In March 2011, Canada and the EU entered into an MOU in connection with the EC-Beef Hormones dispute, in which Canada was a co-complainant with the United States. The Canada-EU MOU provides for additional amounts in the TRQ specified in the U.S.-EU MOU: 1,500 metric tons in the first phase, and 3,200 metric tons in a possible second phase starting in August 2012.

B. Termination of the Remaining Additional Duties

As a result of the decision of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, the Trade Representative has decided to terminate the additional duties imposed in connection with the EC-Beef Hormones dispute, effective with respect to (a) products that are entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after the date of publication of this notice, (b) products that were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption after July 29, 2007 where the entry is unliquidated on the date of publication of this notice, and (c) products that were entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption after July 29, 2007, where the liquidation of the entry is not final. C. Continued Monitoring and Implementation of the MOU

Until the entry into force of the possible second phase of the MOU in August 2012, the United States retains the right under the MOU to impose additional duties on the reduced list of products subject to additional duties after March 23, 2009 (reprinted in the Annex of the notice published on September 24, 2009). The United States also continues to have an authorization from the WTO DSB to suspend concessions on EU products in the amount of $116.8 million per year. At this time, however, the MOU is operating successfully by providing increased market access to U.S. beef producers. In light of the currently successful implementation of the MOU, the fact that all additional duties would have to be removed in August 2012 under a possible second phase of the MOU, and to encourage continued cooperation under the MOU, the Trade Representative has determined not to take steps at this time to exercise U.S. rights to impose additional duties on EU products in connection with the EC-Beef Hormones dispute.

The Trade Representative will continue to monitor EU implementation of the MOU and other developments affecting market access for U.S. beef products. If implementation of the MOU and other developments do not proceed as contemplated, the Trade Representative will proceed to consider additional actions under Section 301 of the Trade Act.
