I. Funding Opportunity Description

Authority

Overall grant making authority for this program is contained in the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961, Public Law 87–256, as amended, also known as the Fulbright-Hays Act. The purpose of the Act is “to enable the Government of the United States to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries * * *; to strengthen the ties which unite us with other nations by demonstrating the educational and cultural interests, developments, and achievements of the people of the United States and other nations * * * and thus to assist in the development of friendly, sympathetic and peaceful relations between the United States and the other countries of the world.” The funding authority for the program above is provided through legislation.

Purpose

The goal of the Cultural Visitors Program is to provide foreign artists, arts professionals and foreign youth (aged 15–18 at the time of the exchange) with a special interest in the arts, an opportunity to travel to the United States to participate in intensive thematic and professional exchanges that will strengthen their career potential and deepen their understanding of U.S. society and culture. Specifically, this program will enable participants to:

• Strengthen professional potential through training, workshops and meetings that also provide new contacts and build networks;
• Foster understanding and build relationships with others from different ethnic, religious, and national groups;
• Learn more about U.S. society and culture, thereby countering negative stereotypes;
• Present their own culture to Americans;
• Become part of a network of leaders who will share their knowledge and skills with their peers and the broader community.

The award recipient must provide overall programmatic, logistical, and administrative support for each of approximately 60 foreign visitors for U.S.-based exchanges of approximately 5–30 days. Participants will include foreign educators, social influencers, artists, arts managers, and foreign youth with special interest in the arts.

The Cultural Visitors Program will include participation in American cultural and historic projects developed in cooperation with the National Endowment for Humanities (NEH), as well as individually-designed programs focused on the visual arts, dance, music, drama, film, literature, and other artistic and humanistic genres.

The award recipient will work closely with Cultural Programs Division staff, who will guide them through programmatic, procedural, and budgetary issues for the full range of Cultural Visitor programs. Most projects will start and end in Washington, DC. Other activities will take place at other sites in the United States. The exchange format will be intensive and interactive, weaving together both formal and informal sessions to achieve the stated goals and objectives. Applicants must present program plans that allow the participants to thoroughly explore the themes in a creative, memorable, and practical way. Activities should be designed to be replicable and provide practical knowledge and skills that the participants can apply back in their home country. Staff from the selected organizations will be expected to be available and/or attend certain components of the visitor programs, when necessary and appropriate, and in coordination with ECA.

Programs must contain substantive educational sessions or meetings that focus on program objectives presented by experts. Orientation sessions, meetings, site visits, and other program activities should promote dialogue between participants and their U.S. professional counterparts. Some cultural programs for adult participants may include a home stay or community visit. In a cooperative agreement, ECA/PE/CU is substantially involved in program activities above and beyond routine monitoring. ECA/PE/CU responsibilities for this program are as follows:

• Selection of participants, who can be from any country and any region in the world;
• Participation in the general design and direction of program activities;
• Approval and input on program timelines and agendas;
• Guidance in execution of all program components;
• Review and approval of all program publicity and recruitment materials;
• Approval of decisions related to special circumstances or problems throughout duration of program;
• Management of all SEVIS-related issues, including issuance of DS–2019s for travel to the U.S.;
• Assistance with participant emergencies;
• Liaison with relevant U.S. Embassies and country desk officers at the State Department.

In consultation with ECA, the recipient will:

• Plan and coordinate all aspects of the visits, including generating suggestions for visitors based on their specific area of expertise;
• Arrange and pay for all air travel (domestic and international) and local transportation;
• Enroll participants in USG sponsored health care coverage (ASPE) and issue insurance cards upon arrival;
• Oversee all logistical aspects for the arrival of the visitors to the United States, and their departure;
• Prepare briefing materials;
• Locate, reserve and pay for hotels and/or home stays as applicable;
• Locate, reserve and pay for meeting rooms and/or other facilities;
• Engage appropriate cultural figures and arrange for meetings/events with them;
• Design and plan substantive and well-organized activities;
• Coordinate and pay for escorts and interpreters;
• Provide adult supervision for youth (aged 15–18 at the time of the exchange), including for overnight stays. Minors shall not stay with host families;
• Arrange for orientation and de-briefing sessions.

For purposes of this proposal, please use the following Cultural Visitor program as a model: Two music teachers from Jakarta, Indonesia, working with at-risk youth, will participate in a five-day orientation in Washington, DC and a seven-day individually-designed professional study program in St. Louis, Missouri. Upon the conclusion of their workshop or study program, the two visitors will travel from St. Louis, Missouri to Atlanta, Georgia, where they will experience a three-day home stay, prior to returning to Indonesia. The total length of this program will be 15 days. Program theme is ‘using the arts as a mechanism for dealing with at-risk-youth.’

