

must include your name, affiliation, and phone number. If you require a sign language interpreter or other special assistance, please call Jacqueline Hays at (202) 205-9560 or e-mail jacqueline.hays@acf.hhs.gov as soon as possible and no later than 5 p.m. Eastern Time, March 9, 2010.

Agenda: The Commission will discuss: (1) Reports of Subcommittees; (2) Progress on the implementation of Interim Report recommendations; and (3) strategic planning for the development of the October 2010 Report.

Written comments may be submitted electronically to roberta.lavin@acf.hhs.gov with "Public Comment" in the subject line. The Commission recommends that you include your name, mailing address and an e-mail address or other contact information in the body of your comment. This ensures that you can be identified as the submitter of the comment, and it allows the Commission to contact you if further information on the substance of the comment is needed or if your comment cannot be read due to technical difficulties. The Commission's policy is that the Commission will not edit your comment, and any identifying or contact information provided in the body of a comment will be included as part of the comment placed in the official record. The Commission will provide an opportunity for public comments during the public meeting on March 23, 2010. Those wishing to speak will be limited to three minutes each; speakers are encouraged to submit their remarks in writing in advance to ensure their comment is received in case there is inadequate time for all comments to be heard on March 23, 2010.

Additional Information: Contact Roberta Lavin, Office of Human Services Emergency Preparedness and Response, e-mail roberta.lavin@acf.hhs.gov or (202) 401-9306.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The National Commission on Children and Disasters is an independent Commission that shall conduct a comprehensive study to examine and assess the needs of children as they relate to preparation for, response to, and recovery from all hazards, building upon the evaluations of other entities and avoiding unnecessary duplication by reviewing the findings, conclusions, and recommendations of these entities. The Commission shall then submit a report to the President and the Congress on the Commission's independent and specific findings, conclusions, and recommendations to address the needs of children as they relate to preparation for, response to, and recovery from all hazards, including major disasters and emergencies.

Dated: February 22, 2010.

Carmen R. Nazario,

Assistant Secretary for Children and Families.
