No person shall be subject to any penalty for failing to comply with a collection of information subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act (PRA) that does not display a valid control number. Comments are requested concerning (a) whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Commission, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the Commission's burden estimate; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on the respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

DATES: Persons wishing to comment on this information collection should submit comments on January 26, 2010. If you anticipate that you will be submitting comments, but find it difficult to do so within the period of time allowed by this notice, you should advise the contact listed below as soon as possible.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

OMB Control No: 3060–1048.

Title: Section 1.929(c)(1), Composite Interference Contour (CIC).

Form No.: N/A.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business or other for-profit, not-for-profit institutions, and state, local or tribal government.

Number of Respondents: 50 respondents; 50 responses.

Estimated Time Per Response: 2 hours.

Frequency of Response: On occasion reporting requirement and recordkeeping requirement.

Obligation to Respond: Required to obtain or retain benefits. Statutory authority for this information collection is contained in 47 U.S.C. Section 309(j) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

Total Annual Burden: 100 hours.

Privacy Act Impact Assessment: N/A. Nature and Extent of Confidentiality: There is no need for confidentiality.

Need and Uses: Under section 1.929(c)(1) of the Commission's rules, any increase in the composite interference contour (CIC) of a site-based licensee in the Paging and Radiotelephone Service, Rural Radiotelephone Service, or 800 MHz Specialized Mobile Radio Service (SMRS) is a major modification of a license that requires prior Commission approval.

However, on February 22, 2005, the Commission released a Report and Order in WT Docket No. 03–103 (70 FR 19293), in which it amended section 1.929(c)(1) to specify that expansion of a composite interference contour (CIC) of a site-based licensee in the Paging and Radiotelephone Service – as well as the Rural Radiotelephone Service and 800 Specialized Mobile Radio Service – over water on a secondary, non-interference basis should be classified as a minor (rather than a major) modification of a license. Such reclassification has eliminated the filing requirements associated with these license modifications, but requires site-based licensees to provide the geographic area licensee (on the same frequency) with the technical and engineering information necessary to evaluate the site-based licensee's operations over water.

The purpose of this collection is to guard against unacceptable interference to its own operation(s).

Federal Communications Commission.

Marlene H. Dortch,

Secretary,

Office of the Secretary,

Office of Managing Director.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

OMB Control No: 3060-1130.

Title: National Broadband Plan Survey of Businesses.

Form No.: N/A.

Type of Review: Extension of a currently approved collection.

Respondents: Business or other for-profit and not-for-profit institutions.

Number of Respondents: 3,500 respondents; 3,500 responses.

Estimated Time Per Response: 16 minutes.

Frequency of Response: On occasion reporting requirement.

Obligation to Respond: Voluntary. Statutory authorities for this information collection is the Broadband Data Improvement Act of 2008, Pub. L. No. 110-385 and the American Reinvestment and Recovery Act of 2009, Pub. L. No. 111-5.

Total Annual Burden: 2,770 hours.

Privacy Act Impact Assessment: N/A.

Nature and Extent of Confidentiality:

The survey contractor, as a matter of general practice, does not provide clients with information that directly identifies survey respondents, whether they are individuals or organizations. This includes telephone numbers, names, addresses, and other information. The vendor also informs respondents of the nature of the vendor's commitments in terms of handling their information. Generally, the promise is that the respondent will not be individually identified and that all analyses of the data will be of aggregate statistics, rather than an individual's answers.

Any information that the survey contractor obtains – whether in purchased sample or through the interview process – that could directly identify the company or the individual responding on behalf of the company will not be provided to the Commission by the survey contractor as a matter of vendor policy. The respondents will be told that such information will not be provided by the survey contractor to the Commission or any other third party.

Need and Uses: The Commission sought and obtain emergency processing of this information collection by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) on November 19, 2009. Emergency requests to OMB are approved for only six months. The Commission is now seeking an extension (no change in the reporting requirement) in order to obtain the full three year clearance from the OMB.

To assist in developing the Broadband Plan that must be submitted to congress by February 17, 2010, the Omnibus Broadband Initiative within the Commission's Office of Strategic Planning plans to conduct a survey of businesses that focus on adoption and usage of broadband internet service. For the Broadband Plan, the focus on usage in the survey is crucial to formulating policy recommendations on how broadband can increase business productivity and economic growth in the United States. The business survey is being conducted pursuant to the Broadband Data Improvement Act. This is authorized under the American Reinvestment and Recovery Act of 2009.
