Normally, notice of advisory committee meetings are published at least 15 calendar days prior to the meeting date. Due to an unanticipated administrative delay in preparing this notice, it could not be published at least 15 days prior to the meeting date. The National Park Service regrets this error, but is compelled to hold the meeting as scheduled because of the significant sacrifice re-scheduling would require of the Commission members who have adjusted their schedules to accommodate the proposed meeting dates and the high level of anticipation by all parties who will be affected by the outcome of the Commission's actions. Since there has been advance notice to the Commission members and local public interest groups about this meeting, the National Park Service believes that the public interest will not be adversely affected by the less-than-15-days advance notice in the Federal Register.
