Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Meeting of the Task Force on Community Preventive Services

AGENCY: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

ACTION: Notice of meeting.

SUMMARY: The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announces the next meeting of the Task Force on Community Preventive Services (Task Force). The Task Force is an independent, nonfederal body of nationally known leaders in public health practice, policy, and research who are appointed by the CDC Director. The Task Force was convened in 1996 by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to assess the effectiveness of community, environmental, population, and healthcare system interventions in public health and health promotion. During this meeting the Task Force will consider the findings of systematic reviews and issue recommendations and findings to help inform decision making about policy, practice, and research in a wide range of U.S. settings. The Task Force's recommendations, along with the systematic reviews of the scientific evidence on which they are based, are compiled in the Guide to Community Preventive Services (Community Guide).

DATES: The meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 20, 2010 from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., MDT and Thursday, October 21, 2010 from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., MDT.

ADDRESSES: The meeting will be held at the Curtis Hotel, 1405 Curtis Street, Denver, Colorado 80202, phone (303) 571-0300.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Freda Parker, Division of Community Preventive Services, Epidemiology and Analysis Program Office, Office of Surveillance, Epidemiology, and Laboratory Services, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 1600 Clifton Road, Atlanta, Georgia 30333, phone: (404) 498-1119, e-mail: communityguide@cdc.gov.

Purpose: The Task Force is meeting to consider findings of reviews and issue recommendations and findings to help inform decision makers about policy, practice, and research in a wide range of U.S. settings.

Matters To Be Discussed: Effectiveness of: Health Communication Campaigns with Product Distribution to Improve Health Behaviors; Responsible Beverage Service (RBS) Training to Decrease Underage Drinking and Excessive Alcohol Consumption; Health Care System-Based Interventions Implemented in Combination to Increase Vaccination Rates; Economic evaluation of Immunization Information Systems; Proposals regarding use of an Existing Review of Early Childhood Education; and Prioritization of Reviews of Tobacco Prevention. Agenda items are subject to change as priorities dictate.

Meeting Accessibility: This meeting is open to the public, limited only by space available.

Dated: October 12, 2010.

Tanja Popovic,

Deputy Associate Director for Science, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Specifically: (1) Provides leadership, coordination, and advancement of global health activities relating to health care services for vulnerable and at-risk populations and for training programs for health professionals; (2) provides support for the Agency's International Visitors Program; and (3) provides leadership within HRSA for the support of global health and coordinates policy development with the Office of Global Health Affairs (OGHA) and other departmental agencies.

Office of Strategic Priorities (RA13)

Serves as the principal advisor to the Administrator on major health priorities including, but not limited to oral and mental health. Specifically: (1) Provides leadership and coordination to improve oral and behavioral health infrastructure, delivery, and systems of care; (2) establishes short-term and long-term goals and objectives to improve the quality of oral and behavioral health care; (3) collaborates with other departmental and Federal agencies to promote oral and behavioral health by building public-private partnerships; (4) coordinates oral and behavioral health activities across HRSA programs; and (5) establishes program goals, objectives and priorities to improve oral and behavioral health status and outcomes to eliminate disparities.

Office of Health Information Technology and Quality (RA14)

Serves as the principal advisor and coordinator to the Agency for health information technology and quality. Specifically: (1) Provides support, policy direction, and leadership for HRSA's health quality efforts; (2) serves as the focal point for developing policy to promote the coordination and advancement of health information technology, including telehealth to HRSA's programs, including the use of electronic health record systems; (3) develops an Agency-wide health information technology and telehealth strategy for HRSA; (4) assists HRSA components in program-level health information technology and health quality efforts; (5) ensures successful dissemination of appropriate information technology advances, such as electronic health records systems, to HRSA programs; (6) works collaboratively with States, foundations, national organizations, private sector providers, as well as departmental agencies and other Federal departments in order to promote the adoption of health information technology and health quality policy; (7) ensures the health information technology policy and activities of HRSA are coordinated with those of other HHS components; (8) assesses the impact of health information technology and quality initiatives in the community, especially for the uninsured, underserved, and special needs populations; (9) translates technological advances in health information technology to HRSA's programs; (10) provides guidance in using the results of the medical claims review process to HRSA programs to improve quality; and (11) provides support for the Department's Medical Claims Review Panel.

Office of Emergency Preparedness and Continuity of Operations (RA15)

(1) Coordinates HRSA activities related to emergency preparedness planning and policy; (2) oversees the HRSA Emergency Operations Center; (3) serves as HRSA's liaison to HHS and interagency partners on emergency preparedness matters; (4) coordinates HRSA continuity of operations and continuity of Government activities and maintains HRSA's Alternate Operating Facilities; (5) provides guidance on workforce health protection issues for emergencies and disasters; (6) ensures HRSA's commissioned corps is ready to respond to public health challenges and emergencies identified by the Secretary; and (7) in conjunction with the Office of Force Readiness and Deployment, ensures the readiness and deployment capability of officers assigned to HRSA.

Section RA-30, Delegations of Authority

All delegations of authority and re-delegations of authority made to HRSA officials that were in effect immediately prior to this reorganization, and that are consistent with this reorganization, shall continue in effect pending further re-delegation.

This reorganization is upon date of signature.

Dated: October 8, 2010.

Mary K. Wakefield,
Administrator.
