limitations of the land and potential effects of local regulations and policies on potential future land uses. Through publication of this notice, the BLM advises that these assumptions may not be endorsed or approved by units of local government. It is the buyer’s responsibility to be aware of all applicable Federal, State, and local government laws, regulations, and policies that may affect the subject lands, including any required dedication of lands for public uses. It is the buyer’s responsibility to be aware of existing or projected use of nearby properties. When conveyed out of Federal ownership, the land will be subject to any applicable laws, regulations, and policies of the applicable local government for proposed future uses. It will be the responsibility of the purchaser to be aware through due diligence of those laws, regulations, and policies, and to seek any required local approvals for future uses. Buyers should also make themselves aware of any Federal or State law or regulation that may impact the future use of the property. Any land lacking access from a public road or highway will be conveyed as such, and future access acquisition will be the responsibility of the buyer. The parcel proposed for sale was analyzed in the BLM Farmington Resource Management Plan and Final Environmental Impact Statement dated March 2003. This was approved as the Resource Management Plan in the Record of Decision signed September 29, 2003, which is available for review at the BLM Farmington Field Office. The parcel identified in this Notice was analyzed in an Environmental Assessment (EA) for the sale.

Information concerning the sale, appraisals, reservations, sale procedures and conditions, CERCLA, maps delineating the individual sale parcel, the FMV of the parcel, EA, and other environmental documents are available for review at the Farmington Field Office, or by contacting Albert Gonzales at (505) 599–6324.

Public comments: The parcel of land will not be offered for sale before 60 days have elapsed after the publication of this notice. For a period until October 25, 2010, interested parties may submit written comments to the BLM Farmington Field Office. Only written comments submitted by postal service or other delivery service will be considered as properly filed. Electronic mail, facsimile, or telephone comments will not be considered as properly filed. Before including your address, phone number, e-mail address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Any adverse comments regarding the proposed sale will be reviewed by the BLM New Mexico State Director, who may sustain, vacate, or modify this realty action. In the absence of any adverse comments, this realty action will become the final determination of the Department of the Interior.
