FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

RIN 3064–AD83

Disclosure of Information; Privacy Act Regulations; Notice and Amendments

AGENCY: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

ACTION: Interim rule with request for comments.

SUMMARY: The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Act), abolished the Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) and redistributed, as of July 21, 2011, the statutorily prescribed transfer date (Transfer Date), the functions and regulations of the OTS relating to savings and loan holding companies, Federal savings associations, and State savings associations to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB), the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), and the FDIC, respectively. The Board of Directors has determined that, effective on the Transfer Date, the OTS Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and Privacy Act (PA) regulations will not be enforced by the FDIC and that, instead, all FOIA and PA issues will be addressed under the FDIC's regulations involving disclosure of information and the PA, as amended. In taking this action the FDIC's goal is to avoid potential confusion and uncertainty that may arise regarding information concerning State savings associations after the Transfer Date.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The Act, signed into law on July 21, 2010, provides for a substantial reorganization of the regulation of savings associations and their holding companies. Beginning July 21, 2011, the Transfer Date established in Dodd-Frank, functions formerly performed by the OTS will be divided among the FRB, OCC, and FDIC. Section 316(b) of the Act provides that all orders, resolutions, determinations, and regulations issued, made, prescribed, or allowed to become effective by the OTS that were in effect on the day before the Transfer Date continue in effect and are enforceable by the appropriate successor Federal banking agency until modified, terminated, set aside, or superseded in accordance with applicable law by such successor agency, by any court of competent jurisdiction, or by operation of law. Section 323(b) also provides for the transfer on the Transfer Date of OTS property, including books, accounts, records, reports, files, memoranda, paper, reports of examination, work papers, and correspondence relating to such reports, to the respective agencies, that were used by the OTS on the day before the Transfer Date to support OTS functions.

Section 316(c) of the Act further provides for the identification of OTS regulations relating to the supervision of State savings associations to be transferred to the FDIC. The FDIC does not intend to continue or enforce existing OTS regulations regarding the Freedom of Information Act or Privacy Act.

II. The Interim Rule

The OTS regulations governing Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act issues are contained in 12 CFR parts 503 and 505. Because the OTS, unlike the FDIC, is a component part of the Department of the Treasury (Treasury), the OTS rules supplement Treasury's

FOIA and PA regulations. 12 CFR parts 309 and 310 of the FDIC's regulations also implement the relevant provisions of the FOIA and PA, but do not rely on Treasury's regulations. Both the OTS and FDIC rules describe the agency processes and procedures regarding FOIA and PA issues.

The Act provides for a 90 day "wind down" period for the OTS beginning on the Transfer date and it will cease operating as a Federal banking agency on July 21, 2011. Because the OTS' functions and property relating to State savings associations will transfer to the FDIC on the Transfer Date, the FDIC believes that the existence of two sets of regulations addressing the same subject areas would lead to confusion concerning which rules and procedures govern FOIA and PA issues applicable to State savings associations. Therefore, the FDIC is providing the public with notice that the FDIC intends to apply the FDIC's existing FOIA and PA regulations to all records or other matters transferred from the OTS to the FDIC, as well as FDIC matters, as of the Transfer Date. In addition, the FDIC is making certain technical amendments to the FDIC's existing regulations to correct addresses and other matters that have changed since the FDIC's rules involving disclosure of information and the PA were last revised. Finally, the FDIC is substituting the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection for the OTS in section 309.06(b)(3) as a Federal financial institution supervisory agency, for purposes of section 309.6, to whom exempt records may be disclosed.

III. Section-By-Section Description of the Interim Rule

The Interim Rule revises parts 309 and 310 of the FDIC's regulations as follows:

Part 309—Disclosure of Information

Section 309.1 Purpose and scope. Section 309.1 is revised to indicate that the FDIC's disclosure regulations apply to the disclosure of information transferred to the FDIC from the OTS pursuant to sections 312 and 323 of the Act.

Section 309.4 Publicly available records. Section 309.4(b) is revised to change the address of the FDIC's Public Information Center.

Section 309.5 Procedures for requesting records. Section 309.5(b)(ii) is revised to change the facsimile number for the FDIC FOIA/PA Group. Section 309.5(b)(iii), (f)(4)(ii), and (h)(1) are revised to make changes to the FDIC FOIA/PA Group address.

Section 309.6 Disclosure of exempt records. Section 309.6(b)(3) is revised to substitute the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection and the Financial Stability Oversight Council for the OTS and section 309.6(b)(5) to replace the reference to "bank" with "depository institution" and make other non-substantive conforming changes.

Part 310—Privacy Act Regulations

Section 310.1 Purpose and scope. Section 310.1 is revised to indicate that the FDIC's disclosure regulations apply to the disclosure of information transferred to the FDIC from the OTS pursuant to sections 312 and 323 of the Act.

Section 310.3 Procedures for requests pertaining to individual records in a system of records. Section 310.3(b) is revised to make changes to the FDIC FOIA/PA Group address.

Section 310.4 Times, places, and requirements for identification of individuals making requests. Section 310.4(a) is revised to make changes to the FDIC FOIA/PA Group address.

Section 310.7 Request for amendment of record. Section 310.7 is revised to make changes to the FDIC FOIA/PA Group address.

Section 310.8 Agency review of request for amendment of record. Section 310.8(a) is revised to delete the "Senior Attorney" references.

Section 310.9 Appeal of adverse initial agency determination on access or amendment. 310.9(a) is revised to make changes to the FDIC FOIA/PA Group address.

IV. Effective Date of the Interim Rule

The Interim Rule will apply to all existing and future FOIA and PA issues involving State savings associations as of the Transfer Date. In this regard, the FDIC invokes the good cause exception to the requirements in the Administrative Procedure Act ("APA") that, before a rulemaking can be finalized, it must first be issued for public comment and, once finalized, must have a delayed effective date of 30 days from the publication date.¹

The FDIC believes good cause exists for making the Interim Rule effective immediately on the Transfer Date. Since the OTS will continue to function as a Federal banking agency until the Transfer Date and is a component part of the Department of Treasury, its existing rules will need to remain in place until the Transfer Date. On the Transfer Date, however, the OTS will cease functioning as a Federal banking agency and its responsibility for FOIA and PA issues relating to State savings associations will transfer to the FDIC.

As indicated above, the FDIC believes that the existence of essentially duplicate FOIA and PA regulations on the Transfer Date creates the possibility of public confusion. Therefore, the FDIC is providing this Interim Rule before the Transfer Date to provide clarity on this issue to the public and to facilitate a smooth transition of covered matters from the OTS to the FDIC.

For these reasons, in accordance with section 553(b)(B) of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), the FDIC has determined that good cause exists to waive the general notice and opportunity for public comment requirements of the APA. Similarly, the FDIC has determined that good cause exists to make this Interim Rule effective as of the Transfer Date.

V. Regulatory Flexibility Act

The Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601, et seq., (RFA) applies only to rules for which an agency publishes a general notice of proposed rulemaking pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553(b). As discussed above, consistent with section 553(b)(B) of the APA, the FDIC has determined that good cause exists in this case to waive the general notice and opportunity for public comment requirements of the APA; therefore, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 601(2), the RFA does not apply.

VI. Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act

The Office of Management and Budget has determined that the Interim Rule is not a "major rule" within the meaning of the relevant sections of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Act of 1996 ("SBREFA") (5 U.S.C. 801 et seq.). As required by SBREFA, the FDIC will file the appropriate reports with Congress and the General Accounting Office so that the Interim Rule may be reviewed.
