Zach System Corporation a
Subdivision of Zambon Company, SPA
Including On-Site Leased Workers of
Turner Industries and Go Johnson, La
Porte, TX; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for
Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 1, 2010, applicable to workers of Zach System Corporation, a subdivision of Zach System SPA, La Porte, Texas, including on-site leased workers from Turner Industries and Go Johnson, La Porte, Texas. The Department's notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on October 15, 2010 (75 FR 63511).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the manufacture of pharmaceutical catalysts and active ingredients.

The investigation revealed that Zach System Corporation is a subdivision of Zambon Company, SPA, not Zach System SPA.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to correct the parent company name of the subject firm to read Zambon Company, SPA.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-74,467 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Zach System Corporation, a subdivision of Zambon Company, SPA, including on-site leased workers of Turner Industries and Go Johnson, La Porte, Texas, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 3, 2009, through October 1, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 23rd day of November 2010.

Elliott S. Kushner,Certifying Officer, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

General Motors Company Formerly
Known as General Motors Corporation
Willow Run Transmission Plant
Including On-Site Leased Workers
From Aerotek, Securitas, Knight
Management, PLMSI, and ACRO,
Ypsilanti, MI; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for
Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 7, 2010, applicable to workers of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission Plant, Ypsilanti, Michigan. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 26, 2010 (75 FR 43558). The notice was amended on July 30, 2010 to include on-site leased workers from Aerotek. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 13, 2010 (75 FR 49527).

At the request of the state, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of automotive transmissions and transmission components.

The company reports that workers leased from Securitas, Knight Management, PLMSI and Acro were employed on-site at the Ypsilanti, Michigan location of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission Plant. The Department has determined that on-site workers from Securitas, Knight Management, PLMSI and Acro were sufficiently under the control of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission Plant to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Securitas, Knight Management, PLMSI and Acro working on-site at the Ypsilanti, Michigan location of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission Plant.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-72,319 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission

Plant, including on-site leased workers from Aerotek, Securitas, Knight Management, PLMSI, and Acro, Ypsilanti, Michigan, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 14, 2008, through July 7, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 18th day of November 2010.
