO-to-HCO; call release; pay-per-call (900) calls; types of calls; equal access to interexchange carriers; and speech-to-speech (STS). Also, in this document, the Bureau grants a limited extension of the waiver of the speed dialing requirement for IP Relay. The Bureau extends the waivers for one year (four months in the case of speed dialing for IP Relay) because the record demonstrates that it is technologically infeasible for VRS and IP Relay providers to offer these services at this time.

DATES: The waivers of certain TRS mandatory minimum standards for VRS and IP Relay will expire on January 1, 2010, except the limited extension of the waiver of the speed dialing requirement for IP Relay, which expired on May 1, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Parties may submit documentation related to the waivers, identified by [CG Docket No. 03–123 and/or DA 08–2808], by mail, to: Dana Wilson, Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau, Disability Rights Office, 445 12th Street, SW., Room 3–C418, Washington, DC 20554.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This is a summary of the Bureau Order, document DA 08–2808, adopted and released on December 24, 2008, extending certain waivers of TRS mandatory minimum standards to January 1, 2010, and extending waiver of the speed dialing requirement for IP Relay until May 1, 2009. Synopsis

1. The Commission, in various orders, has waived several TRS mandatory minimum standards for VRS and IP Relay either because, as Internet-based services, it is not technologically feasible to meet the requirement or, in the case of VRS, because VRS is a video-based service and the communication is via sign language and not text. Most recently, in the 2007 TRS Waiver Order, the Commission extended certain waivers until January 1, 2009. See Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech-to-Speech Services for Individuals with Hearing and Speech Disabilities, CG Docket No. 03–123, Order, adopted and released on December 26, 2007, published at 73 FR 9031, February 19, 2008 (2007 TRS Waiver Order). These waivers were conditioned on the filing of annual reports, due April 16, 2008, addressing whether it was necessary for the waivers to remain in effect. All VRS and IP Relay providers have filed reports detailing their progress in meeting the waived requirements. The Bureau reviewed these reports in reaching the conclusions below.

2. One-line VCO, VCO-to-TTY, and VCO-to-VCO. VCO is a type of traditional TTY-based TRS that can be used by persons with a hearing disability but who can speak. See 47 CFR 64.601(27); 47 CFR 64.604(a)(3)(v). The Commission waived these requirements for IP Relay providers because the voice leg of a VCO call could not be supported over the Internet. The Commission similarly waived these requirements for VRS. The Bureau extends the waivers of these requirements for one year. The Bureau notes that the April 16, 2008 waiver reports reflected that VRS and IP Relay providers cannot provide these services because the Internet cannot support the voice leg of a VCO call with the necessary call quality. These waivers were again conditioned on the filing of reports, due April 16, 2009, addressing whether it is necessary for the waivers to remain in effect.

3. One-line HCO, HCO-to-TTY, and HCO-to-HCO. One-line HCO is a type of traditional TTY-based TRS that can be used by persons with a speech disability but who can hear. See 47 CFR 64.604(9); 47 CFR 64.604(a)(3)(v). For the same reason the Commission waived the VCO requirements for IP Relay, it did so with respect to the HCO requirements. The Commission similarly waived these requirements for VRS. Consistent with the Bureau's treatment of VCO, and for the same reasons, the Bureau extends the waivers of these requirements for one year. The Bureau also notes that the April 16, 2008 waiver reports reflected that VRS and IP Relay providers could not provide these services. These waivers were also conditioned on the filing of reports, due April 16, 2009, addressing whether it is necessary for the waivers to remain in effect.

4. Call Release. Call release allows a communications assistant (CA) to set up a TTY-to-TTY call that, once established, does not require the CA to relay the conversation. See 47 CFR 64.604(a)(3)(vi). The Commission waived this requirement for VRS and IP Relay. The Bureau extends the waivers of this requirement for one year due to technological infeasibility. This conclusion is supported by the providers' April 16, 2008 waiver reports, which reflect that the Internet leg of the call (via video or text) cannot support call release functionality. These waivers were also conditioned on the filing of reports, due April 16, 2009, addressing whether it is necessary for the waivers to remain in effect.

5. Pay-Per-Call (900) calls. Pay-per-call (900) calls are calls that the person making the call pays for at a charge greater than the basic cost of the call. See 47 CFR 64.604(a)(3)(iv). The Commission waived this requirement for VRS and IP Relay. The Bureau extends the waivers of this requirement for VRS and IP Relay for one year. The providers' April 16, 2008 waiver reports reflected that there was still no billing mechanism available to handle the charges associated with pay-per-calls. These waivers were also conditioned on the filing of reports, due April 16, 2009, addressing whether it is necessary for the waivers to remain in effect.

6. Types of Calls (Operated Assisted Calls and Long Distance Calls). Commission rules require TRS providers to handle any type of call normally handled by common carriers. See 47 CFR 64.604(a)(3). The requirement that VRS providers offer operator-assisted calls and bill certain types of calls to the end user has been waived because it was not possible to determine if a VRS call is local or long distance. The providers' April 16, 2008 waiver reports reflected that it remained technologically infeasible for VRS providers to offer operator-assisted calls and to bill for certain types of long distance calls because one leg of the VRS call is transmitted over the Internet. Based on the record, the Bureau therefore extends waivers of this requirement for VRS for one year as long as providers allow calls to be placed using calling cards and/or provide free long distance calls. This waiver was also conditioned on the filing of a report, due April 16, 2009, addressing whether it is necessary for the waiver to remain in effect. Although this issue has not been raised, the Bureau understands that IP Relay providers, for the same reasons as VRS providers, cannot provide these services. Therefore, to avoid any future uncertainty or compliance issues, the Bureau waives on its own motion this requirement for IP Relay as long as the providers allow calls to be placed using calling cards and/or to provide free long distance calls. The Bureau notes, however, that with the advent of ten-digit numbering for VRS and IP Relay, which became effective December 31, 2008, providers will be able to determine the geographic location of both parties to the call. Therefore, in their April 2009 waiver report, providers were to specifically address the effect of the numbering and registered location requirements on the continued need for this waiver.

7. Equal Access to Interexchange Carriers. The TRS rules require that providers offer TRS users their interexchange carrier of choice to the same extent that such access is provided to voice users. See 47 CFR 64.604(b)(3). The Commission has waived this requirement for VRS providers, noting that it was not possible to determine if a call is long distance and, in any event, the providers could not automatically route the calls to the caller's long distance carrier of choice. The Commission also noted that this waiver was contingent on VRS providers providing long distance services free of charge to the caller. The Commission waived this requirement for IP Relay indefinitely.

8. The providers' April 16, 2008 waiver reports again reflected that because they cannot determine whether a particular call is local or long distance, they cannot offer carrier of choice but instead do not charge consumers for long distance. Based on the record, the Bureau therefore extends this waiver for VRS for one year as long as the providers provide free long distance calls. This waiver was also conditioned on the filing of a report, due April 16, 2009, addressing whether it is necessary for the waiver to remain in effect. Again, however, as noted above, providers were to specifically address the effect of the numbering and registered location requirements on the continuing need for this waiver.

9. Speech-to-Speech. In 2000, the Commission recognized STS as a form of TRS and required that it be offered as a mandatory service. The Commission waived this requirement indefinitely for VRS, noting that STS is speech-based service, whereas VRS is a visual service using interpreters to interpret in sign language over a video connection. The requirement for IP Relay was waived until January 1, 2009, because of the technical difficulties with respect to voice-initiated calls and the Internet. The Bureau extends the waiver of this requirement for IP Relay for one year.

Providers continued to report that this service, like the VCO and HCO services, cannot be provided via IP Relay because of erratic voice quality. The waiver was also conditioned on the filing of a report, due April 16, 2009, addressing whether it is necessary for the waiver to remain in effect.

10. Speed Dialing. Speed dialing allows a TRS user to give the CA a "short-hand" name or number (e.g., "call Mom") for the user's most frequently called telephone numbers. See 47 CFR 64.604(a)(3)(vi). This feature permits a person making a TRS call through a CA to place the call without having to remember or locate the number he or she desires to call. The Commission waived this requirement for IP Relay. The waiver of the speed dialing requirement for VRS expired on April 30, 2008. See Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech-to-Speech Services for Individuals with Hearing and Speech Disabilities, CG Docket No. 03-123, Order, adopted and released on January 8, 2008, published at 73 FR 9031, February 19, 2008.

11. Based on the record, the Bureau granted a limited extension of this requirement for IP Relay until April 30, 2009. The record indicated that all IP Relay providers except AT&T are offering speed dialing. In November 2008, AT&T filed a request to extend this waiver for 90 days, noting that it has recently "upgraded" its service "from a web-based service to an IM-based service," and is phasing out use of its web-based IP Relay service that lacks a speed dialing feature. AT&T therefore requested a waiver of the speed dialing feature "solely [for] its web-based IP Relay service through March 31, 2009, at which time AT&T will have ceased providing the service." AT&T asserted that granting the limited waiver is in the public interest, as it allows existing users of its web-based service a reasonable timeframe to migrate to other types of IP Relay services that offer a speed dialing feature, such as AT&T's IM-based IP Relay service. The Bureau agreed that, in these circumstances, a limited 90 day extension of the waiver of the speed dialing requirement for AT&T's Web-based IP Relay service was appropriate. For this reason, the Bureau granted AT&T's request for an extension of this waiver through April 30, 2009. After that date, all IP Relay providers must offer this feature.

Ordering Clauses

12. Pursuant to section 225 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. 225, and §§ 0.141, 0.361, and 1.3 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR 0.141, 0.361, and 1.3, document DA 08-2808 is adopted.

13. For VRS, the waivers of the one-line VCO, VCO-to-TTY, and VCO-to-VCO; one-line HCO, HCO-to-TTY, and HCO-to-HCO; call release; pay-per-call (900) calls, types of calls, and equal access to interexchange carrier requirements are hereby extended for one year, until January 1, 2010, conditioned on the filing of a report, due April 16, 2009, addressing whether it is necessary for the waivers to remain in effect.

14. For IP Relay, the waivers of the one-line VCO, VCO-to-TTY, and VCO-to-VCO; one-line HCO, HCO-to-TTY, and HCO-to-HCO; call release; pay-per-call (900) calls; and STS requirements are hereby extended for one year until January 1, 2010, conditioned on the filing of a report, due April 16, 2009, addressing whether it is necessary for the waivers to remain in effect. The waiver of the speed dialing requirement for IP Relay is extended until May 1, 2009.

15. AT&T's Request for Extension of Waiver is granted.

Federal Communications Commission.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

A. Background

The GSA is amending the GSA Acquisition Regulation (GSAR) to update the text addressing contract financing. This rule is a result of the GSA Acquisition Manual (GSAM) rewrite initiative undertaken by GSA to revise the GSAM to maintain consistency with the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) and implement streamlined and innovative acquisition procedures that contractors, offerors, and GSA contracting personnel can utilize when entering into and administering contractual relationships. The GSAM incorporates the GSAR as well as internal agency acquisition policy.

The GSA will rewrite each part of the GSAR and GSAM, and as each GSAR part is rewritten, will publish it in the Federal Register.

This rule covers the rewrite of GSAR Part 532, Contract Financing. A proposed rule was published in the Federal Register at 73 FR 58515 on October 7, 2008. Three comment letters, with 23 comments, were received in response to the proposed rule.

Many of the comments apply solely to construction and architect-engineer contracts. Two of these comments were referred to the GSAM Part 536 team for consideration in the rewrite of that part. These dealt with the Public Building Service's unique requirement for progress payment meetings and the need to have contractor involvement in such meetings. These comments will be addressed in the final rule for GSAM Part 536, Construction and Architect-Engineer Contracts. The responses to the balance of the construction-related comments were coordinated with the GSAM Part 536 team.

Comment: The commenter believes that GSA Form 1142, Release of Claims, is an unauthorized form. Commenter notes that there is no Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number and no indication that a Regulatory Flexibility Act analysis was ever performed. Commenter also notes that the form fails to advise contractors that, by signing the form, they forfeit certain rights.

Response: Currently, use of this form is prescribed at GSAR 532.904(a). The commenter is correct that there is no OMB control number on the GSA Form 1142, and GSAM Part 532 drafters cannot find any record of a Regulatory Flexibility Act analysis ever having been performed for this pre-GSAM Rewrite requirement. Further, the form has not been revised since December 1974. The material on the "form" is minimal, and neither the FAR nor the GSAM require specific wording for the contractor's release of claims. Therefore, the GSA Form 1142 will be cancelled, and GSAR 532.904(a) of the proposed rule is deleted.

Comment: Given that the requirement for a release of claims stems from FAR 52.232-26 and 52.232-27, commenter believes it would be more appropriate for the FAR Council to develop a standard form to be used by all agencies in accordance with FAR 1.304(c), because it is not just pertinent to GSA.

Response: This comment pertains to whether the GSA Form 1142 should be retained or a Standard Form should be designed as a FAR Part 32 change. Given that neither FAR clause designates specific wording for the contractor's release of claims, it does not appear to be an appropriate candidate for a standard form.

Comment: Commenter believes that the FAR Council should consider allowing contractors to submit the release jointly along with the electronic submission of a final invoice request.

Response: This is outside the scope of the GSAM Rewrite.

Comment: Commenter believes that, under GSAR 532.904, contracting officers' repeated attempts to obtain release of claims from contractors could be considered coercion penalizing contractors by withholding funds. Commenter thinks that GSAM should justify the reasonableness of withholding final payments.

Response: Because the GSA Form 1142 has been cancelled, the balance of GSAR 532.904(a) should also be deleted. Further, obtaining a release of claims is a FAR requirement, not a GSA requirement.

Comment: Commenter believes that the GSAM should provide guidance for contracting officers to initiate an action for architect-engineer (A-E) design services in advance of approved appropriations. Many find nothing in the FAR that precludes contracting officers from selecting an A-E using Brooks Act procedures through the solicitation and negotiation phase up to award when the appropriations request is included in the President's Budget.

Response: There is currently appropriate guidance on contracting in advance of funds in FAR Subpart 32.7 and GSAM Subpart 532.7. There is no reason to treat A-E design services differently.

Comment: Commenter states that contractors experience numerous problems attempting to submit invoices electronically to GSA for payment. Frequently, commenter claims, GSA has failed to enter obligations into Pegasys which, in turn, prohibits contractors from being able to submit a pay request and establish a receipt date for purposes of computing interest, which appears to be in direct violation of FAR 32.907(f).

Response: This comment is outside the scope of the GSAM Rewrite. The commenter appears to have issues with Pegasys, which is a financial system, not a contracting system.

Comment: Commenter recommends that GSA include in its invoicing system a citation to FAR 32.909(b) that suggests that contractors contact GSA small business specialist or representative from the Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization to obtain additional assistance related to payment issues, late payment interest penalties, and information on the Prompt Payment Act.

Response: FAR 1.304(b) states that "(a)gency acquisition regulations shall not * * * (u)necessarily repeat, paraphrase, or otherwise restate material contained in the FAR or higher-level agency acquisition regulations." Therefore, the commenter's recommendation is not accepted.

Comment: Commenter suggests that, to eliminate confusion and ensure consistency, all GSA contractors should be permitted to submit invoices electronically, including those for construction contracts awarded on an SF 1442. Invoices for construction contracts awarded on a GSA Form 300 as a task order against an indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity contract are permitted to be submitted electronically. All construction payments are 14-day pay.

Response: The GSA Form 300 was cancelled in connection with the rewrite of GSAR Part 513. Therefore, using the cancelled form as a reason to revise the invoicing rules for contracts awarded using another form is moot. Further, authority to submit invoices electronically is provided by Office of the Chief Financial Officer, not the GSAM.

Comment: Commenter states that, per FAR 32.103, retainage should not be used as a substitute for good contract management, and the contracting officer should not withhold funds without cause.

Response: We agree with the commenter but do not propose to revise the GSAM as a result.

Comment: Commenter addresses GSA Form 2419 using the same rationale as commenter used for the GSA Form 1142. Just like the Release of Claims form, commenter says, it would seem more appropriate for the FAR Council to develop a standard form to be used by all agencies in accordance with FAR 1.304(c) in lieu of GSA's Certification of Progress Payment, Form 2419, since the requirement is set forth for all construction contracts under FAR 32.904.

Response: While we agree with the commenter that it would make sense for the FAR to prescribe a standard form in lieu of the GSA Form 2419, Certification of Progress Payments Under Fixed-Price Construction Contracts, the FAR does not currently do so. The GSA form will be retained unless or until a standard form is prescribed in the FAR.

The commenter likens the GSA Form 2419 to the GSA Form 1142, but the two forms are different in two very important ways. First, the clause at FAR 52.232-5, Payments Under Fixed-Price Construction Contracts, provides exact language that must be used in the certification. Second, the GSA Form 2419 does have an OMB clearance and has been through the Paperwork Reduction Act and Regulatory Flexibility Act review process.

Comment: The proposed rule, at GSAR 532.905(a), required contractors to submit invoices or vouchers concurrently to the Office of the Chief Financial Officer and the contracting officer for approval. The GSA's Office of General Counsel questioned the requirement for contractors to submit more than one copy to the Government, given that the contracting officer is considered to be the "one-face" to the public. The Office of General Counsel recommended that any internal distribution of contractors' invoices or vouchers should be an internal procedural matter.

Response: Agree. The GSAR at 532.905(a) has been revised.

Comment: Commenter recommends that any rejection of invoices should "cite the specific section of FAR 32.905(b)(1) that is in non-compliance" and also advise contractors of their rights under the disputes clause.

Response: FAR 32.905(b)(3) currently requires the designated billing office, if the invoice does not comply with the requirements of FAR 32.905(b)(1), to return it "with the reasons why it is not a proper invoice." Given that FAR 1.304(b) prohibits agency acquisition regulations from unnecessarily repeating the FAR, there will not be a change made to the GSAM as a result of this comment.

Comment: Commenter states that GSA has collected electronic funds transfer information from contractors using a form that has not been approved by OMB for this information collection. Further, there is no indication that GSA is ensuring the financial information collected is protected as privileged and confidential in accordance with FAR 32.1104.

Response: The form described is not prescribed by GSAM. This comment is outside the scope of the GSAM Rewrite. Commenter should direct her concerns to the GSA Office of the Chief Financial Officer.

Comment: Commenter recommends that the reference to FAR 52.232-25(a)(6)(i), at GSAR 532.905(a)(1), should be corrected to 52.232-25(a)(5)(i).

Response: Agree.

Comment: Commenter refers to GSAR 532.905(a)(3), stating that FAR 52.232-26(a)(4)(i)(B) does not give the option of entering an alternative to the 7-day constructive approval for prompt payment. Further, the instructions for the FAR clause state "insert the clause", not "insert a clause substantially the same as."

Response: Agree. The authority at 532.905(a)(3) to select longer periods of time is deleted.

Comment: Commenter refers to 532.905(b)(1), stating that FAR 52.232-27(a)(1)(i)(A) does not give the option of entering an alternative to the 14-day period for payment. Further, the instructions for the FAR clause state "insert the clause," not "insert a clause substantially the same as."

Response: Agree. The authority at 532.905(b)(1) to select longer periods is deleted.

Comment: GSAR 532.905(b)(2) and FAR 52.232-27(a)(4)(i) does not give the option of entering an alternative to the 7-day period for constructive approval for prompt payment. Further, the instructions state "insert the clause", not "insert a clause substantially the same as."

Response: Agree. The authority at GSAR 532.905(b)(2) to select longer periods is deleted.

Comment: With regard to the clause at GSAR 552.232-1, commenter notes that, while this deviation is included in GSAR Part 552, there is no corresponding mention of it in the clause section of Part GSAR 532. The clause prescription should be added to Part 532.

Response: Agree. A new GSAR 532.905(a) will be added as follows: "GSA has a FAR deviation that allows this agency to use the clause at 552.232-1, Payments, in lieu of the clause at FAR 552.232-1, Payments."

Comment: For the preface to the clause at GSAR 552.232-73, the clause prescription should be revised from GSAR 532.705-1 to 532.705-1(b).

Response: Not applicable. The clause at GSAR 552.232-73 has been deleted on the recommendation of GSA's Office of General Counsel.

Comment: With regard to the new clause GSAR 552.232-7007, Limitation of Government's Obligation, commenter strongly believes that authorizing incremental funding of fixed-price, time-and-materials, and labor-hour contracts is ill advised. Commenter believes that limiting the Government's obligation to pay (i.e., conditioning the payment requirement on the availability of funds) is antithetical to the notion of fixed-price contracts. It would also transfer from the Government to the contractor the burden of tracking the costs of contract performance.

Response: Agree. We could not find any agency FAR supplement that authorizes use of incremental funding on time-and-materials or labor-hour contracts. We note that DoD carefully circumscribes the use of incremental funding on fixed-price contracts. Effectively, the same limits already had been provided for GSA under Acquisition Letter V-07-04, dated June 12, 2007. The proposed clause at GSAR 552.232-7007, Limitation of Government's Obligation, and its prescription at 532.705-1(c), have been deleted from the final rule.

Comment: If GSAR 552.232-7007 is retained, commercial-item contracts should be exempted from its use.

Response: We agree that commercial-item contractors do not have the accounting systems needed to track the Government's funds expenditures and should not be required to take on this risk. Although DoD authorizes the use of incremental funding on fixed-price contracts, as the commenter points out, DoD does not award many contracts under FAR Part 12 and therefore does not have any need to address this circumstance. The proposed clause at GSAR 552.232-7007 has been deleted from the final rule.

This is not a significant regulatory action and, therefore, was not subject to review under Section 6(b) of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review, dated September 30, 1993. This rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804.

B. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The General Services Administration certifies that this final rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., because this rule does not add any new contract clauses and, in fact, simplifies agency contract financing rules by eliminating 12 contract clauses from the current GSAR Part 532. For these reasons, it is expected that the number of entities impacted by this rule will be minimal. Therefore, a Regulatory Flexibility Analysis was not performed.

C. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply because the changes to the GSAR do not impose recordkeeping or information collection requirements, or otherwise collect information from offerors, contractors, or members of the public that require approval of the Office of Management and Budget under 44 U.S.C. Chapter 35, et seq.

An official one level above the contracting officer must approve the justification. The time needed should be determined on a case-by-case basis, but the specified constructive acceptance period shall not exceed 30 days.

(c) Stock, Special Order, and Schedules Programs. (1) GSA has obtained a FAR Deviation to authorize payment within 10 days of receipt of a proper invoice. The authority applies only to:

(i) Orders placed by GSA under the referenced programs;

(i) The 10th day after the designated billing office receives a proper invoice from the Contractor. If the designated billing office fails to annotate the invoice with the date of receipt at the time of receipt, the invoice payment due date shall be the 10th day after the date of the Contractor's invoice; provided the Contractor submitted a proper invoice and no disagreement exists over quantity, quality, or Contractor compliance with contract requirements.

Agricultural Marketing Service

7 CFR Part 91

[Document Number AMS-ST-09-0016]

Changes in Hourly Fee Rates for Science and Technology Laboratory Services—Fiscal Years 2010–2012

AGENCY: Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Proposed rule with request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS) proposes changes in annual standard, appeal, overtime, and holiday hourly fee rates for fiscal years 2010–2012 for Science and Technology (S&T) Laboratory Services in order to recover anticipated laboratory program costs. The Agency is proposing to raise these rates to reflect, among other factors, national and locality pay increases for Federal employees and inflation, operating costs, instrumentation and training, equipment maintenance costs, and program and agency administrative overhead costs. This action also proposes miscellaneous changes for clarity.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Science and Technology (S&T) Programs has been performing voluntary laboratory services under the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (AMA), as amended (7 U.S.C. 1621–1627), for the AMS commodity programs (Fruit and Vegetable, Cotton and Tobacco, Livestock and Seed, Poultry, and Dairy) and applicable stakeholders in these industries since its inception on August 17, 1988. Before that time, voluntary laboratory testing was provided for on a separate user fee basis under the various AMS commodity programs. The current standard hourly rate of $67.00, the appeal or overtime hourly rate of $78.00 and the holiday hourly rate of $89.00 have been in effect since the March 30, 2007 final rule (72 FR 15011) was published. The standard fee rate for laboratory services is proposed to be increased to $78.00 per hour in fiscal year 2010, $81.00 per hour in fiscal year 2011, and $83.00 per hour in fiscal year 2012. The appeal and overtime hourly fee rate for laboratory services outside the normal business hours are proposed to increase to $93 in FY 2010, to $96 in FY 2011, and to $99 in FY 2012. The holiday hourly fee rate for laboratory services during designated federal holidays are proposed to increase to $108 in FY 2010, to $111 in FY 2011, and to $115 in FY 2012. An increase in the premium hourly rates over the three fiscal years for laboratory services performed on appeal samples, overtime basis, and holidays is also needed since Science and Technology laboratory personnel may be required to work extended hours of service at the time and a half pay or the double hourly pay on legal holidays to accommodate clients. This is due to stakeholder demand for immediate test results. Generally, the processing of all laboratory samples is continuous over a 24/7 timeframe due to the recent introduction of automated devices on several sample process equipment and analytical instruments.

The Agency proposes to recover the actual cost of services for multiple fiscal years (FY 2010 through FY 2012) covered by this proposed rule. This proposed rule updates S&T Programs' facility addresses. It clarifies that results of analyses and laboratory determinations provided by AMS laboratory services apply to the submitted samples only and do not represent the quality, condition or disposition of the lot from which the sample was derived.

Federal salaries with national and locality pay adjustments and choices in benefits are made available on an annual basis by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). Operational costs include expenses for rents, communications, utilities, medical examinations, safety equipment, sample preparation equipment, training, trash and hazardous waste disposal, travel and transportation costs. There have been certain large capital improvement expenditures in the laboratories in recent years due to unfunded legal mandates. These expenditures include costs for the counter-terrorism Food Emergency Response Network (FERN) and the capital improvements for the Environmental Management Systems (EMS) in accordance with the applicable mandates for Federal laboratories of Executive Order 13423 of January 24, 2007, Strengthening Federal Environmental, Energy, and Transportation Management (72 FR 3919). These capital improvement costs are included in the normal operations of the Science and Technology field service laboratories. In addition, operational costs include expenses for office and laboratory supplies, chemicals, reagents, hazardous waste removal, and a Laboratory Information Management System (LIMS). Infrastructure costs are mainly laboratory instruments and capital equipment with service and maintenance contracts and replacement spare parts. Infrastructure expenses include consumable supply costs associated directly with the proper operation of analytical instruments and laboratory equipment. Stakeholders demand that AMS provide cost effective and timely product testing requiring modern and sometimes automated instrumentation. These instruments are expensive and undergo equipment capitalization for determining costs. Equipment capitalization is the determined cost per year to replace the equipment after its useful service life has been established. Agency overhead is the pro-rated share, attributable to a particular service, of the agency's management and support costs. Overhead expenditures are allocated across the Agency for each direct hour of laboratory service.

There are essentially three standard hourly fee rate increases being proposed for the basic laboratory services—$67 to $78 per hour or 16.4 percent in fiscal year 2010, $78 to $81 per hour or 3.8 percent in fiscal year 2011 and $81 to $83 per hour or 2.5 percent in fiscal year 2012. The rate increases for overtime and appeals are $78 to $93 per hour or 19.2 percent, $93 to $96 per hour or 3.2 percent, and $96 to $99 per hour or 3.1 percent in fiscal years 2010, 2011, and 2012, respectively. The rate increases for legal holiday service are $89 to $108 per hour or 21.3 percent, $108 to $111 per hour or 2.8 percent, and $111 to $115 per hour or 3.6 percent in fiscal years 2010, 2011, and 2012, respectively. This is a voluntary program and the costs to each user would be proportional to their use of laboratory services each year. The increased fees will cover inflation and national and locality pay raises but will not support any new budgetary initiative. The revised hourly fee rates will apply to voluntary laboratory services that are provided for five types of analytical testing: microbiological, physical, residue chemistry, proximate analysis for composition, and biomolecular (DNA-based) testing. A user fee system, using set hourly rates for three fiscal years, is proposed by this rulemaking to ensure that AMS properly recovers its full costs for providing voluntary laboratory services in a timely manner, and that all stakeholders have advance notice of their estimated laboratory fees so that they can make reasonable cost assumptions when formulating their annual budgets.

The largest cost of operations for the AMS laboratory programs is payroll and employee benefits. This obligation is projected to amount to $3,848,000 or 57.6 percent of the total laboratory costs for FY 2010. Recent cross-training of the employees in the laboratories has resulted in the reduction of staff from 67 individuals in FY 2007 to 50 current individuals in FY 2009 as ongoing efforts to limit program costs are implemented. AMS calculated its projected increases in salaries and inflation in fiscal years 2010 through 2012. The estimate for increases in salaries for fiscal year 2009 as the base year and the succeeding years are from the Office of Management and Budget's (OMB) "Federal Pay Raise Assumptions" table. The fiscal year pay adjustments are increased by 3 percent in the following tables of calculated proposed new hourly fee rates for laboratory program services for FY 2010 through FY 2012. The OMB Federal pay raise assumptions (including geographical pay differentials) state that in the development of civilian government personnel costs a yearly percentage (3%) increase shall be used. This information comes from the table, "Federal Pay Raise Assumptions", of the Office of Management and Budget's Fiscal Year 2007 Budget and beyond which is available at <http://www.whitehouse.gov/omb/memoranda/fy2007/m07-02.pdf>.

Inflation for FY 2009 and subsequent years is estimated to be 3.5 percent. In Tables 2 through 10 below a yearly 3.5 percent inflation rate is used in the calculations for hourly fee rate determinations for laboratory program services because the 2007 annual average for the base Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers (CPI-U): U.S. city average for service costs is listed as 246.848 in Table 3A. of the referenced Web site and there is a most recent annual average increase of 3.5% to 255.498 for the CPI-U provided for the change in service costs. This estimate for inflation percent (3.5%) can be obtained from Table 3A, "Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers (CPI-U): U.S. city average, detailed expenditure categories", which is available at <http://www.bls.gov/cpi/cpid08av.pdf>.

The Agency will initiate, when necessary, another rulemaking to adjust any fee established, if estimated increases for pay and inflation do not adequately cover the Agency's costs of providing the services. The cost of providing laboratory services includes both direct and not explicit overhead costs. Direct costs include the cost of salaries, employee benefits, operation costs, equipment service and replacements, security, training needs, and infrastructure cost. The Agency is able to estimate the employee benefits attributable to overtime work and has included these in the fee rate calculations.

The current and proposed fees for standard, appeal, overtime and legal holiday voluntary laboratory services are listed by type of service in Table 1 below. The first increases ranging from 16.4 to 21.3 percent, from the current rates to the fiscal year 2010 rates, are larger than the subsequent 2011 and 2012 fiscal year increases (2.5 to 3.8 percent range) because these are the first hourly rate increases proposed since last set on March 30, 2007. Therefore, it includes the actual increases in salaries and inflation that have occurred since that date. It also includes changes in personnel numbers and the promotions and within-grade pay step increases for General Schedule (GS) salaries granted worthy employees, and new employee position pay costs.

With this proposed action, the AMS would amend its regulations to provide for three annual differing fee increases in one action. Table 1 shows the summary of the current rates and the proposed hourly fee rates for fiscal years 2010 through 2012 for the four different types of services (regular laboratory, appeal, overtime, and legal holiday work) that Science and Technology Programs employees perform.

With this proposed action, the AMS would amend its regulations to provide for three annual fee increases in one action. In AMS's analysis of projected costs set forth in Tables 2 through 10 below, AMS has identified the basis for the increases in the cost of voluntary hourly fee rates for laboratory services for fiscal year 2010 through fiscal year 2012. These fee increases are essential for the continued sound financial management of the Agency's budget. In order to enhance the transparency of the hourly fee rates in the aforementioned Tables 2 through 10 for fiscal year 2010, fiscal year 2011 and fiscal year 2012, a description is provided of each fee charge category.

⁵ Actual cost of infrastructure ($1,360,000) ÷ (2,080 program hours times 50 program employees) = $13.08 unit cost.

⁷ Cost of FY 2010 Inflation ($125,000) ÷ (2,080 program hours times 50 program employees) = $1.20 unit cost.

In order to project the hourly fee rates for the laboratory program services for fiscal years 2010 through 2012, the current fiscal year 2009 is used as a base. The total base time hourly fee rate calculation (Table 2) for fiscal year 2010 begins with the actual salaries for fiscal year 2009 ($3,029,744) and adds the fiscal year 2010 projected pay adjustments (3 percent) and the fiscal year 2010 cost of employee benefits ($727,364). Table 2 contains footnotes 1–7 that provide the common mathematical formula used to calculate the apportioned rate for each fee charge category for fiscal year 2010. The formula uses the actual cost or projected cost in dollars for the applicable fiscal year for each individual fee charge category divided by the available program hours (2,080 hours) and further divided by the number of laboratory service program employees (50 people). The formula derives the apportioned fee rate for each fee charge category (salaries with pay adjustment, benefits, operational costs, infrastructure cost, agency overhead and inflation factor at 3.5 percent rate). The same formula that is used in Table 2 and that is indicated in its footnotes is also applied in the other tables to derive each category unit rate with the different actual costs or variable projected costs to be inserted in the formula equation for the applicable fiscal year. See Table 3 through Table 10 below for additional proposed hourly fee rate calculations for laboratory program services for fiscal years 2010 through 2012 to be rounded off to whole number dollar amounts.

Table 3 through Table 4 shows the calculations of the total standard hourly fee rates to be rounded off to $81 and $83 for fiscal years 2011 through 2012, respectively.

laboratory personnel to work extended hours of service at the time and a half pay doing either overtime or appeal sample testing. Federal employee rates of premium pay are described in part 551 of Title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) for the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). Section 551.512(a) specifies that Federal employees are entitled to receive overtime premium pay, when overtime work is performed, at one and one-half times the employee's hourly rate of basic pay.

Table 8 through Table 10 shows the calculations of the total legal holiday hourly fee rates to be rounded off to whole dollar amounts for fiscal years 2010 through 2012. These tables incorporate the differentials in costs associated with the necessity of laboratory personnel to work extended hours of service at the double hourly pay rate doing sample testing on a Federal holiday or a designated day for the Federal holiday. Accordingly, 5

CFR, part 532, section 532.507 (a) specifies that Federal employees are entitled to receive holiday premium pay, which is not overtime work, at double the employee's hourly rate of basic pay.

Executive Order 12866

This proposed rule has been determined to be not significant for purposes of Executive Order 12866; and, therefore, has not been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB).

Civil Justice Reform (Executive Order 12988)

This proposed rule has been reviewed under Executive Order 12988, Civil Justice Reform. It is not intended to have retroactive effect. There are no administrative procedures which must be exhausted prior to any judicial challenge to this rule or the application of its provisions.

Regulatory Flexibility Act

Pursuant to the requirements set forth in the Regulatory Flexibility Act (RFA) (5 U.S.C. 601–612) AMS has considered the economic impact of this action on small entities and has determined that its implementation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small businesses. The purpose of the RFA is to fit regulatory actions to the scale of businesses subject to such actions so that small businesses will not be disproportionately burdened. There are 499 current stakeholders who voluntarily use the AMS laboratory services annually. Such users of services include food processors, handlers, growers, government agencies, and exporters. The majority of these firms, organizations, and individuals are small businesses under the criteria established by the Small Business Administration (13 CFR 121.201). The increases in annual hourly fee rates as stated will not significantly affect these small businesses as defined in the RFA because this is a voluntary program and the costs to each user would be proportional to their use of laboratory services each year. Any decision by the current stakeholders to discontinue the use of the AMS laboratory services because of increased fees would not hinder the food processors or industry members from marketing their products, since stakeholders may contract for services with other government agencies or private laboratories. The AMS laboratory testing programs are voluntary, user fee services, conducted under the authority of the AMA.

