International Trade Administration
North American Free-Trade Agreement (NAFTA), Article 1904 Binational Panel Reviews
AGENCY: NAFTA Secretariat, United States Section, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.
ACTION: Notice of Decision of Panel.
SUMMARY: On April 14, 2010, the binational panel issued its decision in the review of the final results of the 2004/2005 antidumping administrative review made by the International Trade Administration on certain softline and semi-solids made of asphalt and related materials (‘‘asphalt products’’) from Mexico, published at 75 FR 12106 on February 27, 2010, and the associated counting period. The panel reviewed issues of fact and law, including the sufficiency of evidence. The panel’s decision and summaries of the panel’s views may be obtained from the International Trade Administration, at 1900 E. Street, N.W., Room T9428, Washington, DC 20230. A copy of the decision and summary is available on the Office of Agreements Compliance’s website at http://ita.doc.gov. The panel determined that the final results of the administrative review of the antidumping duty liability of the Mexican importers are consistent with the panel’s interpretation of NAFTA and the rules of law in this case. Therefore, the panel determined that no change to the antidumping duty order is necessary. The panel’s decision is based on a careful review of the information provided by the parties. The panel’s decision was based on the requirement in NAFTA to give due regard to the views of the parties and to adopt a decision consistent with the rules of law. The panel’s decision is consistent with the requirements of NAFTA and the rules of law in this case, and the panel has determined that the final results of the administrative review of the antidumping duty liability of the Mexican importers are consistent with the panel’s interpretations of NAFTA and the rules of law in this case.