Proposals must demonstrate how these activities and/or objectives will be met and provide detailed information on major program activities as well as a justification for programmatic choices. Programs must comply with J–1 visa regulations. Please refer to the complete Solicitation Package—this RFGP, the Project Objectives, Goals, and Implementation (POG), and the Proposal Submission Instructions (PSI)—for further information.

For projects involving participants under the age of 18 specifically, please note the following:

The grant recipient must have a clear and careful recruitment, screening, and
III.3. Other Eligibility Requirements

(a) Bureau grant guidelines require that organizations with less than four years experience in conducting international exchanges be limited to $60,000 in Bureau funding. ECA anticipates making an award in an amount of $500,000 to support program and administrative costs required to implement theses exchange programs. Therefore, organizations with less than four years experience in conducting international exchanges are ineligible to apply under this competition. The Bureau encourages applicants to provide maximum levels of cost sharing and funding in support of its programs.

(b) Award recipients must have a Washington, DC presence. Applicants who do not currently have a Washington, DC presence must include a detailed plan in their proposal for establishing such a presence by October 1, 2010. The costs related to establishing such a presence must be borne by the award recipient. No such costs may be included in the budget submission in this proposal. The award recipient must have e-mail capability, access to Internet resources, and the ability to exchange data electronically with all partners involved in the Cultural Visitors Program.

(c) Proposals must demonstrate that an applicant has an established resource base of programming contacts and the ability to keep this resource base continuously updated. This resource base should include speakers, thematic specialists, or practitioners in a wide range of professional fields in both the private and public sectors.

(d) Technical Eligibility: In addition to the requirements outlined in the Proposal Submission Instructions (PSI) technical format and instructions document, all proposals must comply with the following or they will result in your proposal being declared technically ineligible and given no further consideration in the review process. The Office does not support proposals limited to conferences or seminars (i.e., one- to fourteen-day programs with plenary sessions, main speakers, panels, and a passive audience). It will support conferences only when they are a small part of a larger project in duration that is receiving Bureau funding from this competition.

No funding is available exclusively to send U.S. citizens to conferences or conference-type seminars overseas; nor is funding available for bringing foreign nationals to conferences or to routine professional association meetings in the United States.

The Office of Citizen Exchanges does not support academic research or faculty or student fellowships.

Failure to do so will cause your proposal to be declared technically ineligible.

IV.3d. Please take into consideration the following information when preparing your proposal narrative:

IV.3d.1 Adherence to All Regulations Governing the J Visa

The Office of Citizen Exchanges of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs is the official program sponsor of the exchange program covered by this RFPG, and an employee of the Bureau will be the “Responsible Officer” for the program under the terms of 22 CFR 62, which covers the administration of the Exchange Visitor Program (J visa program). Under the terms of 22 CFR 62, organizations receiving awards (either a grant or cooperative agreement) under this RFGP will be third parties “cooperating with or assisting the sponsor in the conduct of the sponsor’s program.” The actions of recipient organizations shall be “imputed to the sponsor in evaluating the sponsor’s compliance with” 22 CFR 62. Therefore, the Bureau expects that any organization receiving an award under this competition will render all assistance necessary to enable the Bureau to fully comply with 22 CFR 62 et seq.

The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs places critically important emphases on the secure and proper administration of Exchange Visitor (J visa) Programs and adherence by recipient organizations and program participants to all regulations governing the J visa program status. Therefore, proposals should explicitly state in writing that the applicant is prepared to assist the Bureau in meeting all requirements governing the administration of Exchange Visitor Programs as set forth in 22 CFR 62. If your organization has experience as a designated Exchange Visitor Program Sponsor, the applicant should discuss their record of compliance with 22 CFR 62 et seq., including the oversight of their Responsible Officers and Alternate Responsible Officers, screening and selection of program participants, provision of pre-arrival information and orientation to participants, monitoring of participants, proper maintenance and security of forms, record-keeping, reporting and other requirements.

The Office of Citizen Exchanges of ECA will be responsible for issuing DS–2019 forms to participants in this program.