The AMA authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to provide Federal analytical testing services that facilitate marketing and trade with the financial necessity that reasonable fees be collected from the users of the services to cover as nearly as possible the costs of maintaining the programs. AMS regularly reviews its user-fee-supported laboratory service programs to determine if the voluntary fees are adequate and reasonable to cover expenses. The most recent review determined that the existing hourly fee rates, which have been in place since March 30, 2007, will not generate sufficient revenue to recover annual operating costs of laboratory programs and will not maintain adequate end-of-year operating reserve balances in FY 2010, FY 2011, and FY 2012. This decline in revenues is due to lower numbers of samples and a reduction in the number of clients by 312 that is attributable mainly to a shift in usage patterns on the part of applicants for testing services and change to government programs. For example, several federal commodity purchasing programs are now relying heavily on vendor certification rather than government laboratory testing; a larger percentage of aflatoxin analyses and microbiological testing are performed by approved or designated private laboratories; and food and fiber product testing is decreasing due to changing importer country requirements. For analytical purposes, projected collections are based on calculations using an effective date of October 1, 2009 for the proposed fiscal year 2010 user fees. Without a fee increase, FY 2010 revenues are projected at $6,421,000; obligations are projected at $6,676,000, for a fiscal year loss of $256,000 and a depleted trust fund to an 8.0 month end-of-year reserve balance of $4,449,000. In fiscal years 2011 and 2012 additional operating losses for the laboratories are projected. If there are no proposed hourly rate changes agreed upon, the FY 2011 and FY 2012 end-of-year reserve balances will decline from $4,449,000 to $3,984,000 (6.9 months operating reserve), and $3,568,000 (6.0 months operating reserve), respectively.

However, a minimum operating reserve of 11.1 months or an end-of-year trust fund balance amount of $6,173,000 is needed for FY 2010 based on the current shut down analysis and prior experiences, including the permanent closing of the S&T Midwestern Laboratory in Chicago, Illinois on June 30, 2000. The AMS estimates that the raised hourly fee rates in this proposed rule will yield $1,228,000 overall in additional laboratory testing program revenues during FY 2010. This will increase the end-of-year available capital assets in the trust fund from $4,704,000 or 8.8 months of permitted operations in FY 2009 to $5,677,000 or 10.2 months of permitted operations in FY 2010. By forgoing the purchase of new models of analytical equipment and instruments employing up to date technology to replace aging ones in the laboratories, a $500,000 savings in the costs of operations could take place in FY 2010. This will enable AMS to replenish program reserves to an 11 month level, $6,177,000, for FY 2010 that is called for by Agency policy and prudent financial management. With increased revenue from the hourly rate changes, program reserves can be maintained at this level in subsequent fiscal years 2011 and 2012.

This proposed action will raise the fees charged to users of AMS laboratory program services. The Agency expects this rule will yield revised revenues at an estimated $7,649,000 in FY 2010, $7,986,000 in FY 2011, and $8,211,000 in FY 2012 attributable to the increased fee changes to cover the full cost of routine laboratory services, appeal requests, overtime, and legal holiday services for Science and Technology customers and other program stakeholders. This proposal would allow AMS to continue to offer laboratory testing services under the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 as amended, to facilitate marketing and allow products to obtain grade designations or meet marketing standards. As such, the program provides a viable option for a wide variety of stakeholders by delivering scientific and analytical support services to the diversified agricultural and food processing community and provides a valuable resource for those businesses and industries that wish to use a USDA shield. By proposing a three year fee increase over FYs 2010, 2011, and 2012 the Agency would help ensure that the fee increases are effective at the beginning of each fiscal year on October 1. An increase over three fiscal years would permit customers and other program stakeholders an opportunity to plan for annual changes in costs of laboratory service and to incorporate them into their budgetary plans.

Finally, this proposed rule updates S&T Programs' facility addresses. It provides clarification that results of analyses and laboratory determinations provided by AMS laboratory services apply to the submitted sample only and do not represent the quality, condition or disposition of the lot from which the sample was derived.

Paperwork Reduction Act

This proposed rule contains no new information collection or recordkeeping requirements that are subject to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501–3520). AMS is committed to implementation of the Government Paperwork Elimination Act which provides for the use of information resources to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of governmental operations, including providing the public with the option of submitting information or transacting business electronically to the extent practicable. USDA has not identified any relevant Federal rules that duplicate, overlap, or conflict with this rule.

Unfunded Mandate Analysis

Title II of the Unfunded Mandate Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA), Public Law 104–4, establishes requirements for Federal agencies to assess the effects of their regulatory actions on State, local, and tribal governments and the private sector. Under section 202 of UMRA, the Department generally must prepare a written statement, including a cost benefit analysis, for proposed and final rules with “Federal mandates” that may result in expenditures to State, local, or tribal governments, in the aggregate, or to the private sector, of $100 million or more in any one year. When such a statement is needed for a rule, section 205 of UMRA generally requires that the Department identify and consider a reasonable number of regulatory alternatives and adopt the least costly, more cost-effective or least burdensome alternative that achieves the objectives of the rule.

This rule contains no Federal mandates (under the regulatory provisions of Title II of the UMRA) that impose costs on State, local, or tribal governments or to the private sector of $100 million or more in any one year. Thus, this rule is not subject to the requirements of section 202 and 205 of UMRA.

Comments

A thirty day comment period is provided for interested persons to comment on this proposed action. All comments received by November 25, 2009 will be considered. Thirty days is deemed appropriate because it's preferable to have any fee increase, if adopted, to be in place as close as possible to the beginning of the 2010 fiscal year, October 1, 2009.

Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration

Swine Contract Library

AGENCY: Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration, USDA.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: On August 11, 2003, the Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) implemented new Subtitle B of Title II of the Packers and Stockyards Act which was added by the Livestock Mandatory Reporting Act of 1999 (1999 Act), by establishing the Swine Contract Library (SCL). The statutory authority for the library lapsed on September 30, 2005. On October 5, 2006, the Livestock Mandatory Reporting Reauthorization Act (Reauthorization Act) reauthorized the 1999 Act until September 30, 2010, and also amended the swine reporting requirements of the 1999 Act. This proposed rulemaking would re-establish the regulatory authority for the library's continued operation and incorporate certain changes contained within the Reauthorization Act that impact the SCL, as well as make other changes to enhance the library's overall effectiveness and efficiency in response to input from regulated entities and the public. We also intend to request a 3-year extension of and revision to the currently approved information collection in support of the reporting and recordkeeping requirements for the SCL program. This approval is required under the Paperwork Reduction Act.

DATES: We will consider comments we receive by December 28, 2009.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

GIPSA is responsible for the enforcement of the Packers and Stockyards Act of 1921 (7 U.S.C. 181 et seq.) (P&S Act or Act). Under authority delegated to GIPSA by the Secretary of Agriculture (Secretary) in Section 407(a) of the P&S Act (7 U.S.C. 228), we are authorized to create regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of the Act.

The 1999 Act (Pub. L. 106-78) amended Title II of the P&S Act to include Subtitle B—Swine Packer Marketing Contracts. The 1999 Act mandated the creation and maintenance of a library of marketing contracts offered by certain packers to producers for the purchase of swine. To implement this legislation, GIPSA established the SCL and promulgated SCL regulations (9 CFR Part 206) requiring that packers, as defined in Subtitle B, Title II, of the P&S Act, file example marketing contracts with GIPSA along with monthly estimates of the number of swine to be delivered under contract. GIPSA compiles this information and makes summary reports available to the public.

On October 22, 2004, the 1999 Act expired and was not reauthorized until December 3, 2004 (Pub. L. 108-444). Authority for the 1999 Act was extended, however, to September 30, 2005. The 1999 Act lapsed again in 2005 and was reauthorized and amended on October 5, 2006, when the Reauthorization Act (Pub. L. 109-296) was signed into law. The 1999 Act is scheduled to once again expire on September 30, 2010.

When the 1999 Act expired in October 2004, GIPSA asked swine packers to continue to comply with the SCL regulations voluntarily. With the information submitted voluntarily by packers, GIPSA has continued to make summary reports available to the public.

This proposed rule would re-establish authority for the SCL regulations (9 CFR Part 206) by amending the regulations' authority citation to include Subtitle B of Title II of the P&S Act (7 U.S.C. 198-198b). In addition to amending the SCL regulations to make them consistent with the Reauthorization Act, we would also amend the SCL regulations to incorporate suggestions received from the public and regulated entities. Specifically, we propose to:

- (1) Revise the definition of "packer" to be consistent with the Reauthorization Act;
- (2) Revise the definitions of several contract types;
- (3) Add definitions of terms used in several contract types to describe the market price that is being paid for swine;

(4) Add a new requirement that an example contract submission, a notification of contract expiration, and a notification of a contract withdrawal include a standard cover sheet; and

(5) Add a waiver for packers that do not utilize marketing contracts.

The purpose of these amendments is to make the information collected more uniform and more useful, while reducing the burden on the reporting entities.

Description of Proposed Amendments

The SCL final rule was published in the Federal Register (68 FR 47802) on August 11, 2003, and became effective on September 10, 2003. We have not amended these regulations since the implementation of the library. The following describes the proposed changes to the 2003 SCL regulations required by the Reauthorization Act, along with changes that have been requested by regulated entities.

Definitions

In section 206.1, we propose to revise the definitions of “packer,” “other market formula purchase,” “other purchase arrangement,” and “swine or pork market formula purchase,” and add new definitions for several terms that are used currently in contracts to describe the market price being paid for swine. While the definition of “packer” would be revised to make the SCL regulations consistent with the Reauthorization Act, other existing definitions would be revised and new definitions added to make the SCL regulations consistent with the definitions used by USDA’s Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS) in its mandatory price reporting program regulations, and to respond to suggestions received from regulated entities.

Under the 1999 Act, the term “packer” was defined as only those persons purchasing and slaughtering an average of at least 100,000 swine per year at a federally inspected swine processing plant during the immediately preceding 5 calendar years. The Reauthorization Act, however, amended the term “packer” to include those persons who slaughter an average of at least 200,000 sows, boars or combination thereof per year during the immediately preceding 5 calendar years. In addition, the Reauthorization Act separated the reporting requirements for sows and boars from barrows and gilts. Because boars and sows fall under the original definition of the term “swine” in the 1999 Act’s provisions that authorize the Swine Contract Library, slaughterers of at least 100,000 boars and sows at a single federally inspected processing plant would continue to be subject to the SCL regulations. The Reauthorization Act expanded the definition of the term “packer” to include not only federally inspected swine processing plants of a certain size, but also persons who slaughter a certain number of sows and boars at multiple plants. We believe that the proposed revised definition of the term “packer” reflects Congressional intent to have persons who slaughter less than 100,000 swine at one plant, but slaughter at least 200,000 boars and sows total at multiple small plants, report prices under the mandatory reporting requirements. We have identified only one firm that would be affected by this change in the definition of the term “packer” in the SCL.

Because there is no legislative history for the Reauthorization Act to assist us in interpreting the intended meaning of the amended definition of the term “packer,” we are proposing a definition that would be consistent with the term as defined in the 2003 SCL regulations. That definition, which meets the requirements of the 1999 Act, excludes small packers who do not purchase large numbers of swine and likely would not use marketing contracts to make those purchases.¹ Therefore, we propose to include in the definition of the term “packer” only those persons who purchase at least 200,000 sows, boars, or some combination thereof per year and have those animals slaughtered at federally inspected swine processing plants. We believe that our proposed revised definition of the term “packer” would continue to exclude small sow and boar packers.

In our proposal, we also distinguish between the terms “packer” and “plant” in our revised definition of the term “packer” to show that a packer is a person, or entity that purchases swine for slaughter and a plant is a facility where the swine are slaughtered. We also propose to add the phrase “alone or in combination with other plants” after the phrase “slaughtering capacity” to § 206.2(a), 206.2(b), 206.3(a) and 206.3(b) of the regulations to reflect the revised definition of the term “packer.”

Because the Reauthorization Act redefined the term “packer” to include a person who slaughters sows, boars, or some combination thereof, the terms “boar” and “sow,” which are defined in section 231 of the AMA (7 U.S.C. 1635i), would be added to the definitions in the SCL regulations.

Based on the usage of the terms “floor,” “window,” and “ceiling” prices in the amended definition of “other purchase arrangement,” and “swine or pork market formula purchase,” in section 206.1 of the regulations, we propose that definitions for the terms “floor price,” “window price,” and “ceiling price” be added to the regulations for clarity.

The term “floor price” would be defined as the minimum market price for swine; the term “ceiling price” would be the maximum market price for swine; and, the term “window price” would be the range of market prices paid for swine between the “floor price” and the “ceiling price.” The proposed definitions of these terms provide for adjustments in the market price.

We also propose to revise the definitions for the terms “swine or pork market formula purchase,” “other market formula purchase,” and “other purchase arrangement,” all of which refer to categories of contracts. Swine packers that are required to report under both the 1999 Act and the SCL have requested that we make these changes so that they can use the same contract types for reporting the estimated swine contract deliveries to GIPSA, and reporting actual swine deliveries to USDA’s Agricultural Marketing Service (AMS). Regulated entities have told us that it is contrary to the purpose of price discovery to have different definitions for different mandatory price reporting systems, as well as an unnecessary burden for reporting entities.

Based on the request received from the industry, we propose to:

(1) Revise the definition of the term “other market formula purchase” to remove specific examples of this type of contract and state that the pricing could include a formula based on futures or options. This change would make the definition consistent with AMS mandatory price reporting regulations;

(2) Revise the definition of the term “other purchase arrangement” to specify that this category includes long term contract agreements, fixed price contracts, cost of production formulas, and formula purchases with a floor, window (range or spread), or ceiling price; and

(3) Revise the definition of the term “swine or pork market formula purchase” to add references to floor, window, or ceiling prices. The proposed change would clarify that a formula purchase with a floor, window, or ceiling price is not considered to be a swine or pork market formula purchase.

The proposed changes to the definition of the term “other purchase arrangement” would make the SCL definition consistent with the AMS definition. The proposed amendments to the other definitions listed above clarify that GIPSA does not consider a contract with a floor, window or ceiling price, or formula based on the cost of production to be a type of market purchase. As a result of these changes in definitions, categorization of some existing contracts would change. For example, a contract in which the formula contains a floor or ceiling price would be categorized as an "other purchase arrangement" rather than a "swine or pork market formula." A contract in which the base price is determined by the cost of production, including formulas based on feed markets, would be an "other purchase arrangement" rather than an "other market formula." These revised definitions would appear both in the regulations and on the cover sheet for contract submissions.

Furthermore, in our administration of the SCL, approximately 25 percent of packers currently subject to the SCL regulations have reported that they do not use marketing contracts and have reported the estimates of swine to be delivered under contract as zero each month. Swine packers who buy swine on the spot market or who contract with growers to produce swine might not have any marketing contracts and therefore would have no contracts to submit. But, these packers are still required to submit a monthly report. GIPSA believes that monthly reports filled with zeroes do not provide information that is relevant to the price discovery process. An annual waiver would reduce the burden on regulated entities and reduce the number of essentially blank entries in the SCL database. Therefore, we propose to amend § 206.3, "Monthly Report," to include a new procedure that would allow swine packers who do not use any marketing contracts to file a yearly waiver request.

Options Considered

This rulemaking is necessary to give the SCL regulations the force and effect of law. This proposal is possible now that the statute creating the SCL has been reauthorized. When the authorizing legislation lapsed, GIPSA requested that packers who are required to report under the SCL continue to submit their reports voluntarily, and many packers did so. Now that the 1999 Act has been reauthorized, the statutory basis for enforcing the SCL regulations again exists. In order to effectively resume the SCL program, this rulemaking is necessary.

We considered one alternative to the proposed changes in the definitions, which was to ask packers to continue to voluntarily comply with regulations that are not enforceable and are no longer consistent with the authorizing legislation. Since that is not a viable option, we have no alternative but to revise the SCL regulations to carry out provisions of the P&S Act.

We considered not waiving the requirement that packers who do not purchase swine under contract report information to GIPSA for the SCL. However, we did not see value in filling GIPSA's SCL database with blank monthly reports. We also considered a waiver of longer than 1 year, but did not wish to provide such a blanket waiver since business conditions change over time. Packers with a waiver who commence purchasing swine under marketing contracts would be required to begin filing contracts on the first business day of the following month as described in § 206.2, and commence submitting monthly reports as required by § 206.3 of the regulations.

Effects on Regulated Entities

If these proposed regulations are implemented, the reporting burden for most packers should remain about the same or slightly less than the reporting burden under the expired regulations. Swine packers would have to comply with regulations that they have complied with in the past. We anticipate that 35 swine packers that operate or have swine slaughtered at 55 plants would be required to comply with the SCL regulations. This represents only 8.5 percent of all federally inspected swine plants; the others do not meet the size and capacity definition of "packer" for the purpose of the proposed rule. Nearly half of the 35 swine packers now comply with the SCL requirements voluntarily. Three of the entities that would be subject to this proposed rule are new respondents, and their anticipated burden is under 4 hours to initiate the reporting process. For the 32 remaining swine packers, the expected burden is .25 hours per packing plant to submit an example of each new or amended contract to GIPSA.

The proposed change in the definition of the term "packer" would require reporting by one additional firm. That firm would otherwise not meet the previous size and capacity definition of "packer."

This proposal should benefit swine producers by increasing their knowledge about contract terms and the number of swine under contract, improve market transparency, and give swine producers the ability to make more informed marketing decisions. Market transparency facilitates market efficiency by reducing price information search costs for market participants. Availability of market information may also contribute to considerations of equity and fairness in the marketplace.

Executive Order 12866 and Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) has designated this rule as not significant for the purposes of Executive Order 12866.

We have determined that this rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities as defined in the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.). Therefore, an initial regulatory flexibility analysis has not been provided. This rule will apply to approximately 35 packers operating at 55 plants. This represents only 8.5 percent of all federally inspected swine plants; the others are too small to meet the size and capacity definition of the term "packer" for the purpose of this proposed rule. Of those 35 packers, 18 have fewer than 500 employees and will therefore meet the applicable size standard for small entities in the Small Business Administration (SBA) regulations (13 CFR 121.201). For the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code 311611 "Animal (except poultry) Slaughtering," the SBA size standard is 500 employees. However, the firms to which this rule applies are the largest of the firms in this industry that meet the size standard for small businesses. We estimate that eight of those 18 small entities would be eligible for an annual waiver, thus reducing the required reporting burden on those entities from 12 monthly reports to one annual waiver request. For the remaining 10 small entities that are not eligible for a waiver, the requirement to submit marketing contracts to GIPSA is estimated at .25 hours (15 minutes) per contract, and the monthly report is estimated to average 2 hours per report prepared and submitted by mail or facsimile, and 1 hour per report prepared and submitted electronically, which does not represent a significant economic burden or impact.

The proposed change in the definition of the term "packer" would require one additional firm. That firm would otherwise not meet the previous size and capacity definition of "packer."

This proposed rule requires swine packers to submit certain information to GIPSA. It does not impose any restrictions on the form, timing, or location of contracts in which regulated entities may engage. It places no additional burden or limit on current or future business relationships into which affected firms may enter.

We have considered the effects of this rulemaking action under the Regulatory Flexibility Act and we believe that it will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. We welcome comments on the cost of compliance with this rule, and particularly on the impact of this proposed rule on any small entities. We also welcome comments on alternatives to the proposed rule that could achieve the same purpose with less cost or burden.

Executive Order 12988

This rule has been reviewed under Executive Order 12988, Civil Justice Reform. These actions are not intended to have retroactive effect. This rule will not pre-empt state or local laws, regulations, or policies, unless they present an irreconcilable conflict with this rule. In addition, the 1999 Act, as amended, does not restrict or modify the authority of the Secretary to administer or enforce the Packers and Stockyards Act of 1921 (7 U.S.C. 181 et seq.). There are no administrative procedures that must be exhausted prior to any judicial challenge to the provisions of this rule.

Paperwork Reduction Act

In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), GIPSA is also requesting an extension for and revision to a currently approved information collection in support of the reporting and recordkeeping requirements under the SCL program.

Title: Swine Contract Library.

OMB Number: 0580-0021.

Expiration Date of Approval: October 31, 2009.

Type of Request: Extension and revision of a currently approved information collection.

Abstract: The Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA) is responsible for maintaining the Swine Contract Library (SCL), which is authorized by the Packers and Stockyards Act and requires that certain swine packers submit procurement contracts and delivery estimates to GIPSA. Congress reauthorized the SCL on October 5, 2006, and this information collection describes the requirements as they exist in that 2006 reauthorization. The information collection and recordkeeping requirements for the SCL are essential to maintaining the mandatory library of swine marketing contracts and reporting the number of swine that are contracted for delivery. Thirty-five packers are currently required to file contracts and report certain information on deliveries. These packers operate or they have swine slaughtered at a total of 55 plants. We expect the overall number of swine packers and plants to remain relatively constant, but the specific swine packers required to report under the SCL will vary with consolidation and construction within the industry.

Packers are required to report information for individual plants even in instances when a particular company owned or used the slaughtering services of more than one plant. The information collection burden estimates provided below are based on time and cost requirements at the plant level, so packers that report for more than one plant would bear a cost that would be a multiple of the per-plant estimates.

We understand from discussions with packers complying with current reporting requirements that reporting packers have adapted pre-existing data and information systems to provide the required information.

There are two types of information collections required for the Swine Contract Library discussed below.

The first information collection requirement consists of submitting example contracts. Initially, a packer submits example contracts currently in effect or available for each swine processing plant that is subject to the regulations. Subsequently, a packer submits example contracts for any offered, new, or amended contracts that vary from contracts submitted previously in regard to the base price determination, the application of a ledger or accrual account, carcass merit premium and discount schedules (including the determination of the lean percent or other merits of the carcass that is used to determine the amount of the premiums and discounts and how those premiums and discounts are applied), or the use and amount of noncarcass merit premiums or discounts. The initial submission of example contracts requires more time than subsequent filings of new contracts or changes, as packers initially need to review all their contracts to identify the unique types that need to be represented by an example submitted to GIPSA.

Thereafter, subsequent filings require a minimal amount of effort on the part of packers, as only example contracts that represent a new or different type need to be filed with GIPSA. An optional contract submission cover sheet is available, but not required, for submitting example contracts. Approximately one-half of the packers currently subject to the regulations use Form P&SP 342, Contract Submission Cover Sheet. This cover sheet is required for entering the contract into our system; if a contract is submitted without a cover sheet, one is completed by GIPSA staff.

The required submission of contracts includes both written and verbal contracts. Packers have added documentation of verbal contracts to their existing recordkeeping systems in order to comply with this requirement. The optional form that is available (P&SP-343), but not required for reporting verbal contracts, is used by 10 packers; 1 packer that relies heavily on verbal contracts uses this optional form exclusively to document its verbal contracts. Of 579 contract files on file with GIPSA in the SCL, the optional verbal contract sheet was used by packers to document 157 verbal contracts.

The second information collection requirement is a monthly filing of summary information on Form P&SP 341, Monthly Report: Estimates of Swine To Be Delivered Under Contract. The form for the monthly filing is simple and brief. For new packers required to start reporting, this data should be readily available to packers in their existing record system. We encourage electronic submission of data to GIPSA and provide information on how that can be accomplished effectively. In 2008, approximately 90 percent of monthly reports were submitted via the Web site, with the remaining 10 percent submitted via fax or by mail.

The estimates of time requirements used for the burden estimates below were developed in consultation with GIPSA personnel who are knowledgeable of the industry's recordkeeping practices. The estimates also reflect our experience in assembling large amounts of data during the course of numerous investigations using data collected from the industry. Estimates of time requirements and hourly wage costs for developing electronic recordkeeping and reporting systems are based on our experience in developing similar systems in consultation with our automated information systems staff.

Estimate of Burden: The reporting burden for submission of contracts is estimated to include 4 hours per plant for an initial review of all contracts to categorize them into types and to identify unique examples, plus an additional 0.25 hours per unique contract identified to submit an example of that contract. After the initial filing, the reporting burden is estimated to include 0.25 hours per plant to submit an example of each new or amended contract.

Respondents: Swine packers that are required to report information for the Swine Contract Library.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 35 swine packers (55 plants total).

Estimated Number of Responses per Plant: The number of responses per plant varies. Some plants would have no contracts, while others could have up to 80 contracts. We receive an average of six example contracts per plant per year for offered contracts and amended existing or available contracts.

Estimated Total Annual Burden on Respondents: The initial filing of examples of existing contracts by all plants newly subject to the regulations combined is estimated to be 5.5 hours. Based on changes in the industry, we anticipate that one new plant would become subject to the regulations each year. The burden is calculated as follows: 4 hours per plant for initial review $\times$ 1 new plant = 4 hours for initial review; 0.25 hours per contract $\times$ 6 example contracts per plant $\times$ 1 new plant = 1.5 hours; 4 hours + 1.5 hours = 5.5 total hours.

Thereafter, we expect the burden to be 82.5 total hours annually for all subsequent filings of examples of offered or amended existing or available contracts by all plants combined, based on an average of 6 offered or amended existing or available contracts annually. The burden is calculated as follows: 0.25 hours per contract $\times$ 6 example contracts per plant $\times$ 55 plants = 82.5 hours.

The initial review of 55 plants $\times$ 1 respondent per plant $\times$ 4 hours = 220 hours.

Total Cost: We expect an initial filing cost of \$138 for the one new plant required to report, which is calculated as follows: 5.5 hours $\times$ \$25 per hour = \$138. Thereafter, we expect a total cost of \$2,063 annually for all plants combined for submission of subsequent filings. This is calculated as follows: 82.5 hours $\times$ \$25 per hour = \$2,063.

Monthly Report: Estimate of Swine To Be Delivered Under Contract (Form P&SP-341)

Estimate of Burden: The reporting burden for compiling data, completing and submitting the monthly report form is estimated to average 2 hours per report prepared and submitted manually by mail or facsimile, and 1 hour per report prepared and submitted electronically. There would be an estimated additional one-time set up burden of 1 hour at a cost of $60 per plant for a packer to create a spreadsheet or a database for recordkeeping and preparing monthly estimates. There would be an estimated additional 2 hour burden at a cost of $60 per hour or $120 per plant for a packer to develop procedures to extract and format the required information and to develop an interface between the packer and GIPSA's electronic recordkeeping systems. The hourly rate for the development of electronic tools is assumed to be high due to the need to use personnel with specialized computer skills.

Respondents: Swine packers that are required to report information for the Swine Contract Library.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 35 packers (55 plants total).

Estimated Number of Responses per Plant: 12 (1 per month for 12 months).

Estimated Total Annual Burden on Respondents: 1,320 hours for all plants combined if all plants used manual compiling, preparation, and submission. The annual burden is calculated as follows: 2 hours per response $\times$ 55 plants $\times$ 12 responses per plant = 1,320.

For plants using electronic compiling, preparation and submission, the annual burden would be 600 hours, which is calculated as follows: 1 hour per response $\times$ 50 plants (90% $\times$ 55 = 50) $\times$ 12 responses per plant = 600 hours.

Total Cost: For all 55 plants, the cost is estimated at \$33,000 annually if all plants submit data manually. This is calculated as follows: 1,320 $\times$ \$25 per hour = \$33,000.

For all 55 plants, the cost is estimated at \$16,500 annually if all prepared and submitted data electronically. This is calculated as follows: 660 hours $\times$ \$25 per hour = \$16,500.

We estimate an additional one-time set-up cost of \$180 if all plants newly subject to the regulations were to utilize only electronic systems for preparing and submitting data. This cost is calculated as follows: 1 hour to build spreadsheet/database + 2 hours to develop electronic interface = 3 hours; then 3 hours total development $\times$ \$60 per hour $\times$ 1 new plant = \$180.

The Paperwork Reduction Act also requires GIPSA to measure the recordkeeping burden. Under the P&S Act and regulations, each packer is required to maintain and make available upon request such records as are necessary to verify information on all transactions between the packer and producers from whom the packer obtains swine for slaughter. Records that packers are required to maintain under existing regulations would meet the requirements for verifying the accuracy of information required to be reported for the SCL. These records include original contracts, agreements, receipts, schedules, and other records associated with any transaction related to the purchase, pricing, and delivery of swine for slaughter under the terms of marketing contracts. Additional annual costs of maintaining records would be nominal since packers are required to store and maintain such records in the course of normal business practices and in conformity with existing regulations.

As required by the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)) and its implementing regulations (5 CFR 1320.8(d)(1)(i)), we specifically request comments on:

(a) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(b) The accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(c) Ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(d) Ways to minimize the burden on the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

All responses to this notice will be summarized and included in the request for the Office of Management and Budget approval. All comments will also become a matter of public record.

E-Government Act Compliance

GIPSA is committed to complying with the E-Government Act, to promote the use of the internet and other information technologies to provide increased opportunities for citizen access to Government information and services, and for other purposes.

List of Subjects in 9 CFR Part 206

Swine, Reporting and recordkeeping requirements.

For the reasons set forth in the preamble, we propose to amend 9 CFR Chapter II as follows:

1. Revise Part 206 to read as follows:

Sec.

206.1 Definitions.

206.2 Swine contract library.

206.3 Monthly report.

Authority: 7 U.S.C. 198–198b; 7 U.S.C. 222.

§ 206.1 Definitions.

The definitions in this section apply to the regulations in this part. The definitions in this section do not apply to other regulations issued under the Packers and Stockyards Act (P&S Act) or to the P&S Act as a whole.

Accrual account. (Synonymous with the term “ledger,” as defined in this section.) An account held by a packer on behalf of a producer that accrues a running positive or negative balance as a result of a pricing determination included in a contract that establishes a minimum and/or maximum level of base price paid. Credits and/or debits for amounts beyond these minimum and/or maximum levels are entered into the account. Further, the contract specifies how the balance in the account affects producer and packer rights and obligations under the contract.

Base price. The price paid for swine before the application of any premiums or discounts, expressed in dollars per unit.

Boar. A sexually-intact male swine.

Ceiling price. The maximum market price that will be paid for swine. Adjustments may be made to the base price if the market price rises above this price.

Contract. Any agreement, whether written or verbal, between a packer and a producer for the purchase of swine for slaughter, except a negotiated purchase (as defined in this section).

Contract type. The classification of contracts or risk management agreements for the purchase of swine committed to a packer, by the determination of the base price and the presence or absence of an accrual account or ledger (as defined in this section). The contract type categories are:

- (1) Swine or pork market formula purchases with a ledger,
- (2) Swine or pork market formula purchases without a ledger,
- (3) Other market formula purchases with a ledger,
- (4) Other market formula purchases without a ledger,
- (5) Other purchase arrangements with a ledger, and
- (6) Other purchase arrangements without a ledger.

Floor price. The minimum market price that will be paid for swine. Adjustments may be made to the base price if the market price falls below this price.

Formula price. A price determined by a mathematical formula under which the price established for a specified market serves as the basis for the formula.

Ledger. (Synonymous with “accrual account,” as defined in this section.) An account held by a packer on behalf of a producer that accrues a running positive or negative balance as a result of a pricing determination included in a contract that establishes a minimum and/or maximum level of base price paid. Credits and/or debits for amounts beyond these minimum and/or maximum levels are entered into the account. Further, the contract specifies how the balance in the account affects producer and packer rights and obligations under the contract.

Negotiated purchase. A purchase, commonly known as a “cash” or “spot market” purchase, of swine by a packer from a producer under which:

(1) The buyer-seller interaction that results in the transaction and the agreement on actual base price occur on the same day; and

(2) The swine are scheduled for delivery to the packer not later than 14 days after the date on which the swine are committed to the packer.

Noncarcass merit premium or discount. An increase or decrease in the price for the purchase of swine made available by an individual packer or packing plant, based on any factor other than the characteristics of the carcass, if the actual amount of the premium or discount is known before the purchase and delivery of the swine.

Other market formula purchase. A purchase of swine by a packer in which the pricing determination is a formula price based on any market other than the markets for swine, pork, or a pork product. This includes a formula purchase where the price formula is based on one or more futures or options contracts.

Other purchase arrangement. A purchase of swine by a packer that is not a negotiated purchase, swine or pork market formula purchase, or other market formula purchase, and does not involve packer-owned swine. This contract type includes long term contract agreements, fixed price contracts, cost of production formulas, and formula purchases with a floor, window or ceiling price.

Packer. Any person engaged in the business of buying swine in commerce for purposes of slaughter, of manufacturing or preparing meats or meat food products from swine for sale or shipment in commerce, or of marketing meats or meat food products from swine in an unmanufactured form, acting as a wholesale broker, dealer, or distributor in commerce. The regulations in this part apply only to a packer that meets the conditions in either paragraph (1) or (2) of this definition:

(1) A packer purchasing at least 100,000 swine per year and slaughtering swine at one or more federally inspected processing plants that meet either of the following conditions:

(i) A swine processing plant that slaughtered an average of at least 100,000 head of swine per year during the immediately preceding 5 calendar years, with the average based on those periods in which the plant slaughtered swine; or

(ii) A swine processing plant that did not slaughter swine during the immediately preceding 5 calendar years that has the capacity to slaughter at least 100,000 swine per year, based on plant capacity information.

(2) Any packer purchasing an average of at least 200,000 sows, boars, or any combination thereof, per year and slaughtering at least 200,000 sows, boars, or any combination thereof at one or more federally inspected processing plants during the immediately preceding 5 calendar years, with the average based on those periods in which the plant slaughtered swine.

Producer. Any person engaged, either directly or through an intermediary, in the business of selling swine to a packer for slaughter (including the sale of swine from a packer to another packer).

Sow. An adult female swine that has produced one or more litters.

Swine. A porcine animal raised to be a feeder pig, raised for seedstock, or raised for slaughter.

Swine or pork market formula purchase. A purchase of swine by a packer in which the pricing mechanism is a formula price based on a market for swine, pork, or pork product, other than any formula purchase with a floor, window or ceiling price, or a futures or option contract for swine, pork, or a pork product.

Window price. The range of market prices that will be paid for swine. Adjustments may be made to the base price if the market prices fall outside this range. The window price contains both the floor and ceiling prices.

§ 206.2 Swine contract library.

(a) Do I need to provide swine contract information? Each packer, as defined in § 206.1, must provide information for each swine processing plant that it operates or at which it has swine slaughtered that has the slaughtering capacity, alone or in combination with other plants, specified in the definition of packer in § 206.1.

(b) What existing or available contracts do I need to provide and when are they due? Each packer must send, to the Grain Inspection, Packers and Stockyards Administration (GIPSA), an example of each contract it currently has with a producer or producers or that is currently available at each plant that it operates or at which it has swine slaughtered that meets the definition of packer in § 206.1. This initial submission of example contracts is due to GIPSA on the first business day of the month following the determination that the plant has the slaughtering capacity, alone or in combination with other plants, specified in the definition of packer in § 206.1.

(c) What available contracts do I need to provide and when are they due? After the initial submission, each packer must send GIPSA an example of each new contract it makes available to a producer or producers within 1 business day of the contract being made available at each plant that it operates or at which it has swine slaughtered that meets the definition of packer in § 206.1.

(d) What criteria do I use to select example contracts? For purposes of distinguishing among contracts to determine which contracts may be represented by a single example, contracts will be considered to be the same if they are identical with respect to all of the following four example-contract criteria:

(1) Base price or determination of base price;

(2) Application of a ledger or accrual account (including the terms and conditions of the ledger or accrual account provision);

(3) Carcass merit premium and discount schedules (including the determination of the lean percent or other merits of the carcass that are used to determine the amount of the premiums and discounts and how those premiums and discounts are applied); and

(4) Use and amount of noncarcass merit premiums and discounts.

(e) Where and how do I send my contracts? Each packer may submit the example contracts, notifications required by this section, and Form P&SP 342, Contract Submission Cover Sheet, by either of the following two methods:

(1) Electronic report. Example contracts and notifications required by this section may be submitted by electronic means. Electronic submission may be by any form of electronic transmission that has been determined to be acceptable to the Administrator. To obtain current options for acceptable methods to submit example contracts electronically, contact GIPSA through the Internet on the GIPSA Web site (<http://www.gipsa.usda.gov>) or at USDA

GIPSA, Suite 317, 210 Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50309.

(2) Printed report. Each packer that chooses to submit printed example contracts and notifications must deliver the printed contracts and notifications to USDA GIPSA, Suite 317, 210 Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50309.

(f) What information from the swine contract library will be made available to the public? GIPSA will summarize the information it has received on contract terms, including, but not limited to, base price determination and the schedules of premiums or discounts. GIPSA will make the information available by region and contract type, as defined in § 206.1, for public release 1 month after the initial submission of contracts. Geographic regions will be defined in such a manner to provide as much information as possible while maintaining confidentiality in accordance with section 251 of the Agricultural Marketing Act (7 U.S.C. 1636).

(g) How can I review information from the swine contract library? The information will be available on the Internet on the GIPSA Web site (<http://www.gipsa.usda.gov>) and at USDA-GIPSA, Suite 317, 210 Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50309. The information will be updated as GIPSA receives information from packers.

