

Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa Indians. Less than 1 percent of the LS members did not have ancestry charts or were not in the group's genealogical database and the Department could not determine their ancestry.

The more complete record of the petitioner's ancestors and the additional evidence in the record for the FD demonstrates that about 89 percent of LS petitioner's members (3,865 of 4,332) descend from at least one ancestor who was a descendant of the historical Pembina Band. This FD finds that the petitioner has satisfied the requirements of criterion 83.7(e).

Criterion 83.7(f) requires that the membership of the petitioning group be composed principally of persons who are not members of any acknowledged North American Indian Tribe. The Department's research for the FD finds that less than 1 percent of the petitioner's members (19 of 4,332) are enrolled in Federally acknowledged Tribes. This FD confirms the findings in the PF that the LS petitioner is principally composed of persons who are not members of any acknowledged Indian Tribe and therefore meets the requirements of criterion 83.7(f).

Criterion 83.7(g) requires that neither the petitioner nor its members be the subject of congressional legislation that has expressly terminated or forbidden the Federal relationship. A review of the available documentation showed no evidence that the petitioning group was the subject of congressional legislation to terminate or prohibit a Federal relationship as an Indian Tribe. Therefore, the petitioner meets the requirements of criterion 83.7(g).

A report summarizing the evidence, reasoning, and analyses that are the bases for the FD will be provided to the petitioner and interested parties, and is available to other parties upon written request and will be posted on the Bureau of Indian Affairs Web site. After the publication of notice of the FD, the petitioner or any interested party may file a request for reconsideration with the Interior Board of Indian Appeals (IBIA) under the procedures set forth in section 83.11 of the regulations. The IBIA must receive this request no later than 90 days after the publication of the FD in the Federal Register. The FD will become effective as provided in the regulations 90 days from the Federal Register publication unless a request for reconsideration is received within that time.

The regulations state that when the Department declines to acknowledge a petitioner it shall inform the petitioner of "other means through which the petitioning group may achieve the status of an acknowledged Indian Tribe or through which many of its members may become eligible for services and benefits" as Indians (§ 83.10(n)). Congress has plenary power over Indian affairs and, considering two historical factors, could recognize this petitioner as an Indian Tribe. First, the Department initiated action under the Indian Reorganization Act of 1934 that affected the ancestors of a significant majority of the petitioner's members. And, second, Congress passed the Act of December 31, 1982 (96 Stat. 2022) conditionally allocating certain trust funds to "the Little Shell Tribe of Chippewa Indians of Montana" petitioner.

In the 1930's, the Department considered using appropriations available under the Indian Reorganization Act of 1934 to buy land for, and then to reorganize as a Tribe, Indians in Montana of one-half degree or more Indian blood. The Department prepared the Roe Cloud Roll of these Indians, many of whom are among the Little Shell petitioner's ancestors. Seventy-four percent of the Little Shell petitioner's current members descend from an individual on the roll. Lands purchased by the Department at that time, however, were added to the Rocky Boy's Indian Reservation.

In the 1982 Act, which provided for the distribution of the funds awarded by the Indian Claims Commission to the Pembina Chippewa Indians in the Turtle Mountain decision of 1978, Congress allocated a portion of those funds to the "Little Shell Band." Eighty percent of the allocated funds were distributed per capita to the Pembina Chippewa descendants who were members of the Little Shell Tribe of Chippewa Indians of Montana and otherwise met the general qualifications to participate in the distribution as descendants. The other 20 percent of the award allocated to the Little Shell Tribe was to be held in trust and invested until the Secretary acted on its petition for recognition. If the Secretary failed to recognize the Band, the 20 percent was to be distributed per capita when the action on the petition was final. See Sections 2 and 6.

Those funds remain in trust and now total more than $3 million. Congress could direct that they be used to purchase land for the group, as contemplated in the 1930's, should Congress choose to recognize the Little Shell petitioner. The funds set aside in 1982 may be considered for the use of the current petitioner because calculations at the time of the proposed finding on the Little Shell petitioner indicated that 51 percent of the petitioner's 1987 membership was on the Department's 1994 judgment roll prepared under the 1982 statute, and because there is continuity between the petitioner's 1987 membership and the current membership.

Dated: October 27, 2009.

George T. Skibine,

Acting Principal Deputy, Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs.
