SUMMARY: The Department of Homeland Security published in the Federal Register of May 13, 2011 a final rule that amended its regulations to exempt portions of a Department of Homeland Security/U.S. Coast Guard—008 Courts Martial Case Files System of Records from certain provisions of the Privacy Act. Inadvertently the paragraph designator “12” was used in the regulatory text instead of “54.” This document corrects that error.

Accordingly, 6 CFR part 5, appendix C is corrected as follows:

PART 5—DISCLOSURE OF RECORDS AND INFORMATION

1. The authority citation for part 5 continues to read as follows:

2. In appendix C to part 5, the paragraph “12” following paragraph 53 is redesignated as “54.”

Dated: June 21, 2011.

Mary Ellen Callahan,
Chief Privacy Officer, Department of Homeland Security.

Correction

In direct final rule document FR 2011–14557 appearing on page 37408, in the issue of Monday, June 27, 2011, the following corrections should be made:

1. On page 37540, in the third column, the first two paragraphs under section B, “Review Under the Regulatory Flexibility Act,” are corrected to read as follows:

The Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.) requires preparation of an initial regulatory flexibility analysis (IRFA) for any rule that by law must be proposed for public comment, unless the agency certifies that the rule, if promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. As required by Executive Order 13272, “Proper Consideration of Small Entities in Agency Rulemaking,” 67 FR 53461 (August 16, 2002), U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) published procedures and policies on February 19, 2003, to ensure that the potential impacts of its rules on small entities are properly considered during the rulemaking process. 68 FR 7990. DOE has made its procedures and policies available on the Office of the