(h) What do I need to do when a previously submitted example contract is no longer a valid example due to contract changes, expiration, or withdrawal? Each packer must submit a new example contract when contract changes result in changes to any of the four example-contract criteria specified in paragraph (d) of this section and notify GIPSA if the new example contract replaces the previously submitted example contract. Each packer must notify GIPSA when an example contract no longer represents any existing or available contract (expired or withdrawn). Each packer must submit these example contracts and notifications within 1 business day of the change, expiration, or withdrawal.

§ 206.3 Monthly report.

(a) Do I need to provide monthly reports? Each packer, as defined in § 206.1, must provide information for each swine processing plant that it operates or at which it has swine slaughtered that has the slaughtering capacity, alone or in combination with other plants, specified in the definition of packer.

(b) When is the monthly report due? Each packer must send a separate monthly report for each plant that has the slaughtering capacity, alone or in combination with other plants specified in the definition of packer in § 206.1. Each packer must deliver the report to the GIPSA Regional Office in Des Moines, Iowa, by the close of business on the 15th of each month, beginning at least 45 days after the initial submission of example contracts. If the 15th day of a month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or federal holiday, the monthly report is due no later than the close of the next business day following the 15th.

(c) What information do I need to provide in the monthly report? The monthly report that each packer files must be reported on Form P&SP-341, which will be available on the Internet on the GIPSA Web site (<http://www.gipsa.usda.gov>) and at USDA GIPSA, Suite 317, 210 Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50309. In the monthly report, each packer must provide the following information:

(1) Number of swine to be delivered under existing contracts. Existing contracts are contracts the packer currently is using for the purchase of swine for slaughter at each plant. Each packer must provide monthly estimates of the number of swine committed to be delivered under all of its existing contracts (even if those contracts are not currently available for renewal or to additional producers) in each contract type as defined in § 206.1.

(2) Available contracts. Available contracts are the contracts the packer is currently making available to producers, or is making available for renewal to currently contracted producers, for the purchase of swine for slaughter at each plant. On the monthly report, a packer will indicate each contract type, as defined in § 206.1, that the packer is currently making available.

(3) Estimates of committed swine. Each packer must provide an estimate of the total number of swine committed under existing contracts for delivery to each plant for slaughter within each of the following 12 calendar months beginning with the 1st of the month immediately following the due date of the report. The estimate of total swine committed will be reported by contract type as defined in § 206.1.

(4) Expansion clauses. Any conditions or circumstances specified by clauses in any existing contracts that could result in an increase in the estimates specified in paragraph (c)(3) of this section. Each packer will identify the expansion clauses in the monthly report by listing a code for the following conditions:

(i) Clauses that allow for a range of the number of swine to be delivered.

(ii) Clauses that require a greater number of swine to be delivered as the contract continues.

(iii) Other clauses that provide for expansion in the numbers of swine to be delivered.

(5) Maximum estimates of swine. The packer's estimate of the maximum total number of swine that potentially could be delivered to each plant within each of the following 12 calendar months, if any or all of the types of expansion clauses identified in accordance with the requirement in paragraph (c)(4) of this section are executed. The estimate of maximum potential deliveries must be reported for all existing contracts by contract type as defined in § 206.1.

(d) What if a contract does not specify the number of swine committed? To meet the requirements of paragraphs (c)(3) and (c)(5) of this section, the packer must estimate expected and potential deliveries based on the best information available to the packer. Such information might include, for example, the producer's current and projected swine inventories and planned production.

(e) When do I change previously reported estimates? Regardless of any estimates for a given future month that may have been previously reported, current estimates of deliveries reported as required by paragraphs (c)(3) and (c)(5) of this section must be based on the most accurate information available at the time each report is prepared.

(f) Where and how do I send my monthly report? Each packer must submit monthly reports required by this section by either of the following two methods:

(1) Electronic report. Information reported under this section may be reported by electronic means, to the maximum extent practicable. Electronic submission may be by any form of electronic transmission that has been determined to be acceptable to the Administrator. To obtain current options for acceptable methods to submit information electronically, contact GIPSA through the Internet on the GIPSA Web site (<http://www.gipsa.usda.gov>) or at USDA GIPSA, Suite 317, 210 Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50309.

(2) Printed report. Each packer may deliver its printed monthly report to USDA GIPSA, Suite 317, 210 Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50309.

(g) What information from monthly reports will be made available to the public and when and how will the information be made available to the public?

(1) Availability. GIPSA will provide a monthly report of estimated deliveries by contract types as reported by packers in accordance with this section, for public release on the first business day of each month. The monthly reports will be available on the Internet on the GIPSA Web site (<http://www.gipsa.usda.gov>) and at USDA GIPSA, Suite 317, 210 Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50309.

(2) Regions. Information in the report will be aggregated and reported by geographic regions. Geographic regions will be defined in such a manner to provide as much information as possible while maintaining confidentiality in accordance with section 251 of the Agricultural Marketing Act (7 U.S.C. 1636) and may be modified from time to time.

(3) Reported information. The monthly report will provide the following information:

(i) The existing contract types for each geographic region.

(ii) The contract types currently being made available to additional producers or available for renewal to currently contracted producers in each geographic region.

(iii) The sum of packers' reported estimates of the total number of swine committed by contract for delivery during the next 6 and 12 months beginning with the month the report is published. The report will indicate the number of swine committed by geographic reporting region and by contract type.

(iv) The types of conditions or circumstances as reported by packers that could result in expansion in the numbers of swine to be delivered under the terms of expansion clauses in the contracts at any time during the following 12 calendar months.

(v) The sum of packers' reported estimates of the maximum total number of swine that potentially could be delivered during each of the next 6 and 12 months if all expansion clauses in current contracts are executed. The report will indicate the sum of estimated maximum potential deliveries by geographic reporting region and by contract type.

(h) Where and how do I file a waiver request? The waiver request must be submitted in writing and include a statement that the packer does not procure swine using marketing agreements. The packer must send the waiver request to the GIPSA Regional Office in Des Moines, Iowa. If the waiver request is approved, GIPSA will inform the packer in writing that it has been granted a waiver for 12 months following the date of receipt of the waiver request unless the status of the packer changes during that year. The packer will be notified to submit the information required in this part if it begins using marketing agreements during the waiver period or if GIPSA determines that the packer utilizes marketing agreements.

RIN 3052-AC39

Statement on Regulatory Burden

AGENCY: Farm Credit Administration.

ACTION: Final notice of intent.

SUMMARY: This notice of intent is part of the Farm Credit Administration's (FCA, Agency, or we) initiative to reduce regulatory burden for Farm Credit System (FCS or System) institutions. Several System institutions responded to our June 2008 notice of intent inviting comments on FCA regulations that may duplicate other requirements, are ineffective, or impose burdens that are greater than the benefits received. In response to some of those comments, we plan to publish a direct final rule separately in the Federal Register to make technical changes and corrections to some of our regulations. This notice of intent responds to the comments that address regulatory projects we have identified for FCA consideration and regulations we are not changing at this time.

I. Background

On June 23, 2008, we published a notice of intent in the Federal Register inviting the public to comment on FCA regulations that may duplicate other requirements, are ineffective, or impose burdens that are greater than the benefits received. See 73 FR 35361. We specifically requested comments on regulations concerning (1) assessment and apportionment of administrative expenses, (2) loan policies and operations, (3) leasing, (4) borrower rights, (5) general provisions, and (6) nondiscrimination in lending. In addition, we received comments on regulations concerning (1) organization, (2) standards of conduct and referral of known and or suspected criminal violations, (3) eligibility and scope of financing, and (4) grounds for appointment of conservators and receivers.

We received letters from AgFirst Farm Credit Bank (AgFirst); AgriBank, FCB (AgriBank); CoBank, ACB (CoBank); Farm Credit Bank of Texas (FCBT); and the Farm Credit Council (FCC) containing comments covering a range of FCA regulations. The purpose of this notice of intent is to inform the public of regulations commented on that will not be changed in connection with this regulatory burden project. Some of the regulations will be retained without amendment because they implement statutory requirements or safety and soundness measures that cannot be changed or need significant further evaluation before we can consider whether changes are appropriate. Many of these comments are the same or similar to those we received and considered (but did not implement) in the past. Other comments concern regulations that will not be changed as part of this regulatory initiative because they are the subject of other regulatory initiatives. For example, since June 2008, we have published proposed rules on director elections and effective interest rates. Some comments concerning those issues will be considered by the Agency in the development of the respective final rule, but not in this regulatory burden notice. FCA's Regulatory Performance Plan (RPP) projects those rules going final in December 2009 and January 2010, respectively. See http://www.fca.gov/law/perf_plan.html. Also, a number of the issues raised by commenters are the subject of other regulatory projects scheduled for consideration by the FCA as set forth in the RPP and FCA's semiannual Unified Agenda of Regulatory and Deregulatory Actions published at www.reginfo.gov. Those comments will be considered as part of the regulatory process of those projects.

The following section summarizes the comments we received on regulations that (1) we cannot change or are not proposing to change at this time, or (2) we will consider in regulatory projects that have been identified by the FCA.

II. Regulations That We Are Not Proposing To Change at This Time

A. Organization—Director Elections

Comments: AgriBank stated that our regulations governing director elections inappropriately create the impression that FCA, as an arm's-length regulator, is the party most capable of determining how the owners of an institution should choose their representatives on a board of directors. Further, AgriBank stated that stockholders should be allowed to nominate and elect directors in any manner they deem appropriate, as provided in the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended (Act), so long as whatever process they choose provides for fair and equitable representation for all stockholders.

FCA Response: The FCA published a proposed rule at 74 FR 17612 on April 16, 2009, that would amend FCA rules on System bank and association director elections and other voting procedures. The comment will be addressed in that rulemaking. We are planning to issue a final rule early next year.

B. Standards of Conduct and Referral of Known or Suspected Criminal Violations—Joint Officers

Comments: The FCC stated that the FCA should consider revising § 612.2157 prohibiting employment of joint officers by a System bank and one of its affiliated associations because some System institutions have noted that there may be situations in which the best "business case" practice for cost-effective operations could be the use of joint officers. AgriBank stated that § 612.2157 prohibits joint officers of a Farm Credit bank and an association in the same district and that such a prohibition prevents a Farm Credit bank and association from voluntarily combining some or all of the operations of the two entities to achieve greater efficiency. AgriBank commented that this regulation prevents the members/owners of these institutions, and their elected directors, from determining the manner in which they choose to operate these interdependent institutions.

FCA Response: On May 13, 1994, the FCA published a final rule at 59 FR 24889 prohibiting bank officers from being employed by an association in its district to preserve the integrity and independence of the supervisory process. However, employees other than officers may serve jointly provided each institution appropriately reflects the expense of such employees in its financial statements. As illustrated in its Unified Agenda, the FCA is conducting a review of its Standard of Conduct regulations. In that review, we will consider whether and when waivers of certain standards of conduct provisions may be permitted. This comment will be considered as part of that review.

C. Eligibility and Scope of Financing—Financing for Farm-Related Service Businesses

Comments: The FCC stated that we should consider a revision to § 613.3020 regarding eligibility for farm-related service financing. The FCC believes that the Act allows FCA considerable discretion in defining the types of businesses eligible to be considered "farm-related" services and that the 50-percent requirement for full financing is too restrictive. To support its comment, the FCC stated that in many cases involving farm-related businesses the service component is so interwoven with the product being provided that an attempt to distinguish the service amount from the value of the product can be arbitrary. The FCC also stated that the FCA should include "aquatic-related" service providers as eligible for System financing and that the FCA should undertake a comprehensive review of the statutory authority, removing any impediments to eligibility for System financing that is not based on the Act.

FCA Response: This request is beyond the scope of regulatory burden and, while we are not proposing any changes to our regulations at this time, we will consider this comment in any future reviews of § 613.3020.

D. Loan Policies and Operations

Comments: We received numerous comments on part 614 regarding FCA regulations on loan policies and operations. The FCC stated that we should review § 614.4040 in regard to the required amortization period for intermediate-term loans and that loan terms should be based on sound lending practices, the borrower's credit strength, and the cash flow analysis of the operation. AgriBank stated that while FCA regulations limit the amortization of intermediate-term loans to 15 years, the Act does not. AgriBank added that prohibiting amortization over a period greater than 15 years prevents production credit associations (PCAs) from being able to meet the needs of creditworthy borrowers who desire such terms. AgriBank further stated that § 614.4040(a) provides that a PCA intermediate-term loan may not be made solely for the purpose of acquiring unimproved real estate, and that this restriction has no statutory basis and creates inconsistency in that it does not apply in situations where the real estate offered as security is presently owned by the borrower.

FCA Response: The Act does not explicitly address amortization limits. The FCA may conduct a review to determine if its regulations concerning intermediate-term loans should be updated. If such a review is conducted, it would include FCA rules concerning amortization. However, we are not proposing any changes at this time.

Comments: The FCBT stated that § 614.4165(b) requires Farm Credit banks to develop policies that direct associations to establish young, beginning, and small (YBS) farmers and ranchers programs that ensure coordination with other System institutions and other governmental and private sources of credit and provide reports to the funding bank. Section 614.4165(c) requires YBS programs to contain other minimum components, including a mission statement, quantitative targets, qualitative goals, and methods to ensure safety and soundness. Paragraph (d) provides for the supervising bank to review association programs, but only with respect to the requirements of paragraph (c) and not those of paragraph (b). The FCBT comments that this distinction does not appear to be consistent with the Act, serves no apparent purpose, and results in a confusing and burdensome differentiation in the bank's approval process. The FCBT further stated that the bank's approval of the association's program should be based on compliance with the bank's policy as provided in the statute.

FCA Response: We believe Congress intended that YBS programs be developed by the System lenders who have the most knowledge of their territories. The review and approval requirement is mandated by statute, and we developed this section to allow each direct lender association the maximum flexibility in creating a YBS program that takes into consideration the economy and demographics of its territory, as well as its risk-bearing capacity. The review and approval requirement was limited in response to comments from System institutions received during the notice and comment period for § 614.4165. The rule recognizes the changing relationship between the funding banks and their affiliated associations, and that associations operate much more independently from their funding banks. Therefore, we are not proposing any changes to our regulations at this time.

Comments: AgriBank stated that our current definition of "small" farmers, ranchers, or producers or harvesters of aquatic products (as set forth in revised booklet BL-040, issued on August 10, 2007) should be modified to be consistent with small borrower reporting utilized by the commercial lending industry, which is based on loan size rather than borrower annual gross farm sales. To support its comment, AgriBank stated that in adopting a loan size approach to small business and small farm reporting, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the Federal Reserve Board concluded that the risk of inaccuracy is limited because loan size approximately correlates with the size of a business or farm borrower.

FCA Response: The FCA has defined YBS borrowers in a manner to minimize burden on the System lenders by using characteristics such as age, number of years farming, and gross farm sales. These characteristics are most relevant to farming and are consistent with the definition of small farmer used by the United States Department of Agriculture. We believe our definition of small farmer is the least burdensome one to meet the purposes of, and measure performance under, section 4.19 of the Act. Therefore, we are not proposing any changes to our definition at this time.

Comment: CoBank stated that the FCA should amend the definition of "interests in loans" in § 614.4325(a)(1) to make clear that it includes not only whole loans, but also participation interests since both types of interests qualify as "interests in loans."

FCA Response: The FCA's definition of "interests in loans" is ownership interests in the principal amount, interest payments, or any aspect of a loan transaction and transactions involving a pool of loans, including servicing rights. We specifically address loan participations in § 614.4330, and to amend the definition of "interests in loans" to include loan participations would create redundancies and overlap between the regulatory provisions that could lead to confusion and contribute to regulatory burden. Therefore, we are not proposing any changes to our regulations at this time.

Comments: The FCC stated that the existing requirements in § 614.4325(e) for each institution to make an independent judgment on the creditworthiness of the borrower may not be cost-effective, and there may be alternative methods of making appropriate credit decisions regarding purchase of a participation, particularly in cases involving a pool of loans. AgriBank stated that System institutions should be permitted to underwrite loan participations on a composite analysis basis where the purchase of a group or pool of loans would determine the extent of analysis required. AgriBank stated that the analysis could entail evaluation of the originator's or lead lender's underwriting policies and loan-servicing procedures; assessment of financial and operating statements; and review of loan pool characteristics such as secured/unsecured, term, amortization, minimum/maximum size, minimum ownership by pool administrator, industry concentrations, source of loans, pricing strategy, and reporting requirements.

FCA Response: The overarching intent of this regulation remains safety and soundness of the System institutions. While we believe that the commenter's suggestion with respect to loan pools may be worthy of further review, more research is necessary; therefore, we are not proposing any changes to our regulations at this time.

Comments: CoBank stated that the FCA should consider adding a provision in loan purchases and sales similar to § 614.4325(h) that explicitly authorizes loan sales, including participations, through the use of agents as well. To support its comment, CoBank stated that the FCA has expressly allowed agency relationships where one System institution performs various functions (e.g., underwriting and approval) as agent for a second originating System institution if the loan is designated for sale to the agent and as long as they are based on standards set forth in board policies and in agreements between two System institutions.

FCA Response: The authority of an FCS institution to purchase loans is not commensurate with its authority to sell loans. For example, section 1.5(16) of the Act authorizes a Farm Credit bank to sell interests in loans to non-System institutions, but authorizes the bank to purchase or sell interests in loans to System institutions. Further, a System institution has additional fiduciary responsibilities when it purchases loans. For example, § 614.4325(e) requires a purchasing System institution to make an independent judgment on the creditworthiness of the borrower, which judgment may not be delegated to any person not employed by the institution. Section 614.4325(h) addresses the use of an agent to perform some of the unique responsibilities of the purchasing System institution. Because System institutions are not subject to the same regulatory and statutory requirements, or the same fiduciary responsibilities, when they sell loans, a provision parallel to § 614.4325(h) for sales of loans is unwarranted. Loans and interests in loans may be sold in accordance with each institution's lending authorities as set forth in part 614, subpart A. Use of an agent in the sale of loans would be permissible subject to subpart A and to the institution's own lending authorities and policies. Therefore, we believe that additional regulations addressing the use of agents in the sale of loans are unnecessary.

Comments: AgriBank stated that FCA should remove the provision in § 614.4325(h) that obligates a funding bank that serves as agent in a transaction to purchase all loans from the association if the association determines that the loan does not comply with the terms of the agency agreement or the association's loan-underwriting standards. AgriBank commented that the purchase obligation creates a perpetual contingent liability on the funding bank's balance sheet and that it serves no useful purpose and imposes an unacceptable burden. AgriBank suggested that, in the alternative, the regulation should be amended to require the association's exercise of this "put" option within a specified period or not more than 12 months, sufficient time to allow the association to make its determination.

FCA Response: Section 614.4325(h)(4) provides that if an association's funding bank serves as its agent, the agency agreement must provide that the association can terminate the agreement upon no more than 60 days notice to the bank and that the association may, in its discretion, require the bank to purchase from the association any interest in a loan that the association determines does not comply with the terms of the agency agreement or the association's loan-underwriting standards. This provision ensures safety and soundness by providing a remedy to an association injured by a bank's breach of the agency agreement and minimizes any possible effect of an unequal bargaining position between a bank and an association. While we are not proposing any changes to the regulations at this time, we may consider future rulemaking or guidance that would put a time limit on the exercise of the "buyback" option if it would facilitate the accounting of the selling bank.

Comments: CoBank stated that § 614.4335(b) should be amended to address the stock purchase requirement that impacts loans designated at closing for sale (either a 100-percent whole or a 100-percent participation interest, including loans closed under an agency agreement under which the FCS agent would purchase a 100-percent participation or whole loan immediately after loan closing). CoBank also stated that the regulation should be amended to permit bylaws to provide that the minimum stock purchase requirement shall not apply to these types of transactions (similar to how secondary market sales are addressed). CoBank commented that such an amendment would address the administrative burden of requiring a $1,000 purchase of an originating lender's equity by customers whose only contact with the originating lender thereafter will be minimal or nonexistent.

FCA Response: Section 4.3A(f)(1) of the Act allows a bank or association's bylaws to provide, in the case of a loan that is designated, at the time the loan is made, for sale into a secondary market, that no voting stock or participation certificate purchase requirement shall apply to the borrower for the loan. The regulatory language is parallel to the statutory authority, and to make the change suggested would require further inquiry and notice and comment rulemaking. It is beyond the scope of this regulatory burden initiative, and while we may consider this change in future guidance or rulemaking, we are not proposing any changes to our regulations at this time.

Comment: CoBank commented that the FCA should amend § 614.4337(a) to permit the disclosure to borrowers to be made by the purchasing institution with the written consent of the selling institution. In the alternative, CoBank suggested that the regulations should require the selling institution to copy the purchasing institution on its disclosure to the borrower to ensure that the purchasing institution can meet its obligations.

FCA Response: The originator of a loan is accountable to the borrower for the disclosure requirements of § 614.4337(a). The Act requires that System banks and associations issue voting stock or participation certificates to borrowers and that System "qualified lender" institutions provide borrower rights to certain borrowers. These institutions are in the best position to explain the impact of the sale on these matters. The selling and purchasing institutions can work out notice requirements in the purchase agreement as they deem appropriate. Therefore, we are not proposing any changes to this regulation at this time.

Comments: The FCC commented that existing rules regarding loan approval authority should be re-evaluated (§§ 614.4460–4470) to reflect both structural changes in the System (reference to the "district board"), as well as the relationship between banks and affiliated associations. The FCC further commented that direct lender associations already have extensive procedures for "official" loans, in terms of loan underwriting, credit administration, and internal review and reporting, and that a regulatory requirement for bank approval of these loans conflicts with the debtor-creditor relationship between the bank and an association. AgriBank commented that System banks should be removed from the loan approval process for loans made by an association to designated parties because, as direct lenders, associations are fully capable of administering their own loan approval processes and implementing appropriate internal controls, including reporting of loan approval actions to their boards of directors.

FCA Response: Sections 614.4460 and 614.4470 of our regulations require a funding bank to approve all loans that it and its associations make to designated parties. On April 24, 1995, the FCA issued a rulemaking eliminating certain prior approvals by the FCA as an arm's-length regulator. See 60 FR 20008. Given the passage of time, it may be appropriate to update this section and review the loan approval process in general. This effort would take place in the context of guidance or a rulemaking and is beyond the scope of this regulatory burden initiative.

Comments: CoBank stated that the requirement in § 614.4550 that prohibits banks from funding an "other financing institution (OFI)" outside of its chartered territory unless proper notification is granted to the bank chartered to serve the territory is unnecessarily restrictive. CoBank also stated that because it is not always clear when an "application" is received (could be in stages, withdrawn, resubmitted later, etc.), a dispute could result between the two banks as to whether the notice was properly and timely given. CoBank further states that a fairer and much more workable standard would be that a bank could not enter into a funding relationship with an OFI outside of its territory until 45 days after notification of its intent to commence funding to allow ample time for the "in territory" bank to seek its business.

FCA Response: Section 614.4550 states that a Farm Credit bank or agricultural credit bank cannot fund, discount, or extend other similar financial assistance to an OFI that maintains its headquarters or has more than 50 percent of its outstanding loan volume to eligible borrowers who conduct agricultural or aquatic operations in the chartered territory of another Farm Credit bank unless it notifies such bank in writing within 5 business days of receiving the OFI's application for financing. The FCA has previously received similar comments from System institutions concerning the 5-day written notice requirement. As we have previously responded, the 5-day notice requirement has no relationship to the credit approval process, and providing written notice to another bank within 5 days should not be costly or difficult for any bank that receives applications from OFIs outside its chartered territory. We would expect a bank to make a good faith effort to determine when notification should be made, and although we may consider future guidance to this effect, we are not proposing any changes to the regulation at this time.

Comment: CoBank states that it sees no reason for a prohibition on two or more Farm Credit banks simultaneously funding an OFI.

FCA Response: In the past, we acknowledged that System arguments against this ban may have some merit, but determined that policy concerns justify the FCA's decision to retain it. Generally, each FCS association receives all its funding from one Farm Credit bank, and therefore, the ban on two or more Farm Credit banks simultaneously funding the same OFI is consistent. Further consideration of this issue is outside the scope of regulatory burden.

E. Leasing—Stock Purchase Requirements

Comment: CoBank requested that the stock purchase requirement exception in § 616.6700 be amended to apply to the Farm Credit Leasing Services Corporation (Leasing Corporation) or its legal successor, upon merger or dissolution of the Leasing Corporation. The Leasing Corporation is wholly owned by CoBank, and CoBank has considered other structures for it.

FCA Response: Section 616.6700 provides each System institution making an equipment lease must require the lessee to buy or own stock or a participation certificate in the institution making the lease, but provides an exception from this requirement for the Leasing Corporation. The FCA agrees that the exception may also apply to the Leasing Corporation's legal successor, but will make that determination if and when the Leasing Corporation's structure is changed.

F. Borrower Rights

Comments: The FCBT stated that the borrower rights requirements of § 617.7015(c) regarding loan sales are unduly restrictive, particularly with respect to parties who have a junior lien or other interest in the loan. The FCBT further states that while the requirements of this regulation could perhaps be justified for some sales to third parties who have no prior interest in or liability on the loan, it is difficult to see how the policies of the Act are served by imposing borrower rights obligations to junior lien holders or family members who may have cosigned or furnished collateral for a borrower's loan.

FCA Response: Borrower rights were created to protect the borrower from foreclosure by providing the borrower the opportunity to restructure a distressed loan. Borrower rights are part of the agricultural credit extended by the FCS and belong to the borrower, not the lender. It is therefore the borrower's choice whether to relinquish these rights to facilitate a loan sale. Thus, we do not believe the decision to waive or otherwise relinquish borrower rights should be made when the borrower is in an unequal bargaining position to the lender. As such, §§ 617.7010 and 617.7015 provide limited circumstances when a borrower is in a sufficiently equal bargaining position in which to waive these rights. In the case of loan sales to nonqualified lenders, our rule requires the lender to either make provisions for the borrower to relinquish borrower rights at the time of loan making or to obtain the borrower's release before the loan is sold. We do not believe there is a basis for distinguishing junior lien holders or holders of other interests in the loan with regard to borrower rights.

Comment: The FCC commented that the statutory requirements for disclosure of effective interest rates is less restrictive than the regulation and that the FCA should consider the use of standardized representative examples regarding the impact of stock purchase on effective interest rates.

FCA Response: Section 4.13(a)(3) of the Act states that, at loan closing, the purchase of borrower stock must be disclosed as a cost of the credit in determining the effective rate of interest on a loan. Section 617.7125(a) states that a qualified lender must calculate the effective interest rate (EIR) on a loan using the discounted cash flow method, showing the effect of time on the value of money. Accordingly, we believe that in order for borrower disclosure to be "meaningful," as is required by statute, the disclosure should take into account the specific loan for which the disclosure is being provided. The EIR disclosure should be derived from the interest rate and related charges applicable to the loan being made to the borrower. We are not proposing changes responsive to this comment at this time.

Comments: The FCBT stated that the regulatory disclosure requirements in § 617.7135(a) and (b) could be simplified for FCS institutions without materially harming the interest of borrowers if the notification of changes in the interest rate was the same for all loans, whether or not the rate is tied to an external index. The FCBT also stated that where an interest rate is based on a widely published external index plus a spread, disclosure of a change of rate should not be required merely when the index changes, but should be required only when the change of rate is caused by a change in the spread. AgFirst stated that where the loan transaction is priced with the use of an external index added to a set margin, no additional disclosure should be required as the lender has not modified the interest rate. AgFirst also stated that the cost of mailing the notifications places institutions at a competitive disadvantage relative to other lenders that are not required to disclose changes unless resulting from a modified margin. AgFirst further stated that the additional notification does not provide the borrower any more information than is already available in financial journals or news Web sites for the current value of the index. The FCC believes the disclosure procedures for rate change notices on loans with an external index can be streamlined.

FCA Response: On June 19, 2009, we published a proposed rule amending our EIR regulation regarding interest rate changes. See 74 FR 29143. Comments discussed above will be considered by the FCA during that rulemaking project.

G. General Provisions

Comment: The FCBT stated that the requirement in § 618.8025(a) for a Farm Credit bank's board of directors to verify that a System association has performed a feasibility analysis before offering a related service is beyond the Act, is burdensome, and accomplishes very little that could not be performed by FCA.

FCA Response: Section 2.5 of the Act authorizes a PCA to offer related services as determined feasible by the board of directors of a Farm Credit bank. Section 2.12(15) of the Act authorizes a Federal land bank association to offer related services that it determines, with Farm Credit bank approval, are feasible. Thus, a Farm Credit bank has a statutory role in the determination of whether a related service program is feasible for an association to offer. Therefore, we are not proposing any changes to our regulations at this time.

Comment: The FCBT commented that the regulatory requirement in § 618.8040(b)(9) is not required by the Act and may be viewed as an imposition on the borrower. Section 618.8040(b)(9) prohibits a bank or association from conditioning the extension of credit or other provision of service on the purchase of insurance sold or endorsed by a bank or association. At the time insurance is offered, a bank or association must present a written notice that the service is optional, and the borrower must sign the notice.

FCA Response: Section 4.29(b)(1) of the Act requires FCA regulations to provide that in any case in which insurance is required as a condition for a loan or other financial assistance from a bank or association, notice be given that it is not necessary to purchase the insurance from the bank or association and that the borrower has the option of obtaining the insurance elsewhere. The signed notice gives effect to this statutory requirement and we do not believe it imposes an undue burden on the bank, association, or the borrower. Thus, the FCA believes it is important to continue this requirement and we are not proposing any changes in our regulations at this time.

Comments: CoBank stated that FCA should amend § 618.8330(b) to permit disclosure of confidential borrower documents upon the issuance of an administrative subpoena with the proviso that the FCS institution may insist on a judge's order if there is reason to believe that the request is inappropriate under the circumstances. AgFirst stated that the current process related to the production of documents during civil litigation creates unnecessary burdens of time and expense for an association, while affording no additional protection to the borrower. The FCC stated that in regard to the provisions of the regulations on confidentiality of borrower information, the Agency should revisit the requirements as they relate to issuing subpoenas.

FCA Response: On August 9, 1999, the FCA published a direct final rule at 64 FR 43046 that allowed a bank or association that is a party to litigation with a borrower to disclose confidential information, and required that if the government, bank or association is not a party to litigation, confidential documents or testimony may be produced only under the lawful order of a court. We believe that this requirement is necessary to protect confidentiality of borrower information because only the judge can impartially decide whether the litigant needs the information in the institution's possession. Therefore, we do not believe this request warrants any change to our regulations at this time.

H. Disclosure to Shareholders

Comment: The FCC stated that the FCA's regulations that allow associations the option of disclosing information regarding compensation of senior officers in either the annual report or in the annual meeting information statement should be reviewed because System banks should have the similar ability to disclose that information in some other manner to their stockholders.

FCA Response: The FCA is currently conducting a review of compensation, retirement programs, and related benefits to consider changes addressing disclosure and compliance requirements for executive compensation, pension, and other benefit programs in the FCS. This comment will be considered in the course of that review.

I. Conservators, Receivers, and Voluntary Liquidations

Comments: AgriBank stated that § 627.2710(b) prohibits a funding bank from enforcing the terms of its general financing agreement (GFA) upon a default by an association without the prior approval of the FCA. AgriBank commented that this is an unwarranted infringement on the bank-association contractual relationship that places the bank in the precarious position of entering into a lending relationship with an association without the ability to collect the indebtedness due absent the approval of a third-party regulator.

FCA Response: This regulation does not prevent or prohibit a funding bank from enforcing the terms of its GFA. The regulation does, however, provide that one of the grounds for appointment of a receiver or conservator is a default by the association on one or more terms of its GFA with its affiliated bank if the FCA determines the default to be material. As we stated in our July 22, 1998, rulemaking, the FCA, not the bank or the association, has the statutory authority for determining the grounds for appointing a conservator or receiver. See 63 FR 39219. We cannot delegate that authority to a funding bank, and we will be the authority that determines whether a default of the GFA is materially sufficient to warrant appointment of a conservator or receiver. Due to the significance of a material default of the GFA to an association's financial condition and ability to continue operations, we believe that this is a material safety issue. Thus, we are not proposing any changes to our regulations at this time.

III. Future Efforts To Reduce Regulatory Burden on FCS Institutions

As noted above, we will consider remaining regulatory burden issues raised during the comment period in separate regulatory projects. We will continue our efforts to remove regulatory burden. However, we will maintain those regulations that are necessary to implement the Act and that are critical for the safety and soundness of the System.

Airworthiness Directives; Rolls-Royce plc RB211 Trent 700 Series Turbofan Engines

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM).

SUMMARY: The FAA proposes to supersede an existing airworthiness directive (AD) for Rolls-Royce plc (RR) RB211 Trent 700 series turbofan engines. That AD currently requires initial and repetitive borescope inspections of the high pressure-and-intermediate pressure (HP-IP) turbine internal and external oil vent tubes for coking and carbon buildup, and cleaning or replacing the vent tubes if necessary. This proposed AD would require the same actions, but would add additional inspections of the vent flow restrictor. This proposed AD results from further analysis that the cleaning of the vent tubes required by AD 2007-02-05 could lead to loosened carbon fragments, causing a blockage downstream in the vent flow restrictor. We are proposing this AD to prevent internal oil fires due to coking and carbon buildup that could cause uncontained engine failure and damage to the airplane.

DATES: We must receive any comments on this proposed AD by December 28, 2009.

Discussion

On January 12, 2007, the FAA issued AD 2007-02-05, Amendment 39-14892 (72 FR 2603, January 22, 2007). The European Aviation Safety Agency (EASA), which is the Technical Agent for the Member States of the European Community, notified us that an unsafe condition may exist on RB211 Trent 700 series turbofan engines. Since AD 2007-02-05 was issued, EASA advises that further analysis has now identified that previous intervention actions may have exacerbated the problem of carbon formation in the vent pipe. These intervention actions are believed to loosen carbon fragments which are subsequently released during engine operation, leading to blockage downstream in the vent flow restrictor. The resultant reduced vent pipe flow will then cause accelerated carbon buildup inside the pipe and increased likelihood of an internal oil fire.

Relevant Service Information

We have reviewed and approved the technical contents of Rolls-Royce plc Alert Service Bulletin (ASB) No. RB.211-72-AE302, Revision 7, dated April 30, 2009. That ASB describes procedures for borescope inspections of the HP-IP turbine internal and external oil vent tubes for coking and carbon buildup, and cleaning or replacing the vent tubes if necessary. That ASB also describes procedures for visual inspections of the vent pipe restrictor immediately after pipe cleaning and a high-power engine run. For internal oil vent tubes to pass inspection, they must allow cleaning tool, number HU80298, to pass through them. EASA classified this service bulletin as mandatory and issued AD 2007-0201 and AD 2007-0202 (corrected August 8, 2007), to ensure the airworthiness of these RB211 Trent 700 series turbofan engines in Europe.

Bilateral Agreement Information

This engine model is manufactured in the United Kingdom and is type certificated for operation in the United States under the provisions of Section 21.29 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR 21.29) and the applicable bilateral airworthiness agreement. Under this bilateral airworthiness agreement, EASA kept us informed of the situation described above. We have examined the findings of the EASA, reviewed all available information, and determined that AD action is necessary for products of this type design that are certificated for operation in the United States.

FAA's Determination and Requirements of the Proposed AD

We have evaluated all pertinent information and identified an unsafe condition that is likely to exist or develop on other products of this same type design. We are proposing this AD, which would require initial and repetitive borescope inspections of the HP-IP turbine internal and external oil vent tubes for coking and carbon buildup, and cleaning or replacing the vent tubes if necessary. This proposed AD would also require visual inspections of the vent flow restrictor immediately after pipe cleaning and a high-power engine run. We are issuing this AD to prevent internal oil fires due to coking and carbon buildup that could cause uncontained engine failure and damage to the airplane. The proposed AD would require that you do these actions using the service information described previously.

Table 1 Clarification

We found it necessary to clarify the second sentence in the first column of the Initial Inspection Table 1, which we carried forward from AD 2007-02-05. We changed "Has fewer than 10,000 hours TSN or fewer than 2,500 CSN on the effective date of this AD" to "Has fewer than 10,000 hours TSN and fewer than 2,500 CSN on the effective date of this AD."

