Plastic Omnium Automotive Exteriors, LLC, Anderson, SC; Plastic Omnium Automotive Exteriors, LLC, Troy, MI; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on March 18, 2010, applicable to workers of Plastic Omnium Automotive Exteriors, LLC, Anderson, South Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register April 23, 2010 (75 FR 21356). The workers are engaged in the production of automotive parts.

New information shows that worker separations have occurred involving workers in support of the Anderson, South Carolina location of Plastic Omnium Automotive Exteriors, LLC, working out of Troy, Michigan. The workers provided office, engineering and sales services supporting the Anderson, South Carolina production facility of the subject firm.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers in support of the Anderson, South Carolina facility working out of Troy, Michigan.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected as suppliers of component parts to be incorporated into automotive vehicles to a firm that employed a worker group who is covered by an active Trade Adjustment Assistance Certification.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-73,230 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Plastic Omnium Automotive Exteriors, LLC, Anderson, South Carolina (TA-W-73,230), and Troy, Michigan (TA-W-73,230A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 6, 2009 through March 18, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended."

Signed in Washington, DC this 4th day of June, 2010.

Circuit Science, Inc., Including Workers Whose Unemployment Insurance (UI) Wages Are Reported Through Circuit Test; Plymouth, MN; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on November 30, 2009, applicable to workers of Circuit Science, Inc., Plymouth, Minnesota. The notice was published in the Federal Register on January 25, 2010 (75 FR 3929).

At the request of the state, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produced rigid printed circuit boards.

New information shows that Circuit Science, Inc. purchased Circuit Test and that some workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separated unemployment insurance (UI) tax account under the name Circuit Test.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by increased imports of rigid printed circuit boards.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-70,437 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Circuit Science, Inc., including workers whose unemployment insurance (UI) wages are reported through Circuit, Plymouth, Minnesota, who became totally or partially separated from who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 20, 2008 through November 30, 2011, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 27th day of May 2010.
