Indian Trust Management Reform— Implementation of Statutory Changes

AGENCY: Bureau of Indian Affairs, Office of the Secretary, Interior.

ACTION: Interim final rule with request for comments.

SUMMARY: This interim final rule implements the latest statutory changes to the Indian Land Consolidation Act, as amended by the 2004 American Indian Probate Reform Act and later amendments (ILCA/AIPRA). These changes primarily affect the probate of permanent improvements owned by a decedent that are attached to trust or restricted property owned by the decedent. These changes also affect the purchase of small fractional interests at probate by restricting who may purchase without consent and what interests may be purchased without consent.

DATES: This interim final rule is effective on February 10, 2011. Submit comments by March 14, 2011.

I. Background

On November 13, 2008, the U.S. Department of the Interior published a final rule related to Indian trust management in the areas of probate, probate hearings and appeals, Tribal probate codes, and life estates and future interests in Indian land (73 FR 67256). The final rule updated regulations to, among other things, implement ILCA/AIPRA. On November 20, 2008, Congress passed a bill that made several changes to ILCA/AIPRA. On December 2, 2008, the President signed the bill into law. See Public Law 110-453. This interim final rule updates the affected regulatory provisions to reflect the changes that Public Law 110-453 made to ILCA, as amended by AIPRA.

II. Description of Changes

There are two main subjects covered by this interim final rule: purchase at probate and the treatment of permanent improvements. This interim final rule also makes additional, non-substantive clarifications.

A. Purchase at Probate

Public Law 110–453 amended statutory provisions regarding the purchase at probate of small undivided interests. Previously, ILCA/AIPRA had stated that an heir's consent was not required for the purchase of an interest that would pass to the heir through intestate succession if the interest passing was less than 5 percent of the entire undivided ownership in the parcel. The public law changed ILCA/AIPRA, to provide that the heir's consent is not required for the purchase of an interest, under specified conditions, where the decedent's interest in the parcel, rather than the interest passing to the heir, is less than 5 percent of the entire undivided ownership in the parcel.

The conditions specified in the public law for purchase without consent are that: (1) The interest is passing by intestate succession; (2) the decedent's interest in the land represents less than 5 percent of the entire undivided ownership in the parcel; (3) either the Secretary, under the Indian Land Consolidation Program on behalf of the Tribe with jurisdiction over the parcel, or the Tribe itself, purchases the interest; (4) the heir or surviving spouse is not living on the parcel; and (5) if the Tribe is the purchaser, the heir or surviving spouse is not a member or eligible to be a member of the Tribe.

Therefore, under the changes made by the public law, the consent of an heir is not required for purchase of an interest at probate that would pass via intestate succession, if the decedent's interest is less than 5 percent of the entire undivided ownership in the parcel, and if the Secretary or the Indian Tribe with jurisdiction, under the circumstances explained above, purchases the interest.

To address this statutory change, this interim final rule revises 43 CFR 30.163 to change the threshold for consent to whether the decedent owns less than 5 percent of the entire undivided ownership in the parcel, and to incorporate the new limitations regarding who may purchase at probate without consent.

B. Permanent Improvements

Public Law 110–453 amended ILCA/AIPRA to specify what happens to permanent improvements when someone dies owning both trust land, or an interest in trust land, and a permanent improvement, or an interest in the permanent improvement, attached to that trust land.

1. Rule of Descent When Decedent Died Intestate

The Public Law established a rule of descent for permanent improvements attached to trust or restricted property where the decedent owns an interest in both the permanent improvement and the underlying trust or restricted property. The rule of descent is that the decedent's interest in any permanent improvement attached to trust property will descend with the decedent's interests in the underlying trust property, where the decedent died intestate. This rule of descent will apply only if a Tribal probate code approved pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 2205, or approved consolidation agreement does not provide for a different descent. If a Tribal probate code approved pursuant to 25 U.S.C. 2205 or approved consolidation agreement specifies how permanent improvements will descend, then that code or agreement will govern. If there is a renunciation, then the person receiving the interest in the underlying trust or restricted land under the renunciation will also receive the interest in the permanent improvement.

The rule of descent applies only to decedents who died on or after December 2, 2008 (the effective date of Pub. L. 110–453). Therefore, if a decedent owned an interest in a parcel that is trust or restricted property, and also owned an interest in the house on that parcel, then ownership of the decedent's interest in the house passes to the heir(s) receiving the decedent's interest in the parcel, if (1) The decedent died on or after December 2, 2008; (2) there is no applicable and approved Tribal probate code or consolidation agreement among the heirs stating otherwise; and (3) the heir(s) have not renounced the interest in the parcel.