Costs of Compliance

Based on the service information, we estimate that this proposed AD would affect about 33 engines of U.S. registry. We also estimate that it would take about one work-hour per engine to comply with this proposed AD. The average labor rate is $80 per work-hour. Required parts would cost about $2,000 per engine. Based on these figures, we estimate the cost of the proposed AD on U.S. operators to be $68,640.

Authority for This Rulemaking

Title 49 of the United States Code specifies the FAA's authority to issue rules on aviation safety. Subtitle I, section 106, describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the Agency's authority.

We are issuing this rulemaking under the authority described in subtitle VII, part A, subpart III, section 44701, "General requirements." Under that section, Congress charges the FAA with promoting safe flight of civil aircraft in air commerce by prescribing regulations for practices, methods, and procedures the Administrator finds necessary for safety in air commerce. This regulation is within the scope of that authority because it addresses an unsafe condition that is likely to exist or develop on products identified in this rulemaking action.

Regulatory Findings

We have determined that this proposed AD would not have federalism implications under Executive Order 13132. This proposed AD would not have a substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national Government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government.

For the reasons discussed above, I certify that the proposed AD:

1. Is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866;
2. Is not a "significant rule" under the DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034, February 26, 1979); and
3. Would not have a significant economic impact, positive or negative, on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

We prepared a regulatory evaluation of the estimated costs to comply with this proposed AD. See the ADDRESSES section for a location to examine the regulatory evaluation.

The Proposed Amendment

PART 39—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

1. The authority citation for part 39 continues to read as follows:

Authority: 49 U.S.C. 106(g), 40113, 44701.

§ 39.13 [Amended]

2. The FAA amends § 39.13 by removing Amendment 39–14892 (72 FR 2603, January 22, 2007) and by adding a new airworthiness directive, to read as follows:

Rolls-Royce plc: Docket No. FAA–2005–19559; Directorate Identifier 2004–NE–03–AD.

Comments Due Date

- (a) The Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) must receive comments on this

Affected ADs

- (b) This AD supersedes AD 2007–02–05, Amendment 39–14892.

Applicability

- (c) This AD applies to Rolls-Royce plc (RR) RB211 Trent 768–60, RB211 Trent 772–60, and RB211 Trent 772B–60 series turbofan engines. These engines are installed on, but not limited to, Airbus A330–243, –341, –342 and –343 series airplanes.

Unsafe Condition

- (d) This AD results from further analysis that the cleaning of the vent tubes required by AD 2007–02–05 could lead to loosened carbon fragments, causing a blockage downstream in the vent flow restrictor. We are issuing this AD to prevent internal oil fires due to coking and carbon buildup that could cause uncontained engine failure and damage to the airplane.

Compliance

- (e) You are responsible for having the actions required by this AD performed within the compliance times specified unless the actions have already been done.

Initial Inspections, Cleaning, and Replacements

- (f) Using the schedule in Table 1 of this AD, borescope-inspect and clean as necessary, the high pressure-and-intermediate pressure (HP-IP) turbine internal oil vent tubes, external oil vent tubes, and bearing chamber.

TABLE 1—INITIAL INSPECTION SCHEDULE

If the engine or the 05 module:	Then initially inspect:
Has reached 10,000 hours time-since-new (TSN) or reached 2,500 cycles-since-new (CSN) on the effective date of this AD.	Within 3 months after the effective date of this AD.
Has fewer than 10,000 hours TSN and fewer than 2,500 CSN on the effective date of this AD.	Within 3 months after reaching 10,000 hours TSN or 2,500 CSN, whichever occurs first.
Is returned for an engine shop visit	Before returning to service.

(1) If after cleaning, there is still carbon in the vent tube that prevents cleaning tool number HU80298 from passing through the tube, then replace the internal oil vent tube within 10 cycles-in-service (CIS).

(2) If after cleaning, there is still carbon of visible thickness in either of the two external oil vent tubes, then replace the external oil vent tube before further flight.

(3) Use paragraphs 3.A. through 3.A.(7) of the Accomplishment Instructions of RR Alert Service Bulletin (ASB) No. RB.211–72–AE302, Revision 7, dated April 30, 2009, to do the borescope inspections and cleaning of the oil vent tubes and bearing chamber.

Initial Visual Inspection of the Vent Flow Restrictor

- (g) For engines that, on the effective date of this AD, have not accumulated 25 service cycles since the last cleaning and inspection, visually inspect the vent flow restrictor either after a high-power ground run or within 25 service cycles of the last cleaning and inspection.

(h) For engines that, on the effective date of this AD, have accumulated 25 or more service cycles since the last cleaning and inspection, visually inspect the vent flow restrictor either after a high-power ground run or within 25 service cycles after the effective date of this AD.

(i) Use paragraph 3.A.(8) of the Accomplishment Instructions of RR ASB No. RB.211–72–AE302, Revision 7, dated April 30, 2009, to do the visual inspections.

at the next engine shop visit, whichever occurs first, borescope-inspect the HP-IP turbine internal and external oil vent tubes and bearing chamber, and clean the oil vent tubes as necessary.

(1) If after cleaning there is still carbon in the internal oil vent tube that prevents cleaning tool, number HU80298, from passing through the tube, then replace the internal oil vent tube within 10 CIS.

(2) If after cleaning there is still carbon of visible thickness, in either of the two external oil vent tubes, then replace the external oil vent tube before further flight.

(3) Use paragraphs 3.A. through 3.A.(7) of the Accomplishment Instructions of RR ASB No. RB.211–72–AE302, Revision 7, dated April 30, 2009, to do the borescope inspections and cleaning of the oil vent tubes and bearing chamber.

(k) Visually inspect the vent flow restrictor either after a high-power ground run or within 25 service cycles after performing the cleaning and inspection specified in paragraph (f) through (f)(3) of this AD. Use paragraph 3.A.(8) of the Accomplishment Instructions of RR ASB No. RB.211-72-AE302, Revision 7, dated April 30, 2009, to do the visual inspection.

Definition

(l) For the purpose of this AD, an engine shop visit is induction of the engine into the engine shop for any cause.

Alternative Methods of Compliance

(m) The Manager, Engine Certification Office, has the authority to approve alternative methods of compliance for this AD, if requested using the procedures found in 14 CFR 39.19.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Comments Invited

Interested parties are invited to participate in this proposed rulemaking by submitting such written data, views, or arguments, as they may desire. Comments that provide the factual basis supporting the views and suggestions presented are particularly helpful in developing reasoned regulatory decisions on the proposal. Comments are specifically invited on the overall regulatory, aeronautical, economic, environmental, and energy-related aspects of the proposal.

Communications should identify both docket numbers (FAA Docket No. FAA-2009-0867 and Airspace Docket No. 09-ASW-16) and be submitted in triplicate to the Docket Management Facility (see ADDRESSES section for address and phone number). You may also submit comments through the Internet at <http://www.regulations.gov>.

Commenters wishing the FAA to acknowledge receipt of their comments on this action must submit with those comments a self-addressed, stamped postcard on which the following statement is made: "Comments to FAA Docket No. FAA-2009-0867 and Airspace Docket No. 09-ASW-16." The postcard will be date/time stamped and returned to the commenter.

All communications received on or before the specified closing date for comments will be considered before taking action on the proposed rule. The proposal contained in this action may be changed in light of comments received. All comments submitted will be available for examination in the public docket both before and after the closing date for comments. A report summarizing each substantive public contact with FAA personnel concerned with this rulemaking will be filed in the docket.

Availability of NPRMs

An electronic copy of this document may be downloaded through the Internet at <http://www.regulations.gov>. Recently published rulemaking documents can also be accessed through the FAA's web page at http://www.faa.gov/air_traffic/publications/airspace_amendments/.

You may review the public docket containing the proposal, any comments received, and any final disposition in person in the Dockets Office (see ADDRESSES section for address and phone number) between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, except Federal holidays. An informal docket may also be examined during normal business hours at the office of the Central Service Center, Operations Support Group, Federal Aviation Administration, 2601 Meacham Blvd., Fort Worth, TX 76137.

Persons interested in being placed on a mailing list for future NPRMs should contact the FAA's Office of Rulemaking, (202) 267-9677, for a copy of Advisory Circular No. 11-2A, Notice of Proposed Rulemaking Distribution System, which describes the application procedure.

The Proposal

The FAA is proposing an amendment to Title 14, Code of Federal Regulations (14 CFR) part 71 to establish a high altitude RNAV route, designated Q-37, between the Pueblo, CO, VORTAC and the Fort Stockton, TX, VORTAC. The new route would provide pilots and air traffic controllers with an efficient alternative route around potentially constrained airspace during convective weather events in west Texas. Additionally, the new route would be integrated into the existing National Playbook Severe Weather Avoidance Plan routes to Houston, TX, terminal airports through Albuquerque Air Route Traffic Control Center's airspace, in lieu of the current process of coordinating tactical modifications to routings with the FAA Air Traffic Control System Command Center.

High altitude RNAV routes are published in paragraph 2006 of FAA Order 7400.9T signed August 27, 2009, and effective September 15, 2009, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1. The RNAV route listed in this document will be published subsequently in the Order.

The FAA has determined that this proposed regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. Therefore, this proposed regulation: (1) Is not a “significant regulatory action” under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a “significant rule” under Department of Transportation (DOT) Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that will only affect air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this proposed rule, when promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

The FAA’s authority to issue rules regarding aviation safety is found in Title 49 of the United States Code.

Subtitle I, Section 106 describes the authority of the FAA Administrator. Subtitle VII, Aviation Programs, describes in more detail the scope of the agency’s authority.

This rulemaking is promulgated under the authority described in Subtitle VII, Part A, Subpart I, Section 40103. Under that section, the FAA is charged with prescribing regulations to assign the use of the airspace necessary to ensure the safety of aircraft and the efficient use of airspace. This regulation is within the scope of that authority as it establishes an RNAV route to enhance the safe and efficient flow of traffic in the central United States.

Environmental Review

This proposal will be subject to an environmental analysis in accordance with FAA Order 1050.1E, “Environmental Impacts: Policies and Procedures,” prior to any FAA final regulatory action.

Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act Provisions; Fisheries of the Northeastern United States; Monkfish Fishery

AGENCY: National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS), National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Commerce.

ACTION: Proposed rule; request for comments.

SUMMARY: NMFS is proposing a regulatory amendment to the Monkfish Fishery Management Plan (FMP) to allow projects funded through the Monkfish Research Set-Aside (RSA) Program to carryover unused monkfish RSA days-at-sea (DAS) into the following fishing year. Given the most recent information on the status of monkfish stocks, the regulation that prohibits monkfish RSA DAS to be carried over to the next fishing year is no longer necessary. In addition, this action would provide researchers with flexibility to complete research funded through the Monkfish RSA Program.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The monkfish fishery is jointly managed by the New England and Mid-Atlantic Fishery Councils, with the New England Council having the administrative lead. The fishery extends from Maine to North Carolina, and is divided into two management units: The Northern Fishery Management Area (NFMA) and the Southern Fishery Management Area (SFMA).

The Monkfish RSA Program was implemented through Amendment 2 to the Monkfish FMP, and 500 DAS are set aside annually from the total number of DAS allocated to limited access monkfish vessels to encourage vessels to participate in cooperative research. Because the amendment was silent on this issue of whether RSA DAS allocated to a research project should be allowed to be carried over to the following fishing year, during the rulemaking for Amendment 2, NMFS implemented a regulation that prohibited the carryover of unused monkfish RSA DAS (§ 648.92(c)(1)(v)). This regulation was not an element of the RSA program as proposed by the Councils in Amendment 2 to the FMP, but rather was implemented in the final rule for the amendment under NMFS's administrative authority, under section 305(d) of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (Magnuson-Stevens Act). NMFS took this approach due, in part, to the status of the stock at the time; at the time the amendment was being implemented, monkfish were considered overfished in both areas, with little sign of rebuilding. Since the stock is now considered to be rebuilt, the restriction on carrying over RSA DAS has become less of a concern.

Recent experience has demonstrated that researchers who participate in the monkfish RSA program have often been unable to use all of their allocated RSA DAS within the fishing year for which the grants were issued. Reasons such as unsafe weather conditions, unexpected DAS adjustments (e.g., Framework Adjustment 4 to the FMP), higher than expected fuel costs, and delayed grant approval have caused RSA DAS to go unused, resulting in loss of fishing revenue and corresponding research funding.

Allowing RSA DAS carryover would improve the success of the Monkfish RSA Program and would be consistent with the rationale for allowing commercial DAS carryover, detailed in the original FMP (e.g., to reduce the incentive to operate in unsafe conditions at the end of the fishing year).

NMFS considered four options for how monkfish RSA DAS could be carried over, as follows:

Option 1: Allow a specific number of DAS to be carried over by each project. For example, each project could be allowed to carry over up to four unused DAS to be used in the following fishing year. This option would be consistent with the current carryover policy for commercial vessels (which limits each vessel to four carryover DAS). However, this does not take into account variations in the number of monkfish RSA DAS granted to each project or the number of vessels that may be involved.

Option 2: Allow for a fixed percentage of RSA DAS carryover based on current commercial carryover policy. Because monkfish vessels are currently allowed to carryover 4 of their allocated 31 DAS, representing 13 percent of their base DAS allocation, this 13 percent could be applied to each project's RSA DAS as well. For example, if a project were granted 200 RSA DAS in fishing year (FY) 2009, up to 26 of these DAS could be carried over to FY 2010. Unlike Option 1, this percentage-based scheme would allow for those projects given more RSA DAS the opportunity to carryover more DAS. The carryover percentage for RSA DAS would be adjusted annually with any changes in the carryover allocation to commercial vessels, accounting for changes in the management of the fishery. If carryover DAS are discontinued in the commercial fishery, no rollover DAS would be allowed for RSA.

Option 3: Allow for projects to rollover of all unused RSA DAS into the following fishing year.

Option 4: Status quo, NMFS retains its conservative approach and does not allow for the carryover of RSA DAS.

Option 3, the rollover of all RSA DAS, is NMFS's preferred alternative. The annual allocation of 500 DAS to the monkfish RSA program is a small percentage of the total DAS allocated to the fishery. Since 2006, when the program was first implemented, around 2 percent of the allocated DAS have been RSA DAS. In 2008, only 346.88 (69.38 percent) of the 500 RSA DAS awarded to various projects were used.

The unused 2008 RSA DAS of 153.12 days would have represented less than 1 percent of the total 2009 allocated DAS, had the rollover of all unused RSA DAS been allowed in 2009. When considering fishing effort for 2008, the used RSA DAS represented less than 7 percent of the total DAS used. Furthermore, the biological impacts of the 500 RSA DAS have already been assessed in Amendment 2 and because monkfish is considered a data poor stock, the research generated from these projects outweigh any minimal biological impacts associated with rollover of RSA DAS.

The other three non-preferred options either do not allow for the carryover of RSA DAS, or do not allow for all RSA DAS to be carried over. As a result, these options would not maximize the recovery of revenue that is needed to fund the research projects. If RSA funding cannot be realized, researchers may have to abandon their projects or seek support from other sources that often result in a lengthy review process. Therefore, NMFS considers option 3 as the best approach to successfully implement the Monkfish RSA Program. Also, had the 500 monkfish DAS set aside for research instead remained in the commercial fishery pool, some of these DAS would have been able to be carried over to the next fishing year under existing regulations. If carryover DAS are discontinued in the commercial fishery, NMFS would reconsider whether rollover of RSA DAS would be allowed under the Monkfish RSA Program.

Classification

Pursuant to section 304(b)(1)(A) of the Magnuson-Stevens Act, the Assistant Administrator for Fisheries, NOAA, has determined that this proposed rule is consistent with the Monkfish FMP, other provisions of the Magnuson-Stevens Act, and other applicable law, subject to further consideration after public comment.

This proposed rule has been determined to be not significant for purposes of Executive Order 12866.

The Chief Counsel for Regulation of the Department of Commerce certified to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration that this proposed rule, if adopted, would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

The entities affected by this action are research institutions and universities, which are the groups that apply for and are issued grants through the Monkfish RSA Program. The proposed action to allow carryover of monkfish RSA DAS into the next fishing year would provide researchers the flexibility necessary to complete research projects funded through the Monkfish RSA Program. In recent years, researchers have stated that factors such as regulatory changes, increased fuel costs, and delayed grant approval, have greatly impacted their ability to use all of the monkfish RSA DAS within the fishing year for which they were granted. For example, in fishing year 2007 (the second year of the program), 367 monkfish RSA DAS were allocated, but 296 DAS were used, leaving 71 monkfish RSA DAS unused. However, in fishing year 2008, the number of unused monkfish RSA DAS doubled to 153 out of a total of 500 monkfish RSA DAS allocated.

This action is administrative in nature and will not have any economic impacts on small entities. This action would allow researchers issued grants under the Monkfish RSA Program the ability to fulfill those grant obligations by providing them the opportunity to complete their research projects if, for unforeseen circumstances, they are unable to utilize all of their monkfish RSA DAS during the fishing year for which those DAS were granted. Therefore, because this action makes only a minor administrative change to the Monkfish RSA Program to ensure that this program functions as intended, it will not have any economic effect on small entities.

As a result, an initial regulatory flexibility analysis is not required and none has been prepared.

RIN 0648-AY09

AGENCY: National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS), National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), Commerce.

ACTION: Proposed rule; request for comments.

SUMMARY: This proposed regulatory amendment would authorize the NMFS Northeast Regional Administrator (RA), or the RA's designee, to issue a Letter of Authorization (LOA) to eligible researchers on board federally permitted fishing vessels that plan to temporarily possess fish in a manner not compliant with applicable fishing regulations, for the purpose of collecting scientific data on catch. Currently, federally permitted fishing vessels that carry research personnel during commercial fishing trips for the purpose of collecting catch data before discarding fish that otherwise could not be retained are required to obtain an exempted fishing permit (EFP) in order to conduct their sampling work, which is administratively burdensome and has resulted in the delay and lost opportunity to conduct important fishery research.

DATES: Written comments must be received on or before November 25, 2009.

ADDRESSES: You may submit comments, identified by 0648-AY09, by any one of the following methods:

- Electronic Submissions: Submit all electronic public comments via the Federal e-Rulemaking Portal: <http://www.regulations.gov>.
- Mail: Paper, disk, or CD-ROM comments should be sent to Regional Administrator, National Marine Fisheries Service, 55 Great Republic

Ryan Silva, Cooperative Research Liaison, phone (978) 281-9326, fax (978) 281-9135.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This proposed rule would revise portions of the Northeast Region experimental fishing regulations by authorizing the RA, or the RA's designee, to issue an LOA to eligible researchers on board federally permitted fishing vessels that temporarily possess fish species that otherwise could not be retained under the applicable fishing regulations, for the purpose of collecting scientific data on catch. The proposed changes would be enacted under the authority given to the Secretary of Commerce to promulgate regulations to fully carry out the requirements of the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (Magnuson-Stevens Act).

Northeast Region fishing regulations found at 50 CFR part 648 implement management measures for fisheries operating under 15 fishery management plans (FMPs). These regulations include minimum fish sizes, fish possession limits, and various spatial and temporal fish possession restrictions such as quota and area closures. Federally permitted fishing vessels that carry research personnel during commercial fishing trips for the purpose of collecting catch data before discarding restricted fish are currently required to obtain an EFP in order to conduct their sampling work. An EFP is required primarily because the vessel would be in possession of fish species that otherwise could not be retained, albeit temporarily, in a manner inconsistent with normal commercial fishing operations. For example, if a vessel were to be intercepted by an enforcement agent and the vessel was in possession of fish that otherwise could not be retained, but had been retained for data collection purposes and had not yet been processed and discarded, the vessel would be in violation of fishing regulations. Although all such fish are discarded once the data have been collected, there would be a period of time when the vessel was in possession of fish that could not legally be retained. In all other respects, the vessels are operating in compliance with commercial fishing regulations.

The requirement to obtain an EFP prior to conducting these types of sampling activities on commercial fishing vessels has raised several issues and concerns within the scientific community, the Regional Fishery Management Councils, and among NMFS Regional Office (RO) and Science Center staff. Due to the time necessary to request and obtain an EFP, these temporary possession EFPs can inhibit the ability of fishery researchers to opportunistically accompany commercial fishing vessels for the purpose of data collection. This has resulted in the delay and lost opportunity to conduct important fishery research, which negatively affects cooperative research efforts and increases the cost of data collection. In addition, the administrative burden on NMFS from processing and overseeing these routine EFPs is substantial.

To mitigate these concerns, this proposed rule would authorize the RA, or the RA's designee, to issue an LOA to eligible researchers on board federally permitted fishing vessels that temporarily possess fish species that could otherwise not be retained under applicable fishing regulations for the purpose of collecting scientific data on catch (temporary possession LOA). Temporary possession LOAs would allow researchers and NMFS to forego the full EFP process, which includes the solicitation of public comment and consultation under applicable laws such as the Endangered Species Act (ESA) and the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), for each project requesting authorization to collect at-sea catch data. The RA would determine whether the applicant and participating vessels meet the eligibility criteria prior to issuing or denying a temporary possession LOA application. The time to complete the review process would be greatly reduced, which would facilitate important fishery research and reduce lost data collection opportunities, foster collaborative relationships between the fishing industry and the fishery research community, and reduce the cost of at-sea catch data collection. In addition, this would greatly reduce the administrative burden on NMFS that results from processing these routine EFPs.

NMFS would maintain discretion over the vessels and researchers that are issued temporary exemption LOAs. To ensure effective oversight, eligible vessels would need to meet the requirements described below, and EFP oversight policies would apply to all vessels issued a temporary possession LOA. Any additional exemptions beyond temporary possession would need to be obtained through the standard EFP process.

Only personnel from the following bodies would be eligible for a temporary possession LOA: Foreign government agency; U.S. Government agency; U.S. state or territorial agency; university (or other educational institution accredited by a recognized national or international accreditation body); international treaty organization; or scientific institution.

To obtain a temporary possession LOA, an eligible applicant would be required to submit a complete application, similar to an EFP application, which would contain the following information: The date of the application; the applicant's name, mailing address, and telephone number; a statement of the purposes and goals for which the LOA is needed; the name(s) and affiliation of the fishery research technicians that will be collecting the data; a statement demonstrating the qualifications of the research technician that will be collecting the data; the species (target and incidental) expected to be harvested under the LOA; the disposition of all regulated species harvested under the LOA; the approximate time(s) and place(s) fishing would take place; the type, size, and amount of gear to be used; and the signature of the applicant. In addition, for each vessel to be covered by the LOA, as soon as the information is available and before operations begin, the applicant would be required to supply the vessel operator name, the vessel's Federal fishing permit number, and the vessel registration or documentation number.

Classification

Pursuant to section 305(d) of the Magnuson-Stevens Act, the Assistant Administrator for Fisheries, NOAA, has determined that this proposed rule is consistent with the Fishery Management Plans (FMPs) of the Northeast Region, other provisions of the Magnuson-

Stevens Act, and other applicable law, subject to further consideration after public comment.

This proposed rule has been determined to be not significant for purposes of Executive Order 12866.

The Chief Counsel for Regulation of the Department of Commerce certified to the Chief Counsel for Advocacy of the Small Business Administration that this proposed rule, if adopted, would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The factual basis for this determination is as follows:

The cooperative research community, which includes principal investigators, research technicians, and commercial fishermen, would be the primary group affected by this rule. It is estimated that approximately 50 individuals would be affected by this rule. It is unlikely that this rule will have any effect on any other entity or business. No regulated entities would incur any additional costs as a result of this rule as these individuals are already required under 50 CFR 600.745 to apply for an EFP. This action would simplify and streamline the process to obtain the necessary documentation.

As a result, an initial regulatory flexibility analysis is not required, and none has been prepared.

This proposed rule contains collection-of-information requirements that have already been reviewed and approved by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under OMB control number 0648-0309 ("Scientific Research, Exempted Fishing, and Exempted Activity Submissions"). Send comments on these or any other aspects of the collection of information to the Northeast Regional Office at the ADDRESSES above, and by e-mail to David.Rostker@omb.eop.gov or fax to (202) 395-7285.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, and no person shall be subject to penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the PRA, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB control number.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

This collection of information is required by the provisions of the Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT), which became operational in June 1978 and is administered by the International Bureau (IB) of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) in Geneva, Switzerland. The provisions of the PCT have been implemented by the United States in Part IV of Title 35 of the U.S. Code and Subpart C of Title 37 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The purpose of the PCT is to provide a standardized filing format and procedure that allows an applicant to seek protection for an invention in several countries by filing one international application in one location, in one language, and paying one initial set of fees.

The information in this collection is used by the public to submit a patent application under the PCT and by the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) to fulfill its obligation to process, search, and examine the application as directed by the treaty. The USPTO acts as the United States Receiving Office (RO/US) for international applications filed by residents and nationals of the United States. These applicants send most of their correspondence directly to the USPTO, but they may also file certain documents directly with the IB. The USPTO also serves as an International Searching Authority (ISA) and an International Preliminary Examining Authority (IPEA).

The USPTO is updating this information collection to reflect the current practice and fee structure for PCT applications entering the national stage at the USPTO. A form is being added to this collection for the previously approved information requirement for the withdrawal of an international application. This form (PCT/IB/372) is developed and maintained by the WIPO.

II. Method of Collection

By mail, hand delivery, or electronically to the USPTO. Electronic submissions are made through EFS-Web, the USPTO's online filing system for patent applications and related documents.

III. Data

Form Number(s): PCT/RO/101, PCT/RO/134, PCT/IB/372, PCT/IPEA/401, PTO-1382, PTO-1390, PTO/SB/61/PCT, PTO/SB/64/PCT.

Type of Review: Revision of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Individuals or households; businesses or other for-profits; and not-for-profit institutions.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 363,809 responses per year.

Estimated Time per Response: The USPTO estimates that it will take the public from 15 minutes (0.25 hours) to 8 hours to gather the necessary information, prepare the appropriate form or documents, and submit the information to the USPTO.

Estimated Total Annual Respondent Burden Hours: 341,840 hours per year.

Estimated Total Annual Respondent Cost Burden: $105,970,400 per year. The USPTO expects that the information in this collection will be prepared by attorneys. Using the professional rate of $310 per hour for attorneys in private firms, the USPTO estimates that the respondent cost burden for submitting the information in this collection will be $105,970,400 per year.

Estimated Total Annual Non-hour Resident Cost Burden: $282,024,234 per year. There are no capital start-up or maintenance costs associated with this information collection. However, this collection does have annual (non-hour) costs in the form of translations, drawings, fees, recordkeeping costs, and postage costs.

Under the terms of the PCT, the USPTO may require documents submitted for a PCT application to be translated into English when necessary. This requirement may carry additional costs for the applicant to contract for a translation of the documents in question. The USPTO believes that the average length of the documents to be translated will be 10 pages and that it will cost $150 per page for the translation, for an average translation cost of $1,500 per document. The USPTO estimates that it receives approximately 1,655 English translations annually, for a total cost of $2,482,500 per year for English translations of non-English language documents for PCT applications.

Applicants may also incur costs for drawings that are submitted as part of PCT applications. Some applicants may produce their own drawings, while others may contract out the work to various patent illustration firms. For the purpose of estimating burden for this collection, the USPTO will consider all applicants to have their drawings prepared by these firms. The USPTO estimates that drawings may cost an average of $58 per sheet to produce and that on average 11 sheets of drawings are submitted per application, for an average total cost of $638 to produce a set of drawings for an application. The USPTO expects that approximately 91% of the estimated 53,527 applications per year will have drawings filed with them, for a total of 48,710 sets of drawings at a total cost of $31,076,980 per year.

The estimated filing fees for this collection are calculated in the accompanying table. The fees listed for Requests and Demands represent an estimate of the average fees for filing the appropriate items associated with those requirements for an international application. The basic national fee under 37 CFR 1.492(a) for an international application entering the national stage is fixed at $330 ($165 for small entities). The search and examination fees under 37 CFR 1.492(b)–(c) vary depending on the outcome of the written opinion prepared by the ISA/US, the international preliminary examination report prepared by the IPEA/US, and other related factors as noted in the accompanying table. The basic national fee, search fee, examination fee, and the fees for petitions to revive unavoidably or unintentionally abandoned international applications are discounted for small entities.

In addition to the filing fees listed in the table, applicants may also incur fees for late filings, multiple dependent claims, and lengthy applications. The fee for the late filing of search or examination fees under 37 CFR 1.492(h) is $130 for large entities and $65 for small entities. The USPTO estimates that it will receive approximately 20,053 of these late payment fees for large entities and 7,632 for small entities per year, for a total of $3,102,970. The fee for the late filing of an English translation of an international application under 37 CFR 1.492(i) is $130. The USPTO estimates that it will receive approximately 116 of these late translation fees per year, for a total of $15,080. The fee for applications containing a multiple dependent claim is $390 for large entities and $195 for small entities. The USPTO estimates that it will receive approximately 3,530 of these multiple dependent claim fees for large entities and 1,158 for small entities per year, for a total of $1,602,510. Applications with specifications and drawings that exceed 100 pages may be subject to an application size fee of $270 ($135 for small entities) for each additional 50 pages or fraction thereof. The USPTO estimates that it will receive approximately 2,205 of the $270 size fees from large entities and approximately 621 of the $135 size fees from small entities per year, for a total of $679,185. The total estimated fees for this collection, including filing fees and other additional fees, will be approximately $248,409,843 per year.

The USPTO recommends that customers print and retain a copy of the acknowledgment receipt after a successful online submission. The USPTO estimates that it will take five seconds (0.001 hours) to print a copy of the acknowledgment receipt and that approximately 309,238 PCT-related items per year will be submitted via EFS-Web, for a total of approximately 309 hours per year for printing this receipt. The USPTO expects that these receipts will be printed by paraprofessionals at an estimated rate of $100 per hour, for an estimated recordkeeping cost of $30,900 per year.

Customers may incur postage costs when submitting the information in this collection to the USPTO by mail. The USPTO estimates that the average first-class postage cost for a mailed submission will be 44 cents and that up to 54,571 submissions will be mailed to the USPTO per year. The total estimated postage cost for this collection is $24,011 per year.

The total annual (non-hour) respondent cost burden for this collection associated with translations, drawings, fees, recordkeeping, and postage is estimated to be $282,024,234 per year.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Abstract

This is a generic clearance for an undefined number of voluntary surveys that the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) may conduct over the next three years. The USPTO uses telephone surveys, questionnaires, and customer surveys to collect feedback from their customers.

With the exception of the telephone surveys, the surveys are mailed to the USPTO's customers. The USPTO provides the option for customers to respond to the questionnaires and surveys electronically. Although the USPTO is moving to an electronic environment and would prefer to administer the questionnaires and customer surveys wholly via the Web to coincide with other e-government initiatives, the USPTO's customers have requested that the surveys be made available in paper format as well since many of them only find the time to complete the surveys during their commutes, on planes, etc., where they do not have Internet access. Consequently, the surveys are primarily answered in the paper format.

or through the Web sites of the USPTO's survey contractors. Instructions for using the online surveys are provided in the cover letter that accompanies the survey. The cover letter also contains the username and password required to enter the survey site and the access code to activate the survey. The electronic version of the survey mirrors the paper version.

The surveys in this collection are designed to obtain customer feedback regarding products, services, and related service standards of the USPTO. At this time, the USPTO is unable to state precisely which survey vehicles will be used during the renewal period. As the USPTO's survey needs are determined, the USPTO will submit the specific survey instrument for approval.

II. Method of Collection

These surveys will either be conducted by telephone, mailed to the USPTO in a pre-addressed, self-stamped envelope, or completed electronically. A random sample is used to collect the data. Statistical methods will be followed.

III. Data

OMB Number: 0651-0038.

Form Number(s): N/A.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Affected Public: Business or other for profits.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 1,900 responses per year.

Estimated Time per Response: The USPTO estimates that it will take the public approximately 15 minutes (0.25 hours) to complete the telephone surveys and 5 minutes (.08 hours) to complete the questionnaires and customer surveys, whether they are mailed to the USPTO or submitted electronically. This includes the time to gather the necessary information, complete the surveys, and submit them to the USPTO.

Estimated Total Annual Respondent Burden Hours: 220 hours.

Estimated Total Annual Respondent Cost Burden: $57,420. The USPTO believes that both professionals and paraprofessionals will complete these surveys, at a rate of 76% of the current professional rate of $310 ($236) per hour and 25% of the paraprofessional rate of $100 ($25) per hour. Using a combination of these rates, the USPTO is using an hourly rate of $261 to calculate the respondent costs. The USPTO estimates that the respondent cost burden for this collection will be $57,420 per year.

Item	Estimated time for response	Estimated annual responses	Estimated annual burden hours
Telephone Surveys	15 minutes	400	100
Questionnaires and Customer Surveys	5 minutes	750	60
Electronic Questionnaires and Customer Surveys	5 minutes	750	60
Total		1,900	220

Note: The burden figures shown in the table above are estimates based on the surveys that the USPTO may conduct during the next three years. At this time, the USPTO cannot predict which or how many surveys will be conducted. Depending on the number of surveys that the USPTO actually conducts, it is possible that the burden hours could decrease or even increase from the totals shown in the table.

Estimated Total Annual Non-hour Respondent Cost Burden: $0. There are no capital start-up, maintenance, operation, or recordkeeping costs, nor are there any filing fees associated with this information collection. Although the USPTO conducts mail surveys, self-addressed and stamped envelopes are provided with them. Respondents incur no postage costs resulting from these surveys.

IV. Request for Comments

Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden (including hours and cost) of the proposed collection of information; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

Comments submitted in response to this notice will be summarized or included in the request for OMB approval of this information collection; they also will become a matter of public record.

Background

The Department has received timely requests, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.213(b), for administrative reviews of various antidumping and countervailing duty orders and findings with September anniversary dates. The Department also received a timely request to revoke in part the countervailing duty order on Corrosion-Resistant Carbon Steel Flat Products from the Republic of Korea, with respect to one exporter.

Notice of No Sales

Under 19 CFR 351.213(d)(3), the Department may rescind a review where there are no exports, sales, or entries of subject merchandise during the respective period of review listed below. If a producer or exporter named in this notice of initiation had no exports, sales, or entries during the period of review, it should notify the Department within 30 days of publication of this notice in the Federal Register. The Department will consider rescinding the review only if the producer or exporter, as appropriate, submits a properly filed and timely statement certifying that it had no exports, sales, or entries of subject merchandise during the period of review. All submissions must be made in accordance with 19 CFR 351.303 and are subject to verification in accordance with section 782(i) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended ("the Act"). Six copies of the submission should be submitted to the Assistant Secretary for Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Room 1870, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street & Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230. Further, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.303(f)(1)(i), a copy of each request must be served on every party on the Department's service list.

Respondent Selection

In the event the Department limits the number of respondents for individual examination for administrative reviews, the Department intends to select respondents based on U.S. Customs and Border Protection ("CBP") data for U.S. imports during the period of review ("POR"). We intend to release the CBP data under Administrative Protective Order ("APO") to all parties having an APO within five days of publication of this initiation notice and to make our decision regarding respondent selection within 20 days of publication of this Federal Register notice. The Department invites comments regarding the CBP data and respondent selection within 10 calendar days of publication of this Federal Register notice.

Separate Rates

In proceedings involving non-market economy ("NME") countries, the Department begins with a rebuttable presumption that all companies within the country are subject to government control and, thus, should be assigned a single antidumping duty deposit rate. It is the Department's policy to assign all exporters of merchandise subject to an administrative review in an NME country this single rate unless an exporter can demonstrate that it is sufficiently independent so as to be entitled to a separate rate.

To establish whether a firm is sufficiently independent from government control of its export activities to be entitled to a separate rate, the Department analyzes each entity exporting the subject merchandise under a test arising from the Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Sparklers from the People's Republic of China, 56 FR 20588 (May 6, 1991), as amplified by Final Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value: Silicon Carbide from the People's Republic of China, 59 FR 22585 (May 2, 1994). In accordance with the separate-rates criteria, the Department assigns separate rates to companies in NME cases only if respondents can demonstrate the absence of both de jure and de facto government control over export activities.

All firms listed below that wish to qualify for separate-rate status in the administrative reviews involving NME countries must complete, as appropriate, either a separate-rate application or certification, as described below. For these administrative reviews, in order to demonstrate separate-rate eligibility, the Department requires entities for whom a review was requested, that were assigned a separate rate in the most recent segment of this proceeding in which they participated, to certify that they continue to meet the criteria for obtaining a separate rate. The Separate Rate Certification form will be available on the Department's Web site at <http://www.trade.gov/ia> on the date of publication of this Federal Register. In responding to the certification, please follow the "Instructions for Filing the Certification" in the Separate Rate Certification. Separate Rate Certifications are due to the Department no later than 30 calendar days of publication of this Federal Register notice. The deadline and requirement for submitting a Certification applies equally to NME-owned firms, wholly foreign-owned firms, and foreign sellers who purchase and export subject merchandise to the United States.

