

On December 22, 2010, OMB—on behalf of DOT/FRA and other listed Executive Agencies—published a 60-day notice in the Federal Register soliciting comment on ICRs for which the agency was seeking OMB approval. 75 FR 80542. DOT/FRA received no comments in response to this notice.

The summary below describes the nature of the information collection requirements (ICRs) and the expected projected burden estimates over the next three years¹ for the ICR being submitted for clearance by OMB as required by the PRA.

Current Actions: New collection of information.

Type of Review: New Collection.

Affected Public: Individuals and Households, Businesses and Organizations, State, Local or Tribal Government.

Average Expected Annual Number of activities: 6.

Respondents: 6,300.

Annual responses: 2,100.

Frequency of Response: Once per request.

Average minutes per response: 10 minutes.

Burden hours: 1,062 hours.

Comments are invited on the following: Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the Department, including whether the information will have practical utility; the accuracy of the Department's estimate of the burden of the proposed information collection; ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and ways to minimize the burden of the collection of information on respondents, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget control number.

Authority: 44 U.S.C. 3501–3520.

Issued in Washington, DC, on February 22, 2011.

Kimberly Coronel,

Director, Office of Financial Management, Federal Railroad Administration.
