Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC, Including Workers Whose Wages Were Reported Under Barclays Capital Real Estate, d/b/a HomEQ Servicing, North Highlands, CA; Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC, Including Workers Whose Wages Were Reported Under Barclays Capital Real Estate, D/B/A HomEQ Servicing, Raleigh, NC; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (“Act”), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on November 23, 2010, applicable to workers of Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC, including workers whose wages were reported under HomEQ Servicing, North Highland, California. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 8, 2010 (75 FR 76488). The notice as amended on December 17, 2010 to include workers whose wages were reported under HomEQ Services. The notice was published in the Federal Register on January 3, 2011 (76 FR 178).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers supply loan servicing.

New information shows that workers separated from employment at the North Highland, California and Raleigh, North Carolina locations of Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC had their wages reported through a separated unemployment insurance (UI) tax account under the name Barclays Capital Real Estate, d/b/a HomEQ Servicing.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department’s certification is to include all workers the North Highlands, California and the Raleigh, North Carolina locations of Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC who were adversely affected by a shift in loan services to a foreign country.

The amended notice applicable to TA–W–74,610 and TA–W–74,610A are hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC, including workers whose wages were reported under Barclays Capital Real Estate, d/b/a HomEQ Servicing, North Highland, California (TA–W–74,610), and Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC, including workers whose wages were reported under Barclays Capital Real Estate, d/b/a HomEQ Servicing, Raleigh, North Carolina (TA–W–74,610A), who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 7, 2009, through November 23, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 4th day of January 2011.

Michael W. Jaffe,
Certifying Officer, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Croscill Acquisition, LLC, Currently Known as Croscill Home, LLC, Plant No. 8, Oxford, NC; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (“Act”), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 25, 2009, applicable to workers of Croscill Acquisition, LLC, formerly doing business as Royal Home Fashions, a subsidiary of Croscill, Inc., Plant No. 8, Oxford, North Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 5, 2009 (74 FR 57342). The workers are engaged in the supply of warehousing and distribution services of household products, and are separately identifiable from workers producing samples at the same location.

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. It was determined that the correct name of the subject firm should read Croscill Acquisition, LLC, currently known as Croscill Home, LLC, Plant No. 8. Some workers separated from employment at Croscill Acquisition, LLC had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account under the name Croscill Acquisition, LLC currently known as Croscill Home, LLC.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department’s certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by the acquisition of warehousing and distribution services from China, Turkey and India.

The amended notice applicable to TA–W–70,044 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Croscill Acquisition, LLC, currently known as Croscill Home, LLC, Plant No. 8, Oxford, North Carolina, engaged in employment related to the supply of warehousing and distribution services, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 25, 2009, through August 25, 2011, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 4th day of January 2011.

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers by (TA–W) number issued during the period of December 13, 2010 through December 17, 2010.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for workers of a primary firm and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222(a) of the Act must be met.

I. Under Section 222(a)(2)(A), the following must be satisfied:

(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers’ firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) The sales or production, or both, of such firm have decreased absolutely; and

(3) One of the following must be satisfied:

(A) Imports of articles or services like or directly competitive with articles produced or services supplied by such firm have increased;

(B) Imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles into which one or more component parts produced by such firm are directly incorporated, have increased;

(C) Imports of articles directly incorporating one or more component parts produced outside the United States that are like or directly competitive with imports of articles incorporating one or more component parts produced by such firm have increased;

(D) Imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced directly using services supplied by such firm, have increased; and

(4) The increase in imports contributed importantly to such workers’ separation or threat of separation and to the decline in the sales or production of such firm; or

II. Section 222(a)(2)(B) all of the following must be satisfied:

(1) A significant number or proportion of the workers in such workers’ firm have become totally or partially separated, or are threatened to become totally or partially separated;

(2) One of the following must be satisfied:

(A) there has been a shift by the workers’ firm to a foreign country in the production of articles or supply of services like or directly competitive with those produced/supplied by the workers’ firm; and

(B) there has been an acquisition from a foreign country by the workers’ firm of articles/services that are like or directly competitive with those produced/supplied by the workers’ firm;

(3) The shift/acquisition contributed importantly to the workers’ separation or threat of separation.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made for adversely affected workers in public agencies and a certification issued regarding eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance, each of the group
