Title: Rules Authorizing the Operation of Low Power Auxiliary Stations (including Wireless Microphones).

Form No.: N/A.

Estimated Annual Burden: 127,500 responses; 31,875 total annual hours; .25 hours per response.

Needs and Uses: In the Report and Order¹ in WT Docket No. 08-166, WT Docket No. 08-167, ET Docket No. 10-24, FCC 10-16, adopted January 14, 2010 and released on January 15, 2010, the Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") modified the rules authorizing the operation of low power auxiliary stations (wireless microphones). The Report and Order requires all wireless microphones to cease operations in the 700 MHz Band (698-806 MHz) no later than June 12, 2010, making the band available for use by public safety entities such as police, fire, emergency services, and commercial licensees.

To effectuate the Commission's plan to clear wireless microphones from the 700 MHz Band, the Report and Order provides an early clearing mechanism for the 700 MHz Band; requires that any person who manufactures wireless microphones or sells, leases, or offers them for sale or lease must display a disclosure at the point of sale or lease that informs consumers of the conditions that apply to the operation of wireless microphones in the core TV bands; and requires any person who manufactures, sells, leases, or offers for sale or lease, wireless microphones capable of operating in the 700 MHz Band that are destined for non U.S. markets, to include labeling that makes clear that the devices cannot be operated in the United States.

On January 22, 2010, the Commission requested emergency approval of the information collection requirements from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB).² On February 17, 2010, the Commission received OMB approval.³ The OMB control number for this collection is 3060-1135.