2. Presumption When Decedent Died Testate (i.e., With a Valid Will)

Public Law 110–453 also amended ILCA/AIPRA to establish a presumption for permanent improvements attached to trust or restricted property where the decedent owned an interest in both the permanent improvement and the underlying trust or restricted property. When a decedent dies with a valid will that devises the decedent's interests in trust land, the presumption is that the devise includes the interest of the decedent in any permanent improvements attached to that trust land.

The presumption applies only to decedents who died on or after December 2, 2008. Therefore, if a decedent owned an interest in a parcel that is trust or restricted property, and also owned an interest in the house on that parcel, then ownership of the decedent's interest in the house passes to the devisee(s) receiving the decedent's interest in the parcel, if (1) the decedent died on or after December 2, 2008; and (2) the will does not expressly provide otherwise.

3. Jurisdiction Over Permanent Improvements

As a general rule, the Department considers permanent improvements to be non-trust property, and OHA does not probate them. The Department does not keep an inventory of permanent improvements on trust or restricted lands, nor is the Department responsible for maintaining the covered permanent improvements on trust lands. Nevertheless, in cases where the decedent died on or after December 2, 2008, the Administrative Law Judges (ALJs) and Indian Probate Judges (IPJs) will include in probate orders a general statement of the substantive law of descent or devise of permanent improvements. The orders will determine the heirs or devisees of trust property and direct its distribution, as usual. The courts of competent jurisdiction that normally probate non-trust property (i.e., Tribal and State courts) would then apply the substantive rules of descent or devise, as stated in ILCA/AIPRA, to any non-trust permanent improvements, based on the ALJ's or IPJ's determination of heirs or devisees and their respective interests.

If the Tribal or State court has already completed the probate of the decedent's non-trust property by the time the ALJ or IPJ issues a probate order, the heirs or devisees may have the opportunity to petition the Tribal or State court to reopen the estate, if necessary, to reflect the proper descent or devise of the decedent's interest in any non-trust permanent improvements.

C. List of All Regulatory Changes Made by This Interim Final Rule

“Trust estate”

The interim final rule changes “trust estate” to “estate” in several sections: 25 CFR 15.1, 15.2 (definition of “you or I”), 15.12; 43 CFR 4.320, 30.100, 30.101 (definition or “you or I”), 30.110, 30.140. This is not a substantive change. This change has been made because “estate” is already defined to mean “the trust or restricted land and trust personality owned by the decedent at the time of death,” making the phrase “trust estate” redundant.

25 CFR Part 15

Section 15.2 What definitions do I need to know?

In the definition of “summary probate proceeding,” the word “does” is changed to “did” to correct the tense. This is not a substantive change; it is merely a grammatical change that is appropriate because the threshold amount will be determined as of a past date (the date of death).

Section 15.10 What assets will the Secretary probate?

The interim final rule deletes references to “estate” in this section to eliminate the redundancy in the phrase “trust or restricted land or personalty in an estate” and to better explain what the Secretary probates. For consistency, the interim final rule also changes the heading to this section from “Will the Secretary probate all the land and assets in an estate?” to “What assets will the Secretary probate?” This change clarifies what the Secretary probates by explaining what is in an estate, rather than referring to the term.

Section 15.202 What items must the agency include in the probate file?

This section addresses what items the agency must include in the probate file. Paragraph (e) requires that a certified inventory of trust and restricted land be included, and states that such inventory should include “accurate and adequate descriptions of all land and appurtenances.” The interim final rule deletes the phrase “and appurtenances” because BIA does not maintain records on appurtenances, and appurtenances have not been, and are not included in certified inventories. Deleting “and appurtenances” is consistent with the change that Public Law 110–453 made to the definition of “land” in 25 U.S.C. 2201(7). That definition used to read, “any real property, and includes within its meaning for purposes of this Act improvements permanently affixed to real property.” Congress deleted the reference to “improvements permanently affixed to real property,” and the definition now reads simply, “any real property.”

Section 15.203 What information must Tribes provide BIA to complete the probate file?

This section clarifies that a Tribal probate order, where one exists, is among the documents that the Department may request to complete the probate file. While not binding on the Department, the Tribal probate order may provide relevant information regarding heirship, paternity, adoption, marriage, divorce, or other relevant matters. OHA may also refer to the Tribal probate order for determinations about non-trust permanent improvements that may be relevant in cases involving consolidation agreements and renunciations.