IV.3d.2 Diversity, Freedom and Democracy Guidelines

Pursuant to the Bureau’s authorizing legislation, programs must maintain a non-political character and should be balanced and representative of the diversity of American political, social, and cultural life. “Diversity” should be interpreted in the broadest sense and encompass differences including, but not limited to ethnicity, race, gender, religion, geographic location, socioeconomic status, and disabilities. Applicants are strongly encouraged to adhere to the advancement of this principle both in program administration and in program content. Please refer to the review criteria under the “Support for Diversity” section for specific suggestions on incorporating diversity into your proposal. Public Law 104–319 provides that “in carrying out programs of educational and cultural exchange in countries whose people do not fully enjoy freedom and democracy,” the Bureau “shall take appropriate steps to provide opportunities for participation in such programs to human rights and democracy leaders of such countries.” Public Law 106–113 requires that the governments of the countries described above do not have inappropriate influence in the selection process. Proposals should reflect advancement of these goals in their program contents, to the full extent deemed feasible.

IV.3d.3. Program Monitoring and Evaluation

Proposals must include a plan to monitor and evaluate the project’s success both as the activities unfold and at the end of the program. The Bureau recommends that your proposal include a draft survey questionnaire or other technique plus a description of a methodology to use to link outcomes to original project objectives. The Bureau expects that the recipient organization will track participants or partners and be able to respond to key evaluation questions, including satisfaction with the program, learning as a result of the program, changes in behavior as a result of the program, and effects of the program on institutions (institutions in which participants work or partner institutions). The evaluation plan should include indicators that measure gains in mutual understanding as well as substantive knowledge.

Successful monitoring and evaluation depend heavily on setting clear goals and outcomes at the outset of a program. Your evaluation plan should include a description of your project’s objectives, your anticipated project outcomes, and how and when you intend to measure these outcomes (performance indicators). The more that outcomes are “smart” (specific, measurable, attainable, results-oriented, and placed in a reasonable timeframe), the easier it will be to conduct the evaluation. You should also show how your project objectives link to the goals of the program described in this RFGP.

Your monitoring and evaluation plan should clearly distinguish between program outputs and outcomes. Outputs are products and services delivered, often stated as an amount. Output information is important to show the scope or size of project activities, but it cannot substitute for information about progress towards outcomes or the results achieved. Examples of outputs include the number of people trained or the number of seminars conducted. Outcomes, in contrast, represent specific results a project is intended to achieve and is usually measured as an extent of change. Findings on outputs and outcomes should both be reported, but the focus should be on outcomes.

We encourage you to assess the following four levels of outcomes, as they relate to the program goals set out in the RFGP (listed here in increasing order of importance):

1. Participant satisfaction with the program and exchange experience.
2. Participant learning, such as increased knowledge, aptitude, skills, and changed understanding and attitude. Learning includes both substantive (subject-specific) learning and mutual understanding.
3. Participant behavior, demonstrating concrete actions to apply knowledge in work or community; greater participation and responsibility in civic organizations; interpretation and explanation of experiences and new knowledge gained; continued contacts between participants, community members, and others.
4. Institutional changes, such as increased collaboration and partnerships, policy reforms, new programming, and organizational improvements.

Please note: Consideration should be given to the appropriate timing of data collection for each level of outcome. For example, satisfaction is usually captured as a short-term outcome, whereas behavior and institutional changes are normally considered longer-term outcomes.

Overall, the quality of your monitoring and evaluation plan will be judged on how well it (1) specifies intended outcomes; (2) gives clear descriptions of how each outcome will be measured; (3) identifies when particular outcomes will be measured; and (4) provides a clear description of the data collection strategies for each outcome (i.e., surveys, interviews, or focus groups). (Please note that evaluation plans that deal only with the first level of outcomes [satisfaction] will be deemed less competitive under the present evaluation criteria.)

Recipient organizations will be required to provide reports analyzing their evaluation findings to the Bureau in their regular program reports. All data collected, including survey responses and contact information, must be maintained for a minimum of three years and provided to the Bureau upon request.

IV.3e. Please Take the Following Information Into Consideration When Preparing Your Budget

IV.3e.1. Applicants must submit SF–424A—“Budget Information—Non-Construction Programs” along with a comprehensive budget for the entire program. The award request may not exceed $500,000. There must be a summary budget as well as breakdowns reflecting both administrative and program budgets. Applicants may provide separate sub-budgets for each program component, phase, location, or activity to provide clarification.

IV.3e.2. Allowable costs for the program include the following:

1. Educational materials;
2. Participant travel (domestic, local, and in some cases, international, transportation);
3. Orientations and debriefings;
4. Cultural and social activities;
5. Meeting costs;
6. Food and lodging;
7. Interpreters and translation, when necessary;
8. Follow-on activities;
9. Evaluation;
10. Stipends or allowances;
11. Other justifiable expenses directly related to supporting program activities.
