

optimal health and well-being of low-income individuals through improved nutrition and well-designed nutrition education efforts within the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). Under Section 17 of the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008 (7 U.S.C. 2026) the Secretary may undertake research that will help improve the administration and effectiveness of the SNAP. The nutrition assistance programs are a critical component to attaining FNS' goals. FNS defines SNAP-Education (SNAP-Ed) activities as those designed to increase the likelihood of healthy food choices by SNAP recipients and those eligible for but who are currently not participating in the program. SNAP has a significant stake in ensuring that nutrition education works to meet these goals. The proposed study titled "Evaluation of SNAP Education Practices, Wave II," entails the evaluation of three additional model projects and represents an expansion of the ongoing FNS Wave I study.

Need and Use of the Information: FNS will use the collected information to (1) determine which, if any, of the three demonstration projects can serve as good examples of SNAP-Ed delivery that meet the previously described FNS criteria; (2) identify lessons learned in terms of the design, planning, and implementation process and provide recommendations to FNS on how these interventions could be improved to potentially enhance outcomes; and (3) determine which, if any, of the demonstration project-led assessments provide methodologically robust yet logistically practical examples of project-level SNAP-Ed evaluation efforts. If this data collection was not conducted or conducted less frequently, FNS will not be able to determine or improve the administration or effectiveness of SNAP.

Description of Respondents: Individuals or households; State, Local or Tribal Government.

Number of Respondents: 4,717.

Frequency of Responses: Reporting: On occasion.

Total Burden Hours: 2,133.

Bureau of Industry and Security

Action Affecting Export Privileges; Credit International Trading Co. Ltd; In the Matter of: Credit International Trading Co, Ltd (11th Institute), No. 2 Zhong Guan Cun Nan Street, Haidian District, Beijing 100039, People's Republic of China and No 9A Dongtucheng Road, Heping Street, Chaoyang District, Beijing, People's Republic of China;

Order Making Order Denying Export Privileges of Ruo Ling Wang Applicable to Related Person Credit International Trading Company

Pursuant to Sections 766.25(h) and 766.23 of the Export Administration Regulations¹ ("EAR"), the Bureau of Industry and Security ("BIS"), U.S. Department of Commerce, through its

Office of Export Enforcement ("OEE"), has requested that I make the Denial Order that was imposed against the individual Ruo Ling Wang ("Wang") on April 18, 2006 (71 Fed. Reg. 23897, April 25, 2006) applicable to Credit International Trading Co, Ltd (11th Institute), ("Credit International"), with addresses at: No. 2 Zhong Guan Cun Nan Street, Haidian District, Beijing 100039, People's Republic of China, and No 9A Dongtucheng Road, Heping Street, Chaoyang District, Beijing, People's Republic of China, (hereinafter, the "Related Person"), as a person related to Wang.

Section 766.23 of the EAR provides that "[i]n order to prevent evasion, certain types of orders under this part may be made applicable not only to the respondent, but also to other persons then or thereafter related to the respondent by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business. Orders that may be made applicable to related persons include those that deny or affect export privileges * * *." 15 CFR 766.23(a).

On April 18, 2006, then Director of Office of Exporter Services issued an Order pursuant to Section 11(h) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (currently codified at 50 U.S.C. app. §§ 2401-2420 (2000)) ("Act")² and Section 766.25 of the EAR denying the export privileges under the Regulations of Wang for 10 years. The Order was based on Wang's conviction of violating the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq. (2000)) ("IEEPA"). Wang was convicted of knowingly and willfully making a false statement and concealing a material fact from the Bureau of Industry Security ("BIS") and the former U.S. Customs Service.

BIS has presented evidence that indicates that Credit International is related to Wang by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business, and that it is necessary to add this entity to the Wang Denial Order in order to avoid evasion of that Order. The basis for naming Credit International to the Wang Denial Order is that Wang acting for, as, or on behalf of Credit International, is actively involved in attempting to procure items for export from the United States.

As provided in Section 766.23 of the EAR, I gave notice to Credit International that its export privileges under the EAR could be denied for up to 10 years due to its relationship with Wang and that BIS believes naming Credit International as a related party to Wang would be necessary to prevent evasion of a denial order imposed against Wang. In providing such notice, I gave Credit International an opportunity to oppose its addition to the Wang Denial Order as a related party. Having received no submission, I have decided, following consultations with BIS's Office of Export Enforcement, including its Director, to name Credit International as a Related Person to the Wang Denial Order, thereby denying Credit International export privileges for 10 years from the date of Wang's conviction.

I have also decided to revoke all licenses issued pursuant to the Act or EAR in which Credit International had an interest at the time of Wang's conviction. The 10-year denial period will end on May 2, 2015.

Accordingly, it is hereby

Ordered

First, that having been provided notice and opportunity for comment as provided in Sections 766.25 and 766.23 of the Export Administration Regulations (the "Regulations"), the following entity, Credit International Trading Co., Ltd. (11th Institute) ("Credit International"), with last known addresses at No. 2 Zhong Guan Cun Nan Street, Haidian District, Beijing 100039, People's Republic of China, and No 9A Dongtucheng Road, Heping Street, Chaoyang District, Beijing, People's Republic of China has been determined to be related to Wang by affiliation, ownership, control, or position of responsibility in the conduct of trade or related services, and it has been deemed necessary to make the Order denying the export privileges of Wang applicable to Credit International in order to prevent evasion of the Wang Denial Order.

Second, that the denial of export privileges described in the Wang Denial Order, which was published in the Federal Register on April 25, 2006 at 71 FR 23896, shall be made applicable to Credit International until its expiration on May 2, 2015, as follows:

I. Credit International, with last known addresses at No. 2 Zhong Guan Cun Nan Street, Haidian District, Beijing 100039, People's Republic of China, and No 9A Dongtucheng Road, Heping Street, Chaoyang District, Beijing, People's Republic of China, and when

² 50 U.S.C. app. §§ 2401-2420 (2000). Since August 21, 2001, the Act has been in lapse and the President, through Executive Order 13222 of August 17, 2001 (3 CFR, 2001 Comp. 783 (2002)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent being that of August 12, 2010 (75 FR 50681 (Aug. 16, 2010)), has continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq. (2000)).