43 CFR Part 4

Section 4.324 How is the record on appeal prepared?

The interim final rule amends this section to more accurately reflect the actual process as set forth in 43 CFR 30.233, wherein the ALJ provides the record to the LTRO after the probate is completed (rather than the agency providing the record to the LTRO). In the event of an appeal to the Interior Board of Indian Appeals, the ALJ or IPJ must also provide a transcript of the hearing to the LTRO, for inclusion in the record.

The interim final rule also updates the language, deleting the verb “conform” and instead using plain language to explain that the LTRO copies the record before sending the original to the Board and a copy to the agency to have available for public inspection. Where the current regulation specifies that the LTRO must send the original record to the Board by certified mail, the interim final rule adds “or other service with delivery confirmation” to allow for the use of delivery services such as DHL, FedEx, and UPS.

43 CFR Part 30

Section 30.100 How do I use this part?

In addition to replacing “trust estate” with “estate” in paragraph (a)(6), the interim final rule adds “or restricted” to clarify that probate of the estates of Indians who die possessed of trust or restricted property are governed by this part.

Section 30.101 What definitions do I need to know?

The interim final rule adds a definition of “covered permanent improvement” to this section to incorporate the definition from Public Law 110–453, which establishes rules of descent and devise.

In the definition for “summary probate proceeding,” the word “does” is changed to “did” to correct the tense. This is the same change made to the definition in 25 CFR 15.2, and is not a substantive change.

Section 30.102 What assets will the Secretary probate?

As in 25 CFR 15.10, the interim final rule deletes references to “estate” in this section to eliminate the redundancy in the phrase “trust or restricted land or personalty in an estate” and to better explain what the Secretary probates. For consistency, the interim final rule also changes the heading to this section from “Will the Secretary probate all the land and assets in an estate?” to “What assets will the Secretary probate?” This change clarifies what the Secretary probates by explaining what is in an estate, rather than referring to the term.

Section 30.128 What happens if an error in BIA’s estate inventory is alleged?

The interim final rule deletes the word “interests” from this section as superfluous because the phrase “trust property” includes any interests therein. This is not a substantive change.

Section 30.142 Will a judge authorize payment of a claim from the trust estate if the decedent’s non-trust estate was or is available?

The interim final rule changes “trust or restricted property” to “estate,” and changes “estate” to “property,” for clarity.

Section 30.143 Are there any categories of claims that will not be allowed?

The interim final rule adds the word “the” where it was inadvertently omitted.

Section 30.151 May the devisees or eligible heirs in a probate proceeding consolidate their interests?

The interim final rule adds that a consolidation agreement may include the interests of the decedent, the devisees, or eligible heirs in any covered permanent improvements attached to a parcel of trust or restricted land in the decedent’s trust inventory. The rule also adds “devisees or” where it was inadvertently omitted and simplifies the language by omitting the statutory references.

Section 30.160 What may be purchased at probate?

The interim final rule deletes the phrase “of a trust or restricted estate” because the meaning of this phrase is already captured in “estate.”

Section 30.163 Is consent required for a purchase at probate?

The interim final rule rewrites this section to incorporate the change Public Law 110–453 made to the threshold for consent. The threshold is now measured by the decedent’s percentage of ownership in a parcel, rather than the interest passing to the heir. The revised section also incorporates the change

Public Law 110–453 made allowing only the Tribe with jurisdiction over the interest or the Department, on behalf of the Tribe with jurisdiction, to purchase certain intestate interests without consent.

Section 30.167 How does OHA decide whether to approve a purchase at probate?

The interim final rule incorporates the change Public Law 110–453 made to ILCA/AIPRA, which specifies that, if multiple eligible purchasers make requests to purchase at probate, the heir, devisee, or surviving spouse may select the eligible purchaser.

Section 30.170 What may I do if I disagree with the judge's determination to approve a purchase at probate?

The interim final rule updates a section number reference to accommodate the new section 30.236.

Section 30.236 How are covered improvements treated?

The interim final rule adds a new section to detail how “covered permanent improvements,” which are defined in section 30.101, are treated. Remaining sections are renumbered to accommodate the insertion of this new section.

Section 30.238 May I file a petition for rehearing if I disagree with the judge's decision in the formal probate hearing?

The interim final rule updates a section number reference to accommodate the new section 30.236.

Section 30.243 May a closed probate case be reopened?

The interim final rule corrects a paragraph numbering error that resulted in two paragraphs (a)(2); the second has been renumbered (a)(3).