For entities that have not previously been assigned a separate rate, to demonstrate eligibility for such, the Department requires a Separate Rate Status Application. The Separate Rate Status Application will be available on the Department's Web site at <http://www.trade.gov/ia> on the date of publication of this Federal Register notice. In responding to the Separate Rate Status Application, refer to the instructions contained in the application. Separate Rate Status Applications are due to the Department no later than 60 calendar days of publication of this Federal Register notice. The deadline and requirement for submitting a Separate Rate Status Application applies equally to NME-owned firms, wholly foreign-owned firms, and foreign sellers that purchase and export subject merchandise to the United States.

For exporters and producers who submit a separate-rate status application or certification and subsequently are selected as mandatory respondents, these exporters and producers will no longer be eligible for separate-rate status unless they respond to all parts of the questionnaire as mandatory respondents.

Suspension Agreements

None.

During any administrative review covering all or part of a period falling between the first and second or third and fourth anniversary of the publication of an antidumping duty order under 19 CFR 351.211 or a determination under 19 CFR 351.218(f)(4) to continue an order or suspended investigation (after sunset review), the Secretary, if requested by a domestic interested party within 30 days of the date of publication of the notice of initiation of the review, will determine, consistent with FAG Italia v. United States, 291 F.3d 806 (Fed. Cir. 2002), as appropriate, whether antidumping duties have been absorbed by an exporter or producer subject to the review if the subject merchandise is sold in the United States through an importer that is affiliated with such exporter or producer. The request must include the name(s) of the exporter or producer for which the inquiry is requested.

For the first administrative review of any order, there will be no assessment of antidumping or countervailing duties on entries of subject merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the relevant provisional-measures "gap" period, of the order, if such a gap period is applicable for the POR.

Interested parties must submit applications for disclosure under administrative protective orders in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305. On January 22, 2008, the Department published Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Proceedings: Documents Submission Procedures; APO Procedures, 73 FR 3634 (January 22, 2008). Those procedures apply to administrative reviews included in this notice of initiation. Parties wishing to participate in any of these administrative reviews should ensure that they meet the requirements of these procedures (e.g., the filing of separate letters of appearance as discussed in 19 CFR 351.103(d)).

These initiations and this notice are in accordance with section 751(a) of the Act, (19 USC 1675(a)) and 19 CFR 351.221(c)(1)(I).

Dated: October 20, 2009.

CCS requests a five-year scientific research permit to harass right whales year-round to monitor demographics, life history traits, habitat use, and behavior in the Gulf of Maine; the majority of effort would be focused in Cape Cod Bay, Massachusetts Bay, and the Great South Channel during the season of right whale residency (December 15 - May 15). Annually, up to 400 right whales of all age classes would be approached by small plane for photo-identification and behavioral observation; up to 350 right whales of all age classes would be approached by vessel for photo-identification, direct observation, and collection of prey; and up to 20 attempts would be made to attach suction cup tags to adult or juvenile right whales from small vessels, with a maximum of 10 successful attachments. Up to 40 cetaceans of other species would be incidentally harassed annually during aerial and vessel surveys, and opportunistic sighting information and photographs would be collected. The results of this research will provide a better understanding of right whale population status, relationship to habitat conditions, distribution and abundance, movement patterns, and interactions with human activities. Data will be provided to management agencies, including NOAA Fisheries and the Massachusetts Division of Marine Fisheries, for near-real-time dynamic management of right whale habitat, and long-term refinement of conservation and recovery plans.

In compliance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.), a draft environmental assessment (EA) will be prepared to examine whether significant environmental impacts could result from issuance of the proposed scientific research permit. Prestressed Concrete Steel Wire Strand From the People's Republic of China: Postponement of the Preliminary Determination of the Antidumping Duty Investigation AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

DATES: Effective Date: October 26, 2009.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Alan Ray, AD/CVD Operations, Office 9, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-5403.

Background

On June 23, 2009, the Department of Commerce ("Department") published the initiation of the investigation of prestressed concrete steel wire strand ("PC Strand") from the People's Republic of China ("PRC"), covering the period of October 1, 2008, through March 31, 2009.¹ On July 28, 2009, the Department selected two companies as mandatory respondents for this investigation: Tianjin Shengte PC Steel Strand Co., ("Tianjin Shengte") and Silvery Dragon PC Steel Products ("Silvery Dragon").²

On August 7, 2009, the Department received a letter from Silvery Dragon stating that the company would no longer be participating in the investigation. Tianjin Shengte failed to properly file a response to the Department's questionnaire in a timely manner. Since the two originally selected mandatory respondents no longer participated, the Department determined that it was appropriate in this case to replace them with two new additional respondents. On August 14, 2009, the Department selected Jiangxi Xinhua Metal Products Co. as a mandatory respondent,³ and on

September 11, 2009, the Department selected Wuxi Jingyang Metal Products Co. as a voluntary respondent.⁴ The preliminary determination of this antidumping duty investigation is currently due on November 3, 2009.

Statutory Time Limits

Pursuant to section 733(c)(1)(B) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended ("the Act"), the Department can extend the period for a preliminary determination until not later than 190 days after the date on which the administrative authority initiates an investigation if the Department concludes that the parties concerned are cooperating and determines that:

The case is extraordinarily complicated by the reason of (I) The number and complexity of the transactions to be investigated or adjustments to be considered, (II) the novelty of the issues presented, or (III) the number of firms whose activities must be investigated, and (ii) additional time is necessary to make the preliminary determination.

Extension of Time Limit of Preliminary Determination

Because the Department replaced both of the originally selected mandatory respondents in this investigation, thereby making it extraordinarily complicated to properly prepare a preliminary determination within the original statutory timeframe, the Department finds it necessary to extend the current preliminary determination deadline. Moreover, on October 6, 2009, Petitioners⁵ made a timely request pursuant to 733(c)(1)(B)(i) of the Act for a thirty-day postponement of the preliminary determination.

Therefore, for the reasons identified above, we are postponing the preliminary determination under section 733(c)(1)(B) of the Act by thirty days from November 3, 2009, to December 3, 2009.

This notice is published pursuant to sections 733(c)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.205(f)(1).

Acting Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

Nominations are being sought to fill one-third (10) of the seats on the HMS AP for a 3-year appointment. Individuals with definable interests in the recreational and commercial fishing and related industries, environmental community, academia, and non-governmental organizations will be considered for membership in the AP. DATES: Nominations must be received on or before November 25, 2009.

ADDRESSES: You may submit nominations and requests for the Advisory Panel Statement of Organization, Practices, and Procedures by any of the following methods:

- Email:

HMSAP.Nominations@noaa.gov. Include in the subject line the following identifier: "HMS AP Nominations."

- Mail: Brian Parker, Highly Migratory Species Management Division, NMFS, 1315 East-West Highway, Silver Spring, MD 20910.
- Fax: 301-713-1917.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Introduction

The Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act (Magnuson-Stevens Act), 16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq., as amended by the Sustainable Fisheries Act, Public Law 104-297, provided for the establishment of Advisory Panels to assist in the collection and evaluation of information relevant to the development of any Fishery Management Plan (FMP) or FMP amendment. The HMS AP has consulted with NMFS on the HMS FMP (April 1999), Amendment 1 to the Billfish FMP (April 1999), Amendment 1 to the HMS FMP (November 2003), the Consolidated HMS FMP (July 2006), and Amendments 1, 2, 3, and 4 to the Consolidated HMS FMP (April 2008, September 2008, February 2009 and September 2009, respectively).

Procedures and Guidelines

A. Nomination Procedures for Appointments to the Advisory Panel

Nomination packages should include:

1. The name of the applicant or nominee and a description of his/her interest in HMS or in particular species of sharks, swordfish, tunas, or billfish;
2. A statement of background and/or qualifications;
3. A written commitment that the applicant or nominee shall actively participate in good faith in the tasks of the AP; and
4. A list of outreach resources that the applicant has at his/her disposal to communicate HMS issues to various interest groups.

Tenure for the HMS AP

Member tenure will be for 3 years (36 months), with approximately one-third of the members' terms expiring on December 31 of each year. Nominations are sought for terms beginning January 2010 and expiring December 2012.

B. Participants

Nominations for the AP will be accepted to allow representation from commercial and recreational fishing interests, the scientific community, and the conservation community who are knowledgeable about Atlantic HMS and/or Atlantic HMS fisheries. Current representation on the HMS AP, as shown in Table 1, consists of 12 members representing commercial interests, 12 members representing recreational interests, 4 members representing environmental interests, 4 academic representatives, and 1 International Commission for the Conservation of Atlantic Tunas (ICCAT) Advisory Committee Chairperson. Each AP member serves a three-year term with approximately one-third (11) of the total number of seats (33) expiring on December 31 of each year. NMFS seeks to fill 3 academic, 2 commercial, and 5 recreational vacancies by December 31, 2009. NMFS will seek to fill vacancies based primarily on maintaining the current representation from each of the sectors, and secondarily by species expertise and/or representation from the regions (Northeast, Mid-Atlantic, South Atlantic, Gulf of Mexico, and Caribbean). Table 1 includes the current representation on the HMS AP by sector and species. It does not necessarily indicate that NMFS will only consider persons who have expertise in the species that are listed.

Table 1. Current expiring representation on the HMS AP by sector and species.

Sector	Species	Date Appointed	Date Term Expires
Academic	Tuna	1/1/2007	12/31/2009
Academic	Shark	1/1/2007	12/31/2009
Academic	Tuna/Shark	1/1/2007	12/31/2009
Commercial	Shark	1/1/2007	12/31/2009
Commercial	Swordfish/Tuna	1/1/2007	12/31/2009
Recreational	Billfish	1/1/2007	12/31/2009
Recreational	Swordfish	1/1/2007	12/31/2009

Recreational	HMS	1/1/2007	12/31/2009
Recreational	HMS	1/1/2007	12/31/2009

Each sector must be adequately represented, and the intent is to have a group that, as a whole, reflects an appropriate and equitable balance and mix of interests given the responsibilities of the AP. Criteria for membership include one or more of the following: (1) experience in the HMS recreational fishing industry; (2) experience in the HMS commercial fishing industry; (3) experience in fishery-related industries (e.g., marinas, bait and tackle shops); (4) experience in the scientific community working with HMS; and/or (5) representation of a private; non-governmental; regional, national, or international organization representing marine fisheries; environmental, governmental, or academic interests dealing with HMS.

Five additional members on the AP include one member representing each of the following Councils: New England Fishery Management Council, the Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council, the South Atlantic Fishery Management Council, the Gulf of Mexico Fishery Management Council, and the Caribbean Fishery Management Council. The AP also includes 22 ex-officio participants: 20 representatives of the coastal states and two representatives of the interstate commissions (the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission and the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission).

NMFS will provide the necessary administrative support, including technical assistance, for the AP. However, NMFS will not compensate participants with monetary support of any kind. Depending on availability of funds, members may be reimbursed for travel costs related to the AP meetings.

C. Meeting Schedule

Meetings of the AP will be held as frequently as necessary but are routinely held twice each year in the spring and fall. The meetings may be held in conjunction with public hearings.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Introduction

On March 16, 2009, the CFTC promulgated final rules implementing provisions of the CFTC Reauthorization Act of 2008 ("Reauthorization Act")⁴ which subjects ECMs with significant price discovery contracts ("SPDCs") to self-regulatory and reporting requirements, as well as certain Commission oversight authorities, with respect to those contracts. Among other things, these rules and rule amendments revise the information-submission requirements applicable to ECMs, establish procedures and standards by which the Commission will determine whether an ECM contract performs a significant price discovery function, and provide guidance with respect to compliance with nine statutory core principles applicable to ECMs with SPDCs. These rules became effective on April 22, 2009.

In determining whether an ECM's contract is or is not a SPDC, the Commission will consider the contract's material liquidity, price linkage to other contracts, potential for arbitrage with other contracts traded on designated contract markets or derivatives transaction execution facilities, use of the ECM contract's prices to execute or settle other transactions, and other factors.

In order to facilitate the Commission's identification of possible SPDCs, Commission rule 36.3(c)(2) requires that an ECM operating in reliance on section 2(h)(3) promptly notify the Commission and provide supporting information or data concerning any contract: (i) That averaged five trades per day or more over the most recent calendar quarter; and (ii)(A) for which the ECM sells price information regarding the contract to market participants or industry publications; or (B) whose daily closing or settlement prices on 95 percent or more of the days in the most recent quarter were within 2.5 percent of the contemporaneously determined closing, settlement, or other daily price of another agreement.

II. Determination of a SPDC

A. The SPDC Determination Process

Commission rule 36.3(c)(3) establishes the procedures by which the Commission makes and announces its determination on whether a specific ECM contract serves a significant price discovery function. Under those procedures, the Commission will publish a notice in the Federal Register that it intends to undertake a determination as to whether the specified agreement, contract, or transaction performs a significant price discovery function and to receive written data, views, and arguments relevant to its determination from the ECM and other interested persons.⁵ After prompt consideration of all relevant information,⁶ the Commission will, within a reasonable period of time after the close of the comment period, issue an order explaining its determination. Following the issuance of an order by the Commission that the ECM executes or trades an agreement, contract, or transaction that performs a significant price discovery function, the ECM must demonstrate, with respect to that agreement, contract, or transaction, compliance with the core principles under section 2(h)(7)(C) of the CEA⁷ and the applicable provisions of Part 36. If the Commission's order represents the first time it has determined that one of the ECM's contracts performs a significant price discovery function, the ECM must submit a written demonstration of its compliance with the core principles within 90 calendar days of the date of the Commission's order. For each subsequent determination by the Commission that the ECM has an additional SPDC, the ECM must submit a written demonstration of its compliance with the core principles within 30 calendar days of the Commission's order.

⁵ The Commission may commence this process on its own initiative or on the basis of information provided to it by an ECM pursuant to the notification provisions of Commission rule 36.3(c)(2).

B. PJM WH Real Time Peak Daily Contract

The PDP contract is a daily contract that is cash settled based on the arithmetic average of hourly, real-time LMPs during the specified calendar day for the Western Hub, which are published by the PJM Interconnection for all peak hours during a particular date of production. The LMPs are published by PJM Interconnection on its Web site under the heading, "Daily Real-Time LMP Files." The LMPs are derived from power trades that result in physical delivery. The size of the PDP contract is 800 megawatt hours ("MWh"), and the unit of trading is any multiple of 800 MWh. The PDP contract is listed for up to 38 consecutive calendar days. Based upon a required quarterly notification filed on July 27, 2009 (mandatory under Rule 36.3(c)(2)), the ICE reported that, with respect to its PDP contract, 48,072 separate trades occurred in the second quarter of 2009, resulting in a daily average of 751.1 trades. During the same period, the PDP contract had a total trading volume of 68,586 contracts (which was an average of 1,071.7 contracts per day). As of June 30, 2009, open interest in the PDP contract was 1,856 contracts. It appears that the ICE PDP contract may satisfy the material liquidity and material price reference factors for SPDC determination. With respect to material liquidity, trading in the PDP contract averaged over 1,000 contracts on a daily basis with more than 750 separate transactions each day. In regard to material price reference, while it did not specifically address the power contracts under review, the ECM Study stated that, in general, market participants view the ICE as a price discovery market for certain electricity contracts. Power contracts based on actively-traded hubs are transacted heavily on the ICE's electronic trading platform, with the remainder being completed over-the-counter and potentially submitted for clearing by voice brokers. In addition, the ICE sells its price data to market participants in a number of different packages which vary in terms of the hubs covered, time periods, and whether the data are daily only or historical. For example, the ICE offers "PJM Power End of Day" and "OTC Power End of Day" data packages with access to all price data or just 12, 24, 36, or 48 months of historical data.

C. PJM WH Real Time Peak Contract

month for the Western Hub, which are published by the PJM Interconnection for all peak hours during the month of production. The LMPs are published by PJM Interconnection on its Web site under the heading, "Daily Real-Time LMP Files." The LMPs are derived from power trades that result in physical delivery. The size of the PJM contract is 800 MWh, and the unit of trading is the contract size multiplied by the number of peak days in the calendar month. The PJM contract is listed for up to 110 consecutive calendar months.

Based upon a required quarterly notification filed on July 27, 2009 (mandatory under Rule 36.3(c)(2)), the ICE reported that, with respect to its PJM contract, 7,990 separate trades occurred in the second quarter of 2009, resulting in a daily average of 124.8 trades. During the same period, the PJM contract had a total trading volume of 268,489 (which was an average of 4,195.1 contracts per day). As of June 30, 2009, open interest in the PJM contract was 318,788 contracts.

It appears that the ICE PJM contract may satisfy the material liquidity and material price reference factors for SPDC determination. With respect to material liquidity, trading in the PJM contract averaged 4,200 contracts on a daily basis with more than 120 separate transactions each day. In addition, the open interest in the subject contract was significant. In regard to material price reference, while it did not specifically address the power contracts under review, the ECM Study stated that, in general, market participants view the ICE as a price discovery market for certain electricity contracts. Power contracts based on actively-traded hubs are transacted heavily on the ICE's electronic trading platform, with the remainder being completed over-the-counter and potentially submitted for clearing by voice brokers. In addition, the ICE sells its price data to market participants in a number of different packages which vary in terms of the hubs covered, time periods, and whether the data are daily only or historical. For example, the ICE offers "PJM Power End of Day" and "OTC Power End of Day" data packages with access to all price data or just 12, 24, 36, or 48 months of historical data.

D. PJM WH Real-Time Off-Peak Contract

The OPJ contract is a monthly contract that is cash settled based on the arithmetic average of hourly, real-time LMPs during the specified calendar month for the Western Hub, which are published by the PJM Interconnection for all off-peak hours during the month of production. The LMPs are published by PJM Interconnection on its Web site under the heading, "Daily Real-Time LMP Files." The LMPs are derived from power trades that result in physical delivery. The size of the OPJ contract is 50 MWh, and the unit of trading is determined by multiplying the contract size by the number of off-peak days in the calendar month traded. The OPJ contract is listed for up to 86 calendar months with four complete calendar years. Based upon a required quarterly notification filed on July 27, 2009 (mandatory under Rule 36.3(c)(2)), the ICE reported that, with respect to its OPJ contract, 437 separate trades occurred in the second quarter of 2009, resulting in a daily average of 6.8 trades. During the same period, the OPJ contract had a total trading volume of 325,799 contracts (which was an average of 5,090.6 contracts per day). As of June 30, 2009, open interest in the OPJ contract was 2,976,492 contracts.

It appears that the ICE OPJ contract may satisfy the material liquidity and material price reference factors for SPDC determination. With respect to material liquidity, trading in the OPJ contract averaged over 5,000 contracts on a daily basis with more than six separate transactions each day. In addition, the open interest in the subject contract was extremely large. In regard to material price reference, while it did not specifically address the power contracts under review, the ECM Study stated that, in general, market participants view the ICE as a price discovery market for certain electricity contracts. Power contracts based on actively-traded hubs are transacted heavily on the ICE's electronic trading platform, with the remainder being completed over-the-counter and potentially submitted for clearing by voice brokers. In addition, the ICE sells its price data to market participants in a number of different packages which vary in terms of the hubs covered, time periods, and whether the data are daily only or historical. For example, the ICE offers "PJM Power End of Day" and "OTC Power End of Day" data packages with access to all price data or just 12, 24, 36, or 48 months of historical data.

E. PJM WH Day-Ahead LMP Peak Daily Contract

The PDA contract is a daily contract that is cash settled based on the arithmetic average of hourly, day-ahead LMPs during the specified day for the Western Hub, which are published by the PJM Interconnection for all peak hours during a particular date of production. The LMPs are published by PJM Interconnection on its Web site under the heading, "Day-Ahead LMP Data." The LMPs are derived from power trades that result in physical delivery. The size of the PDA contract is 800 MWh. The PDA contract is listed for up to 38 consecutive calendar days.

Based upon a required quarterly notification filed on July 27, 2009 (mandatory under Rule 36.3(c)(2)), the ICE reported that, with respect to its PDA contract, 1,063 separate trades occurred in the second quarter of 2009, resulting in a daily average of 16.6 trades. During the same period, the PDA contract had a total trading volume of 1,435 contracts (which was an average of 22.4 contracts per day). As of June 30, 2009, open interest in the PDA contract was 75 contracts.

It appears that the ICE PDA contract may satisfy the material liquidity and material price reference factors for SPDC determination. With respect to material liquidity, trading in the PDA contract averaged over 20 contracts on a daily basis with more than 15 separate transactions each day. In regard to material price reference, while it did not specifically address the power contracts under review, the ECM Study stated that, in general, market participants view the ICE as a price discovery market for certain electricity contracts. Power contracts based on actively-traded hubs are transacted heavily on the ICE's electronic trading platform, with the remainder being completed over-the-counter and potentially submitted for clearing by voice brokers. In addition, the ICE sells its price data to market participants in a number of different packages which vary in terms of the hubs covered, time periods, and whether the data are daily only or historical. For example, the ICE offers "PJM Power End of Day" and "OTC Power End of Day" data packages with access to all price data or just 12, 24, 36, or 48 months of historical data.

F. PJM WH Real-Time Off-Peak Daily Contract

The ODP contract is a daily contract that is cash settled based on the arithmetic average of hourly, real-time LMPs during the specified calendar day for the Western Hub, which are published by the PJM Interconnection for all off-peak hours during the particular date of production. The LMPs are published by PJM Interconnection on its Web site under the heading, "Daily Real-Time LMP Files." The LMPs are derived from power trades that result in physical delivery. The size of the ODP contract is 50 MWh, and the unit of trading is any multiple of 50 MWh. The ODP contract is listed for up to 38 consecutive calendar days. Based upon a required quarterly notification filed on July 27, 2009 (mandatory under Rule 36.3(c)(2)), the ICE reported that, with respect to its ODP contract, 723 separate trades occurred in the second quarter of 2009, resulting in a daily average of 11.3 trades. During the same period, the ODP contract had a total trading volume of 7,448 contracts (which was an average of 116.4 contracts per day). As of June 30, 2009, open interest in the ODP contract was 256 contracts.

It appears that the ICE ODP contract may satisfy the material liquidity and material price reference factors for SPDC determination. With respect to material liquidity, trading in the ODP contract averaged over 110 contracts on a daily basis with more than 10 separate transactions each day. In regard to material price reference, while it did not specifically address the power contracts under review, the ECM Study stated that, in general, market participants view the ICE as a price discovery market for certain electricity contracts. Power contracts based on actively-traded hubs are transacted heavily on the ICE's electronic trading platform, with the remainder being completed over-the-counter and potentially submitted for clearing by voice brokers. In addition, the ICE sells its price data to market participants in a number of different packages which vary in terms of the hubs covered, time periods, and whether the data are daily only or historical. For example, the ICE offers "PJM Power End of Day" and "OTC Power End of Day" data packages with access to all price data or just 12, 24, 36, or 48 months of historical data.

III. Request for Comment

In evaluating whether an ECM's agreement, contract, or transaction performs a significant price discovery function, section 2(h)(7) of the CEA directs the Commission to consider, as appropriate, four specific criteria: Price linkage, arbitrage, material price reference, and material liquidity. As it explained in Appendix A to the Part 36 rules,⁸ the Commission, in making SPDC determinations, will apply and weigh each factor, as appropriate, to the specific contract and circumstances under consideration.

As part of its evaluation, the Commission will consider the written data, views, and arguments from any ECM that lists the potential SPDC and from any other interested parties. Accordingly, the Commission requests comment on whether the PDP, PJM, OPJ, PDA, and/or ODP contracts perform significant price discovery functions. Commenters' attention is directed particularly to Appendix A of the Commission's Part 36 rules for a detailed discussion of the factors relevant to a SPDC determination. The Commission notes that comments which analyze the contracts in terms of these factors will be especially helpful to the determination process. In order to determine the relevance of comments received, the Commission requests that commenters explain in what capacity are they knowledgeable about the subject contracts. Moreover, because five contracts are included in this notice, it is important that commenters identify to which contract(s) their comments apply.

IV. Related Matters

A. Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 ("PRA")⁹ imposes certain requirements on federal agencies, including the Commission, in connection with their conducting or sponsoring any collection of information, as defined by the PRA. Certain provisions of final Commission rule 36.3 impose new regulatory and reporting requirements on ECMs, resulting in information collection requirements within the meaning of the PRA; OMB previously has approved and assigned OMB control number 3038-0060 to this collection of information.

B. Cost-Benefit Analysis

Section 15(a) of the CEA¹⁰ requires the Commission to consider the costs and benefits of its actions before issuing an order under the Act. By its terms, section 15(a) does not require the Commission to quantify the costs and benefits of an order or to determine whether the benefits of the order outweigh its costs; rather, it requires that the Commission "consider" the costs and benefits of its action. Section 15(a) further specifies that the costs and benefits shall be evaluated in light of five broad areas of market and public concern: (1) Protection of market participants and the public; (2) efficiency, competitiveness, and financial integrity of futures markets; (3) price discovery; (4) sound risk management practices; and (5) other public interest considerations.

The bulk of the costs imposed by the requirements of Commission Rule 36.3 relate to significant and increased information-submission and reporting requirements adopted in response to the Reauthorization Act's directive that the Commission take an active role in determining whether contracts listed by ECMs qualify as SPDCs. The enhanced requirements for ECMs will permit the Commission to acquire the information it needs to discharge its newly mandated responsibilities and to ensure that ECMs with SPDCs are identified as entities with the elevated status of registered entity under the CEA and are in compliance with the statutory terms of the core principles of section 2(h)(7)(C) of the Act. The primary benefit to the public is to enable the Commission to discharge its statutory obligation to monitor for the presence of SPDCs and extend its oversight to the trading of SPDCs.

Issued in Washington, DC on October 14, 2009 by the Commission.

Secretary of the Commission.

ADDRESSES: Written comments should be addressed to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attention: Education Desk Officer, Office of Management and Budget, 725 17th Street, NW., Room 10222, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503, be faxed to (202) 395-5806 or send e-mail to oir_submission@omb.eop.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Section 3506 of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35) requires that the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) provide interested Federal agencies and the public an early opportunity to comment on information collection requests. National Institute for Literacy Type of Review: New.

Title: Understanding Effective K-3 Reading Programs Based on Scientific Reading Research.

Frequency: One time.

Affected Public: Businesses or other for-profit; State, Local, or Tribal Gov't, SEAs or LEAs.

Reporting and Recordkeeping Hour Burden:

Responses: 87.

Burden Hours: 1,037.

Abstract: The National Institute for Literacy (NIFL) is authorized under the No Child Left Behind Act, Public Law 107-110, Part B, Subpart 1, Section 1207 to “* * * identify and disseminate information about schools, local educational agencies, and State educational agencies that have effectively developed and implemented classroom reading programs that meet the requirements of this subpart (Reading First) * * *” To carry out this authorized activity, the NIFL is first conducting a set of case studies, identifying Schools with Effective Reading Programs, to be implemented by a research team from Education Development Center, Inc. (EDC). The NIFL then will publish findings from the case studies as a report and print and distribute it widely among educators and administrators working with children in kindergarten through third grades as well as reading researchers. The NIFL needs to collect the information proposed in this package to be able to describe in reasonable detail the school- and classroom-based reading strategies employed by schools with high-performing students. The NIFL understands its statutory charge to mean providing information that explains what the schools did and how they did it rather than general information from sources such as school Web sites. While the findings from case studies should not be construed as guidance to schools seeking to improve their K-3 students' reading outcomes, the information from this study may bring to light detail that contributes to deeper understanding of effective reading instruction and informs future research on K-3 reading instruction.

Requests for copies of the information collection submission for OMB review may be accessed from <http://edicsweb.ed.gov>, by selecting the “Browse Pending Collections” link and by clicking on link number 4001. [Docket No. CP10-2-000]

Southern Star Central Gas Pipeline, Inc.; Notice of Application

October 19, 2009.

Take notice that on October 9, 2009, Southern Star Central Gas Pipeline, Inc. (Southern Star), 4700 Highway 56, Owensboro, Kentucky 42301, filed in Docket No. CP10-2-000, an application pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act (NGA) and Part 157 of the Commission's regulations, requesting authorization to (1) install and operate a natural gas compressor in Montgomery County, Kansas, in order to increase the working gas capacity and maximum daily withdrawal rate of the Elk City Storage Field and (2) amend the current operational plan and other operational changes for the storage field, all as more fully set forth in the application which is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. Additionally, Southern Star requests a determination that the project qualifies for market based rates pursuant to section 4(f) of the NGA. This filing may also be viewed on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "eLibrary" link. Enter the docket number, excluding the last three digits, in the docket number field to access the document. For assistance, call (866) 208-3676 or TTY, (202) 502-8659.

Any questions regarding this application should be directed to David N. Roberts, Manager, Regulatory Affairs, Southern Star Central Gas Pipeline, Inc., 4700 Highway 56, Owensboro, Kentucky 42301, or by calling (270) 852-4654 (telephone) or (270) 852-5010 (fax).

Pursuant to section 157.9 of the Commission's rules, 18 CFR 157.9, within 90 days of this Notice the Commission staff will either: complete its environmental assessment (EA) and place it into the Commission's public record (eLibrary) for this proceeding, or issue a Notice of Schedule for Environmental Review. If a Notice of Schedule for Environmental Review is issued, it will indicate, among other milestones, the anticipated date for the Commission staff's issuance of the final environmental impact statement (FEIS) or EA for this proposal. The filing of the EA in the Commission's public record for this proceeding or the issuance of a Notice of Schedule for Environmental Review will serve to notify federal and state agencies of the timing for the completion of all necessary reviews, and the subsequent need to complete all federal authorizations within 90 days of the date of issuance of the Commission staff's FEIS or EA.

There are two ways to become involved in the Commission's review of this project. First, any person wishing to obtain legal status by becoming a party to the proceedings for this project should, on or before the comment date stated below, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC., 20426, a motion to intervene in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the NGA (18 CFR 157.10). A person obtaining party status will be placed on the service list maintained by the Secretary of the Commission and will receive copies of all documents filed by the applicant and by all other parties. A party must submit 14 copies of filings made with the Commission and must mail a copy to the applicant and to every other party in the proceeding. Only parties to the proceeding can ask for court review of Commission orders in the proceeding.

However, a person does not have to intervene in order to have comments considered. The second way to participate is by filing with the Secretary of the Commission, as soon as possible, an original and two copies of comments in support of or in opposition to this project. The Commission will consider these comments in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but the filing of a comment alone will not serve to make the filer a party to the proceeding. The Commission's rules require that persons filing comments in opposition to the project provide copies of their protests only to the party or parties directly involved in the protest.

Persons who wish to comment only on the environmental review of this project should submit an original and two copies of their comments to the Secretary of the Commission. Environmental commenters will be placed on the Commission's environmental mailing list, will receive copies of the environmental documents, and will be notified of meetings associated with the Commission's environmental review process. Environmental commenters will not be required to serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, the non-party commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission (except for the mailing of environmental documents issued by the Commission) and will not have the right to seek court review of the Commission's final order.

Motions to intervene, protests and comments may be filed electronically via the internet in lieu of paper; see, 18 CFR 385.2001(a)(1)(iii) and the instructions on the Commission's Web site under the "e-Filing" link. The Commission strongly encourages electronic filings.

On July 31, 2009, the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (MDNRC) filed an application for a preliminary permit, pursuant to section 4(f) of the Federal Power Act, proposing to study the feasibility of the Ruby River Power Project, which would be located at the existing Ruby River Dam on the Ruby River, in Madison County, Montana. The sole purpose of a preliminary permit, if issued, is to grant the permit holder priority to file a license application during the permit term. A preliminary permit does not authorize the permit holder to perform any land disturbing activities or otherwise enter upon lands or waters owned by others without the owners' express permission.

The proposed project would use the existing 111-foot-high, 846-foot-long earthen dam with spillway, and the existing 635-foot-long, 90-inch horseshoe-shaped tunnel conduit. MDNRC proposes to construct and install: (1) A new 60-inch-diameter, 635-foot-long steel liner in the existing dam outlet conduit; (2) a new 60-inch-diameter, 100-foot-long steel penstock extending to a bifurcation; (3) a new 60-inch-diameter, 50-foot-long steel penstock extending from the bifurcation to the powerhouse; (4) a new 60-inch-diameter, 50-foot-long steel conduit extending from the bifurcation to an energy dissipation structure for excess flows and bypass during turbine outages; (5) a new powerhouse containing two generating units with a combined installed capacity of 1,800 kilowatts, discharging flows into the Ruby River; (6) a new substation next to the powerhouse; (7) a new 25-kilovolt, 6,000-foot-long transmission line; (8) a new switchyard at the interconnection point with the local grid; (9) a new approximately 650-foot-long access road and bridge across the river channel; (10) a new 50-foot by 60-foot parking area; and (11) appurtenant facilities. The proposed project would have an average annual generation of 7.6 gigawatt-hours.

Duke Energy Carolinas, LLC; Notice of Availability of Final Environmental Assessment

October 16, 2009.

In accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, as amended, and the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's regulations, 18 CFR part 380 (Order No. 486, 52 FR 47879), the Commission has reviewed an application, filed June 18, 2009, for non-project use of project lands and waters at the Catawba-Wateree Project, FERC Project No. 2232. The licensee seeks Commission approval to permit the City of Lenoir, North Carolina to construct a new raw water intake at Lake Rhodhiss. The Environmental Assessment (EA) analyzes the environmental impacts of the proposed construction and operation of the new intake facility and concludes that approval of the application, with appropriate environmental measures, would not constitute a major federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment. The project is located on the Catawba and Wateree Rivers in North and South Carolina.

The EA was written by staff in the Office of Energy Projects, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (Commission). A copy of the EA is attached to a Commission order titled "Order Approving Non-Project Use of Project Lands and Waters: Construction of Raw Water Intake" issued October 16, 2009, and is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspections. [Docket No. CP09-465-000]

Northern Natural Gas Company; Notice of Intent To Prepare an Environmental Assessment for the Proposed Cunningham Storage Boundary Expansion Project and Request for Comments on Environmental Issues

October 16, 2009.

The staff of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC or Commission) will prepare an environmental assessment (EA) that will discuss the environmental impacts of the proposed Cunningham Storage Boundary Expansion Project (Project) involving Northern Natural Gas Company's (Northern) extension of the certificated boundary of the Cunningham Gas Storage Field in Pratt and Kingman Counties, Kansas.¹ The EA will be used by the Commission in its decision-making process to determine whether the project is in the public convenience and necessity.

This notice announces the opening of the scoping process we² will use to gather input from the public and interested agencies on the project. Your input will help the Commission staff determine which issues need to be evaluated in the EA. Please note that the scoping period will close on November 16, 2009.

This notice is being sent to affected landowners; federal, state, and local government representatives and agencies; elected officials; environmental and public interest groups; Native American Tribes; other interested parties; and local libraries and newspapers. State and local government representatives are asked to notify their constituents of this planned project and encourage them to comment on their areas of concern.

² "We", "us", and "our" refer to the environmental staff of the Office of Energy Projects (OEP).

If you are a landowner receiving this notice, you may be contacted by a Northern representative about the acquisition of natural gas storage rights beneath your property. Northern would seek to negotiate a mutually acceptable agreement for the rights to operate a natural gas storage field beneath your property. If the project is approved by the Commission, that approval would convey with it the right of eminent domain. Therefore, if easement negotiations fail to produce an agreement, Northern could initiate condemnation proceedings in accordance with state law. It should be noted that the current proposal does not involve the construction of any facilities at this time. Any future proposal to construct jurisdictional facilities at the Cunningham Storage Field would be subject to an appropriate environmental review by the Commission.

A fact sheet prepared by the FERC entitled "An Interstate Natural Gas Facility On My Land? What Do I Need To Know?" is available for viewing on the FERC Web site (<http://www.ferc.gov>). This fact sheet addresses a number of typically asked questions, including the use of eminent domain and how to participate in the Commission's proceedings. It is available for viewing on the FERC Internet Web site (<http://www.ferc.gov>).

