Needs and Uses: The Department of Defense Comprehensive Review Working Group (CRWG) is the working group the Secretary of Defense directed to examine the issues associated with a repeal of the law known as "Don't Ask, Don't Tell." The CRWG is studying what impact, if any, repeal would have on military readiness, military effectiveness, unit cohesion, recruiting, retention, and family readiness. As part of these efforts, the CRWG will also look at how best to manage any impacts during implementation. The survey and focus groups are an opportunity for the families of service members to share their feelings on the issue with the CRWG and the military's senior leadership. The survey and focus groups are a critical part of the CRWG's efforts as military families are an essential part of the military community and their reactions to the repeal of "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" could have significant influence on the behavior of their spouses and the impact of repeal on recruiting, retention, and family readiness.

Affected Public: Individuals or households.

Frequency: One-time.

Respondent's Obligation: Voluntary.

Dated: June 4, 2010.