Section 30.262 When may a Tribe exercise its statutory option to purchase?

The interim final rule updates a section number reference to accommodate the new section 30.236.

Section 30.266 When is a final decision issued?

The interim final rule updates a section number reference to accommodate the new section 30.236.

III. Procedural Requirements

A. Regulatory Planning and Review (E.O. 12866)

This interim final rule is not a significant rule and the Office of Management and Budget has not reviewed this rule under Executive Order 12866. This rule implements statutory changes regarding permanent improvements owned by a decedent on trust or restricted property owned by the decedent and purchased at probate.

The changes regarding permanent improvements incorporate statutory changes regarding the rule of descent, in intestate cases, and a presumption, in testate cases, for permanent improvements attached to trust or restricted land, where the decedent owns an interest in both the permanent improvement and underlying trust or restricted land.

The changes regarding purchase at probate specify when an heir or surviving spouse's interest may be purchased at probate without his or her consent, generally restricting when such purchases without consent may be made. First, this interim final rule states that a purchase without consent at probate may be made only if the decedent's interest was less than 5 percent of the entire undivided interests in the parcel, which will be true in fewer cases than if the measurement were whether the interest passing to the heir is less than 5 percent of the entire undivided interest in the parcel. Second, this interim final rule restricts who may purchase without consent to the Secretary when purchasing the interest under the Indian Land Consolidation program on behalf of the Tribe with jurisdiction over the parcel, and the Tribe itself, in those cases in which the heir or surviving spouse is not a member or eligible to be a member of the Tribe.

(1) This rule will not have an effect of $100 million or more on the economy or adversely affect in a material way the economy, productivity, competition, jobs, the environment, public health or safety, or State, local, or Tribal governments or communities. This rule will have no effect on the economy because it merely updates the regulations to reflect changes in ILCA/AIPRA made by Congress.

(2) This rule will not create a serious inconsistency or otherwise interfere with an action taken or planned by another agency because the Department is the only agency with authority for handling Indian trust management issues related to probate. This rule does not affect the jurisdiction of Tribal and State courts over permanent improvements.

(3) This rule does not involve entitlements, grants, user fees, or loan programs or the rights or obligations of their recipients. The revisions have no budgetary effects and do not affect the rights or obligations of any recipients.

(4) These regulatory changes directly implement statutory provisions and do not raise novel legal or policy issues.

Overall, the impact of the rule is confined primarily to the Federal Government, individual Indians, and Tribes, and does not impose a compliance burden on the economy generally. Accordingly, this rule is not a “significant regulatory action” from an economic standpoint, nor does it otherwise create any inconsistencies, materially alter any budgetary impacts, or raise novel legal or policy issues.

B. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Department of the Interior certifies that this document will not have a significant economic effect on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.). It does not change current funding requirements or regulate small entities.

C. Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

This interim final rule is not a major rule under 5 U.S.C. 804(2), the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act. It will not result in the expenditure by State, local, or Tribal governments, in the aggregate, or by the private sector of $100 million or more in any one year. Because this rule is limited to the probate of Indian trust estates, land, and assets within the United States and within Tribal communities, it will not result in a major increase in costs or prices for consumers, individual industries, Federal, State, or local government agencies, or geographic regions. Nor will this rule have significant adverse effects on competition, employment, investment, productivity, innovation, or the ability of the U.S.-based enterprises to compete with foreign-based enterprises.

D. Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

This interim final rule does not impose an unfunded mandate on State, local, or Tribal governments or the private sector of more than $100 million per year. The rule does not have a significant or unique effect on State, local, or Tribal governments or the private sector. A statement containing the information required by the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (2 U.S.C. 1531 et seq.) is not required.

E. Takings (E.O. 12630)

Under the criteria in Executive Order 12630, this interim final rule does not affect individual property rights protected by the Fifth Amendment nor does it involve a compensable “taking.”

A takings implication assessment is not required.

F. Federalism (E.O. 13132)

Under the criteria in Executive Order 13132, this interim final rule has no substantial direct effect on the States, on the relationship between the national government and the States, or on the distribution of power and responsibilities among the various levels of government. This rule implements a statutory change, in Public Law 110-453, which establishes a Federal rule of descent and a presumption for interpretation of wills with regard to permanent improvements on trust or restricted land owned by a decedent. This Federal rule of descent and presumption for interpretation of wills will override any State rule of descent or presumption; however, the State (through the county courts) will continue to have jurisdiction to order the distribution of non-trust permanent improvements (in the absence of Tribal jurisdiction).

