RIN 1651–AA81

Clarification of Countries and Geographic Areas Eligible for Participation in the Guam-Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands Visa Waiver Program

AGENCY: U.S. Customs and Border Protection, DHS.

ACTION: Interim final rule; solicitation of comments.

SUMMARY: This interim final rule amends Department of Homeland Security regulations to clarify that individuals holding British National (Overseas) (BN(O)) passports as a result of their connection to the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (Hong Kong) are eligible for participation in the Guam-Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) Visa Waiver Program. The Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program allows certain nonimmigrant aliens to enter Guam and/or the CNMI as nonimmigrant visitors for business or pleasure without a visa for a period of authorized stay not to exceed forty-five days. This interim final rule provides that beginning May 23, 2011, individuals holding BN(O) passports as a result of their connection to Hong Kong and traveling to Guam and/or the CNMI under the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program on such BN(O) passport must present it and a Hong Kong identification card.

I. Public Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments on all aspects of this interim final rule. U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) also invites comments on the economic, environmental or federalism effects of this rule. We urge commenters to reference a specific portion of the rule, explain the reason for any recommended change, and include data, information, or authorities that support such recommended change.

II. Background

A. Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program

Section 702 of the Consolidated Natural Resources Act of 2008 (CNRA), Public Law 110–229, 122 Stat. 754, 854, subject to a transition period, extends the immigration laws of the United States to the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI) and provides for a visa waiver program for travel to Guam and/or the CNMI. See sections 212 and 214 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), as amended (8 U.S.C. 1182 and 1184). On January 16, 2009, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), through CBP, issued an interim final rule in the Federal Register replacing the then-existing Guam Visa Waiver Program with the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program and setting forth the requirements for nonimmigrant visitors seeking admission into Guam and/or the CNMI under the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program. See 74 FR 2824.

The January 2009 rule provided that, beginning June 1, 2009, DHS would begin the administration and enforcement of the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program. This program allows nonimmigrant visitors to seek admission for business or pleasure for entry into Guam and/or the CNMI without a visa for a period of authorized stay not to exceed forty-five days. On March 31, 2009, the Secretary of Homeland Security, after the necessary consultations, announced the delayed start of the transition period until November 28, 2009. On May 28, 2009, a technical amendment to the January 2009 rule was published, extending the implementation date of the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program from June 1, 2009 to November 28, 2009. See 74 FR 25387.

The January 2009 rule lists the countries and geographic areas from which otherwise eligible individuals may travel to Guam and/or the CNMI under the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program. Among those countries and geographic areas listed are Hong Kong and the United Kingdom. The January 2009 rule allows individuals possessing a Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (SAR) passport and Hong Kong identification card as a result of their connection to Hong Kong to travel under the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program. The January 2009 rule does not address the eligibility of individuals holding British National (Overseas) (BN(O)) passports as a result of their connection to Hong Kong for travel to Guam and/or the CNMI under the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program, and questions have arisen about their eligibility for travel under that program.

B. British Nationals (Overseas)

On July 1, 1997, sovereignty over Hong Kong reverted from the United Kingdom to the People's Republic of China, establishing Hong Kong as a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China. In the years prior to the reversion, the United Kingdom created a new category of British nationality, British National (Overseas) (BN(O)). A person who was considered a British national by his or her connection with Hong Kong, as defined in the Hong Kong (British Nationality) Order 1986, was entitled to apply for BN(O) status, and to hold a passport in that status, by registration. BN(O) status is for life, but is not transferable, and registration ended in 1997. BN(O) passports, while British travel documents, do not confer the same rights as regular United Kingdom passports. BN(O) passports are issued to permanent residents of Hong Kong and do not confer the right of abode in the United Kingdom.

C. The Amendment

Under the Guam Visa Waiver Program, the predecessor to the current Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program, BN(O) passport holders were eligible to participate in the program as citizens of "the United Kingdom (including the citizens of the colony of Hong Kong)." 8 CFR 212.1(e)(3)(i). As a result of the reversion of sovereignty, Hong Kong and the United Kingdom are listed separately for the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program. 8 CFR 212.1(q)(2)(ii).

In light of the questions that have arisen regarding whether BN(O) passport holders qualify under the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program in the absence of a specific reference in the regulation to BN(O) passport holders, CBP believes it is appropriate to amend the regulations to clarify this issue. The amended regulation explicitly allows Hong Kong individuals holding BN(O) passports as a result of their connection to Hong Kong to travel to Guam and/or the CNMI under the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program. This clarification is based on the political changes in Hong Kong, the idiosyncrasies of the law of the United Kingdom discussed above, and the status of BN(O) passport holders as permanent residents of Hong Kong. Like Hong Kong SAR passport holders, BN(O) passport holders must present a Hong Kong identification card to travel to Guam and/or the CNMI under the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program.

In order to provide BN(O) passport holders sufficient time to become aware of and adjust to the Hong Kong identification card requirement for participation in the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program, the effective date of the amended regulation is May 23, 2011.

In addition, to provide further clarity in the regulation, DHS is relocating the existing regulatory requirements applicable to travelers from Taiwan under the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program, from a parenthetical regarding Taiwan within the country list at 8 CFR 212.1(q)(2)(ii) in place since the January 2009 rule, to a new paragraph, 8 CFR 212.1(q)(2)(ii)(B). This new paragraph contains substantively identical text to the parenthetical in the January 2009 rule. The regulation continues to require that in order to participate in the program as a result of a connection to Taiwan, an individual must be a resident of Taiwan who begins his or her travel in Taiwan and who travels on direct flights from Taiwan to Guam or the CNMI without an intermediate layover or stop, except that the flights may stop in a territory of the United States en route.