Summary of the Proposed Project

Northern is proposing to expand its existing Cunningham Gas Storage Field by 14,240 acres in order to protect the integrity of the storage field. Northern believes that third party operators outside of the storage field boundaries are producing storage gas. The location of the proposed storage field expansion is shown in Appendix 1.³

Land Requirements

No facilities would be constructed. Northern's proposal is for expansion of the certificated Cunningham Storage Field boundary by an additional 14,240 acres, including the underlying Viola and Simpson Formations. This area is located due north and adjacent to the northern boundary of the storage field.

The EA Process

The National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) requires the Commission to take into account the environmental impacts that could result from an action whenever it considers the issuance of a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity. NEPA also requires us to discover and address concerns the public may have about proposals. This process is referred to as "scoping." The main goal of the scoping process is to focus the analysis in the EA on the important environmental issues. By this Notice of Intent, the Commission staff requests public comments on the scope of the issues to address in the EA. All comments received are considered during the preparation of the EA. State and local government representatives are encouraged to notify their constituents of this proposed action and encourage them to comment on their areas of concern.

In the EA we will discuss impacts that could occur as a result of the storage field extension. We will also evaluate possible alternatives to the proposed project or portions of the project, and make recommendations on how to lessen or avoid impacts on the various resource areas.

Our independent analysis of the issues will be in the EA. Depending on the comments received during the scoping process, the EA may be published and mailed to federal, state, and local agencies, public interest groups, interested individuals, affected landowners, newspapers, libraries, and the Commission's official service list for this proceeding. A comment period will be allotted for review if the EA is published. We will consider all comments on the EA before we make our recommendations to the Commission. To ensure your comments are considered, please carefully follow the instructions in the public participation section below.

With this NOI, we are asking federal, state, and local agencies with jurisdiction and/or special expertise with respect to environmental issues to formally cooperate with us in the preparation of the EA. These agencies may choose to participate once they have evaluated the proposal relative to their responsibilities. Additional agencies that would like to request cooperating agency status should follow the instructions for filing comments provided under the Public Participation section of this NOI.

Public Participation

You can make a difference by providing us with your specific comments or concerns about the Project. Your comments should focus on the potential environmental effects, reasonable alternatives, and measures to avoid or lessen environmental impacts. The more specific your comments, the more useful they will be. To ensure that your comments are timely and properly recorded, please send in your comments so that they will be received in Washington, DC on or before November 16, 2009.

For your convenience, there are three methods in which you can use to submit your comments to the Commission. In all instances please reference the project docket number CP09-465-000 with your submission. The Commission encourages electronic filing of comments and has dedicated eFiling expert staff available to assist you at 202-502-8258 or efiling@ferc.gov.

(1) You may file your comments electronically by using the Quick Comment feature, which is located on the Commission's Internet Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> under the link to Documents and Filings. A Quick Comment is an easy method for interested persons to submit text-only comments on a project;

(2) You may file your comments electronically by using the eFiling feature, which is located on the Commission's Internet Web site at <http://www.ferc.gov> under the link to Documents and Filings. eFiling involves preparing your submission in the same manner as you would if filing on paper, and then saving the file on your computer's hard drive. You will attach that file as your submission. New eFiling users must first create an account by clicking on "Sign up" or "eRegister." You will be asked to select the type of filing you are making. A comment on a particular project is considered a "Comment on a Filing;" or

(3) You may file your comments via mail to the Commission by sending an original and two copies of your letter to: Kimberly D. Bose, Secretary, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First St., NE., Room 1A, Washington, DC 20426.

Label one copy of the comments for the attention of Gas Branch 3, PJ11.3.

Environmental Mailing List

An effort is being made to send this notice to all individuals, organizations, and government entities interested in and/or potentially affected by the proposed project. This includes all landowners who are potential right-of-way grantors, whose property may be used temporarily for project purposes.

If you do not want to send comments at this time but still want to remain on our mailing list, please return the Information Request (Appendix 2). If you do not return the Information Request, you will be taken off the mailing list.

Becoming an Intervenor

In addition to involvement in the EA scoping process, you may want to become an "intervenor," which is an official party to the proceeding. Intervenor play a more formal role in the process and are able to file briefs, appear at hearings, and be heard by the courts if they choose to appeal the Commission's final ruling. An intervenor formally participates in a Commission proceeding by filing a request to intervene. Instructions for becoming an intervenor are included in the User's Guide under the "e-filing" link on the Commission's Web site.

Additional Information

Additional information about the project is available from the Commission's Office of External Affairs, at 1-866-208-FERC or on the FERC Internet Web site (<http://www.ferc.gov>) using the eLibrary link. Click on the eLibrary link, click on "General Search" and enter the docket number excluding the last three digits in the Docket Number field. Be sure you have selected an appropriate date range. For assistance, please contact FERC Online Support at FercOnlineSupport@ferc.gov or toll free at 1-866-208-3676, or for TTY, contact (202)502-8659. The eLibrary link also provides access to the texts of formal documents issued by the Commission, such as orders, notices, and rulemakings.

In addition, the Commission now offers a free service called eSubscription which allows you to keep track of all formal issuances and submittals in specific dockets. This can reduce the amount of time you spend researching proceedings by automatically providing you with notification of these filings, document summaries and direct links to the documents. Go to <http://www.ferc.gov/esubscribenow.htm>.

Finally, public meetings or route evaluations, if applicable, will be posted on the Commission's calendar located at <http://www.ferc.gov/EventCalendar/EventsList.aspx> along with other related information.

Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant and all the parties in this proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

k. This application is not ready for environmental analysis at this time.

l. The Stuyvesant Falls Hydroelectric Project is located on Kinderhook Creek in Columbia County, New York. All project features pre-date the license by 80 years, and there were no operational changes or construction when the project was licensed in 1980, backdated to 1965. The Stuyvesant Falls Hydroelectric Project consists of a 13-foot-high, 240-foot-long, masonry gravity dam and stone and concrete intake structure that impounds Kinderhook Creek, forming a 46-acre reservoir with a normal pool elevation of 174.3 feet USGS datum. A Taintor gate and trash sluice is located near the south abutment of the gravity dam. The intake structure is enclosed in a prefabricated steel intake house and carries water from the reservoir to two 7.5-foot-diameter, 2,860-foot-long, riveted-steel pipelines. From the pipelines, water flows into a 25-foot-diameter surge tank. Water is then transported from the surge tank to a brick and steel powerhouse via two 200-foot-long steel penstocks. The powerhouse contains a single 2.8-megawatt horizontal double runner Francis turbine.

n. Scoping Process.

The Commission intends to prepare an Environmental Assessment (EA) on the project in accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act. The EA will consider both site-specific and cumulative environmental impacts and reasonable alternatives to the proposed action.

Scoping Meetings

FERC staff will conduct one daytime scoping meeting and one evening scoping meeting. The daytime scoping meeting will focus on resource agency and non-governmental organization (NGO) concerns, while the evening scoping meeting is primarily for public input. All interested individuals, organizations, and agencies are invited to attend one or both of the meetings, and to assist the staff in identifying the scope of the environmental issues that should be analyzed in the EA. The times and locations of these meetings are as follows:

Evening Scoping Meeting

Date and Time: Monday, November 16, 2009, at 6 p.m.

Location: Stuyvesant Town Hall, 5 Sunset Drive, Stuyvesant, NY 12173.

Phone Number: 518-758-6248.

Daytime Scoping Meeting

Date and Time: Tuesday, November 17, 2009, at 10 a.m.

Location: Stuyvesant Town Hall, 5 Sunset Drive, Stuyvesant, NY 12173.

Phone Number: 518-758-6248.

Copies of the Scoping Document (SD1) outlining the subject areas to be addressed in the EA were distributed to the parties on the Commission's mailing list. Copies of the SD1 will be available at the scoping meeting or may be viewed on the Web at <http://www.ferc.gov> using the "eLibrary" link [see item (m) above].

Environmental Site Review

The Applicant and FERC staff will conduct a project environmental site review beginning at 1 p.m. (EST) on Monday, November 16, 2009. All interested individuals, organizations, and agencies are invited to attend. All participants should meet at the Stuyvesant Falls Hydroelectric Project powerhouse. All participants are responsible for their own transportation to the site. Please notify Wendy Carey, Albany Engineering Corporation at 518-456-7712, ext. 401 or wendy@albanyengineering.com by November 9, 2009, if you plan to attend the environmental site review. Directions are as follows:

From Hudson, drive north on 66 to 9H. Go north on 9H to CR-25. Go south on CR-25 into Stuyvesant Falls. Take a

Objectives

At the scoping meetings, the staff will:

(1) Summarize the environmental issues tentatively identified for analysis in the EA; (2) solicit from the meeting participants all available information, especially quantifiable data, on the resources at issue; (3) encourage statements from experts and the public on issues that should be analyzed in the EA, including viewpoints in opposition to, or in support of, the staff's preliminary views; (4) determine the resource issues to be addressed in the EA; and (5) identify those issues that require a detailed analysis, as well as those issues that do not require a detailed analysis.

Procedures

The meetings are recorded by a stenographer and become part of the formal record of the Commission proceeding on the project. Individuals, organizations, and agencies with environmental expertise and concerns are encouraged to attend the meeting and to assist the staff in defining and clarifying the issues to be addressed in the EA.

Title: ENERGY STAR Program in the Residential Sector (Renewal).

ICR Status: This ICR is scheduled to expire on November 30, 2009. Under OMB regulations, the Agency may continue to conduct or sponsor the collection of information while this submission is pending at OMB. An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Abstract: EPA introduced ENERGY STAR, a voluntary public-private energy efficiency partnership program, in 1992 to label energy efficient computers. Since then, EPA and the Department of Energy (DOE) have expanded the ENERGY STAR Program to promote energy efficiency in over 60 product categories and in commercial and residential buildings. Increased energy efficiency through ENERGY STAR provides cost savings to businesses and homeowners, reduces greenhouse gas emissions from power plants, and increases U.S. energy security and reliability.

EPA announced ENERGY STAR for New Homes in 1995 as part of its effort to promote energy efficient construction in the new homes market. EPA rolled out its existing homes effort in 2000 to promote cost-effective upgrades to the existing homes market. These two efforts promote home envelope improvements such as the proper installation of adequate insulation and HVAC equipment, and installation of energy efficient windows, lights, and appliances. Since participation in the ENERGY STAR program is voluntary, partners are not required to submit information to EPA. Information received to date has been submitted voluntarily to EPA and is not of a confidential nature. EPA has developed this ICR to obtain authorization to collect information from the public, including businesses, for the following activities:

ENERGY STAR Partnership and Related Activities: An organization interested in joining ENERGY STAR as a partner is asked to submit a partnership agreement establishing its commitment to ENERGY STAR. Partners agree to undertake efforts such as educating staff and the public about their partnership with ENERGY STAR, developing and implementing a plan to improve energy performance in homes, and highlighting achievements utilizing the ENERGY STAR brand.

Evaluation: Partners and other program participants are asked to periodically submit information to EPA as needed to assist in evaluating ENERGY STAR's effectiveness in helping organizations promote energy efficiency in homes, to assess partners' level of interest and ability in promoting ENERGY STAR in the residential sector, and to determine the impact that ENERGY STAR has on residential energy use and the supply and demand for energy-efficient homes and home improvement products and services.

Quarterly Reporting: Partners are asked to submit information each calendar quarter to assist EPA in tracking and measuring progress in building and promoting ENERGY STAR qualified homes and installing and promoting energy-efficient improvements including those made under a Home Performance with ENERGY STAR program. This includes submitting quarterly updates on partners' level of activity in qualifying new homes for the ENERGY STAR label and activity in improving the energy efficiency of existing homes under Home Performance with ENERGY STAR and ENERGY STAR's HVAC Quality Installation program.

ENERGY STAR Awards: Each year, partners are eligible for an ENERGY STAR award, which recognizes organizations demonstrating outstanding support in promoting ENERGY STAR. This award program provides partners public recognition and market differentiation. An application form is submitted to EPA by partners interested in being eligible for an award.

Outreach Partnership: Partners have the opportunity to participate in an outreach partnership with EPA to develop public education campaigns featuring the benefits of ENERGY STAR qualified homes. Partners interested in participating in the outreach program are asked to submit a form detailing their level of participation.

Burden Statement: The average annual reporting and recordkeeping burden for the ENERGY STAR Program and related activities is estimated to be about one and a quarter hours per respondent. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Respondents/Affected Entities: Home builders, home energy verification organizations, lenders, regional energy efficiency programs/utilities, contractors, retailers, manufactured home plants, modular home plants, realtors, architects, homeowners.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 56,000.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 180,958.

Estimated Total Annual Cost: $10,896,852, which includes $16,000 in annualized capital/startup costs, $1,439 in annual operation and maintenance costs, and $10,879,413 in annual labor costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is an increase of 5,509 hours in the total estimated burden currently identified in the OMB Inventory of Approved ICR Burdens. This increase is due to changes in ENERGY STAR's residential programs. New partnership categories have been added that have collection activities associated with them. In addition, new collection activities related to the evaluation of ENERGY STAR's residential programs have been added. Finally, EPA has adjusted some of its burden assumptions for its existing information collections to reflect changes in the industry.

Dated: October 20, 2009.

Director, Collection Strategies Division.

Title: NSPS for Stationary Source Combustion Turbines (Renewal).

ICR Numbers: EPA ICR Number 2177.03, OMB Control Number 2060-0582.

ICR Status: This ICR is scheduled to expire on October 31, 2009. Under OMB regulations, the Agency may continue to conduct or sponsor the collection of information while this submission is pending at OMB. An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations in title 40 of the CFR, after appearing in the Federal Register when approved, are listed in 40 CFR part 9, and displayed either by publication in the Federal Register or by other appropriate means, such as on the related collection instrument or form, if applicable. The display of OMB control numbers in certain EPA regulations is consolidated in 40 CFR part 9.

Abstract: The New Source Performance Standards (NSPS) for Stationary Source Combustion Turbines were proposed on February 18, 2005, and promulgated on July 6, 2006. The standards apply to stationary combustion turbines with a heat input at peak load equal to or greater than 10.7 gigajoules (10 MMBtu) per hour, based on the higher heating value of the fuel, which commenced construction, modification or reconstruction after February 18, 2005. The pollutants regulated by this subpart are nitrogen oxide (NO_x) and sulfur dioxide (SO₂).

Owners or operators of stationary source combustion turbines are required to submit an initial notification of compliance report. In addition, owners or operators are required to submit stack tests, continuous emission monitoring, performance tests and periodic reports. Owners or operators are also required to maintain records of the occurrence and duration of any startup, shutdown, or malfunction in the operation of an affected facility, or any period during which the monitoring system is inoperative. Semiannual reports are also required.

Any owner or operator subject to the provisions of this subpart must maintain a file of these measurements, and retain the file for at least two years following the collection of such measurements, maintenance reports, and records.

All reports are sent to the delegated state or local authority. In the event that there is no such delegated authority, the reports are sent directly to the EPA regional office. This information is being collected to assure compliance with 40 CFR part 60, subpart KKKK, as authorized in sections 112 and 114(a) of the Clean Air Act. The required information consists of emissions data and other information that have been determined to be private.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 37 hours per response. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose and provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information. All existing ways will have to adjust to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements that have subsequently changed; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 307.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 32,075.

Estimated Total Annual Cost: $2,983,850 in labor costs and no capital/startup or O&M costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is an adjustment increase of 16,066 hours in the total estimated labor hour burden as currently identified in the OMB Inventory of Approved ICR Burdens because the standard is now fully implemented. The increase is not due to any program changes. The previous ICR covered the initial phase of the standard implementation, which occurred over a three-year period. Hence, the average number of respondents during the initial phase is less than the number of respondents when the standard is fully implemented. This ICR shows the labor hour and cost burden after full implementation.

Title: NSPS for Surface Coating of Large Appliances.

ICR Numbers: EPA ICR Number 0659.11, OMB Control Number 2060-0108.

ICR Status: This ICR is scheduled to expire on October 31, 2009. Under OMB regulations, the Agency may continue to conduct or sponsor the collection of information while this submission is pending at OMB. An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations in title 40 of the CFR, after appearing in the Federal Register when approved, are listed in 40 CFR part 9, and displayed either by publication in the Federal Register or by other appropriate means, such as on the related collection instrument or form, if applicable. The display of OMB control numbers in certain EPA regulations is consolidated in 40 CFR part 9.

Abstract: Owners or operators of large appliance surface coating operations are required to report startup, initial performance test, and retest information. Facilities will also report on a regular basis emission exceedances, changes to equipment, and other requirements.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 53 hours per response. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements which have subsequently changed; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 72.

Estimated Total Annual Hour Burden: 7,659.

Estimated Total Annual Cost: $657,087, which includes $648,687 in labor costs, no capital/startup costs, and $8,400 in operation and maintenance (O&M) costs.

Changes in the Estimates: There is no change in the total estimated burden currently identified in the OMB Inventory of Approved ICR Burdens. There is a minor change to the cost figures, since the previous ICR rounded to the nearest $1,000; this ICR presents cost figures which differ by less than $500 from the previous ICR due to using exact figures instead of rounding.

Dated: October 20, 2009.

What Information is EPA Particularly Interested in?

Pursuant to section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA, EPA specifically solicits comments and information to enable it to:

- (i) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

- (ii) Evaluate the accuracy of the Agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- (iii) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

- (iv) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses. In particular, EPA is requesting comments from very small businesses (those that employ less than 25) on examples of specific additional efforts that EPA could make to reduce the paperwork burden for very small businesses affected by this collection.

What Should I Consider When I Prepare My Comments for EPA?

You may find the following suggestions helpful for preparing your comments:

1. Explain your views as clearly as possible and provide specific examples.
2. Describe any assumptions that you used.
3. Provide copies of any technical information and/or data you used that support your views.
4. If you estimate potential burden or costs, explain how you arrived at the estimate that you provide.
5. Offer alternative ways to improve the collection activity.
6. Make sure to submit your comments by the deadline identified under DATES.
7. To ensure proper receipt by EPA, be sure to identify the docket ID number assigned to this action in the subject line on the first page of your response. You may also provide the name, date, and Federal Register citation.

What Information Collection Activity or ICR Does This Apply to?

Affected entities: Entities potentially affected by this action are the 50 States, Puerto Rico, and the recipients of assistance in each of these jurisdictions.

Title: Safe Drinking Water Act State Revolving Fund Program

ICR numbers: EPA ICR No. 1803.06, OMB Control No. 2040-0185.

ICR status: This ICR is currently scheduled to expire on February 28, 2010. An Agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control numbers for EPA's regulations in title 40 of the CFR, after appearing in the Federal Register when approved, are listed in 40 CFR part 9, and are displayed either by publication in the Federal Register or by other appropriate means, such as on the related collection instrument or form, if applicable. The display of OMB control numbers in certain EPA regulations is consolidated in 40 CFR part 9.

Abstract: The Safe Drinking Water Act (SDWA) Amendments of 1996 (Pub. L. 104-182) authorized the creation of the Drinking Water State Revolving Fund (DWSRF; the Fund) program in each State and Puerto Rico to assist public water systems to finance the costs of infrastructure needed to achieve or maintain compliance with SDWA requirements and to protect public health. Section 1452 authorizes the Administrator of the EPA to award capitalization grants to the States and Puerto Rico which, in turn, provide low-cost loans and other types of assistance to eligible drinking water systems. States can also reserve a portion of their grants to conduct various set-aside activities. The information collection activities will occur primarily at the program level through the (1) Capitalization Grant Application and Agreement/State Intended Use Plan; (2) Biennial Report; (3) Annual Audit; and (4) Assistance Application Review. Information collected is needed for input into the DWSRF National Information Management System.

(1) Capitalization Grant Application and Agreement/State Intended Use Plan: The State must prepare a Capitalization Grant Application that includes an Intended Use Plan (IUP) outlining in detail how it will use all the funds covered by the capitalization grant. The State may, as an alternative, develop the IUP in a two part process with one part identifying the distribution and uses of the funds among the various set-asides in the DWSRF program and the other part dealing with project assistance from the Fund.

(2) Biennial Report: The State must agree to complete and submit a Biennial Report on the uses of the capitalization grant. The scope of the report must cover assistance provided by the Fund and all other set-aside activities included under the Capital Grant Agreement. States which jointly administer DWSRF and Clean Water State Revolving Fund (CWSRF) programs, in accordance with section 1452(g)(1), may submit reports (according to the schedule specified for each program) which cover both programs.

(3) Annual Audit: A State must comply with the provisions of the Single Audit Act Amendments of 1996. Best management practices suggest and EPA recommends that a State conduct an annual independent audit of its DWSRF program. The scope of the report must cover the DWSRF Fund and all other set-aside activities included in the Capitalization Grant Agreement. States which jointly administer DWSRF and CWSRF programs, in accordance with section 1452(g)(1), may submit audits that cover both programs but which report financial information for each program separately.

(4) Assistance Application Review: Local applicants seeking financial assistance must prepare and submit DWSRF loan applications. States then review completed loan applications and verify that proposed projects will comply with applicable Federal and State requirements.

As a result of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act signed by the President on February 17, 2009, the Drinking Water State Revolving Fund received an additional $2 billion in funding for assistance agreements for projects to be under contract or construction by February 17, 2010. EPA expects an estimated two-fold increase of respondents (in some years) due to this additional funding.

Burden Statement: The annual public reporting and recordkeeping burden for this collection of information is estimated to be an average of 131 hours per response. Burden means the total time, effort, or financial resources expended by persons to generate, maintain, retain, or disclose or provide information to or for a Federal agency. This includes the time needed to review instructions; develop, acquire, install, and utilize technology and systems for the purposes of collecting, validating, and verifying information, processing and maintaining information, and disclosing and providing information; adjust the existing ways to comply with any previously applicable instructions and requirements which have subsequently changed; train personnel to be able to respond to a collection of information; search data sources; complete and review the collection of information; and transmit or otherwise disclose the information.

DWSRF—Base Program

Estimate total number of potential respondents: 1505 respondents per year, at a cost of $4,565.35 average annual burden per response.

Frequency of response: For Capitalization Grants and Audits responses are annual, for Biennial reports and Loan Applications, responses are on occasion.

Estimated total average number of responses for each respondent: This ICR estimates one annual response per respondent.

Estimated total annual burden hours per response: Approximately 131 hrs. (197,155 hrs./1505 respondents)

Estimated total annual burden hours: Respondent burden is estimated at 197,155 hrs. annually.

Estimated total annual costs: Respondent total cost is estimated at $6,870,852 annually.

DWSRF—American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009

Estimate total number of potential respondents: 1505 respondents per year at a cost of $3,849.40 average annual burden per response.

Frequency of response: For Capitalization Grants and Audits responses are annual, for Biennial reports and Loan Applications, responses are on occasion.

Estimated total average number of responses for each respondent: This ICR estimates one annual response per respondent.

Estimated total annual burden hours per response: Approximately 97 hrs. (146,550 hrs./1505 respondents)

Estimated total annual burden hours: Respondent burden is estimated at 146,550 hrs. annually.

SUMMARY: ANNUAL BURDEN FOR ASSISTANCE RECIPIENTS RECEIVING DWSRF LOANS

Program	Hours	Cost
DWSRF—Base	197,155	$6,870,852
DWSRF—ARRA ...	146,550	5,793,489
Total	343,705	12,664,341

Are There Changes in the Estimates From the Last Approval?

There is an increase of 197,155 hours in the total estimated respondent burden compared with that identified in the ICR currently approved by OMB. This reflects EPA's calculation of the burden hours resulting from a possible two-fold increase in respondents due to additional funds from the American Reinvestment and Recovery Act.

What is the Next Step in the Process for this ICR?

EPA will consider the comments received and amend the ICR as appropriate. The final ICR package will then be submitted to OMB for review and approval pursuant to 5 CFR 1320.12. At that time, EPA will issue another Federal Register notice pursuant to 5 CFR 1320.5(a)(1)(iv) to announce the submission of the ICR to OMB and the opportunity to submit additional comments to OMB. If you have any questions about this ICR or the approval process, please contact the technical person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.

B. What Should I Consider as I Prepare My Comments for EPA?

1. Submitting CBI: Do not submit this information to EPA through regulations.gov or e-mail. Clearly mark the part or all of the information that you claim to be CBI. For CBI information in a disk or CD-ROM that you mail to EPA, mark the outside of the disk or CD-ROM as CBI and then identify electronically within the disk or CD-ROM the specific information that is claimed as CBI. In addition to one complete version of the comment that includes information claimed as CBI, a copy of the comment that does not contain the information claimed as CBI must be submitted for inclusion in the public docket. Information so marked will not be disclosed except in accordance with procedures set forth in 40 CFR part 2.

2. Tips for preparing your comments: When submitting comments, remember to:

- i. Identify the document by docket ID number and other identifying information (subject heading, Federal Register date and page number). If you are commenting in a docket that addresses multiple products, please indicate to which registration number(s) your comment applies.
- ii. Follow directions. The Agency may ask you to respond to specific questions or organize comments by referencing a Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) part or section number.
- iii. Explain why you agree or disagree; suggest alternatives and substitute language for your requested changes.
- iv. Describe any assumptions and provide any technical information and/or data that you used.
- v. If you estimate potential costs or burdens, explain how you arrived at your estimate in sufficient detail to allow for it to be reproduced.
- vi. Provide specific examples to illustrate your concerns and suggest alternatives.
- vii. Explain your views as clearly as possible, avoiding the use of profanity or personal threats.
- viii. Make sure to submit your comments by the comment period deadline identified.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, the FDIC has conducted a review of its Privacy Act systems of records and has determined that it needs to introduce one new system of records, and to revise and republish a compilation of its thirty existing system of records notices. The FDIC previously published one or more of its existing system of records notices at various times. These publications may be viewed at the FDIC's Privacy Act Web page: <http://www.fdic.gov/about/privacy/>.

The FDIC proposes to add one new system of records notice to cover information maintained by a new data technology system that will collect, process, and store personal information. The new system of records is designated as FDIC–30–64–0031 (Online Ordering Request Records). This system of records will be used to process online requests by individuals for certain FDIC products, publications, and materials such as brochures, pamphlets, CD-ROMs, and subscriptions to newsletters. Information proposed to be collected and stored includes the name of the requesting individual, business or organization affiliations, addresses, phone numbers, e-mail addresses, order history, payment information, identity verification information, fulfillment information, and other contact information provided by the requester. FDIC employees will administer the system, along with FDIC contractors and subcontractors who will assist the FDIC in managing the information collection. The information will be collected by entering information on an online form linked from the FDIC web site that populates the contractor's electronic information system on the contractor's web site. Requesters that call, mail or make requests by other means will be guided to the web site to complete the online request or allow FDIC staff to enter the information they provide. Once collected, the information will be maintained on the contractor's electronic system in a secured environment. The collection of the information is required in order to obtain the requested information.

The FDIC also proposes to revise and republish a compilation of its thirty existing system of records notices. The systems revisions are minor corrective and administrative changes that do not meet the threshold criteria established by the Office of Management and Budget for either a new or altered system of records. More detailed information on the proposed new and revised systems of records may be viewed in the complete text below.

Proposed Project

The Epidemiology and Impact of Workplace Violence in Pennsylvania Teachers and Paraprofessionals—NEW—National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Background and Brief Description

Workplace violence (WPV) is a significant concern for employers and employees alike; every year in the U.S., WPV results in hundreds of deaths, nearly two million nonfatal injuries, and billions of dollars in costs. Historically, the education field has not been the focus of WPV research; however, the classroom is a workplace too. From 1999 to 2003, teachers were the victims of approximately 183,000 nonfatal crimes including 119,000 thefts and 65,000 violent crimes such as rape and assault.

Workplace violence is not limited to physical attacks; verbal threats, bullying, and harassment also produce psychological harm to teachers and school staff. A newer form of such violence is that of electronic aggression. The CDC defines the problem as: "Any type of harassment or bullying (teasing, telling lies, making fun of someone, making rude or mean comments, spreading rumors, or making threatening or aggressive comments) that occurs through e-mail, a chat room, instant messaging, a Web site (including blogs) or text messaging." While a recent study found that 35% of young people had been the victims of electronic aggression, the impact of this in the workplace is relatively unknown. The extant evidence indicates that working in a school environment carries an excess risk for becoming a victim of some form of WPV; however, little is known about the incidence or risk factors for such.

The Occupational Safety and Health Act, Public Law 91-596 (section 20[a][1]) authorizes the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) to conduct research to advance the health and safety of workers. NIOSH is conducting a population-based, cross-sectional survey among teachers and paraprofessionals in the State of Pennsylvania. The goals of this study are (1) Estimate the number and prevalence proportions (rates) of physical, non-physical, and electronic WPV in teachers and paraprofessionals in Pennsylvania; (2) Identify the circumstances and most common risk factors for physical, non-physical, and electronic WPV in teachers and paraprofessionals in Pennsylvania; (3) Measure the impact of WPV on job satisfaction and quality of life. These goals are solely based on the State of Pennsylvania and are not based on a nation wide study.

NIOSH is proposing to conduct a population-based, cross-sectional survey among teachers and paraprofessionals in the State of Pennsylvania. Paper-and-pencil surveys will be mailed to potential participants through the Pittsburgh Federation of Teachers (PFT), Philadelphia Federation of Teachers (PA-AFT), and the Pennsylvania State Education Association (PSEA). Since approximately 90% of teachers and 65% of paraprofessionals in the State of Pennsylvania hold membership in one of these three unions and no known State-wide database exists that includes both teachers and paraprofessionals, a sample of eligible participants will be drawn using State-based union records.

A stratified random sample will be drawn to ensure representativeness on important dimensions such as gender of participant and urban-rural status of the school district. In conjunction with each participating union, study packets consisting of an introduction letter, paper-and-pencil survey, and non-response form will be mailed to eligible participant's home addresses. The questionnaire is a paper-and-pencil survey and provides information on the following categories: demographics, occupation, physical assault characteristics, non-physical assault characteristics, electronic aggression characteristics, job satisfaction, and quality of life.

The sample size for the cross-sectional survey is estimated to be approximately 5,000 teachers and paraprofessionals. This estimate is based on the number of reported teachers and paraprofessionals represented by the three unions participating in this study and on an 80% response rate that is comparable to the response rate of previously conducted surveys in similar populations. Pilot test data demonstrates that respondents should take approximately 30 minutes to complete the paper-and-pencil survey, resulting in an annualized burden estimate of 2,500 hours. Participation in the study is completely voluntary.

This survey will also utilize the skills and time of a variety of union office and administrative staff for the preparation of the survey packets. The exact number of administrative staff utilized at each union location, as well as the additional work demands placed on them has yet to be determined, though our best guess is 13 individuals. It is estimated that three office support staff from the Pittsburgh Federation of Teachers, six from the Pennsylvania State Education Association, and four from the Philadelphia Federation of Teachers will be needed for a grand total of 13 support staff personnel. Additional work activities could include: Preparation of the sampling frame database and non-respondent database, printing of mailing labels, affixation of mailing labels onto survey packets, and e-mail and/or phone communication with NIOSH. For each mailing, we estimate that each of the 13 administration assistants will dedicate two hours to the mailing. So, for each mailing, a grand total of 26 hours will be burdened. There will be three separate mailings for a grand total burden of 78 burden hours.

There are no costs to the respondents other than their time. The total estimated annual burden hours are 2,578.

ESTIMATED ANNUALIZED BURDEN HOURS

Respondents	Number of respondents	Number of responses per respondent	Average burden per response (in hours)
Elementary and Secondary School Employees	5,000	1	30/60
Office & Administrative Support Occupations	13	3	2

Dated: October 19, 2009.

Agency Information Collection Activities; Proposed Collection; Comment Request; Antimicrobial Animal Drug Distribution Reports Under Section 105 of the Animal Drug User Fee Amendments of 2008

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is announcing an opportunity for public comment on the proposed collection of certain information by the agency. Under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (the PRA), Federal agencies are required to publish notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information and including each proposed extension of a collection of information and to allow 60 days for public comment in response to the notice. This notice solicits comments on reporting and recordkeeping requirements for antimicrobial animal drug distribution as required by Section 105 of the Animal Drug User Fee Amendments of 2008 (ADUFA).

DATES: Submit written or electronic comments on the collection of information by December 28, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Submit electronic comments on the collection of information to <http://www.regulations.gov>. Submit written comments on the collection of information to the Division of Dockets Management (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, 5630 Fishers Lane, rm. 1061, Rockville, MD 20852. All comments should be identified with the docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Denver Presley, Jr., Office of Information Management (HFA-710), Food and Drug Administration, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, MD 20857, 301-796-3793.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for each collection of information they conduct or sponsor. "Collection of information" is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) and includes agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)) requires Federal agencies to provide a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information before submitting the collection to OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, FDA is publishing notice of the proposed collection of information set forth in this document.

With respect to the following collection of information, FDA invites comments on these topics: (1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of FDA's functions, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) the accuracy of FDA's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques, when appropriate, and other forms of information technology.

Antimicrobial Animal Drug Distribution Reports Under Section 105 of the Animal Drug User Fee Amendments of 2008—Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, Section 512(l)(3) (OMB Control Number 0910–NEW)

Section 105 of ADUFA amended section 512 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (the act) (21 U.S.C. 360b) to require that the sponsor of each new animal drug that contains an antimicrobial agent submit an annual report to FDA on the amount of each antimicrobial active ingredient in the drug that is sold or distributed for use in food-producing animals, including information on any distributor-labeled product. The legislation was enacted to address the problem of antimicrobial resistance and to help ensure that FDA has the necessary information to

Each report must specify: (1) The amount of each antimicrobial active ingredient by container size, strength, and dosage form, (2) quantities distributed domestically and quantities exported and (3) a listing of the target animals, indications, and production classes that are specified on the approved label of the product.

The first report must be submitted not later than March 31, 2010. The report must cover the period of the preceding calendar year and include separate information for each month of the calendar year. The reports required under section 105 of ADUFA are required to be separate from periodic drug experience reports that are required under 21 CFR 514.80(b)(4) (OMB Control No. 0910–0284).

TABLE 1.—ESTIMATED ANNUAL REPORTING BURDEN¹

FD&C Act Section 512(l)(3)	No. of Respondents	Annual Frequency per Response	Total Annual Responses	Hours per Response	Total Hours	Capital Cost
Annual Reports for Sponsors with Active Applications	29	6.7	194	80	15,520	$107,880
Annual Reports for Sponsors with Inactive Applications	23	4.0	92	1	92

TABLE 2.—ESTIMATED ANNUAL RECORDKEEPING BURDEN¹

FD&C Act Section 512(l)(3)	No. of Respondents	Annual Frequency of Recordkeeping	Total Annual Records	Hours per Record	Total Hours
All Applicants	34	1	34	2	68

¹ There are no capital costs or operating and maintenance costs associated with this collection of information.

The reporting burden estimates, including the total number of annual responses, are based on the number of sponsors and approved applications for antimicrobial drug products in food-producing animals. The annual frequency of responses was calculated as the total annual responses divided by the number of respondents.

The agency arrived at the estimates for reporting as follows: There are 34 sponsors with approved applications for antimicrobial drugs for food-producing animals. There are 29 animal drug manufacturers with 194 approved applications for antimicrobial drugs for food-producing animals for which the drugs are being actively marketed (active applications). Additionally, there are 93 approved applications for antimicrobial drugs for food-producing animals for which the drugs are not being marketed (inactive applications), owned by 23 animal drug manufacturers.

Regarding the reporting burden associated with the collection of information, FDA believes that the large majority of the burden will be incurred by industry in the first year in which reporting is required to design a report that meets the requirements of section 512(l)(3) of the act. The agency has estimated this burden at 80 hours per applicant with active applications. The agency has factored into this estimate the time it will take industry to identify and locate the necessary information within existing records, and to develop a report that complies with section 512(l)(3) of the act. Once this has been accomplished, FDA believes that the process for producing reports in subsequent years will essentially be automated, and that it will take approximately 3 hours to run a report that satisfies the act's requirements. For sponsors of approved applications that are inactive (i.e., the approved drug is not being marketed), the sponsor would only have to submit a report stating that the drug is not being marketed, which FDA estimates will take approximately 1 hour.

FDA has developed a form to report the information required by section 512(l)(3) of the act. FDA plans to make the form available to animal drug manufacturers through FDA's website however, use of the form would be entirely voluntary. The form contains various fields for information, including the drug manufacturer's name, new animal drug approval number, active ingredient name, National Drug Code number, container size, potency, and the number of units sold by month.

