

consider scientific and ethical issues surrounding these topics:

a. A proposal for new research to be conducted by Carroll-Loye Biological Research to evaluate in the field the repellent efficacy against mosquitoes of a registered product containing 16% para-methane-3,8-diol and 2% lemongrass oil. EPA requests the advice of the HSRB concerning whether, if the protocol is revised as suggested in EPA's review and if it is performed as described, this research is likely to generate scientifically reliable data, useful for assessing the efficacy of the tested material in repelling mosquitoes, and to meet the applicable requirements of 40 CFR part 26, subparts K and L.

b. A new scenario design and associated protocol from the Agricultural Handler Exposure Task Force (AHETF) describing proposed research to measure dermal and inhalation exposure to applicators who use backpack sprayers or hand gun sprayers to apply pesticides in utility rights-of-way. EPA requests the advice of the HSRB concerning whether, if it is revised as suggested in EPA's review and if it is performed as described, this research is likely to generate scientifically reliable data, useful for assessing the exposure of those who apply pesticides in utility rights-of-way with backpack sprayers or hand gun sprayers, and to meet the applicable requirements of 40 CFR part 26, subparts K and L.

c. A revised scenario design and associated protocol from the Agricultural Handler Exposure Task Force (AHETF) describing proposed research to monitor exposure of workers who mix and load pesticides formulated as wettable powders in water-soluble packaging. This scenario was previously reviewed favorably by the HSRB in June 2009, but has since been revised to use different surrogate chemicals. These changes forced other revisions in turn; the proposed changes, taken together, are significant enough to warrant a new review by the HSRB. EPA requests the advice of the HSRB concerning whether, if it is revised as suggested in EPA's review and if it is performed as described, this research is likely to generate scientifically reliable data, useful for assessing the exposure of those who mix and load pesticides formulated as wettable powders in water-soluble packaging, and to meet the applicable requirements of 40 CFR part 26, subparts K and L.

d. The report of a completed scenario monograph and study report from the Antimicrobial Exposure Assessment Task Force II (AEATF-II) in which the dermal and inhalation exposure of professional janitorial workers was monitored as they applied liquid antimicrobial products to indoor floors using a bucket and mop. EPA seeks the advice of the HSRB on the scientific soundness of this completed research and on its appropriateness for use in estimating the exposure of professional janitorial workers who apply antimicrobial floor-cleaning products with mops, and on whether available information supports a determination that the study was conducted in substantial compliance with subparts K and L of 40 CFR Part 26.

2. Meeting minutes and reports. Minutes of the meeting, summarizing the matters discussed and recommendations, if any, made by the advisory committee regarding such matters, will be released within 90 calendar days of the meeting. Such minutes will be available at <http://www.epa.gov/osa/hsrb/> and <http://www.regulations.gov>. In addition, information concerning a Board meeting report, if applicable, can be found at <http://www.epa.gov/osa/hsrb/> or from the person listed under FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.

III. Cancellation Order

Pursuant to FIFRA section 3, EPA hereby announces the expiration of chloroneb registrations identified in Table 1 of Unit II. This cancellation order announces the October 31, 2010, expiration of certain time-limited registrations. The cancellation order issued in this notice includes the following existing stock provisions.

The registrant may continue to sell or distribute existing stocks of chloroneb products identified in Table 1 of Unit II, until October 31, 2011, which is 1 year after the expiration of the time-limited
