

and Section 6(b)(8) requires CBOE's rules to "not impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of" the Exchange Act.²⁵ CBOE believes that its act of making the Payment should not be viewed as treating an Eligible CBOE Temporary Member differently from a non-Eligible CBOE Temporary Member. Rather, CBOE believes that its act of making the Payment should be viewed as an undertaking to give full effect to the business decision it made to resolve the CBOT Lawsuit.

2. Statutory Basis

For the reasons described above, the Exchange believes that this proposed rule change is not inconsistent with its obligations under Section 6(b) of the Exchange Act.²⁶ In particular, CBOE believes that its act of making the Payment does not implicate its obligations under Sections 6(b)(4), 6(b)(5) and 6(b)(8) of the Exchange Act,²⁷ or other obligations it has under Section 6(b) of the Exchange Act.²⁸ Rather, CBOE believes that its act of making the Payment should be viewed as an undertaking to give full effect to the business decision it made to resolve the CBOT Lawsuit.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

CBOE does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(iii) of the Act²⁹ and subparagraph (f)(3) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.³⁰ At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The purpose of the proposed rule change is to amend the Options Regulatory Fee to eliminate the minimum one-cent charge per trade. The Exchange notes that the total monthly charges to be assessed in a given month will be rounded to the nearest $0.01. The Exchange believes that by eliminating the one-cent charge per trade this should reduce fees related to the ORF for members.

Currently, the Exchange assesses $.0035 per contract to each member for all options transactions executed or cleared by the member that are cleared by The Options Clearing Corporation ("OCC") in the customer range (i.e., that clear in the customer account of the member's clearing firm at OCC), excluding P/A Orders as defined in the Options Intermarket Linkage Plan ("Linkage").³ The ORF is imposed upon all such transactions executed by a member, even if such transactions do not take place on the Exchange.⁴ The ORF also includes options transactions that are not executed by an Exchange member but are ultimately cleared by an Exchange member. The Exchange charges members $.0035 per contract for all options transactions executed or cleared by the member that are cleared by OCC in the customer range, excluding Linkage P/A Orders, regardless of the marketplace of execution. In the case where one member both executes a transaction and clears the transaction, the ORF is assessed to the member only once on the execution. In the case where one member executes a transaction and a different member clears the transaction, the ORF is assessed only to the member who executes the transaction and is not assessed to the member who clears the transaction. In the case where a non-member executes a transaction and a member clears the transaction, the ORF is assessed to the member who clears the transaction. The ORF is not charged for member options transactions because members incur the costs of owning memberships and through their memberships are charged transaction fees, dues and other fees that are not applicable to non-members.⁵ The dues and fees paid by members go into the general funds of the Exchange, a portion of which is used to help pay the costs of regulation. The ORF is collected indirectly from members through their clearing firms by OCC on behalf of the Exchange. Currently, there is a minimum one-cent charge per trade.⁶

The ORF is designed to recover a portion of the costs to the Exchange of the supervision and regulation of its members, including performing routine surveillances, investigations, examinations, financial monitoring, and policy, rulemaking, interpretive, and enforcement activities. The Exchange believes that revenue generated from the ORF, when combined with all of the Exchange's other regulatory fees, will cover a material portion, but not all, of the Exchange's regulatory costs. The Exchange monitors the amount of revenue collected from the ORF to ensure that it, in combination with its other regulatory fees and fines, does not exceed regulatory costs. If the Exchange determines regulatory revenues would exceed regulatory costs, the Exchange would adjust the ORF by submitting a fee change filing to the Commission.

Presently, the Exchange, in monitoring its revenue, has determined that regulatory revenues may exceed regulatory costs on an annual basis. The Exchange is proposing to adjust the ORF to ensure that it, in combination with its other regulatory fees and fines, does not exceed regulatory costs. The Exchange will continue to monitor the amount of revenue collected from the ORF.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal to amend its schedule of fees is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act⁷ in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(4) of the Act⁸ in particular, in that it is an equitable allocation of reasonable fees and other charges among Exchange members. The Exchange believes that this fee proposal is equitable because it eliminates the minimum one-cent charge per trade and reduces the monthly ORF charge for all members.

⁵ For example, non-broker-dealer customers generally are not charged transaction fees to trade equity options on the Exchange.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were either solicited or received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act⁹ and paragraph (f)(2) of Rule 19b-4¹⁰ thereunder. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

[Release No. 34-61514; File No. SR-BX-2010-013]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; NASDAQ OMX BX, Inc.; Notice of Filing of Proposed Rule Change To Modify Fees for Members Using the NASDAQ OMX BX Equities System

February 12, 2010.

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act"),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on January 29, 2010, NASDAQ OMX BX, Inc. ("BX") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by the Exchange. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

BX is filing a proposed rule change to modify pricing for BX members using the NASDAQ OMX BX Equities System. BX will implement the proposed rule change on February 1, 2010. The text of the proposed rule change is attached as Exhibit 5³ and is available at <http://nasdaqomxbx.cchwallstreet.com>.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, BX included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. BX has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

BX is proposing to modify its fees to execute transactions on the NASDAQ OMX BX Equities System. BX is modifying its fee structure for securities that execute at prices below $1. For these securities, BX currently charges members accessing liquidity a fee equal to 0.1% (10 basis points) of the total transaction cost and provides no credit to members providing liquidity. Under the new fee structure, members accessing liquidity will be charged 0.3% (30 basis points) of the total transaction cost, and members providing liquidity will be provided a credit equal to 0.25% (25 basis points) of the total transaction cost. The change is intended to provide a competitive response to another trading venue that has adopted a similar "maker-taker" pricing structure for securities priced below $1.⁴ The proposal is consistent with the provisions of Rule 610 under Regulation NMS⁵ that govern access fees.

2. Statutory Basis

BX believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act,⁶ in general, and with Section 6(b)(4) of the Act,⁷ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility or system which BX operates or controls. BX is adapting the "maker-taker" pricing model that is prevalent across most U.S. transaction venues for securities priced at $1 or higher and applying it [sic] securities priced below $1. This change is a competitive response to another trading venue that has already introduced this pricing model for low-priced securities. The change will result in a fee increase for firms when they access liquidity in these securities and a fee reduction for firms when they provide liquidity in these stocks. The proposed fee change applies uniformly to all BX members.

The impact of the changes upon the net fees paid by a particular market participant will depend upon the types of stocks that it trades, the order types that it uses, and the prices of its quotes and orders (i.e., its propensity to add or remove liquidity). BX notes that it operates in a highly competitive market in which market participants can readily direct order flow to competing venues if they deem fee levels at a particular venue to be excessive. BX believes that its fees remain competitive with other venues and are reasonable and equitably allocated to those members on the basis of whether they opt to direct orders to BX.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

BX does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received From Members, Participants, or Others