III. Statutory and Regulatory Requirements

A. Administrative Procedure Act

Section 702(b) of the CNRA directs that all regulations necessary to implement the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program shall be considered a foreign affairs function for purposes of section 553(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA). See section 212 of the INA, as amended (8 U.S.C. 1182(l)(3)). As was the case with the January 2009 rule that replaced the Guam Visa Waiver Program with the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program, this interim final rule is exempt from the notice and comment and 30-day delayed effective date requirements of the APA. See 74 FR 2824. DHS is nevertheless providing the opportunity for public comments. Further, a 60-day delayed effective date is provided in order to allow BN(O) passport holders sufficient time to become aware of and adjust to the Hong Kong identification card requirement for participation in the Guam-CNMI Visa Waiver Program.

B. Executive Order 12866

Section 3(d)(2) of Executive Order 12866 provides that the Executive Order does not apply to a regulation that involves a foreign affairs function of the United States, and thus it does not apply to this rule. Accordingly, the Office of Management and Budget has not reviewed this regulation under that Executive Order.

C. Regulatory Flexibility Act

Because this rule is being issued as an interim final rule on the foreign affairs function of the United States, as set forth above, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601–612).

BILLING CODE 9111-14-P

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

11 CFR Part 110

[Notice 2011-02]

Interpretive Rule Regarding Electronic Contributor Redesignations

AGENCY: Federal Election Commission.

ACTION: Notice of interpretive rule.

SUMMARY: Commission regulations require that a contributor's redesignation of a contribution for another election be in writing and signed by the contributor. The Commission construes the requirements of 11 CFR 110.1(b)(5) and 110.2(b)(5) to encompass a certain method of electronic redesignation. The method of electronic redesignation is described in the supplementary information below.

DATES: This Interpretive Rule is effective March 23, 2011.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Allison T. Steinle, Attorney, Office of General Counsel, 999 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20463 (202) 694-1000 or (800) 424-9530.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Commission regulations require that a contributor's redesignation of a contribution for another election be in writing and be signed by the contributor. 11 CFR 110.1(b)(5) and 110.2(b)(5). The Commission, however, recognizes that it should interpret the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. 431 et seq. ("the Act") and its regulations "consistent with contemporary technological innovations * * * where such technology would not compromise the intent of the Act and regulations." Advisory Opinion 1999-09 (Bradley for President); see also Advisory Opinions 2007-30 (Dodd); 2007-17 (DSCC);

1999-36 (Campaign Advantage); 1999-03 (Microsoft PAC); 1995-09 (NewtWatch).

During the course of an audit, the Commission recently determined that a specific redesignation practice provided the same degree of assurance of the contributor's identity and the contributor's intent to redesignate the contribution as a handwritten signature. Accordingly, the Commission determined that the practice met the requirements of 11 CFR 110.1(b)(5). The Commission believes it is important to inform the public, including political committees and their treasurers, of this determination.

The specific method approved by the Commission worked in the following manner: The political committee informed contributors through postal mail, with a follow-up e-mail, that, by visiting a Web site printed in the letter or by clicking on a link in the e-mail message that directed contributors to the Web site, they could redesignate their contributions to the candidate's other authorized committee if they wished to do so. Contributors were also informed that if they did not redesignate their contributions, they would then receive refunds automatically. Contributors who visited the Web site were asked to fill out an electronic form affirmatively authorizing the redesignation and verifying their identity by entering their personal information, including first and last name, address, phone number, e-mail address, occupation, and name of employer. Upon completing the form, contributors received a "receipt record," thanking them for their redesignation. The political committee also retained a record of each electronic redesignation in a database, including the personal information provided by each contributor making a redesignation, in a manner consistent with the recordkeeping requirements for signed written redesignations under 11 CFR 110.1(l). The Commission concluded that this process provided assurance of contributor identity and intent equivalent to a written signature.

Accordingly, the Commission construes the written signature requirements of 11 CFR 110.1(b)(5) and 110.2(b)(5) to encompass the method of electronic redesignation described above. Because the specific method approved by the Commission requires the contributor to provide personal information that can be verified against a committee's records, it provides a level of assurance as to the contributor's identity and intent comparable to that of a written signature. See Explanation and Justification for Final Rules on Contribution Limitations and Prohibitions, 67 FR 69928, 69934 (Nov. 19, 2002) (Commission declined to eliminate the written signature requirement for contributor redesignations).

The Commission encourages the use of innovations in technology to effectuate electronic redesignations. In that light, committees are advised that the Commission will consider other methods of electronic redesignation not explicitly addressed in this interpretive rule, provided that they offer a sufficient degree of assurance of the contributor's identity and the contributor's intent to redesignate. Unless and until the Commission initiates a rulemaking on this issue, such consideration may be provided on a case-by-case basis, including but not limited to the Commission's advisory opinion process or requests for Commission consideration of legal questions. See 2 U.S.C. 437f; 11 CFR part 112; Policy Statement Establishing a Pilot Program for Requesting Consideration of Legal Questions by the Commission, 75 FR 42088 (July 20, 2010). Committees are also advised that this interpretive rule does not alter or affect the timing or recordkeeping requirements of 11 CFR 110.1 or 110.2.

This Federal Register notice represents an interpretive rule announcing the general course of action that the Commission intends to follow. This interpretive rule does not constitute an agency rule requiring notice of proposed rulemaking, opportunities for public participation, prior publication, and delay in effective date under 5 U.S.C. 553 of the Administrative Procedure Act ("APA"). As such, it does not bind the Commission or any members of the general public, or create or remove any rights, duties, etc. The provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, which apply when notice and comment are required by the APA or another statute, are not applicable. See 5 U.S.C. 603(a).

Dated: March 16, 2011.

On behalf of the Commission.

Cynthia L. Bauerly,

Chair, Federal Election Commission.
