[TA–W–70,565; TA–W–70, 565B]

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 27th, 2009, applicable to workers of Hewlett Packard Company, Business Critical Systems, Mission Critical Business Software Division, OpenVMS Operating System Development Group, including employees working off site in New Hampshire, Florida, New Jersey, Colorado and Michigan, Marlborough, Massachusetts. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 5, 2009 (75 FR 57341). The notice was amended on January 14th 2010 to include an employee operating out of the state of Kansas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 1, 2010 (75 FR 5146).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of Hewlett Packard OpenVMS Operating System and related applications.

New information shows that a worker separation has occurred involving an employee in support of the Marlborough, Massachusetts location of Hewlett Packard Company, Business Critical Business Software Division, OpenVMS operating System Development Group, operating out of the state of Michigan. Mr. John Eisenbraun provided engineering supporting the Marlborough, Massachusetts production facility of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include an employee in support of the Marlborough, Massachusetts facility operating out of the state of Michigan.

The intent of the Department’s certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by a shift in production of Hewlett Packard OpenVMS Operating System and related applications to India.

The amended notice applicable to TA–W–70,565 is hereby issued as follows:

Signed at Washington, DC this 1st day of March 2010.

Richard Church,
Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

General Electric Kentucky Glass Plant, Lighting, LLC, Including On-Site Leased Workers From The Patty Tipton Company, Aetna Building Maintenance, and Concentra, Lexington, KY; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 23, 2009, applicable to workers of General Electric Kentucky Glass Plant, Lighting, LLC, including on-site leased workers from The Patty Tipton Company and Aetna Building Maintenance, Lexington, Kentucky. The notice was published in the Federal Register on February 16, 2010 (75 FR 7034).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of glass envelopes for light bulbs.

The company reports that on-site leased workers from Concentra were employed on-site at the Lexington, Kentucky location of General Electric Kentucky Glass Plant, Lighting, LLC. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of the subject firm to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Concentra working on-site at the Lexington, Kentucky location of General Electric Kentucky Glass Plant, Lighting, LLC.
