[Docket No. PR08-28-002]

Calpine Texas Pipeline, L.P.; Notice of Motion for Extension of Rate Case Filing Deadline

November 18, 2010.

Take notice that on November 10, 2010, Calpine Texas Pipeline, L.P. (Calpine Texas) filed a motion to extend the date for filing its next rate case to August 22, 2013. Calpine Texas states that in Order No. 735 the Commission modified its policy concerning periodic reviews of rates charges by section 311 and Hinshaw pipelines to extend the cycle for such reviews from three to five years.¹ Therefore, Calpine Texas requests that the date for Calpine Texas' next rate filing be extended to August 22, 2013, which is five years from the date of Calpine Texas' most recent rate filing with this Commission.

Any person desiring to participate in this rate proceeding must file a motion to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the date as indicated below. Anyone filing an intervention or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. Anyone filing an intervention or protest on or before the intervention or protest date need not serve motions to intervene or protests on persons other than the Applicant.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 7 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible online at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public

Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s). National Gas Supply Association, American Forest and Paper Association, Inc., American Public Gas Association, Independent Petroleum Association of America, Process Gas Consumers Group; Notice of Petition

November 19, 2010.

Take notice that on November 17, 2010, the Natural Gas Supply Association, American Forest and Paper Association, Inc., American Public Gas Association, Independent Petroleum Association of America, and Process Gas Consumers Group (collectively, the Associations), filed in Docket No. RP11-1538-000, a petition pursuant to Rule 207(a)(5) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, requesting that the Commission exercise its authority under section 5 of the Natural Gas Act to enforce its policy regarding pipeline reservation charge crediting during outages and order pipelines to amend their tariffs in accordance with Commission policy.

Specifically, the Associations ask the Commission to ensure that: (1) All pipelines incorporate into their tariffs an acceptable sharing mechanism that allows for partial reservation charge credits during outages that are due to unexpected and uncontrollable force majeure events, and (2) all pipeline tariffs require full reservation charge credits to shippers during outages that are not due to unexpected and uncontrollable force majeure events.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest in this proceeding must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214) on or before 5 p.m. Eastern time on the specified comment date. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant. In reference to filings initiating a new proceeding, interventions or protests submitted on or before the comment deadline need not be served on persons other than the Applicant.