The animal drug manufacturers can meet the statutory requirements by submitting their information in paper format using the FDA-provided form, one of their own designs, or by designing their own electronic form whose results could be submitted to the agency on a compact disc or on paper. The cost to animal drug sponsors for gathering the necessary information for report design and preparation or for completing FDA's form in the first year of reporting is $107,880 (29 active sponsors times 80 hours times $46.50 per hour = $107,880). This is a one-time cost for a computer or mathematic employees to design and prepare a report that satisfies the statutory requirements of section 512(l)(3) of the act.¹ For subsequent years, the preparation of the report should take approximately 3 hours. Thus, the total cost in subsequent years would be $139.50.

Regarding the recordkeeping burden associated with this collection of information, FDA believes that most of the necessary information for the annual report required to be submitted under section 512(l)(3) of the act is already collected and maintained by animal drug manufacturers under existing requirements.

Animal drug manufacturers are already required to maintain distribution records for their drug products to comply with FDA's current good manufacturing practice regulations under § 211.196 (21 CFR § 211.96) (OMB Control No. 0910-0139), and to comply with regulations for periodic drug experience reports under § 514.80(b)(4)(i) (21 CFR § 514.80(b)(4)(i)) (OMB Control No. 0910-0284) of FDA regulations. Therefore, FDA believes that manufacturers of animal drugs already possess the computers, software, and additional equipment necessary to collect and maintain the necessary records, and to make reports.

Section 512(l)(3) of the act differs from § 514.80(b)(4)(i) in that it requires that records include separate information for each month of the calendar year. Under § 211.196 (OMB Control No. 0910-0139), manufacturers currently are required to maintain distribution records that include the dosage form and date the drug is distributed. Additionally, FDA believes that manufacturers already keep detailed records of the dates when antimicrobial drugs are distributed for marketing and recall purposes from which monthly reports can be prepared as part of their usual and customary practice. However, FDA estimates additional hourly burden required by section 512(l)(3) of the Act as shown in table 2 of this document.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

Agency Information Collection Activities: Submission for OMB Review; Comment Request

Periodically, the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) will publish a summary of information collection requests under OMB review, in compliance with the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35). To request a copy of these documents, call the SAMHSA Reports Clearance Officer on (240) 276-1243.

Project: Parent-Child Assistance Program (P-CAP) in the Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) Center of Excellence—New

Since 2001, SAMHSA's Center for Substance Abuse Prevention has been operating a Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) Center of Excellence which addresses FASD mainly by providing trainings and technical assistance; and developing and supporting systems of care that respond to FASD using effective evidence based practices and interventions.

Currently the integration of evidence-based practices into service delivery organizations is being accomplished through subcontracts. One such intervention which integrates prevention strategies into service delivery organizations is the Parent-Child Assistance Program (P-CAP) targeting pregnant or postpartum women. The P-CAP program uses the following 11 data collection tools.

DESCRIPTION OF INSTRUMENTS/ACTIVITY FOR PARENT-CHILD ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (P-CAP)

Instrument/Activity	Description
At Baseline/Enrollment:
CRSQ	The Community Referral Screening Questionnaire (CRSQ) is a screening form administered to individuals referred to P-CAP. The purpose of the form is to determine eligibility for enrollment in P-CAP.
ASI—Part A	The Addiction Severity Index (ASI) Part A is an intake interview administered at client enrollment. The ASI Part A includes questions about past 30-day alcohol use, lifetime use, age at first use, month and year of last use, range of use (T-ACE), and use during pregnancy, thereby providing a thorough assessment of alcohol consumption.
ASI—Part B & Twin	The Addiction Severity Index (ASI) Part B is an intake interview administered as soon as possible after the target child birth. The ASI Part B includes questions about the target child at birth and alcohol use during the pregnancy. If the target birth is of twins then the Twins Addendum form is administered.

occupations, all industries; we add 40 percent to account for benefits.

DESCRIPTION OF INSTRUMENTS/ACTIVITY FOR PARENT-CHILD ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (P-CAP)—Continued

Instrument/Activity	Description
Demographic Data	The Demographic Questionnaire is administered after client enrollment. The questionnaire includes race, educational attainment, marital status, and an alcohol assessment.
Process Monitoring:
Weekly Advocate Time Summary	The P-CAP Weekly Advocate Time Summary Sheet is administered on a weekly basis. The form tracks time spent on the phone, in person, or providing transportation to each client.
Monthly Updates	The Monthly Update form is administered on a monthly basis. The form records any changes in drug and alcohol use, pregnancy, child custody, and sources of income.
Biannual Documentation of Progress (every 6 months)	The Biannual Documentation of Progress is administered every six months. The form documents changes in alcohol/drug treatment, abstinence from alcohol/drugs, birth control and pregnancy, connection to other services, and family stability and client activity.
At Exit:
Exit ASI	The Exit ASI Follow-Up is administered at the end of the program, at 36 months. The Exit ASI uses a format that is identical to the Addiction Severity Index administered at intake, providing pre- and post-test data for the intervention.
Client Exit Close Out Form	The Client Exit Close-Out Form documents the total number of months the client spent in P-CAP, number of different advocates who worked with the client, and whether the client ever moved out of the area while enrolled in P-CAP.
Ad hoc:
Advocate Accounting of Tracing Activity on Missing Post-Exit Client	The Advocate Accounting of Tracing Activity on Missing Post-Exit Client is used to track activity to locate a missing client. When a client is missing, the form is to be completed each month, instead of the Monthly Update form, until the missing post-exit client is brought in for an Exit Interview.
Lost Post-Exit Client Form	The Lost Post-Exit Client Form is used when the client is at least six months past her three-year exit date in the program and has not completed the ASI exit interview. The form documents the reason the client has not completed the ASI exit interview.

Two P-CAP subcontracts were awarded in February 2008. P-CAP uses an intensive paraprofessional home visitation model to reduce risk behaviors in pregnant women with substance abuse problems. The primary goal of P-CAP is to prevent future births of alcohol and drug exposed children to women who are at risk. The program uses a holistic case management approach, which is a complement to traditional substance abuse treatment. In addition to addressing alcohol and drug use, the program also aims at reducing other risk behaviors and addressing the health and social well being of mothers and their children.

At the initial client visit, the women receive a comprehensive assessment which includes an assessment for alcohol consumption, contraception use, and use of community services. At-risk women receive case management and every 4 months women are re-evaluated to determine their clinical goals. Counselors complete "Documentation of Client Progress" form every 6 months and a final "Documentation of Client Progress" at 36 months. In addition, the counselors complete a weekly advocate time sheet, summarizing their activities within the program. All forms are completed online using the web-portal. All participating subcontractors will maintain identifiable information on clients for service delivery purposes but no identifiable information will be transmitted to SAMHSA.

The data collection is designed to evaluate the implementation of P-CAP by measuring whether abstinence from alcohol is achieved and risk for alcohol-exposed births is eliminated.

This notice solicits comments on the proposed extension of an existing collection of information pertaining to the tobacco product standard for flavored cigarettes under the Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act (FSPTCA).

DATES: Submit written or electronic comments on the collection of information by December 28, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Submit electronic comments on the collection of information to <http://www.regulations.gov>. Submit written comments on the collection of information to the Division of Dockets Management (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, 5630 Fishers Lane, rm. 1061, Rockville, MD 20852. All

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Under the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520), Federal agencies must obtain approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for each collection of information they conduct or sponsor. "Collection of information" is defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502(3) and 5 CFR 1320.3(c) and includes agency requests or requirements that members of the public submit reports, keep records, or provide information to a third party. Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the PRA (44 U.S.C. 3506(c)(2)(A)) requires Federal agencies to provide a 60-day notice in the Federal Register concerning each proposed collection of information, including each proposed extension of an existing collection of information, before submitting the collection to OMB for approval. To comply with this requirement, FDA is publishing notice of the proposed extension of an existing collection of information set forth in this document.

With respect to the following collection of information, FDA invites comments on these topics: (1) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of FDA's functions, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) the accuracy of FDA's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used; (3) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques, when appropriate, and other forms of information technology.

Title: Tobacco Product Standard on Flavored Cigarettes (OMB Control Number 0910-0647—Extension)

On June 22, 2009, the President signed the FSPTCA (Public Law 111-31) into law. The FSPTCA amended the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA) by adding a new chapter granting FDA important new authority to regulate the manufacture, marketing, and distribution of tobacco products to protect the public health generally and to reduce tobacco use by minors.

FDA is requesting an extension of an existing collection of information pertaining to section 907(a)(1)(A) of the FDCA, as amended by the FSPTCA, which provides a general tobacco standard special rule for cigarettes that became effective on September 22, 2009. This special rule for cigarettes states in part that: " * * a cigarette or any of its component parts (including the tobacco, filter, or paper) shall not contain, as a constituent (including a smoke constituent) or additive, an artificial or natural flavor (other than tobacco or menthol) or an herb or spice, including strawberry, grape, orange, clove, cinnamon, pineapple, vanilla, coconut, licorice, cocoa, chocolate, cherry, or coffee, that is a characterizing flavor of the tobacco product or tobacco smoke."

As part of our enforcement strategy, FDA created a Tobacco Call Center (with a toll-free number) to accept information from the public about violations of this provision, known as the cigarette flavor ban. Callers are able to report violations of the cigarette flavor ban and FDA will determine whether to conduct targeted followup investigations based on information the agency receives. Members of the public who wish to report a violation will be asked for certain information: Name and contact information, which are optional, date that the caller observed or purchased the alleged violative product, description of the tobacco product, and address of the retail outlet or Internet address where the violative product was available. FDA developed a form (FDA Form 3734) that Call Center representatives use to record this information. Additionally, this form is posted on FDA's Internet (<http://www.accessdata.fda.gov/scripts/email/TobaccoProducts/flavoredCigarettes.cfm>), which allows the public to report violations of the cigarette flavor ban by filling out the form online. Others may simply choose to send a letter to FDA. (Information about how to contact FDA's Center for Tobacco Products is posted at <http://www.fda.gov/TobaccoProducts/default.htm>). FDA described how to report information about possible violations in a Federal Register notice reminding regulated industry of the effective date of the ban on certain flavored cigarettes (September 25, 2009; 74 FR 48974). FDA also included this information in the following outreach materials:

- Letter to our tobacco control partners announcing the cigarette flavor ban and soliciting information on possible violations,

- Press release announcing the effective date of the cigarette flavor ban,
- Flavored tobacco products fact sheet, and

- Flavored tobacco products parental advisory.
- FDA estimates the burden of this collection of information as follows:

Title: Cross-Site Evaluation of the Children's Bureau Grantee Cluster: Supporting Evidence-Based Home Visiting Programs to Prevent Child Maltreatment (EBHV).

OMB No.: New collection.

Description: The Administration for Children and Families (ACF), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), is proposing this cross-site evaluation data collection activity to identify successful strategies for adopting, implementing, and sustaining high-quality home visitation programs to prevent child maltreatment. An evaluation study will address four domains: (1) Systems change to develop infrastructure, (2) fidelity to evidence-based models, (3) costs of home visiting programs, and (4) family and child outcomes (via a review of grantee analysis reports). A process study will focus on the broader grant initiative to understand how programs plan and develop the infrastructure needed to support home visitation services and how they ensure service quality.

Information will be collected through biennial site visits, web-based data entry, a data quality progress table, a relationship questionnaire completed by participants and home visitors, and a grantee-partner network survey. In particular, site visits will include interviews with key grantee staff and stakeholders involved in the execution of the grant and in the efforts to make system changes. Grantees will complete systems web-based data entry on goals and operations every six months while agencies implementing home visiting programs associated with the grantee will utilize the fidelity/cost web-based data entry to provide EBHV program, provider, and participant characteristics along with yearly data on costs of home visiting programs.

Respondents: EBHV grantee and key staff (evaluators, home visitors and supervisors), partners, implementing agencies, home visiting participants, and home visitors.

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is announcing the availability of a guidance for industry entitled “Investigator Responsibilities—Protecting the Rights, Safety, and Welfare of Study Subjects.” This guidance is intended to assist investigators in meeting their responsibilities with respect to protecting human subjects and ensuring the integrity of data in the conduct of clinical investigations. The guidance also clarifies FDA’s expectations concerning the investigator’s responsibility for supervising a clinical study in which some study tasks are delegated to employees of the investigator or to outside parties.

DATES: Submit written or electronic comments on agency guidances at any time.

ADDRESSES: Submit written requests for single copies of this guidance to the Division of Drug Information, Center for Drug Evaluation and Research, Food and Drug Administration, 10903 New Hampshire Ave., Bldg. 51, rm. 2201, Silver Spring, MD 20993-0002. Send one self-addressed adhesive label to assist that office in processing your requests. Submit written comments on the guidance to the Division of Dockets Management (HFA-305), Food and Drug Administration, 5630 Fishers Lane, rm. 1061, Rockville, MD 20852. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Joseph Griffin, Center for Drug Evaluation and Research, Food and Drug Administration, 10903 New Hampshire Ave., Bldg. 22, rm. 4204, Silver Spring, MD 20993, 301-796-2270, Joseph.Griffin@fda.hhs.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

FDA is announcing the availability of a guidance for industry entitled “Investigator Responsibilities—Protecting the Rights, Safety, and Welfare of Study Subjects.” Under the regulations in part 312 (21 CFR part 312) (Investigational New Drug Application) and part 812 (21 CFR part 812) (Investigational Device Exemptions), an investigator is responsible for ensuring that a clinical investigation is conducted according to the signed investigator statement, the investigational plan, and applicable regulations; for protecting the rights, safety, and welfare of subjects under the investigator's care; and for the control of drugs, biological products, and devices under investigation (§§ 312.60 and 812.100). This guidance clarifies the responsibilities of investigators in the conduct of clinical investigations conducted under parts 312 and 812, particularly the responsibilities to supervise the conduct of the clinical investigation, and to protect the rights, safety, and welfare of study participants in drug, biologic, and medical device clinical trials. The guidance also provides recommendations on how investigators should supervise the study-related actions of persons not in the direct employ of the investigator, including certain study staff and parties conducting associated testing and assessments.

On May 10, 2007 (72 FR 26639), FDA issued a draft of this guidance with the goal of received input from the public. During the finalization of this guidance, FDA carefully considered all substantive comments concerning the content of the guidance. During finalization, FDA's major emphasis was on clarifying issues that were identified as confusing and correcting apparent errors. These efforts resulted in relatively minor changes throughout the guidance. FDA also removed a significant amount of content from the background section because it was duplicative of content in the guidance appendices. FDA also reordered section III.A.3 of the guidance concerning adequate supervision of the conduct of a clinical trial to make the sequence more logical. We reversed the order of presentation so that the section begins with the factors that may predispose to inadequate supervision, and ends with the steps that could be taken to mitigate the potential for inadequate supervision.

This guidance is being issued consistent with FDA's good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The guidance represents the agency's current thinking on investigator responsibilities. It does not create or confer any rights for or on any person and does not operate to bind FDA or the public. An alternative approach may be used if such approach satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations.

II. The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

This guidance refers to previously approved collections of information found in FDA regulations. These collections of information are subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501–3520). The collections of information in part 312 have been approved under OMB control number 0910–0014; and the collections of information in part 812 have been approved under OMB control number 0910–0078. The information requested for general investigator responsibilities is covered by the collection of information in FDA's regulations for investigational new drug applications (part 312) and investigational device exemptions (part 812) and FDA Form 1572. The guidance also refers to FDA's requirements in 21 CFR parts 11, 50, 54, and 56 for the conduct of clinical trials of drugs, biologics, and medical devices. The collections of information in 21 CFR part 11 have been approved under OMB control number 0910–0303; the collections of information in 21 CFR part 54 have been approved under OMB control number 0910–0396; and the collections of information in 21 CFR part 56 (including information required under 21 CFR part 50) have been approved under OMB control number 0910–0130. The collection of information for form FDA 3674 has been approved under OMB control number 0910–0616.

Transportation Security Administration

Intent To Request Renewal From OMB of One Current Public Collection of Information: Transportation Security Officer (TSO) Medical Questionnaire

AGENCY: Transportation Security Administration (TSA), DHS.

ACTION: 60-day renewal notice.

SUMMARY: The Transportation Security Administration (TSA) invites public comment on one currently approved Information Collection Request (ICR), OMB control number 1652-0032, abstracted below, that we will submit to the Office of Management and Budget

(OMB) for renewal in compliance with the Paperwork Reduction Act. The ICR describes the nature of the information collection and its expected burden. The collection involves using a questionnaire to collect medical information from candidates for the job of Transportation Security Officer (TSO) to ensure their qualifications to perform TSO duties pursuant to sec. 111 of the Aviation and Transportation Security Act (ATSA).

DATES: Send your comments by December 28, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Comments may be e-mailed to TSAPRA@dhs.gov or mailed to the Office of Information Technology, Attention TSA PRA Officer, Transportation Security Administration, 601 South 12th Street, Arlington, VA 20598-6011.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Comments Invited

In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. Therefore, in preparation for OMB review and approval of the following information collection, TSA is soliciting comments to—

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed information requirement is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including using appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

Information Collection Requirement

OMB Number 1652-0032; TSO Medical Questionnaire

TSA currently collects relevant medical information from Transportation Security Officer (TSO) candidates for the purpose of assessing whether the candidates meet the medical qualification standards the agency has established pursuant to the Aviation and Transportation Security Act (ATSA), Pub. L. 107-71 (November 19, 2001). TSA collects this information through a medical questionnaire completed by TSO candidates and, in certain cases, supplemental forms completed by TSO candidates' health care providers. The medical questionnaire and supplemental forms are used to evaluate a candidate's physical and medical qualifications to be a TSO, including visual and aural acuity, and physical coordination and motor skills. Only TSO candidates who successfully complete the steps in the hiring process leading up to the medical portion are required to complete the medical questionnaire. Candidates who disclose certain medical conditions on the medical questionnaire may be asked to have their health care provider complete one or more supplemental forms. Historical data indicate that approximately 30 percent of candidates reaching the medical evaluation will be required to complete one or more further evaluation forms.

TSA has a variety of supplemental forms, each of which pertain to particular body systems and medical conditions, including cardiac, orthopedic, endocrine, vitals, and others. The type of supplemental form(s) completed by a candidate's health care provider depend(s) on the condition(s) revealed during a candidate's initial medical evaluation and disclosed on the initial medical questionnaire. For example, a candidate who discloses a previous back injury may be required to have his/her health care provider complete a supplemental form to enable the agency to better evaluate whether the candidate can perform the TSO job safely and efficiently without excessive risk of accident or injury to himself/herself or others.

The current OMB control number for the medical questionnaire and supplemental forms is about to expire. TSA seeks to make minor modifications to the supplemental forms, and renew its OMB authorization to continue to use the medical questionnaire and supplemental forms, as modified. The modifications include moving language that clarifies that additional costs for further medical evaluations necessary to complete the supplemental forms will be incurred by the candidate and adding additional language to reflect changes in current medical practices/tests.

TSA estimates that the potential annual respondent population for this collection of information will be 19,175 candidates and health care providers. This number includes 14,750 candidates and 4,425 health care providers, nationwide. TSA estimates the total annual hour burden as a result of the

Ginger LeMay,

Paperwork Reduction Act Officer, Office of Information Technology.

Notice of Availability of Final Elk Management Plan and Environmental Impact Statement for Wind Cave National Park, South Dakota

AGENCY: National Park Service, Department of the Interior.

ACTION: Notice of Availability of Final Elk Management Plan and Environmental Impact Statement for Wind Cave National Park, South Dakota.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to Section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 42 U.S.C. 4332(2)(C), the National Park Service (NPS) announces the availability of a Final Elk Management Plan and Environmental Impact Statement (Plan/EIS) for Wind Cave National Park, South Dakota (Park).

DATES: The final Plan/EIS will remain available for public review for 30 days following the publishing of the notice of availability in the Federal Register by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

ADDRESSES: Requests for copies of the final Plan/EIS should be sent to the Superintendent, Wind Cave National Park, 26611 U.S. Highway 385, Hot Springs, SD 57747-9430. You may also view the document via the Internet through the NPS Planning, Environment, and Public Comment Web site (<http://parkplanning.nps.gov>); simply click on the link to Wind Cave National Park.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The NPS prepared a draft plan/EIS for the Park, pursuant to Section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. The Park is proposing to manage its elk population, primarily to prevent impacts to other natural resources in the Park, which would occur as the herd size increases. The principal tool (translocation of live elk) the Park had been using to keep population numbers in line with its historic management goals is no longer an option because chronic wasting disease (CWD) is present in the elk population. Therefore, this planning process and EIS was needed to examine alternatives to translocation. The purpose of this EIS is to identify elk management strategies for the Park that will help achieve elk population levels that are in balance with other native species in the Park, including wildlife and vegetation communities, natural ecosystem functions, and other Park resources.

The draft Plan/EIS was made available for public review for 61 days, from June 20, 2008 to August 18, 2008. During that time, the NPS distributed nearly 150 hard copies and compact discs of the draft. The draft was also made available at Park headquarters, on the Internet, and at area libraries. Four public meetings were held on July 21, 22, 23, and 24, 2008, attended by a total of 24 persons. Comments were received from 33 persons on the document during the public review period. Comments from individuals, groups, and public agencies on the alternatives, the preferred alternative, and the environmentally preferable alternative were considered.

Alternative B, both the NPS preferred and environmentally preferable alternative, was selected because it will effectively reduce and maintain the herd size to target population goals while preserving the current natural distribution and movement of elk in and out of the Park. It will also reduce adverse impacts to elk (from stress), bison, prairie dogs, black-footed ferrets, air quality, and soils from carcass disposal. It will also provide expanded hunting opportunities outside the Park and make full use of elk meat (versus wasting the resource), and will not increase elk-to-elk contact of potentially CWD-infected animals in corral situations.

Alternative B, the selected alternative, focuses on the hunting of elk on public and private lands outside the Park to reduce and maintain the Park's elk population. Movable sections of fence (gates) will be installed along the boundary fence to allow elk, but not bison, movement. The gates will be closed during hunting seasons to minimize elk reentry into the Park. Hazing may be used to ensure the appropriate number of elk leave the Park. The South Dakota Department of Game, Fish, and Parks will administer the hunt, issue all hunting permits, and retain all fees.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background.—On October 5, 2009, the Commission determined that it should proceed to a full review in the subject five-year review pursuant to section 751(c)(5) of the Act. The Commission found that the domestic interested party group responses to its notice of institution (74 FR 31760, July 2, 2009) were adequate and that the respondent interested party group responses to its notice of institution were inadequate. The Commission also found that other circumstances warranted conducting a full review.¹ A record of the Commissioners' votes, the Commission's statement on adequacy, and any individual Commissioner's statements are available from the Office of the Secretary and at the Commission's Web site.

Participation in the review and public service list.—Persons, including industrial users of the subject merchandise and, if the merchandise is sold at the retail level, representative consumer organizations, wishing to participate in this review as parties must file an entry of appearance with the Secretary to the Commission, as provided in section 201.11 of the Commission's rules, by 45 days after publication of this notice. A party that filed a notice of appearance following publication of the Commission's notice of institution of the review need not file an additional notice of appearance. The Secretary will maintain a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to the review.

Limited disclosure of business proprietary information (BPI) under an administrative protective order (APO) and BPI service list.—Pursuant to section 207.7(a) of the Commission's rules, the Secretary will make BPI gathered in this review available to authorized applicants under the APO issued in the review, provided that the application is made by 45 days after publication of this notice. Authorized applicants must represent interested parties, as defined by 19 U.S.C. 1677(9), who are parties to the review. A party granted access to BPI following publication of the Commission's notice of institution of the review need not reapply for such access. A separate service list will be maintained by the Secretary for those parties authorized to receive BPI under the APO Staff report.—The prehearing staff report in the review will be placed in the nonpublic record on January 29, 2010, and a public version will be issued thereafter, pursuant to section 207.64 of the Commission's rules.

Hearing.—The Commission will hold a hearing in connection with the review beginning at 9:30 a.m. on February 18, 2010, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building. Requests to appear at the hearing should be filed in writing with the Secretary to the Commission on or before February 10, 2010. A nonparty who has testimony that may aid the Commission's deliberations may request permission to present a short statement at the hearing. All parties and nonparties desiring to appear at the hearing and make oral presentations should attend a prehearing conference to be held at 9:30 a.m. on February 12, 2009, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building. Oral testimony and written materials to be submitted at the public hearing are governed by sections 201.6(b)(2), 201.13(f), 207.24, and 207.66 of the Commission's rules. Parties must submit any request to present a portion of their hearing testimony in camera no later than 7 business days prior to the date of the hearing.

Written submissions.—Each party to the review may submit a prehearing brief to the Commission. Prehearing briefs must conform with the provisions of section 207.65 of the Commission's rules; the deadline for filing is February 8, 2010. Parties may also file written testimony in connection with their presentation at the hearing, as provided in section 207.24 of the Commission's rules, and posthearing briefs, which must conform with the provisions of section 207.67 of the Commission's rules. The deadline for filing posthearing briefs is March 1, 2010; witness testimony must be filed no later than three days before the hearing. In addition, any person who has not entered an appearance as a party to the review may submit a written statement of information pertinent to the subject of the review on or before March 1, 2009. On March 24, 2009, the Commission will make available to parties all information on which they have not had an opportunity to comment. Parties may submit final comments on this information on or before March 29, 2010, but such final comments must not contain new factual information and must otherwise comply with section 207.68 of the Commission's rules. All written submissions must conform with the provisions of section 201.8 of the Commission's rules; any submissions that contain BPI must also conform with the requirements of sections 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules. The Commission's rules do not authorize filing of submissions with the Secretary by facsimile or electronic means, except to the extent permitted by section 201.8 of the Commission's rules, as amended, 67 FR 68036 (November 8, 2002). INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 337-TA-613]

In the Matter of: Certain 3G Mobile Handsets and Components Thereof; Notice of Commission Determination To Review in Part A Final Determination Finding No Violation of Section 337 and on Review To Affirm the Administrative Law Judge's Determination of No Violation; Termination of Investigation

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission has determined to review in part the presiding administrative law judge's ("ALJ") final initial determination ("ID") issued on August 31, 2009, finding no violation of Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1337) in the above-captioned investigation. Specifically, the Commission has determined to review portions of the ALJ's claim construction and invalidity analysis, but to affirm the ALJ's determination of no violation, and has terminated the investigation.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Megan M. Valentine, Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, SW., Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 708-2301. Copies of non-confidential documents filed in connection with this investigation are or will be available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, SW., Washington, DC 20436, telephone (202) 205-2000. General information concerning the Commission may also be obtained by accessing its Internet server at <http://www.usitc.gov>. The public record for this investigation may be viewed on the Commission's electronic docket (EDIS) at <http://edis.usitc.gov>. Hearing-impaired persons are advised that information on this matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal on (202) 205-1810.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission instituted Inv. No. 337-TA-613 on September 11, 2007, based on a complaint filed by InterDigital Communications Corp. of King of Prussia, Pennsylvania and InterDigital Technology Corp. of Wilmington, Delaware (collectively, "InterDigital") on August 7, 2007. The complaint, as amended, alleged violations of Section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1337) in the importation into the United States, the sale for importation, and the sale within the United States after importation of certain 3G mobile handsets and components by reason of infringement of certain claims of U.S. Patent Nos. 7,117,004 ("the '004 patent"); 7,190,966 ("the '966 patent"); and 7,286,847 ("the '847 patent") ("the Power Ramp-Up Patents"); and 6,693,579 ("the '579 patent"). The notice of investigation named Nokia Corporation of Finland and Nokia Inc. of Irving, Texas (collectively, "Nokia") as respondents.

On August 14, 2009, the ALJ issued his final ID, finding no violation of Section 337. In particular, he found that the asserted claims of the patents-in-suit are not infringed and that they are not invalid. The ALJ further found that a domestic industry exists with respect to the patents-in-suit. Additionally, the ALJ found that there is no prosecution laches relating to the '004, '966, and '847 patents and that the '579 patent is enforceable. The ALJ further found that there is no waiver and patent misuse with respect to the patents-in-suit. The ALJ also issued a Recommended Determination on remedy and bonding, recommending that, in the event a violation of Section 337 is found, the appropriate remedy is a limited exclusion order barring entry of infringing 3G mobile handsets and components thereof and that it would also be appropriate to issue various cease and desist orders. The ALJ also recommended that there is no evidence to support the issuance of a bond during the period of Presidential review.

On August 31, 2009, InterDigital filed a petition for review, challenging certain aspects of the final ID, and Nokia filed a contingent petition for review, challenging other aspects of the final ID. On September 8, 2009, Nokia filed a response to InterDigital's petition for review, and InterDigital filed a response to Nokia's contingent petition for review. The Commission investigative attorney filed a joint response to both InterDigital's and Nokia's petitions on September 8, 2009.

Having examined the record of this investigation, including the ALJ's final ID, the petitions for review, and the responses thereto, the Commission has determined to review the subject ID in part. Specifically, the Commission has determined to review the ALJ's claim construction of the terms "synchronize," found in claims 5, 6, 9, and 11 of the '847 patent, and "access signal," found in claim 59 of the '004 patent and claims 6, 9, and 11 of the '847 patent. The Commission has also determined to review the ALJ's validity determinations with respect to the four asserted patents. On review, we affirm the ALJ's determination of no violation, but take no position with regard to the term "synchronize" and validity.

In addition, the Commission modifies the ALJ's construction of "access signal" to clarify that his construction does not read out the situation where the "access signal" may continue to be transmitted after the power ramp-up procedure ends. The ID limits the transmission of the "access signal" to the power ramp-up procedure, finding the transmission does not continue during the remainder of the call setup process. The Commission agrees that the "access signal" is transmitted during the power ramp-up procedure and that the "access signal" is a separate transmission from any other call set up messages that a subscriber unit pursuant to the Power Ramp-Up Patents transmits to a base station during a communication event. The Commission finds, however, that the '004 and '847 patents do not require that the transmission of the "access signal" ends when the power ramp-up procedure ends.

The Commission has determined not to review the remaining issues decided in the ID.

The authority for the Commission's determination is contained in section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1337), and in section 210.42 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR 210.42).

Issued: October 16, 2009.
By order of the Commission.

Marilyn R. Abbott,

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 70-7005; NRC-2009-0283]

In the Matter of Waste Control Specialists, LLC; Order Modifying Exemption

AGENCY: U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Issuance of Order To Modify Waste Control Specialists, LLC's

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Nishka Devaser, Environmental Protection and Performance Assessment Directorate, Division of Waste Management and Environmental Protection, Office of Federal and State Materials and Environmental Management Programs, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555-0001. Telephone: (301) 415-5196, fax number: (301) 415-5397; e-mail: Nishka.Devaser@nrc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Introduction

Pursuant to 10 CFR 2.106, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) is providing notice in the Matter of Waste Control Specialists, LLC (WCS) of the issuance of an order to modify WCS's exemption from the requirements of 10 CFR part 70.

II. Further Information

I.

WCS operates a facility in Andrews County, Texas, that is currently licensed to process and store certain types of low-level waste (LLW) and mixed waste (MW), and dispose of hazardous and toxic waste. Texas is an Agreement State. On November 30, 1997, this facility was licensed by the State of Texas Department of Health (TDH) under a 10 CFR part 30 equivalent radioactive materials license to possess, treat, and store LLW (R04971). License R04971 is currently under the jurisdiction of the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ). The facility is also licensed by the TCEQ to treat and dispose of hazardous waste. In 1997, WCS began accepting Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) and Toxic Substance Control Act (TSCA) wastes for treatment, storage, and disposal. Later that year, WCS received a license from TDH for treatment and storage of MW and LLW. The MW and LLW streams may contain quantities of special nuclear material (SNM). On May 29, 2008, the TCEQ issued a license to WCS that authorizes WCS to receive and dispose of byproduct material as defined in Title 25 of the Texas Administrative Code, Section 289.260(c)(4). On January 14, 2009, the TCEQ denied hearing requests and issued an order which allows a license to be granted for disposal of LLW after the applicant demonstrates ownership of all mineral rights. The order provides that a license may not be issued, signed or granted until such demonstration is made.

Section 70.3 of 10 CFR part 70 requires persons who own, acquire, deliver, receive, possess, use, or transfer SNM to obtain a license pursuant to the requirements of 10 CFR part 70. The licensing requirements in 10 CFR part 70 apply to persons in Agreement States possessing greater than critical mass quantities as defined in 10 CFR 150.11. However, pursuant to 10 CFR 70.17(a), "the Commission may * * * grant such exemptions from the requirements of the regulations in this part as it determines are authorized by law and will not endanger life or property or the common defense and security and are otherwise in the public interest."

In September 2000, WCS requested an exemption from the licensing requirements in 10 CFR part 70. On November 21, 2001, the NRC transmitted an Order to WCS granting an exemption to WCS from certain NRC regulations and permitted WCS, under specified conditions, to possess waste containing SNM in greater quantities than specified in 10 CFR part 150, at WCS's storage and treatment facility in Andrews County, Texas, without obtaining an NRC license pursuant to 10 CFR part 70. The NRC exemption applies only to activities authorized by TCEQ License R04971. The Order was published in the Federal Register on November 15, 2001 (66 FR 57489). The conditions specified in the Order are discussed in the November 2001 Safety Evaluation Report (SER) that supported the 2001 Order.

By letters dated August 6, 2003, and March 14, 2004, Waste Control Specialists LLC (WCS) requested an amendment to its exemption, which would allow it to use additional reagents for chemical stabilization of mixed waste containing SNM. The NRC transmitted the revised Order to WCS on November 4, 2004. The Order was published in the Federal Register on November 12, 2004 (69 FR 65468). The modified conditions specified in the Order are discussed in the August 2004 Safety Evaluation Report (SER) that supported the 2004 Order.

In a letter dated December 10, 2007, WCS requested additional modifications to its exemption from certain NRC regulations relative to the possession of SNM that is authorized by its TCEQ License R04971. By letter dated January 22, 2008, NRC acknowledged WCS' request.

WCS' letter dated December 10, 2007, and NRC's acknowledgement dated January 22, 2008, are available at NRC's Electronic Reading Room at <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/adams.html>. NRC's Agencywide Document Access and Management System (ADAMS) is available at this Web site. The ADAMS accession numbers for the December 10, 2007, and January 22, 2008, letters are:

Document description	Accession No.
December 10, 2007, WCS request for modification of the Order	ML073550638
January 22, 2008, NRC acknowledgement of WCS request	ML080150622

II.

The NRC staff considers that the appropriate action is to grant WCS's exemption request, with additional modifications. Currently, WCS is exempted from the requirements of 10 CFR Part 70, including the requirements for an NRC license in 10 CFR 70.3, for activities authorized by TCEQ License R04971. This modification specifically would allow WCS to: Discontinue confirmation sampling upon receipt of waste that WCS verifies is adequately characterized by a generator to be uniform and which contains less than one-tenth of the SNM concentration limits presented in Condition 1; and to discontinue confirmatory sampling requirements of Condition 7 of the Order for sealed sources. By letter dated January 22, 2008, NRC informed WCS that it would clarify Condition 2, which states that waste must not contain "pure forms" of chemicals containing carbon, fluorine, magnesium, or bismuth in bulk quantities. NRC is also clarifying requirements for spatial uniformity of SNM concentrations in waste. The NRC is also revising Condition 4 of the Order, which currently limits the amount of highly water soluble SNM in each package, to address security concerns raised by the NRC staff during its review. Therefore, WCS's exemption is modified as follows:

1. Concentrations of SNM in individual waste containers and/or during processing shall not exceed the following values:

SNM Isotope	Operational limit (gram SNM/gram waste)	Measurement uncertainty (gram SNM/gram waste)
U-233	4.7E-04	7.1E-05
U-235 (10 percent enriched)	9.9E-04	1.5E-04
U-235 (100 percent enriched)	6.2E-04	9.3E-05
Pu-239	2.8E-04	4.2E-05
Pu-241	2.2E-04	3.2E-05

$$\frac{\text{U-233 conc}}{\text{U-233 limit}} + \frac{100\text{wt}\%\text{U-235 conc}}{100\text{wt}\%\text{U-235 limit}} + \frac{10\text{wt}\%\text{U-235 conc}}{10\text{wt}\%\text{U-235 limit}} + \frac{\text{Pu-239 conc}}{\text{Pu-239 limit}} + \frac{\text{Pu-241 conc}}{\text{Pu-241 limit}} \leq 1$$

The measurement uncertainty values in column 3 above represent the maximum one-sigma uncertainty associated with the measurement of the concentration of the particular radionuclide.