Because the rule does not affect the Federal government's relationship to the States or the balance of power and responsibilities among various levels of government, it will not have sufficient federalism implications to warrant the preparation of a federalism summary impact statement.

G. Civil Justice Reform (E.O. 12988)

This interim final rule complies with the requirements of Executive Order 12988. Specifically, this rule has been reviewed to eliminate errors and ambiguity and written to minimize litigation; and is written in clear language and contains clear legal standards.

H. Consultation With Indian Tribes (E.O. 13175)

In accordance with the President's memorandum of April 29, 1994, "Government-to-Government Relations with Native American Tribal Governments," Executive Order 13175 (59 FR 22951, November 6, 2000), and 512 DM 2, we have evaluated the potential effects on Federally recognized Indian Tribes and Indian trust assets and have identified potential effects. The Department engaged Tribal government representatives throughout development of the final rule that is being amended by this interim final rule. During those consultations, Tribal representatives requested one of the changes that Congress passed and that this interim final rule implements, specifically, that the consent requirements for purchase at probate be measured with reference to the decedent's ownership in the parcel, rather than with reference to the interest passing to the heir. Additional Tribal consultation regarding this rule is not required because it merely updates the regulations to reflect changes in ILCA/AIPRA made by Congress, amends internal agency procedures and makes minor technical changes.

I. Paperwork Reduction Act

OMB Control No. 1076-0169 currently authorizes the collections of information contained in 25 CFR part 15. OMB Control No. 1076-0169 authorizes 1,037,433 burden hours. This interim final rule clarifies an information collection requirement in section 15.203. This section requires Tribes to provide "any information" that BIA requires or requests to complete the probate file, and lists, as examples, a few specific items of information may be required or requested. The interim final rule adds to the specific items of information that may be required or requested a copy of the Tribal probate order, where one exists. This information collection requirement does not add to the number of responses, respondents, or type of information collected, and the time required to collect these additional items is covered by the 1,037,433 burden hours authorized under OMB Control No. 1076-0169. As such, a new submission under the Paperwork Reduction Act is not required. If you have comments on this collection, please submit your comments to the person identified in the ADDRESSES section of this notice.

J. National Environmental Policy Act

This interim final rule does not constitute a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment.

K. Information Quality Act

In developing this interim final rule we did not conduct or use a study, experiment, or survey requiring peer review under the Information Quality Act (Pub. L. 106-554).

L. Effects on the Energy Supply (E.O. 13211)

This interim final rule is not a significant energy action under the definition in Executive Order 13211. A Statement of Energy Effects is not required.

M. Clarity of This Regulation

We are required by Executive Orders 12866 and 12988 and by the Presidential Memorandum of June 1, 1998, to write all rules in plain language. This means that each rule we publish must:

- (a) Be logically organized;
- (b) Use the active voice to address readers directly;
- (c) Use clear language rather than jargon;
- (d) Be divided into short sections and sentences; and
- (e) Use lists and tables wherever possible.

If you feel that we have not met these requirements, send us comments by one of the methods listed in the "COMMENTS" section. To better help us revise the rule, your comments should be as specific as possible. For example, you should tell us the numbers of the sections or paragraphs that are unclearly written, which sections or sentences are too long, the sections where you believe lists or tables would be useful, etc.

N. Public Availability of Comments

Before including your address, phone number, e-mail address, or other personal identifying information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal identifying information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal identifying information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

O. Determination To Issue an Interim Final Rule With Immediate Effective Date

This rule is being published as an interim final rule with request for comment, and without prior notice and comment, under 5 U.S.C. 553(b)(A) and (B). Under section 553(b)(A), rules of agency procedure or practice, such as the clarification concerning evidence the agency must provide, do not require a notice of proposed rulemaking.

Under section 553(b)(B), the Department for good cause finds that prior notice and comment are unnecessary because this rule amends the existing rule to conform with statutory changes and eliminates inconsistencies between the Department's probate regulations and ILCA/AIPRA as amended by Public Law 110-453. Prior notice and comment are also unnecessary with respect to the balance of the changes effected by this rule because they are minor technical amendments.

Under 5 U.S.C. 553(d)(3), the Department for good cause finds that this rule should be made effective upon publication in the Federal Register, rather than after the usual 30-day period. This finding is based on the reasons explained above.

We have requested comments on this interim final rule. We will review any comments received and, by a future publication in the Federal Register, address any comments received and confirm the interim final rule with or without change or initiate a proposed rulemaking.
