SUMMARY: In accordance with requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the FDIC may not conduct or sponsor, and the respondent is not required to respond to, an information collection unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget (OMB) control number. The FDIC, as part of its continuing effort to reduce paperwork and respondent burden, invites the general public and other Federal agencies to take this opportunity to comment on the renewal of existing information collections, as required by the PRA. On February 23, 2010 (75 FR 8076), the FDIC solicited public comment for a 60-day period on renewal of the following information collection: Occasional Qualitative Surveys information collection (OMB No. 3064–0127). One comment was received. (A customer apparently complained to a bank and thanked the FDIC for its support.) Therefore, the FDIC hereby gives notice of submission of its request for renewal to OMB for review.

DATES: Comments must be submitted on or before July 6, 2010.
