SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Hoffmann-La Roche Inc. has requested that FDA withdraw approval of NDA 18–662, ACCUTANE (isotretinoin) Capsules, under the process in § 314.150(c) [21 CFR 314.150(c)], stating that the drug product is no longer marketed. Hoffmann-La Roche Inc. has also, by its request, waived its opportunity for a hearing. Withdrawal of approval of an application under § 314.150(c) is without prejudice to refiling.

Therefore, under section 505(e) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (the FD&C Act) [21 U.S.C. 355(e)] and under authority delegated to the Director, Center for Drug Evaluation and Research, by the Commissioner of Food and Drugs, approval of NDA 18–662, ACCUTANE (isotretinoin) Capsules, and all amendments and supplements thereto, is hereby withdrawn, effective November 22, 2010. Introduction or delivery for introduction into interstate commerce of a product without an approved application violates sections 301(a) and (d) of the FD&C Act [21 U.S.C. 331(a) and (d)]. ACCUTANE (isotretinoin) Capsules that are in inventory on the date that this notice becomes effective (see the DATES section) may continue to be dispensed until the inventories have been depleted or the drug product has reached its expiration date or otherwise become violative, whichever occurs first.

In the Federal Register of July 7, 2010 (75 FR 39024), FDA issued a notice announcing its determination that ACCUTANE (isotretinoin) Capsules were not withdrawn from sale for reasons of safety or effectiveness, and isotretinoin continues to be marketed under approved abbreviated new drug applications (ANDAs). The holders of ANDAs for isotretinoin are subject to an approved risk evaluation and mitigation strategy (REMS) under section 505–1 of the FD&C Act (21 U.S.C. 355–1), and the REMS, known as the iPLEDGE program, remains in effect.

Dated: November 2, 2010.

Janet Woodcock,
Director, Center for Drug Evaluation and Research.

Public Meetings of National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) Reform Effort; Correction

AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency, DHS.

ACTION: Announcement of Public Meetings; correction.

SUMMARY: The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) published a document in the Federal Register on November 10, 2010 (75 FR 69096), announcing two public meetings. The document contained an incorrect e-mail address. Due to the incorrect e-mail address, FEMA is lengthening the amount of time that the public has to contact FEMA to request special accommodations. FEMA has chosen to republish the corrected notice in its entirety. This notice announces two public meetings of the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) Reform Effort. In performing its mission, FEMA believes it is important to continually update stakeholders on its programs and answer any questions and listen to comments from them on how its programs can be more efficient and effective at meeting the needs of the public. To this end, FEMA has engaged in a comprehensive reform effort to address the concerns of the wide array of stakeholders involved in the ongoing debate about the NFIP. FEMA chose a participatory policy analysis framework to guide the NFIP Reform effort. Policy analysis employs systematic inquiry and evaluation to assess policy alternatives. The participatory policy analysis process allows public decisions to be made in a structured, defensible, and collaborative manner.

The effort is comprised of three phases designed to engage the greatest number of stakeholders and consider the largest breadth of public policy options. Phase I focused on the capture and analysis of stakeholder concerns and recommendations. During Phase II, FEMA performed additional analysis of existing data and identified a set of evaluation criteria. In Phase III, a portfolio of public policy alternatives is being developed and will be analyzed using the evaluation criteria. The resulting recommendations will be reported to FEMA leadership. The purpose of the public meetings is to describe, update, and explain straw man policy alternatives and to answer questions and listen to comments from interested stakeholders. Additional information on the straw man policy alternatives has been made available prior to the meeting via the NFIP Reform website and has been posted to Docket ID: FEMA–2010–0065.

In addition, through these public meetings, FEMA will accept stakeholder input of the policy evaluation process through the use of a pair-wise comparison method. The pair-wise tool is also available via the NFIP Reform Web site at http://www.fema.gov/business/nfip/nfip_reform.shtm. The straw man policy alternatives have been posted to Docket ID: FEMA–2010–0065. Comments received will also be posted without alteration at http://www.regulations.gov, including any personal information provided. You may want to read the Privacy Act Notice located on the Privacy and Use Notice link on the Administration Navigation Bar of the Web site http://www.regulations.gov.

Docket: For access to the docket to read documents or comments received by FEMA, go to http://www.regulations.gov. The straw man policy alternatives have been posted to Docket ID: FEMA–2010–0065.

Special Accommodations: For anyone attending the meeting who is hearing or visually impaired, or who requires special assistance or accommodations, please contact Jason “Tommy” Kennedy by November 29, 2010. For further information, please contact Mr. Kennedy by telephone at 202–646–3779. Meeting Locations: The first public meeting will be held in Washington, DC, at the Washington Marriott at Metro Center, 775 12th Street NW., Washington, DC. The second public meeting will be held in Denver, Colorado at the Denver Federal Center, Building 810—Entrance W–5, Denver, CO.

Meeting Accessibility: Due to space constraints of the facilities, seating will be limited to 200 participants. To reserve a seat in advance, please provide a request via email or mail with the contact information of the participant (including name, mailing address, and e-mail address), the meeting(s) to be attended, and include the subject/attention line (or on the envelope if by mail): Reservation Request for NFIP Reform Meeting. Advance reservations must be received 3 business days prior to the meeting to ensure processing. Unregistered participants will be accepted after all participants with reservations have been accommodated and will be admitted on a first-come, first-serve basis, provided the 200 person capacity is not exceeded. To submit reservations, please email: FEMA–NFIP–REFORM@dhs.gov or send by mail to the address listed in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT caption.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
