Background

On February 2, 2010, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) published an interim rule with request for comments in the Federal Register at 75 FR 5225. The interim rule amended DHS regulations to:

- Conform the grounds of discipline and procedures regulations with those promulgated by the Department of Justice;
- Clarify who is authorized to represent applicants and petitioners in cases before DHS;
- Remove duplicative rules, procedures, and authority;
- Improve the clarity and uniformity of existing regulations; and to
- Make technical and procedural changes; and conform terminology.

DHS has received several requests to reopen and extend the public comment period on this interim rule. The interim rule was effective on March 4, 2010, and the changes made in the rule are and will remain in force and effect notwithstanding this notice.

Nevertheless, DHS has decided to provide an additional opportunity for the public to comment and will reopen the public comment period for an additional 30 days. DHS also is extending the original comment period until March 2, 2011 and will consider comments received throughout the entire public comment period in development of its final rule. Please visit <http://www.regulations.gov> to view the rule, comments received, and all supporting documents.
