Supplementary Information:

I. Background

Recently a number of legislative proposals have been introduced in Congress setting out various approaches to reducing carbon emissions. Some of the proposals contain a market-based policy instrument. Various forms of carbon markets have also been established internationally as well as domestically. Some of the examples of those markets are the European Union Emission Trading Scheme, the Clean Development Mechanism, and the Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative. In addition, markets exist in the U.S. for the trading of sulfur dioxide allowances under the EPA Acid Rain program and nitrogen oxide under the EPA NO\textsubscript{X} Trading program. The CFTC also oversees the derivative trading of a number of environmental instruments on the Chicago Climate Futures Exchange and the Green Exchange.\textsuperscript{1} Under the various bills, different proposals have been set forth with respect to the oversight of a carbon market that would be established in those bills.

On July 21, 2010 the Dodd-Frank Act was enacted.\textsuperscript{2} Section 750 of the Act establishes an interagency working group to study the oversight of existing and prospective carbon markets. The interagency group is composed of the following members or designees: The Chairman of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, who shall serve as the Chairman of the interagency group, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency, the Chairman of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission \textsuperscript{3} and the Administrator of the Energy Information Administration. The Dodd-Frank Act directs the interagency group to “conduct a study on the oversight of existing and prospective carbon markets to ensure an efficient, secure, and transparent carbon market, including oversight of spot markets and derivative markets.” In carrying out this study, the Act also directs the interagency group to consult with representatives of exchanges, clearinghouses, self-regulatory bodies, major carbon market participants, consumers and the general public, as the interagency group determines is appropriate. Finally, the Act requires the interagency group to submit to Congress a report, no later than 180 days after the date of enactment of the Act, on the results of the study, including recommendations regarding such oversight.

II. Solicitation for Comments on the Study on Oversight of Carbon Markets

To assist the interagency group in conducting the study on oversight of a carbon market, the CFTC seeks public comment on the following topics and questions:

1. Section 750 of the Dodd-Frank Act requires to what extent, if any, and how should a U.S. regulatory program interact with the regulatory programs of carbon markets in foreign jurisdictions?

2. To what extent would it desirable to have a unified regulatory oversight program that would oversee activity in both the secondary carbon market and in the derivatives markets?

3. To what extent would a U.S. regulatory program interact with the regulatory programs of carbon markets in foreign jurisdictions?

4. Whether the desired regulatory objectives differ with respect to the oversight of spot market trading of carbon allowances compared to the oversight of derivatives market trading in those instruments? If so, explain further.

5. What types of data or information should be required of market participants in order to allow adequate oversight of a carbon market?

6. What types of data or information should be required of market participants in order to allow adequate oversight of a carbon market?

7. What types of data or information should be required of market participants in order to allow adequate oversight of a carbon market?

8. What types of data or information should be required of market participants in order to allow adequate oversight of a carbon market?

9. What types of data or information should be required of market participants in order to allow adequate oversight of a carbon market?

10. Based on trading experiences in SO\textsubscript{2} and NO\textsubscript{X} emission allowances what regulatory oversight would market participants and the CFTC, respectively, recommend?

11. Who are the primary participants in the current primary environmental markets? Who are the primary participants in the current secondary allowance and derivatives environmental markets?

III. Paperwork Reduction Act

Pursuant to the Office of Management and Budget (“OMB”) Regulation 5 CFR 1320.3(b)(4), this Notice and request for comment published in the Federal Register, which requests general public comment, does not include a collection of information that would require OMB approval. Accordingly, the Paperwork Reduction Act does not apply.

Issued in Washington, DC, on November 19, 2010 by the Commission.

Sauntia S. Warfield, Assistant Secretary of the Commission.
