

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The following list identifies correspondence from the Department issued from April 1, 2010 through June 30, 2010. Included on the list are those letters that contain interpretations of the requirements of the IDEA and its implementing regulations, as well as letters and other documents that the Department believes will assist the public in understanding the requirements of the law and its regulations. The date of and topic addressed by each letter are identified, and summary information is also provided, as appropriate. To protect the privacy interests of the individual or individuals involved, personally identifiable information has been redacted, as appropriate.

Part B—Assistance for Education of All Children With Disabilities

Section 612—State Eligibility

Topic Addressed: Free Appropriate Public Education

o Letter dated May 14, 2010 to New York State Education Department Vocational and Educational Services for Individuals with Disabilities Deputy Commissioner Rebecca Cort, regarding whether there is a relationship between General Education Development (GED) programs and free appropriate public education (FAPE) requirements.

Topic Addressed: Children in Private Schools

o Letter dated May 5, 2010 to Maryland attorney Jerrold Miller, regarding the limitation on a parent's right to reimbursement for the cost of his or her child's private school placement when FAPE is at issue.

Topic Addressed: State Educational Agency General Supervisory Authority

o Letter dated June 9, 2010 to Maryland attorney Eric Broussard, clarifying that a State determines the form of documentation necessary to show that public agencies are in compliance with individualized education program (IEP) requirements.

Topic Addressed: Maintenance of State Financial Support

o Letter dated June 14, 2010 to National Association of State Directors of Special Education Executive Director Bill East, reiterating that the calculation of State financial support for special education and related services for children with disabilities includes financial support made available by agencies other than the State educational agency.

o Letter dated June 30, 2010 to Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education Division of Special Education Assistant Commissioner Heidi Atkins-Lieberman, clarifying that a State that decides to discontinue participation in the IDEA section 619 program may not reduce State financial support for special education and related services for children with disabilities.

Section 613—Local Educational Agency Eligibility

Topic Addressed: Maintenance of Effort

o Letter dated June 28, 2010 to individual (personally identifiable information redacted), clarifying local educational agency maintenance of fiscal effort requirements.

Topic Addressed: Use of Federal Funds

o Letter dated June 1, 2010 to Michigan Department of Education Office of Special Education and Early Intervention Services official John Andrejack, clarifying requirements for expending the proportionate amount of Part B, IDEA funds for equitable services, use of funds for coordinated early intervening services, and local maintenance of effort.

Section 614—Evaluations, Eligibility Determinations, Individualized Education Programs, and Educational Placements

Topic Addressed: Evaluations, Parental Consent, and Reevaluations

o Letter dated June 2, 2010 to Head Start/Hilton Foundation Training Program SpecialQuest Birth-Five Director Linda Brekken, regarding whether the response to intervention requirements in Part B of the IDEA are applicable to children ages three through five enrolled in Head Start programs.

o Letter dated June 3, 2010 to Missouri attorney Deborah S. Johnson, regarding the definition of consent in the regulations implementing Part B of the IDEA.

[Docket No. EL10-84-001]

Californians for Renewable Energy, Inc. (CARE) v. Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Southern California Edison Company, San Diego Gas & Electric Company, California Public Utilities Commission; Notice of Amended Complaint

October 21, 2010,

Take notice that on October 20, 2010, pursuant to Rules 212 and 215 of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's (Commission) Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.212 and 18 CFR 385.215, Californians for Renewable Energy, Inc. (Complainant) filed an amendment to its September 1, 2010 filed complaint against Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Southern California Edison Company, San Diego Gas & Electric Company, and the California Public Utilities Commission (Collectively Respondents), alleging that the Respondents are violating the Federal Power Act by approving contracts for capacity and energy that exceeds the utilities' avoided cost cap etc.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. The Respondent's answer and all interventions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. The Respondent's answer, motions to intervene, and protests must be served on the Complainants.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the “eFiling” link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the “eLibrary” link and is available for review in the Commission’s Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an “eSubscription” link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s).
