This system of records will become effective at the later date of—(1) the expiration of the 40-day period for OMB review on December 8, 2009, unless OMB waives 10 days of the 40-day review period for compelling reasons shown by the Department, or (2) December 3, 2009, unless the system of records needs to be changed as a result of public comment or OMB review.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Introduction

The Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4)) requires the Department to publish in the Federal Register this notice of a new system of records maintained by the Department. The Department's regulations implementing the Privacy Act are contained in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) in part 5b of title 34.

The Privacy Act applies to information about an individual that is maintained in a system of records from which individually identifying information is retrieved by a unique identifier associated with each individual, such as a name or social security number. The information about each individual is called a "record," and the system, whether manual or computer-based, is called a "system of records."

The Privacy Act requires each agency to publish a system of records notice in the Federal Register and to submit, whenever the agency publishes a new system of records or makes a significant change to an established system of records, a report to the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, OMB. Each agency is also required to send copies of the report to the Chair of the House of Representatives Committee on Oversight and Government Reform and the Chair of the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs.