The SNM must be uniformly distributed throughout the waste, such that the limiting concentrations must not be exceeded on average in any contiguous mass of 600 kilograms.

2. The mass concentration of carbon, fluorine, and bismuth in the waste must be limited as follows:

SNM Isotope	Carbon	Fluorine	Bismuth
U-233	28 wt%	34 wt%	34 wt%.
U-235(10)	25 wt%	35 wt%	31 wt%.
U-235(100)	41 wt%	42 wt%	33 wt%.
Pu-239	43 wt%	43 wt%	34 wt%.
Pu-241	37 wt%	39 wt%	32 wt%.

For waste containing mixtures of C, F, and Bi, the sum of the weight fractions of C, F, and Bi shall be compared to the most restrictive maximum allowable weight fractions for any one of those elements. Similarly, where mixtures of radionuclides are present in the waste, the limiting maximum allowable weight fraction of C, F, and Bi shall be applied.

The presence of the above materials will be determined and documented by the generator, based on process knowledge or testing.

3. Waste accepted shall not contain total quantities of beryllium, hydrogenous material enriched in deuterium, or graphite above one tenth of one percent of the total weight of the waste. The presence of the above materials will be determined and documented by the generator, based on process knowledge, or testing.

4. Possession of highly water soluble forms of SNM shall not exceed the amount of SNM of low strategic significance defined in 10 CFR 73.2. Highly soluble forms of SNM include, but are not limited to: uranium sulfate, uranyl acetate, uranyl chloride, uranyl formate, uranyl fluoride, uranyl nitrate, uranyl potassium carbonate, uranyl sulfate, plutonium chloride, plutonium fluoride, and plutonium nitrate. The presence of the above materials will be determined and documented by the generator, based on process knowledge or testing.

5. Processing of mixed waste containing SNM will be limited to chemical stabilization (i.e., mixing waste with reagents). For batches with more than 600 kilograms of waste, the total mass of SNM shall not exceed the concentration limits in Condition 1 times 600 kilograms of waste.

6. Prior to shipment of waste, WCS shall require generators to provide a written certification containing the following information for each waste stream:

a. Waste Description. The description must detail how the waste was generated, list the physical forms in the waste, and identify uranium chemical composition.

b. Waste Characterization Summary. The data must include a general description of how the waste was characterized (including the volumetric extent of the waste, and the number, location, type, and results of any analytical testing), the range of SNM concentrations, and the analytical results with error values used to develop the concentration ranges.

c. Uniformity Description. A description of the process by which the waste was generated showing that the

d. Manifest Concentration. The generator must describe the methods to be used to determine the concentrations on the manifests. These methods could include direct measurement and the use of scaling factors. The generator must describe the uncertainty associated with sampling and testing used to obtain the manifest concentrations.

WCS shall review the above information and, if adequate, approve in writing this pre-shipment waste characterization and assurance plan before permitting the shipment of a waste stream. This will include statements that WCS has a written copy of all the information required above, that the characterization information is adequate and consistent with the waste description, and that the information is sufficient to demonstrate compliance with Conditions 1 through 4. Where generator process knowledge is used to demonstrate compliance with Conditions 1, 2, 3, or 4, WCS shall review this information and determine when testing is required to provide additional information in assuring compliance with the Conditions. WCS shall retain this information as required by the State of Texas to permit independent review.

At the time waste is received, WCS shall require generators of SNM waste to provide a written certification with each waste manifest that states that the SNM concentrations reported on the manifest do not exceed the limits in Condition 1, and that the waste meets Conditions 2 through 4.

WCS shall require generators to sample and determine the SNM concentration for each waste stream, not to include sealed sources, at a frequency of once per 600 kg if the concentrations are above one tenth the SNM limits of Condition 1. The measurement uncertainty shall not exceed the uncertainty value in Condition 1 and shall be provided on the written certification.

7. WCS shall sample and determine the SNM concentration for each waste stream, not to include sealed sources, at a frequency of once per 600 kg if the concentrations are above one tenth the SNM limits of Condition 1. This confirmatory testing is not required for waste to be disposed of at DOE's WIPP facility.

8. WCS shall notify the NRC, Region IV office within 24 hours if any of the above Conditions are violated. A written notification of the event must be provided within 7 days.

9. WCS shall obtain NRC approval prior to changing any activities associated with the above Conditions.

III.

Based on the staff's evaluation, the Commission has determined, pursuant to 10 CFR 70.17(a), that the exemption as described above at the WCS facility is authorized by law, will not endanger life or property or the common defense and security and is otherwise in the public interest. Accordingly, by this Order, the Commission hereby grants this exemption subject to the above conditions. The exemption will become effective after the State of Texas has incorporated the above conditions into WCS's RML.

Pursuant to the requirements in 10 CFR part 51, the Commission has published an Environmental Assessment for the proposed action wherein it has determined that the granting of this exemption will have no significant impacts on the quality of the human environment. This finding was noticed in the Federal Register on October 15, 2009 (74 FR 52981–52985).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Introduction

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) is withdrawing Regulatory Guide (RG) 4.5, “Measurements of Radionuclides in the Environment—Sampling and Analysis of Plutonium in Soil,” and RG 4.6, “Measurements of Radionuclides in the Environment—Strontium-89 and Strontium-90 Analysis.” Both of these guides were published in May 1974.

These regulatory guides provide prescriptive guidance to licensees and applicants on the sampling and laboratory analysis of Strontium and Plutonium. The guides provided guidance on compliance with a provision in 10 CFR Part 20, “Standards for Protection against Radiation.” That provision, 10 CFR 20.106, “Concentrations in Effluents to Unrestricted Areas,” was deleted, and that subject matter is addressed in a new section, 10 CFR 20.1302.

(Sr⁹⁰) is now provided through Regulatory Guide 4.15, “Quality Assurance for Radiological Monitoring Programs (Inception through Normal Operations to License Termination)—Effluent Streams and the Environment,” published July 2007. This guidance references NUREG–1576, “Multi-Agency Radiological Laboratory Analytical Protocols Manual (MARLAP),” published in July 2004. MARLAP provides analytical detail for measurement of Pu, Sr⁸⁹, and Sr⁹⁰ which includes methods described in RG 4.5 and 4.6 and more recent methods and procedures that are also acceptable to the staff. NUREG–1576 is available electronically through the NRC's Agencywide Documents Access and Management System at <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/adams.html>, under Accession No. ML060930645.

II. Further Information

The withdrawal of RGs 4.5 and 4.6 does not alter any prior or existing licensing commitments or conditions based on their use. The guidance provided in these regulatory guides is neither necessary nor current. Regulatory guides may be withdrawn when their guidance is superseded by congressional action or no longer provides useful information.

Regulatory guides are available for inspection or downloading through the NRC's public Web site under “Regulatory Guides” in the NRC's Electronic Reading Room at: <http://www.nrc.gov/reading-rm/doc-collections>.

In addition, regulatory guides are also available for inspection at the NRC's Public Document Room (PDR), Room O–1 F21, One White Flint North, 11555 Rockville Pike, Rockville, MD 20852–2738. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

- I. Overview
- II. Postal Service Filing
- III. Commission Action
- IV. Ordering Paragraphs

I. Overview

On October 15, 2009, the Postal Service filed with the Commission a notice announcing its intention, pursuant to 39 U.S.C. 3622 and 39 CFR part 3010, to establish a Move Update assessment charge for First-Class Mail.¹ The Notice describes related pricing and classification information specifying how the Move Update assessment will be applied to First-Class Mail. The Notice also announces classification changes which revise the way the Move Update assessment will be applied to Standard Mail. The Postal Service intends to implement these changes on January 4, 2010. Id. at 1.

The Notice addresses plans for public notice; a description of the price and classification changes; price cap compliance; the statutory objectives and factors; workshare discounts; and preferred rates. The changes described in the Notice are supported by Appendix A (hard copy), and Appendices B1, B2, and B3 (electronic format). Appendix A specifies proposed Mail Classification Schedule (MCS) language. The B appendices provide the following information: B1—Calculation of Percentage of Mail Expected to Pay a Move Update Assessment, B2—Calculation of Revenue Estimate for First Class Mail, and B3—Calculation of Revenue Estimate for Standard Mail. The Notice and all appendices are available for review on the Commission's Web site at <http://www.prc.gov>.

II. Postal Service Filing

Background. In Docket No. R2009–2, Notice of Market Dominant Price Adjustment, filed February 10, 2009, the Postal Service provided notice that, at acceptance, Standard Mail mailings that fail a Move Update verification would be assessed an additional 7 cents per piece for each piece in the mailing. First-Class Mail mailings that fail a Move Update verification would be charged the single-piece rate on all pieces in the mailing. In March 2009, the Postal Service notified the Commission of its decision to delay the implementation of the Standard Mail Move Update assessment until January 2010. Id. at 2–3.

Price and classification description. In this docket, the Postal Service proposes to revise Move Update assessments at acceptance. First, the Postal Service indicates that the 7-cent per-piece Move Update assessment will be applicable to First-Class Mail.² Id. at 3.

Second, for both First-Class Mail and Standard Mail, the Postal Service intends to apply the Move Update assessment to a smaller percentage of a mailing (above an established tolerance) than was previously proposed in Docket No. R2009–2. At acceptance, a sample of mail will be used to calculate the ratio of addresses that the mailer failed to update based on customer-supplied Change of Address orders, to the number of Change of Address orders on record. If the ratio is above the specified tolerance, an assessment would apply based on the percentage of the sample above this tolerance. Initially, the Postal Service will use a tolerance of 30 percent which is equivalent to a threshold of 70 percent. This tolerance will be reduced over time after providing appropriate public notice. Id. at 3–4.

Revenue. The Postal Service estimates that 0.096 percent of Standard Mail volume will be subject to the assessment. This would result in an estimated $4.6 million in additional Standard Mail revenue. This estimate is a downward revision from the $7 million estimate revenue provided in Docket No. R2009–2. Id. at 4.

The Postal Service estimates that 0.136 percent of presorted First-Class Mail volume will be subject to the assessment. This would result in an estimated $4.4 million in presorted First-Class Mail revenue. This is less than what currently is paid given that the mailpieces otherwise would have to pay the full single-piece rate. Id. at 4–5.

Mail Classification Schedule. The Postal Service proposes Mail Classification Schedule language to add the 7-cent per-piece assessment to the appropriate First-Class Mail sections. New to the First-Class Mail sections and as a change to the Standard Mail sections, the Postal Service changes the name of the assessment from “Move Update Noncompliance Charge” to “Move Update Assessment Charge.” This reflects the fact that Performance Based Verification by itself does not establish compliance or noncompliance with Move Update standards. Finally, language changes are proposed to indicate that the application of the assessment is only to a percentage of the pieces that fail a Move Update verification. Id. at 5.

Conformance with public notice and other requirements. In conformance with rule 3010.14(a)(3), the Postal Service certifies that it will inform customers of the planned price adjustments in numerous ways. Id. at 1–2. In addition to the formal Notice filed with the Commission, these include notice via <http://www.USPS.com>, the Postal Explorer Web site, the DMM Advisory, the P&C Weekly, and the RIBBS Web site. Id. at 1–2. The Postal Service identifies Don O'Hara as the official contact for Commission queries. Id. at 2.

Impact on the price cap. The Postal Service asserts that the proposed adjustments have no impact on price cap issues. Therefore, it has made no calculation of cap or price changes described by rule 3010.14(b)(1) through (4). For First-Class Mail, the Postal Service explains that the new price represents a price decrease. Previously, First-Class Mail that failed a Performance Based Verification would pay the First-Class Mail single-piece rate which is greater than the newly proposed 7 cent per-piece assessment. Furthermore, the Postal Service contends that this adjustment is outside of the annual CPI-cap price change and that Commission's price cap rules do not specifically address the case of a price decrease. No price change is proposed for Standard Mail. Thus, for Standard Mail the Postal Service argues that cap compliance calculations are even less appropriate. Id. at 5–7.

¹ United States Postal Service Notice of Market Dominant Price Adjustment and Classification Changes, October 15, 2009 (Notice).

² These assessments are applicable only to customers who certify that their mail meets Move Update requirements. Customers who do not certify that their mail meets Move Update requirements or are determined not to have met the requirements are subject to single-piece First-Class Mail prices on all pieces in the mailing.

Statutory objectives and factors. The Notice further provides, in compliance with rules 3010.14(b)(5) through 3010.14(b)(8), the Postal Service's assessment of how the planned program helps achieve the objectives of 39 U.S.C. 3622(b) and properly takes into account the factors of 39 U.S.C. 3622(c). See generally id. at 8–12.

With respect to statutory objectives, the Postal Service concludes that the price adjustment and classification changes do not substantially alter the degree to which First-Class Mail and Standard Mail prices already address the statutory objectives, or how they are addressed by the design of the system itself. It argues that by mitigating the assessments, the proposed changes reflect the Postal Service's use of pricing flexibility (Objective 4) to address mailer concerns, and at most, only cause a slight decrease in revenue while still providing proper incentives (Objective 5). The Postal Service argues that high quality service will improve by encouraging use of Move Update (Objective 3). Finally, parallel assessment of 7 cents per piece for both First-Class Mail and Standard Mail is transparent and keeps administration of the assessment simple (Objective 6). Id. at 9.

In terms of statutory factors, the Postal Service asserts that, as with the objectives, the price and classification changes do not substantially alter the degree to which First-Class Mail and Standard Mail address the factors of 39 U.S.C. 3622(c). The Postal Service asserts that the Move Update adjustments will encourage mailers to adopt Move Update while reasonably taking the impact of price changes into account (factors 3 and 7). The Postal Service uses the adjustments as an example of enhancing operational efficiency by reducing undeliverable-as-addressed mail through the use of customer supplied Change of Address orders (factors 7 and 12). Finally, the Postal Service contends that the adjustments should not materially affect the cost coverage of either First-Class Mail or Standard Mail (factor 2). Id. at 12.

Workshare discounts. The Postal Service asserts that the Move Update assessment revisions do not constitute a change to workshare discounts. The Postal Service states that all passthrough values should be similar to those reviewed in Docket No. R2009–2. Id. at 12–13.

Preferred rates. The Postal Service contends that the program will have no impact on preferred rates in Standard Mail, and is not expected to affect the 60 percent ratio between nonprofit and commercial Standard Mail prices. Id. at 13.

III. Commission Action

Establishment of docket; comments. The Commission establishes Docket No. R2010–1 to consider all matters related to the Notice. 39 CFR 3010.13(a). October 20, 2009.

I. Introduction

On August 7, 2009, August 7, 2009, August 7, 2009, August 7, 2009, August 11, 2009, August 11, 2009, and August 11, 2009, NYSE Arca, Inc. ("NYSE Arca"), NYSE Amex, LLC ("NYSE Amex"), International Securities Exchange, LLC ("ISE"), NASDAQ OMX BX, Inc. ("BOX"), Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ("CBOE"), NASDAQ OMX PHLX, Inc. ("Phlx"), and The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") (collectively, "Participants"), respectively, filed with Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") pursuant to Section 11A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 608 thereunder² an amendment ("Joint Amendment No. 1") to the Options Order Protection and Locked/Crossed Market Plan ("Plan").³ In Joint Amendment No. 1, the Participants proposed to modify Section 5(b) of the Plan to eliminate the requirement that policies and procedures be submitted to the Commission for approval. On August 14, 2009, the Commission summarily put into effect Joint Amendment No. 1 on a temporary basis not to exceed 120 days and solicited comment on Joint Amendment No. 1 from interested persons.⁴ The Commission received no comments on Joint Amendment No. 1. This order approves Joint Amendment No. 1.

II. Description of Proposed Amendment

In Joint Amendment No. 1, the Participants proposed to clarify that, while each Participant is required under the Plan to establish, maintain and enforce written policies and procedures that are reasonably designed to prevent Trade-Throughs, there would not be a requirement that these policies and procedures be submitted to the Commission for approval. The Plan requires, and each Participant has represented, that its policies and procedures will be reasonably designed to prevent Trade-Throughs in the Exchange's market in Eligible Options Classes, unless they fall within an exception set forth in Section 5(b) of the Plan. If relying on such exception, the policies and procedures will be reasonably designed to assure compliance with the terms of the exception.

III. Discussion and Commission Findings

days, the change to the Plan detailed above in Joint Amendment No. 1.⁶ After careful consideration of Joint Amendment No. 1, the Commission finds that approving Joint Amendment No. 1 is consistent with the requirements of the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder.⁷ Specifically, the Commission finds that Joint Amendment No. 1 is consistent with Section 11A of the Act⁸ and Rule 608 of Regulation NMS thereunder⁹ in that it is in the public interest, for the protection of investors, and the maintenance of fair and orderly markets.

In so finding, the Commission notes that the Commission generally does not approve, pursuant to Section 19(b), surveillance policies and procedures of national securities exchanges, though they may be reviewed by Commission staff, for example, pursuant to inspections and examinations.

IV. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 11A of the Act¹⁰ and Rule 608 thereunder,¹¹ that Joint Amendment No. 1 is approved.

For the Commission, by the Division of Trading and Markets, pursuant to delegated authority.¹²

Deputy Secretary.

A. Self-Regulatory Organizations' Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

NASDAQ OMX is proposing to file the Certificate of Designation described below. Under Article Fourth, Paragraph B of the Certificate, NASDAQ OMX's Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of preferred stock, establish the number of shares to be included in such series and fix the designation, powers, preferences and rights of the shares of such series, and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof. As provided in Articles XI and XII of the NASDAQ OMX By-Laws, proposed amendments to the Certificate are to be reviewed by the Board of Directors of each self-regulatory subsidiary of NASDAQ OMX, and if any such proposed amendment must, under Section 19 of the Act and the rules promulgated thereunder, be filed with, or filed with and approved by, the Commission before such amendment may be effective, then such amendment shall not be effective until filed with, or filed with and approved by, the Commission, as the case may be. Senior management of each of the NASDAQ OMX Exchange Subsidiaries, through delegated authority of their governing boards, have determined that the proposed change should be filed with the Commission, and the governing boards of BSECC and SCCP have each reviewed the proposed change and determined that it should be filed with the Commission.⁴ Under Delaware law, the amendment of the Certificate by the filing of a Certificate of Designation does not require approval by the stockholders of NASDAQ OMX.

The issuance of the Series A Preferred is part of a transaction between NASDAQ OMX and one of its existing shareholders, Silver Lake Partners ("Silver Lake"), whereby Silver Lake agreed to convert all of the 3.75% Series A Convertible Notes due 2012 (the "Notes") held by certain of its affiliates ("Silver Lake Affiliates") into shares of NASDAQ OMX common stock ("Common Stock") prior to the maturity date of such Notes.⁵ As an inducement to convert the Notes, NASDAQ OMX has delivered a cash payment and has agreed to deliver 1,600,000 shares of Series A Preferred to the Silver Lake Affiliates ("Transaction"). Effective September 28, 2009, the Silver Lake Affiliates converted Notes into 8,246,680 shares of Common Stock. As a result, Silver Lake no longer holds any Notes and, through certain of the Silver Lake Affiliates, currently is the beneficial owner of shares of Common Stock that equal less than five percent (5%) of the outstanding voting securities of NASDAQ OMX.

Under the Certificate of Designation, up to two million shares will be designated for issuance as shares of Series A Preferred. The Series A Preferred will be senior in preference and priority to the Common Stock and on parity with all other classes and series of preferred stock.

The Series A Preferred will have limited voting rights and will not have the right to vote on any matters that are subject to the vote of the holders of Common Stock. The approval of at least a majority of the then outstanding shares of Series A Preferred will be required to approve any amendment to the Certificate or the NASDAQ OMX By-Laws that would adversely affect the rights, preferences or privileges of the Series A Preferred (including any change in the dividends payable or liquidation preference). In addition, any amendments to reduce the dividend payable to the Series A Preferred, to increase the number of authorized shares of the Series A Preferred or to change certain specified provisions of the Certificate of Designation will require the written consent of 75% of the then outstanding shares of Series A Preferred, voting together as a class.

The shares of Series A Preferred will be convertible into shares of Common Stock. Under the applicable NASDAQ listing rules, approval by the stockholders of NASDAQ OMX ("Shareholder Approval") is required to permit the conversion of the Series A Preferred.⁶ NASDAQ OMX intends to seek Shareholder Approval at the company's 2010 annual meeting of stockholders.

Upon the date of Shareholder Approval, the Series A Preferred will mandatorily convert into shares of Common Stock as provided in the Certificate of Designation.⁷ In the event that Shareholder Approval is not obtained, the Series A Preferred will accrue cumulative dividends, accrued on a daily basis and compounded quarterly, at a per annum rate equal to 12%. In addition, in the event that Shareholder Approval is not obtained, the Series A Preferred will be subject to optional redemption by NASDAQ OMX subject to the terms of the Certificate of Designation. The Series A Preferred will be mandatorily redeemable by NASDAQ OMX on the fourth anniversary of the original issuance date and will be redeemable at the option of the holders upon a Fundamental Change (as defined in the Certificate of Designation).

The issuance of Series A Preferred will result in no substantive change in the ownership or governance structure of NASDAQ OMX, since the Series A Preferred will have no voting rights other than the limited rights described above. The Transaction also has resulted in the conversion of most of the outstanding Notes into Common Stock.⁸

2. Statutory Basis

The NASDAQ OMX Exchange Subsidiaries believe that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act,⁹ in general, and with Sections 6(b)(1) and (b)(5) of the Act,¹⁰ in particular, in that the proposal enables the NASDAQ OMX Exchange Subsidiaries to be so organized as to have the capacity to be able to carry out the purposes of the Act and to comply with and enforce compliance by members and persons associated with members with provisions of the Act, the rules and regulations thereunder, and self-regulatory organization rules, and is designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to foster cooperation and ⁷ The number of shares of Common Stock to be issued upon conversion is variable. To the extent that the conversion results in Silver Lake obtaining beneficial ownership of shares of voting securities in excess of five percent (5%) of the then-outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote, Silver Lake will be subject to the existing voting restrictions in Article Fourth, Section C.3 [sic] of the Certificate. This provision provides that no person who is the beneficial owner of voting securities of NASDAQ OMX in excess of five percent (5%) of the then-outstanding shares of stock generally entitled to vote ("Excess Securities") may vote such Excess Securities.

¹⁰ 15 U.S.C. 78f(b)(1), (5).

⁴ The Nasdaq OMX Exchange Subsidiaries, BSECC and SCCP are each submitting this filing pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii) of the Act, 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(3)(A)(iii).

⁵ Under Article Fourth, Section C.1(b) of the Certificate, the Notes are entitled to vote on an as-converted basis on matters that are submitted to a vote of the stockholders of NASDAQ OMX, voting together with the holders of the Common Stock and any other shares of capital stock entitled to vote.

coordination with persons engaged in regulating, clearing, settling, processing information with respect to, and facilitating transactions in securities, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. The NASDAQ OMX Exchange Subsidiaries believe that the issuance of Series A Preferred to existing investors will result in no substantive change to the corporate ownership structure of their parent NASDAQ OMX.

B. Self-Regulatory Organizations' Statement on Burden on Competition

The NASDAQ OMX Exchange Subsidiaries do not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended.

C. Self-Regulatory Organizations' Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii) of the Act¹¹ and subparagraph (f)(3) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.¹² At any time within 60 days of the filing of the respective proposed rule change by the applicable NASDAQ OMX Exchange Subsidiary, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

5. Certificate of Incapacity—5 CFR 890.302(d)—0960–0739. Rules governing the Federal Employee Health Benefits (FEHB) plan require that the physician verify disability of Federal employees' children ages 22 and over to retain health benefits under the employees' plans. The physician must verify the adult child has a disability that meets the following criteria: (1) Predates the child's 22nd birthday; (2) is very serious; and (3) is expected to last at least one year. Physicians use Form SSA–604, the Certificate of Incapacity, to document and certify the disability of children ages 22 and over whose parents are SSA employees. SSA uses the information to determine adult children's (age 22 and above) eligibility for coverage under a parent's FEHB plan. The respondents are physicians of SSA employees' children ages 22 or over who are seeking to retain health benefits under their parents' FEHB coverage.

Note: This is a correction notice. SSA published this information collection as a new information collection on August 19, 2009, at 74 FR 41959. Since we are revising the Privacy Act Statement, this is now a revision of an OMB-approved information collection.

7. Ticket to Work Program Evaluation Survey (National Beneficiary Survey)—0960–0666. The 1999 Ticket to Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act, Public Law 106–170, established the Ticket to Work program (TTW) to create additional access to services for SSA beneficiaries through a new system of public and private Employment Network (EN) providers. Along with establishing the TTW program, the legislation mandated an evaluation of the program.

In February 2003, SSA began a multi-phase evaluation of this program. Although we had originally planned to complete the final data collection wave by 2009, significant changes we made to the TTW program in 2008 (such as changes to the way State VR agencies can provide services) compelled us to extend the final evaluation to 2010.

In this ICR, we are seeking clearance for Round 4 of the National Beneficiary Survey and two associated experiments (all three activities will use the same data). The respondents are Social Security beneficiaries and TTW enrollees. As with the previous three phases of this project, a contractor will conduct this study for SSA.

8. Continuation of SSI Benefits for the Temporarily Institutionalized—Certification of Period and Need to Maintain Home—20 CFR

416.212(b)(1)—0960–0516. When SSI recipients (1) enter a public institution or (2) enter a private medical treatment facility with Medicaid paying more than 50 percent of expenses, their SSI payments are reduced to a nominal sum. However, if this institutionalization is temporary (defined as a maximum of 3 months), SSA may waive the reduction of benefits.

Before SSA can waive the benefits reduction, the agency must obtain the following documentation: (1) A physician's certification the beneficiary will be institutionalized for a maximum of 3 months; and (2) certification from the beneficiary, beneficiary's family, or beneficiary's friend confirming the need for SSI payments to maintain the living arrangements to which the beneficiary will return post-institutionalization. The respondents are doctors of SSI recipients and the recipients or their family/friends.

Surface Transportation Board

Eastern Iowa Industrial Center Rail Project—Construction and Operation Exemption—City of Davenport, IA AGENCY: Surface Transportation Board.

ACTION: Notice of availability of Environmental Assessment.

SUMMARY: In accordance with Surface Transportation Board (Board) procedures for complying with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) and consistent with the regulations of the Council on Environmental Quality for implementing NEPA at 40 CFR 1506.3, the Board's Section of Environmental Analysis (SEA) is preliminarily recommending that the Board adopt an Environmental Assessment (EA) issued by the U.S. Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) and the City of Davenport. This EA is titled "Eastern Iowa Industrial Center Railroad Extension in Davenport, Eldridge, and Scott County, Iowa."

The EA concludes that the construction of an approximately 2.8-mile rail line would not significantly affect the quality of the human environment. SEA has independently reviewed the EA and agrees with its analysis and conclusions. Therefore, SEA has determined that the EA meets the standards for an adequate environmental analysis under NEPA and can be adopted, should the Board so decide.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: By petition filed with the Board on July 21, 2009, the City of Davenport seeks an exemption under 49 U.S.C. 10502 from the prior approval requirements of 49 U.S.C. 10901 to construct an approximately 2.8-mile rail line in southern Eldridge, northern Davenport, and an unincorporated area of Scott County, Iowa.¹ The proposed project, known as the Eastern Iowa Industrial Center Rail Project, would provide freight rail service to the Eastern Iowa Industrial Center (EIIC), an industrial park located along Interstate 80. The purpose of the proposed project is to provide a rail connection between the EIIC and the Eldridge Line of the Iowa Chicago & Eastern Railroad and to promote economic development in the area.

The City of Davenport anticipates that traffic on the proposed route would consist of two trains (one round trip) per week, and each train would have two to three rail cars. As industrial development in the area continues, train traffic would be expected to increase to a maximum of two trains (one round trip) per day for the foreseeable future. Goods to be shipped over the rail line would vary depending on the specific industries that may locate along the route but would likely consist of

The U.S. Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) and the City of Davenport conducted a streamlined environmental review of the proposed project, and on March 17, 2008, released an Environmental Assessment (EA) titled "Eastern Iowa Industrial Center Railroad Extension in Davenport, Eldridge, and Scott County, Iowa." The EA addressed the environmental impacts that may result from the proposed Eastern Iowa Industrial Center Rail Project and concluded that the proposed project will have no significant adverse social, economic or environmental impacts. Following a public comment period and a public hearing, which was held in Davenport, Iowa, on April 28, 2008, FHWA determined that the project will not have any significant impact on the human and natural environment in a "Finding of No Significant Impacts" (FONSI) dated July 8, 2008.

Pursuant to 49 U.S.C. 10901, the Board is the Federal agency responsible for granting authority for the construction and operation of new rail line facilities. In accordance with NEPA, the Board must take into account in its decision-making the environmental impacts of its actions. In its regulations implementing NEPA, the Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) strongly encourages agencies to reduce paperwork and duplication of efforts. One of the methods identified by CEQ to accomplish these goals is adopting the environmental documents prepared by other agencies. Accordingly, pursuant to 40 CFR 1506.3, the Board may adopt the FHWA's EA as its own since the action analyzed by the FHWA is substantially the same as that being proposed by the City of Davenport.

SEA carefully reviewed the EA and conducted an independent assessment of the proposed rail project. Based on this review and assessment, SEA concludes that the EA adequately assesses the environmental impacts of the proposed action and can be adopted. SEA further concludes that the information in the record is adequate and no supplemental or additional environmental review is required. Consequently, SEA preliminarily is recommending that the Board adopt the EA.

Copies of the EA and the subsequent FONSI have been distributed to appropriate Federal, state and local agencies; tribes; and the public and will be made available to additional parties upon request. The EA and FONSI are also available for review on the Board's Web site (<http://www.stb.dot.gov>) by going to "ENVIRONMENTAL MATTERS," clicking on the "Key Cases" link, and then clicking on "Eastern Iowa Industrial Center Rail Project." In addition, the EA is available for inspection at the Main Street Library, which is located at 321 Main Street, Davenport, Iowa 52801-1490. SEA will consider all comments received in making its final recommendations to the Board. The Board will then consider SEA's final recommendations and the complete environmental record in making its final decision in this proceeding.

DATES: The EA is available for public review and comment. All comments must be submitted or post-marked by November 30, 2009.

ADDRESSES: Send written comments to: Christa Dean, Surface Transportation Board, 395 E Street, SW., Room 1108, Washington, DC 20423.

Federal Highway Administration

[Project Number GAI-0067-01 (004)]

Environmental Impact Statement: Hancock and Pearl River Counties, MS

AGENCY: Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), Department of Transportation (DOT).

ACTION: Notice of intent.

SUMMARY: The FHWA is issuing this notice to advise the public that an environmental impact statement will be prepared for a proposed highway project in Hancock and Pearl River Counties, Mississippi. The project study area will extend a distance of approximately 30 miles from Interstate 10 south of Kiln, MS to Interstate 59 in the vicinity of Picayune, Mississippi.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Claiborne Barnwell, Project Development Team Leader, Federal Highway Administration, 666 North Street, Suite 105, Jackson, MS 39202-3199, Telephone: (601) 965-4217. Contact at the State level is Ms. Kim Thurman, Environmental/Location Division Administrator, Mississippi Department of Transportation, P.O. Box 1850, Jackson, MS 39215-1850, telephone: (601) 359-7920.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The FHWA, in cooperation with the Mississippi Department of Transportation (MDOT), will prepare an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) for the proposed widening and/or realignment of State Route 603/43 in Hancock and Pearl River Counties, Mississippi. The proposed improvements are intended to provide a safe and effective hurricane evacuation route while alleviating high levels of congestion and travel delays presently being experienced on the southern terminus of State Route 603/43. This project was initially started in 2008 as an Environmental Assessment. However, due to the complexity of the project and a high number of sensitive wetland and water issues, it has been determined that it is appropriate to convert this project to an EIS.

A Coordination Plan for Agency and Public Involvement will be developed in accordance with Public Law 109-59, SAFETEA-LU, Title VI, Section 6002, Efficient Environmental Reviews for Project Decision Making, August 10, 2005, and will outline the process by which project information will be communicated to the lead, cooperating, participating, other agencies and organizations, and the public. This plan will also identify how input from agencies and the public will be solicited and considered. The coordination Plan is intended to be a flexible and fluid document and will be available at public and agency meetings for review. The purpose of the EIS is to address the transportation, environmental, and safety issues of such a transportation corridor. The proposed transportation project will be studied both for widening of the existing roadway and for the potential for new alignment in some areas and will provide a safer roadway and improve mobility for those traveling from Interstate 10 to Interstate 59. The proposed project will also specifically address traffic concerns in Kiln, Mississippi and how the existing congestion through the town can be best alleviated while preserving sensitive wetland resources. Alternatives under consideration include (1) taking no action and (2) build alternatives.

The FHWA and MDOT are seeking input as a part of the scoping process to assist in determining and clarifying issues relative to this project. Letters describing the proposed action and soliciting comments will be sent to appropriate federal, state, and local agencies, Native American tribes, private organizations and citizens who have previously expressed or are known to have interest in this proposal. A formal scoping meeting with federal, state, and local agencies, and other interested parties will be held in the near future. Public involvement meetings will be held during the EIS process. The draft EIS will be available for public and agency review and comment prior to the official public hearing.

To ensure that the full range of issues related to this proposed action are addressed and all significant issues identified, comments and suggestions are invited from all interested parties. Comments or questions concerning this proposed action and the EIS should be directed to the FHWA at the address provided above.

Dated: October 19, 2009

[STB Ex Parte No. 552 (Sub-No. 13)]

Railroad Revenue Adequacy—2008 Determination

AGENCY: Surface Transportation Board, DOT.

ACTION: Notice of decision.

SUMMARY: On October 26, 2009, the Board served a decision announcing the 2008 revenue adequacy determinations for the Nation's Class I railroads. One carrier, Norfolk Southern Railway Company, is found to be revenue adequate.

DATES: Effective Date: This decision is effective on October 26, 2009.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, CONTACT: Paul Aguiar, (202) 245-0323. Assistance for the hearing impaired is available through the Federal Information Relay Service (FIRS) at: (800) 877-8339.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Board is required to make an annual determination of railroad revenue adequacy. A railroad is considered revenue adequate under 49 U.S.C. 10704(a) if it achieves a rate of return on net investment (ROI) equal to at least the current cost of capital for the railroad industry. For 2008, the railroad industry's cost of capital was determined to be 11.75%. See Railroad Cost of Capital—2008, STB Ex Parte No. 558 (Sub-No. 12) (STB served Sept. 25, 2009). This revenue adequacy figure was compared with ROI data from each Class I railroad, and one carrier was found to be revenue adequate for 2008.

This action will not significantly affect either the quality of the human environment or the conservation of energy resources.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 605(b), we conclude that our action in this proceeding will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The purpose and effect of the action is merely to update the annual railroad industry revenue adequacy finding. No new reporting or other regulatory requirements are imposed, directly or indirectly, on small entities.

Decided: October 16, 2009.

Clearance Clerk.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: OTS may not conduct or sponsor an information collection, and respondents are not required to respond to an information collection, unless the information collection displays a currently valid OMB control number. As part of the approval process, we invite comments on the following information collection.

Title of Proposal: Loan Application Register (HMDA).

Form Number: N/A.

Regulation requirement: 12 CFR Part 203.

Description: The Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA), 12 U.S.C. 2801, requires this collection of information. In accordance with the HMDA, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB) promulgates and administers HMDA regulations, which are prescribed as part of the FRB's Regulation C (12 CFR 203), implementing the HMDA (12 U.S.C. 2801-2810). HMDA forms as well as collection and recordkeeping requirements are approved under OMB Control No. 7100-0247. The FRB supporting statement forms the decisional basis for the OMB action. This submission discusses the burden imposed by Regulation C on the institutions OTS regulates.

The data on loan applications collected under HMDA assist OTS in analyzing lending patterns for possible discrimination. OTS examiners use the data to scope for compliance with the fair lending laws (Equal Credit Opportunity Act, Fair Housing Act, and OTS's Non-discrimination regulation), as well as for compliance with HMDA itself. Examiners also use HMDA data to determine whether associations are helping to meet the credit needs of their communities as required by the Community Reinvestment Act.
